ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction

The purpose of the acquisition of the securities of the Company beneficially owned by Chap-Cap was to acquire such securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business of purchasing, selling, trading and investing in securities.

Mr. Chapman has spoken with management of the Company regarding his desire for the Company to consider certain business strategies, joint ventures, recapitalizations, a full sale of the Company, sales of assets, mergers, negotiated or open-market stock repurchases or other extraordinary corporate transactions (collectively, "Potential Transactions"). On April 1, 2003, Mr. Chapman engaged in discussions with the Issuer's CEO and President, Mr. Michael A. McManus, Jr., regarding Mr. Chapman's view that the Issuer's shareholders would be better served by the Issuer's being merged into another enterprise through a premium change-of-control transaction or other form of liquidation. On April 14, 2003, Mr. Chapman sent a critical letter to Mr. McManus and the Board of Directors of the Issuer. The correspondence, dated April 14, 2003, is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

The Reporting Persons may in the future consider a variety of different alternatives to achieving their goal of maximizing shareholder value, including negotiated transactions, tender offers, proxy contests, consent solicitations, or other actions. However, it should not be assumed that such members will take any of the foregoing actions. The members of the Reporting Persons reserve the right to participate, alone or with others, in plans, proposals or transactions of a similar or different nature with respect to the Company.

The Reporting Persons intend to review their investment in the Company on a continuing basis and, depending on various factors, including the Company's business, affairs and financial position, other developments concerning the Company, the price level of the Common Stock, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, as well as other investment opportunities available to them, may in the future take such actions with respect to their investment in the Company as they deem appropriate in light of the circumstances existing from time to time. Such actions may include, without limitation, the purchase of additional shares of Common Stock in the open market and in block trades, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise, the sale at any time of all or a portion of the Common Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by them to one or more purchasers, or the distribution in kind at any time of all or a portion of the Common Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by them.

The Reporting Persons are engaged in the investment business. In pursuing this business, Chapman Capital personnel analyze the operations, capital structure and markets of companies, including the Company, on a daily basis through analysis of documentation and discussions with knowledgeable industry and market observers and with representatives of such companies (often at the invitation of management). From time to time, Chapman Capital analysts may hold discussions with third parties or with management of such companies in which the Reporting Person may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management or capital structure of such companies as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D of the Exchange Act, including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of or selling all or a portion of the Company or acquiring another Company or business, changing operating or marketing strategies, adopting or not adopting certain types of anti-takeover measures and restructuring the company's capitalization or dividend policy.

Except as set forth above and in Exhibit B, the Reporting Persons do not have any present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions required to be described in Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Each of the Reporting Persons may, at any time, review or reconsider its position with respect to the Company and formulate plans or proposals with respect to any of such matters, but has no present intention of doing so.

Mr. Michael A. McManus, Jr.
CEO and President
Misonix, Inc. (formerly Medsonic, Inc.)
1938 New Highway

Dear Mr. McManus:

Chap-Cap Partners, L.P. (CCP), the Delaware limited partnership advised by Chapman Capital L.L.C., owns over 422,000 common shares of Misonix, Inc. (hereinafter, "Misonix," "MSON" or "the Company"). Such an investment in the company you have been hired to manage amounts to approximately 6.4% of the Company's outstanding shares. We were able to acquire what appears to be the second largest stake in Misonix by mopping up the relentless vomiting of shares by several large shareholders in early April 2003. Though I do not know the identity of those who hurled their shares upon us, I imagine that they contracted a severe case of "stock poisoning" that induced such a gag reflex. With Misonix's enterprise valuation trolling the market's depths at around 50% of sales, MSON's owners clearly doubt your ability to bring the Company to sustained profitability.

