PROXY STATEMENT

The Board of Directors of Expedia, Inc. ("Expedia" or the "Company") is soliciting the enclosed proxy for use at the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") of Expedia to be held on Monday, June 18, 2002 at 10:00 a.m. in the Marymoor Room of the Doubletree Hotel, 300 112th Southeast, Bellevue, Washington for purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This Proxy Statement was first mailed to shareholders on May 13, 2002.

Shareholders who vote by proxy have the right to revoke their proxy at any time prior to the Annual Meeting by delivering a signed statement to the Secretary of Expedia at or prior to the Annual Meeting, by voting another proxy (including a proxy via the Internet or telephone) dated as of a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Only shareholders of record of common stock and Class B common stock at the close of business on April 30, 2002 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Our common stock is entitled to one vote per share and our Class B common stock is entitled to fifteen votes per share on each matter that common stock and Class B common stock vote together as a single class. As of March 31, 2002, there were 21,110,850 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding and 34,507,275 shares of our Class B common stock issued and outstanding.

In addition to our Board of Directors, our officers and other senior management may also solicit proxies. None of these individuals will receive any additional compensation for their solicitation services. Such solicitations may be made personally, by mail, facsimile, telephone or the Internet. We will pay persons holding shares of our common stock in their names or in the names of nominees, but not owning such shares beneficially, such as brokerage houses, banks, and other fiduciaries, for the expense of forwarding solicitation materials to their principals. We will also pay all of the costs of soliciting proxies.

A shareholder who abstains from voting on any or all proposals will be included in the number of shareholders present at the Annual Meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Abstentions will not be counted either in favor of or against the election of the nominees or other proposals. Under the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"), brokers holding stock for the accounts of their clients who have not been given specific voting instructions as to a matter by their clients may vote their clients' proxies in their own discretion. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be counted by employees of Mellon Investor Services LLC ("Mellon"), our independent transfer agent and registrar, and certified by the inspector of election who is an employee of Mellon.

Please note that, as a result of the merger transaction with USA Networks, Inc. ("USA"), our fiscal year changed to a calendar year ending December 31. Expedia filed a transition report on Form 10-K for the six-month period ended December 31, 2001 and this Proxy Statement relates to that transition period. All references in this Proxy Statement to years prior to 2002 refer to the fiscal year ended June 30 of that year and all references to the year 2002 refer to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our Board of Directors currently consists of thirteen members. Our Board of Directors has nominated each of the thirteen persons named below to serve until the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. The accompanying proxy will be voted in favor of the following persons to serve as directors unless you indicate to the contrary on your proxy. We expect that each of the nominees will be available for election, but if any of them is not a candidate at the time the election occurs, such proxy will be voted for the election of another nominee to be designated by the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy. The election of our directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting requires a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares of common stock and Class B stock voting together as a single class in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the election of the nominees to our Board of Directors.

each shareholder known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of our common stock or Class B common stock;

our Chief Executive Officer and our four other most highly compensated executive officers during the six-month period ended December 31, 2001 (collectively, the "Named Executive Officers"); and

Employment Contracts and Change-in-Control Arrangements

Employment Agreement with Mr. Barton. Effective as of February 4, 2002, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Barton setting forth the material terms of his employment. The agreement has a three-year term and, six months prior to the end of the term, we and Mr. Barton will enter into good-faith negotiations to extend the employment term. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Barton serves as Chief Executive Officer of Expedia and remains a member of our Board of Directors.

Compensation. Mr. Barton receives an annual base salary of $266,000 and is eligible to receive an annual bonus of 200% of his salary, payable 50% in cash and 50% in Expedia stock options based on achieving agreed-upon Expedia budget goals. $133,000 of the cash portion of Mr. Barton's bonus is guaranteed.

On the effective date of the agreement, Mr. Barton received (i) a grant of options to purchase 100,000 shares of USA's common stock at an exercise price of $28.83 and (ii) a grant of options to purchase 375,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $54.51. Such options have a ten-year term and will vest in four equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the effective date contingent upon Mr. Barton's continued employment with Expedia. Mr. Barton also received an initial grant of 25,000 restricted shares of our common stock, vesting contingent upon Mr. Barton's continued employment with Expedia through the third anniversary of the effective date of the agreement. Mr. Barton will be evaluated for future option grants in a manner consistent with similarly situated executives of USA and its subsidiaries.

