Item 8.01 Other Matters.

The Company announced in a press release on December 7, 2010, the intent to scale back their development, fulfillment, and accounting departments in a non-paid furlough for the period December 20, 2010, through January 3, 2011. The furlough is being implemented as a cost saving measure, which coordinates with the seasonal slowdown in purchasing and basic operations due to school closures during the holiday period. The sales staff will continue to work during this period with an emphasis on the summer afterschool program market. A copy of the Press Release is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. See Item 9.01.