Edgar Filing: MISONIX INC - Form SC 13D

I feel much compassion for those who have held positions in MSON since your arrival some four and a half years ago. Anyone who placed and kept the faith in your stewardship has lost 50% of their investment since you took MSON's corner office on November 2, 1998 (see Chart 1 below). As I have become accustomed to hearing excuse after excuse from you since our first conversation in October 2002, I suspect you may blame external forces (e.g., the stock market) for MSON's showcase of capital losses. To counter such anticipated pretext, I have provided Chart 2 below that exhibits the comparative returns between MSON's shares and several relevant market indices. As is plain to see, MSON's > 50% degradation under Mike "Mc-Minus" McManus greatly underperformed both the Nasdaq Industrial Index (down only 10%) and the less-than-all-star S&P 500 Healthcare Equipment Index (up over 30%) during your resume-wrecking tenure.

CHART 1

CHART 2

[Chart of Issuer's share price performance compared to that of the Nasdaq Industrial and S&P 500 Healthcare Equipment Indices during Mr. McManus' tenure]

Chap-Cap Partners' interest in MSON was aroused by its antecedent 13D stake in NWH, Inc. (NASDAQ: NWIR), on whose CEO-tolerant Board you have held a seat since October 1994. Since that fortuitously-timed acceptance of a directorship (legally and supposedly to oversee your long-time buddy Terrence S. Cassidy), NWH's common shares have doubled in value. There are investors who would not credit your arrival at NWH with the shares' ascent, particularly when the majority of this appreciation occurred following the 13D filing on December 13, 2002 by none other than Chap-Cap Partners, L.P. Yet, I would like to think that you played a minor role in moving NWH in the right direction, though its final fate remains relatively uncertain at best. Yet, when I see that MSON appears to have reported operating losses per share (ignoring litigation reserve reversals) in three of the last four quarters and flat-to-down revenues in half of them, I find myself pondering if support by MSON's Board of Directors for your continued leadership is warranted.

Given the enormous financial hemorrhaging that has accompanied your "bleedership" of MSON, I cannot help but wonder if you should have kept your professional focus on "mergers, medicine and mascara." Upon merging New York Bancorp in 1998, you created an exit strategy for that public company's shareholders at a price some 20 times that of the shares when you and Patrick Malloy led a successful 1990 proxy fight against entrenched management. Following your leadership at Jamcor Pharmaceuticals, Inc. from 1990-1991, you successfully served as Pfizer's vice president of Strategic Planning at a time of extraordinary development for that $200 billion leader in medicine. Having Revlon, Inc. on your resume may be something of an embarrassment today given that company's current financial condition, but in 1985 working hand-in-hand with corporate raider Ronald Perelman must have been a rewarding experience as you helped permanently define the rules of the takeover game. However, your run of good luck seems to have ended the day you took the CEO job at Misonix. At the risk of stating the obvious, your executive track record in the world of "medical, scientific, and industrial ultrasonic and air pollutions systems" has been no 20 bagger.

I have become increasingly concerned that your career assisting politicians such as President Reagan and cosmetics tycoons such as Ron Perelman have made you an incorrigible purveyor of lip service. Since October 2002, you have vowed that the owners of NWH, Inc. will not end up in a wretched mess such as occurred with Terrence Cassidy and the Pine Top Insurance scandal. When NWH subsidiary executive Dean Politi's name was listed as the contact to discuss ENS's Aetna connectivity agreement, but the bloke would not talk to the very owners of NWH who indirectly pay the salary supporting the lifestyle to which his wife Diane has become accustomed, you promised to correct this horrific breach of owner's rights. Yet, neither of your promises has been fulfilled, as both of these public company employees continue to treat their owners with utter disrespect. If you are nothing more than a career politician who got lucky being long a bank stock before Greenspan torpedoed interest rates, then I must reiterate something I've said for years, "Politicians and Diapers Need to be Changed ... Often for the Same Reasons."

I want you to go to sleep tonight knowing that Chapman Capital L.L.C. will be watching your every move as CEO of Misonix, Inc. Unlike the shareholders who preceded me, I will not breathe the hot air that you seem to naturally produce. I can't be bargained with, nor do I feel pity, remorse or fear. In addition, rest assured that I absolutely will not stop, ever, until the owners of the Company have seen the maximization of their investment.

Very truly yours,