Mr. Barton participates in welfare, health and life insurance and pension benefit and incentive programs adopted by Expedia on the same basis as similarly situated executives of Expedia, USA and their respective subsidiaries.

Severance. Upon a termination of Mr. Barton's employment by Expedia without cause or by Mr. Barton for good reason (as each term is defined in the agreement), we will continue to pay Mr. Barton his salary for the remainder of the term, as well as pay any earned, but unpaid, base salary and will pay Mr. Barton his deferred compensation balance. We will also pay Mr. Barton the pro rata portion of his annual bonus following the end of the fiscal year of his termination of employment (based upon satisfaction of performance goal formulas). In addition, he will immediately vest in all options and such options will remain exercisable for one year following his date of termination of employment. Although Mr. Barton is not obligated to mitigate any severance amounts, such amounts will be reduced by any compensation earned by Mr. Barton in the event that Mr. Barton becomes employed during the remainder of the term.

Change in Control. The agreement provides that upon a change in control of Expedia, all of Mr. Barton's Expedia options (and the USA options granted on the effective date) and other Expedia equity compensation will vest immediately, and such options will remain exercisable for one year from the date of the change in control, notwithstanding any termination of employment.

Restrictive Covenants. Mr. Barton is bound by a covenant not to compete with our business (or any of our subsidiaries or affiliates) during the term of his employment and for two years after termination of employment for any reason; but if the non-compete period extends beyond the severance period (under circumstances in which Mr. Barton had been entitled to severance pay), we will pay Mr. Barton $100,000 per year (pro rated on a monthly basis) to the extent we determine to continue the non-compete period beyond the period in which Mr. Barton is eligible to receive severance. In addition, Mr. Barton will be bound by a two-year covenant not to solicit our employees or customers (or any of our subsidiaries or affiliates) and a confidentiality covenant.

Employment Agreement with Mr. Stanger. Effective as of February 4, 2002, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Stanger setting forth the material terms of his employment. The agreement has a three-year term.

Compensation. Mr. Stanger will receive an annual base salary of $175,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual bonus of 100% of his salary, payable 50% in cash and 50% in Expedia stock options based on achieving agreed-upon Expedia budget goals.

On the effective date of the agreement, Mr. Stanger received an initial grant of options to purchase 50,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $54.51. Such options have a ten-year term and will vest in four equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the effective date of the agreement contingent upon Mr. Stanger's continued employment with us. Mr. Stanger also received a grant of 10,000 restricted shares of our common stock, vesting contingent upon Mr. Stanger's continued employment with us through the third anniversary of the effective date.

Mr. Stanger participates in welfare, health and life insurance and pension benefit and incentive programs adopted by Expedia on the same basis as similarly situated executives of Expedia, USA and their respective subsidiaries.

Severance. Upon a termination of Mr. Stanger's employment by us without cause or by Mr. Stanger for good reason (as each term is defined in the agreement), we will continue to pay Mr. Stanger his salary for the remainder of the term, as well as pay his earned, but unpaid, base salary and will pay Mr. Stanger his deferred compensation balance. In addition, Mr. Stanger will automatically and immediately vest in all of his then-outstanding equity-based compensation awards granted on or prior to August 2, 2001, and such options shall remain exercisable for one year following his date of termination of employment. Mr. Stanger is obligated to use reasonable best efforts to mitigate any severance payable to him.

Change in Control. The agreement provides that upon a change in control of Expedia, all of Mr. Stanger's Expedia options granted prior to August 2, 2001 and other Expedia equity compensation will vest immediately, and such options will remain exercisable for one year from the date of the change in control, notwithstanding any termination of employment.

Restrictive Covenants. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Stanger is bound by covenants not to compete with our businesses (or our subsidiaries or affiliates) and not to solicit our employees or customers (or our subsidiaries or affiliates) during the term of his employment and for two years after termination of employment for any reason. In addition, Mr. Stanger agreed not to divulge or disclose any confidential information of Expedia or our affiliates.

Employment Agreements with Mr. Bishop, Mr. Breakwell and Mr. Slyngstad. Effective as of February 7, 2002, we also entered into employment agreements with Mr. Bishop, Mr. Breakwell and Mr. Slyngstad. Each of these agreements has a term of three years. Mr. Slyngstad resigned as an officer as of March 15, 2002; he remains an employee of Expedia.

