Dear [ELECTED OFFICIAL / REGULATOR]:

AGL Resources is announcing today that we are combining with Nicor to create a leading natural gas distribution company with more than 4.5 million customers across seven states. A copy of the release is attached. I wanted to let you know about the transaction as soon as possible and provide some background on what the combined company will be able to offer its customers and communities.

The combined company will serve customers better and more efficiently through the benefits of scale and scope and by sharing best practices. Nicor is a company with as proud a heritage as ours, and it shares our commitment to providing customers with safe, reliable and cost-effective service.

We have a proven track record of successful acquisitions and integrations spanning the last decade. Our prudent acquisitions have allowed us to improve and provide services to our customers at a much lower cost, while taking an active role in supporting the communities we serve.

It is important to know that AGL Resources, expected to become a Fortune 500 company, will maintain its corporate headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia and locate its newly expanded gas distribution headquarters in Naperville, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago. Georgia has been supportive of our growth strategy and we are proud that we can enhance our corporate presence in Georgia while expanding our operations to Illinois.

We are excited about this opportunity. I will call you later this morning, but please also feel free to call me at your convenience if you prefer.

Best regards,