Compensation. The base salaries provided to Messrs. Bishop, Breakwell and Slyngstad pursuant to the employment agreements are $170,000, £124,800, and $170,000, respectively. Unless otherwise agreed by us and USA, the base salaries are subject to further review and may be increased at the discretion of our Chief Executive Officer, any such increases to be approved by our compensation committee. The executives are also eligible to receive discretionary annual bonuses.

The executives will be entitled to participate in company stock option grants after August 2, 2001 (except that such options will not accelerate and vest upon termination without cause or resignation with good reason).

The executives participate in welfare, health, and life insurance and pension benefits and incentive programs adopted by Expedia on the same basis as similarly situated executives of Expedia.

Severance. Under the agreements, upon a termination of the executives' employment by us without cause or a resignation by the executives with good reason (as each term is defined in the agreement), the executive will be entitled to: (a) the acceleration and immediate vesting of all unvested Expedia options granted to him on or prior to August 2, 2001, and any attendant warrants granted in connection with the merger; and (b) receive the salary, target bonus and welfare benefits (and any other damages to which he would be entitled) for the remainder of the term, less an offset equal to any amounts earned during the term from other employment, with no obligation to mitigate.

Restrictive Covenants. As a condition to entering into the agreements, each of these executives agreed to a non-compete for a period of one year from the date of termination for any reason. The non-compete applies to general online travel providers. Each of these individuals also agreed to a one-year non-solicitation covenant and a standard confidentiality covenant.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

During the six-month period ended December 31, 2001, Expedia's compensation program for officers was designed to attract and retain outstanding individuals with a compensation package comprised of competitive salaries, incentive bonuses, benefits and stock options. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approves guidelines and actual allocations for each officer's annual compensation package. These annual compensation packages are targeted to be in line with the 50th percentile of total compensation paid by comparable companies in the high-technology and other industries. The comparable companies selected for compensation comparison purposes differ from the companies included in the Morgan Stanley Internet Commerce Index, which is used in the Performance Graph included below.

The compensation program for executive officers focuses on long-term incentives and, therefore, officers' salaries are generally less than those paid by comparable companies in the Internet and technology industries. Individual salary levels are based on the particular officer's level of responsibility, historical performance, relevant experience and breadth of knowledge. Bonuses are payable pursuant to an annual incentive plan that was designed to reward performance on a fiscal year basis. No bonuses were paid to executive officers in the six-month period ending December 31, 2001; rather, bonuses will be paid in July 2002 in accordance with the pre-established performance goals under the annual incentive plan. The annual incentive plan for officers for the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2002 sets forth a target bonus for Richard N. Barton, Expedia's President and Chief Executive Officer, equal to 50% of his salary for the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2002 and for each of the other officers equal to 40% of their respective salaries for the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2002. Under the annual incentive plan for officers for the twelve-month period ending June 30, 2002, the compensation committee will take the sum of these target bonuses to establish a target bonus pool. If Expedia meets two objective performance metrics, then the target bonus pool may be increased by a maximum of 100%. Officers are eligible to receive anywhere from 0% to 200% of their target bonus depending on the size of the target bonus pool and how the compensation committee feels that the officer performed over the twelve-month period.

During the six-month period ending December 31, 2001, each officer was also eligible for annual stock option grants under Expedia's 1999 Amended and Restated Stock Option Plan. These options are structured to promote Expedia's success by aligning employee financial interests with long-term shareholder value. Stock option grants are based on various subjective factors, including each officer's responsibilities, their expected future contributions to Expedia, and their prior option grants.

The compensation committee reviews and approves stock option grants for Mr. Barton on a semi-annual basis. The compensation committee reviews all other compensation for Mr. Barton on an annual basis. As an officer of the company, Mr. Barton is subject to the same compensation guidelines as all other officers.

As indicated above, Expedia's compensation policy is primarily based upon the practice of pay-for-performance. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a limitation on the deductibility of nonperformance-based compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the Named Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee currently believes that in the future Expedia should be able to manage its stock option related compensation for the Named Executive Officers so as to preserve the related federal income tax deductions, although individual exceptions may occur.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

To the Board of Directors:

We have reviewed and discussed with management Expedia's audited financial statements as of and for the six-month period ended December 31, 2001.

We have discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

We have received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Independence Standards Board, and have discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP their independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, we recommend to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements referred to above be included in Expedia's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the six-month period ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

We have also considered whether the provision of services by Deloitte & Touche LLP not related to the audit of the financial statements referred to above and to the reviews of the interim financial statements included in Expedia's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2002 is compatible with maintaining Deloitte & Touche LLP's independence.

Performance Graph

The following Performance Graph compares the cumulative total stockholder return for Expedia, The Nasdaq Stock Market (U.S. Companies) Index (the Nasdaq Market Index), and The Morgan Stanley Internet Commerce Index (the Morgan Stanley Index). The Performance Graph assumes that $100 was invested beginning on the date of our initial public offering in November 1999 in each of Expedia and the indexes. Total return performance for the Nasdaq Market Index and the Morgan Stanley Index is weighted based on the market capitalization of the companies included in each index and assumes that dividends are reinvested. During the six-month period ended December 31, 2001, we did not declare or pay any dividends on our common stock. Immediately following the Performance Graph is a chart of the numerical plot-points that support the graph. We caution that the stock price performance shown in the graph below should not be considered indicative of potential future stock price performance.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Our Relationship with USA Networks, Inc.

On February 4, 2002, USA completed its acquisition of a controlling interest in Expedia through a merger transaction. Immediately following the merger, USA owned all of the outstanding shares of our high-vote Class B common stock, representing approximately 64.2% of our outstanding shares, and 94.9% of the voting interest.

in Expedia. On February 20, 2002, USA acquired an additional 936,815 shares of our low-vote common stock, increasing USA's ownership to approximately 65% of our outstanding shares, with USA's voting percentage remaining at 94.9%.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger, Microsoft, which beneficially owned approximately 63% of our common stock prior to the merger, exchanged all of its Expedia common stock for USA securities. Those Expedia shareholders who elected not to receive USA securities in the transaction retained their Expedia common stock and received 0.1920 of a new Expedia warrant for each share of Expedia common stock held. In addition to the warrants distributed to shareholders, we also distributed warrants to certain holders of Expedia stock options at the same 0.1920 ratio. The new warrants are traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol EXPEW.

USA has designated a majority of our directors (seven of the thirteen directors), including Mr. Diller who is Chairman of our Board. In addition, pursuant to the USA merger agreement, we have agreed with USA that our relationship will be governed by the following principles, none of which can be amended or waived without the approval of a majority of our independent directors:

USA or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and we or any of our subsidiaries, on the other hand, may engage in or own interests in businesses that compete with the other;

as long as USA owns at least 50.1% of our total voting power, we will not enter into or amend any material arrangements with USA or any of its affiliates without the approval of a majority of our independent directors; and there will be meaningful consultation between USA and our Chief Executive Officer in the selection of our independent directors.

In connection with the USA transaction, we received the right to advertising, marketing and promotion time, valued at $15 million for each of the five years after consummation of the merger, on the various media outlets related to USA. In addition, we received a two-year option to purchase a one-third interest in a new television channel to be developed by USA. The exercise price of the option will equal one-third of USA's cost, plus interest, up to the date of exercise. Finally, USA will make a capital contribution of $20 million within six months of the completion of the merger in lieu of offering Expedia a two-year option to acquire from USA all of the outstanding equity of National Leisure Group, Inc.

Conflict of Interest Policies

As part of the USA transaction, we adopted amended and restated articles of incorporation which include the following provisions governing the relationship between USA and its affiliates, on the one hand, and us and our subsidiaries, on the other hand:

Except as otherwise expressly agreed, our shareholders, including USA and its affiliates, may engage or invest in any business activity of any type or description, including those that might be the same or similar to our business or the business of one of our subsidiaries and neither we nor our subsidiaries or shareholders shall have any rights with respect to such engagement or investment or any income or proceeds derived from the business activity.

For as long as (a) USA owns common stock representing at least 20% of the voting power of all classes of our outstanding capital stock and (b) at least one person who is our director or officer is also a director or officer of USA, we will have no interest or expect that any interest would be offered to us in any investment or business opportunity or prospective economic advantage that is received by USA or an affiliate of USA. However, we do not relinquish any investment or business opportunity or prospective economic advantage that is offered to any person who is our officer and who is also a director of USA but not an officer or employee of USA and receives an opportunity in such person's capacity as our officer. Our amended and restated articles also provide that this provision, so long as USA owns common stock representing at least 20% of the voting power of all classes of our outstanding capital stock, cannot be amended or terminated prospectively without the approval of 80% of the total voting power of all classes of our outstanding capital.

Provisions found previously in our articles of incorporation governing the relationship between Microsoft and Expedia have been eliminated.

Our Relationship with Technology Crossover Ventures

As part of the private placement of our common stock with the TCV Funds and pursuant to a registration rights agreement dated August 2000, we registered under the Securities Act of 1933 all shares of common stock issued to the TCV Funds in the transaction, including shares issued upon the exercise of warrants issued in the private placement. Jay Hoag is a founding general partner of TCV and a Managing Member of Technology Crossover Management III, L.L.C. and Technology Crossover Management IV, L.L.C., which are General Partners of the TCV III Funds and TCV IV Funds, respectively. As part of the private placement, Mr. Hoag became a director of Expedia.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 AMENDMENT OF THE EXPEDIA, INC. 1999 EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

You are being asked to approve an amendment to the Purchase Plan, which was adopted by our Board of Directors in March 2002, subject to the approval of our shareholders. The amendment would increase the number of shares of Expedia common stock authorized for issuance under the Purchase Plan by 500,000 shares, to a total of 800,000 shares. As of March 31, 2002, there were 30,162 shares available for issuance pursuant to the Purchase Plan. Approximately 1300 individuals are currently eligible to participate in the Purchase Plan.

The following summary of the main features of the amended Purchase Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the amended Purchase Plan, which is attached hereto as Appendix B.

The Purchase Plan was originally adopted by our Board of Directors and was approved by our then sole stockholder, Microsoft, in October 1999. The Purchase Plan, which is intended to qualify under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), is generally implemented in a series of twelve separate consecutive six-month offering periods commencing on January 1 and July 1 of each year. The Purchase Plan is administered by our Board of Directors or by a committee appointed by the Board of Directors. Expedia employees (including officers and employee directors), or employees of any majority owned subsidiary of Expedia designated by the board of directors, are eligible to participate if they are employed by Expedia or any such subsidiary for at least 20 hours per week and more than five months per year. The Purchase Plan permits eligible employees to purchase Expedia common stock through payroll deductions, which may not exceed 10% of an employee's compensation, at a price equal to the lower of (a) 85% of the fair market value of Expedia's common stock at the beginning of each offering period or (b) 85% of the fair market value of Expedia's common stock on the last business day of each offering. All purchases are made on the last day of the offering period and no interest is paid on the payroll deductions held pursuant to the Purchase Plan during each offering period.

Participants may end their participation in an offering at any time during the offering period, and participation ends automatically on termination of employment. An eligible employee who ends participation may elect to participate in a future offering period.

The Purchase Plan provides that in the event of a merger of Expedia with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of its assets, our Board of Directors may make such adjustments as it may deem appropriate in the number, kind and price of shares available under the Purchase Plan and in the number of shares participants are entitled to purchase. Our Board of Directors has the power to amend or terminate the Purchase

Plan as long as such action does not adversely affect any outstanding rights to purchase stock thereunder and provided that shareholder approval is required for an amendment to increase the number of shares subject to the Purchase Plan. If not terminated earlier, the Purchase Plan will automatically terminate December 31, 2005.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the Purchase Plan is intended to be a summary of applicable federal law as currently in effect. State and local tax consequences may differ, and tax laws may be amended or interpreted differently during the term of the Purchase Plan. Because the federal income tax rules governing awards and related payments are complex and subject to frequent change, and they depend on the participant's individual circumstances, participants in the Purchase Plan are advised to consult their tax advisors.

The Purchase Plan is intended to qualify under Section 423 of the Code. Under Section 423 of the Code, a participant who purchases common stock through the Purchase Plan will not recognize any income, and Expedia will not be entitled to a deduction for tax purposes, at the time of the purchase for the difference between the fair market value of the common stock at the time of purchase and the purchase price (i.e., the discount below fair market value).

Generally, if the participant holds the common stock for at least two years after the date of purchase, the participant will include as compensation in the participant's taxable income at the time of sale or other taxable disposition of the common stock the lesser of: (i) the amount by which the fair market value of the common stock when purchased exceeds the purchase price (i.e., the discount below fair market value); or (ii) the amount, if any, by which the common stock's fair market value at the time of the sale or other taxable disposition exceeds the purchase price. The participant's tax basis in the common stock will be increased by the amount recognized as compensation and any further gain recognized on the sale or other taxable disposition will be treated, under current tax rules, as long-term capital gain. In general, no deduction will be allowed to Expedia with respect to any such disposition.

However, if the participant disposes of shares of common stock acquired under the Purchase Plan within two years after the date of purchase (a disqualifying disposition), the participant will recognize compensation income, and Expedia (or one of its affiliates) will be entitled to a deduction for tax purposes, in the amount of the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the date of purchase over the purchase price (i.e., the discount below fair market value) regardless of the amount received by the participant in connection with the disqualifying disposition. The participant's tax basis in the shares disposed of will be increased by the amount recognized as compensation and any further gain or loss realized upon the disqualifying disposition will be short-term or long-term capital gain or loss, depending upon the length of time between the purchase and the disqualifying disposition of the shares.

If an affected participant's total compensation from Expedia (including compensation related to purchases of common stock under the Purchase Plan) exceeds $1,000,000, such compensation in excess of $1,000,000 may not be deductible by Expedia under Section 162(m) of the Code. Affected participants are generally Expedia's Chief Executive Officer and the four most highly compensated executive officers of Expedia (other than the Chief Executive Officer) at the end of Expedia's taxable year. Excluded from the calculation of total compensation for this purpose is compensation that is performance-based within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code. It is expected that compensation realized upon the purchase of common stock under the Purchase Plan may not be performance-based and, therefore, that such compensation may only be deductible in accordance within the limits of Section 162(m) of the Code.

Vote Required and Board Recommendation

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock and our Class B common stock voting together as a single class represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting is required to amend the Purchase Plan. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the amendment of the Purchase Plan.

PROPOSALS OF SHAREHOLDERS FOR 2003 ANNUAL MEETING

Proposals of shareholders intended to be presented at the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders must be received by the Secretary of Expedia no later than February 1, 2003 to be included in our proxy statement and form of proxy related to that meeting.

For any proposal that is not submitted for inclusion in next year's proxy statement (as described in the preceding paragraph) but is instead sought to be presented directly at next year's annual meeting, notice of such proposal must be received by the Secretary of Expedia not later than the close of business on April 19, 2003, and not earlier than the close of business on March 20, 2003, and otherwise in compliance with our amended and restated bylaws.

Notices of intention to present proposals at the 2003 annual meeting should be addressed to the Secretary, Expedia, Inc., 13810 SE Eastgate Way, Suite 400, Bellevue, Washington 98005. Expedia reserves the right to reject, rule out of order, or take other appropriate action with respect to any proposal that does not comply with these and other applicable requirements.

AUDITORS

Representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP, independent public auditors for Expedia for the six-month period ended December 31, 2001 and the current fiscal year, will be present at the Annual Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Fees to our accountants for services rendered during the six-month period ended December 31, 2001

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements for the transitional period ending December 31, 2001 and for the review of the financial statements for the quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2001 were $208,775.

All Other Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP for professional services rendered to Expedia, other than services described above under Audit Fees, for the transitional period ending December 31, 2001 were $472,447. No fees were paid to Deloitte & Touche LLP for financial information systems design and implementation.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of the non-audit services by Deloitte & Touche LLP is compatible with maintaining the independence of Deloitte & Touche LLP.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors does not intend to bring any other business before the meeting and so far as is known to the Board of Directors, no matters are to be brought before the Annual Meeting except as specified in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. However, as to any other business that may properly come before the Annual Meeting, we expect that proxies, in the form enclosed, will be voted on these matters in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting such proxies.

PROXIES AND VOTING AT THE MEETING

Shares cannot be voted unless shares are voted via the Internet or the telephone, a signed proxy card is returned or other specific arrangements are made to have shares represented at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders are encouraged to specify their choices by marking the appropriate boxes on the enclosed proxy card. Shares will be voted in accordance with such instructions. Alternatively, in lieu of returning signed proxy cards, shareholders of record can vote their shares via the Internet or by calling a specially designated telephone number. These Internet and telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate shareholders' identities, to allow shareholders to provide their voting instructions, and to confirm that their instructions have been recorded properly. Expedia has been advised by competent counsel that the procedures that have been put in place are consistent with the requirements of applicable law. Specific instructions for shareholders of record who wish to use the Internet or telephone voting procedures are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. Shareholders who vote by proxy have the right to revoke their proxy at any time prior to its exercise by delivering a signed statement to the Secretary of Expedia at or prior to the Annual Meeting or by voting another proxy dated as of a later date (including a proxy via the Internet or telephone). Voting by the Internet or telephone is fast, convenient and the shareholder's vote is immediately confirmed and tabulated. Most importantly, by using the Internet or telephone, shareholders help us reduce postage and proxy tabulation costs. Shareholders should not return the enclosed paper ballot if they are voting over the Internet or by telephone.

APPENDIX B

EXPEDIA, INC.
1999 AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

Expedia, Inc. (the Company) does hereby establish its 1999 Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the Plan) as follows:

1. Purpose of the Plan. The purpose of this Plan is to provide eligible employees who wish to become shareholders in the Company a convenient method of doing so. It is believed that employee participation in the ownership of the business will be to the mutual benefit of both the employees and the Company.
2. Definitions.
 - 2.1 Base pay means regular straight time earnings, plus review cycle bonuses and overtime payments, payments for incentive compensation, and other special payments except to the extent that any such item is specifically excluded by the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board).
 - 2.2 Account shall mean the funds accumulated with respect to an individual employee as a result of deductions from his paycheck for the purpose of purchasing stock under this Plan. The funds allocated to an employee's account shall remain the property of the respective employee at all times but may be commingled with the general funds of the Company.
3. Employees Eligible to Participate. Any employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries who is in the employ of the Company or subsidiary on an offering commencement date is eligible to participate in that offering, except (a) employees whose customary employment is less than 20 hours per week, and (b) employees whose customary employment is for not more than five months in any calendar year.
4. Offerings. There will be twelve separate consecutive six-month offerings pursuant to the Plan. The first offering shall commence on January 1, 2000. Thereafter, offerings shall commence on each subsequent July 1 and January 1, and the final offering under this Plan shall commence on July 1, 2005 and terminate on December 31, 2005. In order to become eligible to purchase shares, an employee must sign an Enrollment Agreement, and any other necessary papers on or before the commencement date (January 1 or July 1) of the particular offering in which he wishes to participate. Participation in one offering under the Plan shall neither limit, nor require, participation in any other offering.
5. Price. The purchase price per share shall be the lesser of (1) 85% of the fair market value of the stock on the offering date; or (2) 85% of the fair market value of the stock on the last business day of the offering. Fair market value shall mean the closing bid price as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or, if the stock is traded on a stock exchange, the closing price for the stock on the principal such exchange.
6. Offering Date. The offering date as used in this Plan shall be the commencement date of the offering, if such date is a regular business day, or the first regular business day following such commencement date. A different date may be set by resolution of the Board.
7. Number of Shares to be Offered. The maximum number of shares that will be offered under the Plan is 800,000 shares. The shares to be sold to participants under the Plan will be common stock of the Company. If the total number of shares for which options are to be granted on any date in accordance with Section 10 exceeds the number of shares then available under the Plan (after deduction of all shares for which options have been exercised or are then outstanding), the Company shall make a pro rata allocation of the shares remaining available in as nearly a uniform manner as shall be practicable and as it shall determine to be equitable. In such event, the payroll deductions to be made pursuant to the authorizations therefor shall be reduced accordingly and the Company shall give written notice of such reduction to each employee affected thereby.

8. Participation.

8.1 An eligible employee may become a participant by completing an Enrollment Agreement provided by the Company and filing it with Shareholder Services prior to the Commencement of the offering to which it relates.

8.2 Payroll deductions for a participant shall commence on the offering date, and shall end on the termination date of such offering unless earlier terminated by the employee as provided in Paragraph 14.

9. Payroll Deductions.

9.1 At the time a participant files his authorization for a payroll deduction, he shall elect to have deductions made from his pay on each payday during the time he is a participant in an offering at the rate of 1% to 10% of his base pay on a whole percentage basis.

9.2 All payroll deductions made for a participant shall be credited to his account under the Plan. A participant may not make any separate cash payment into such account nor may payment for shares be made other than by payroll deduction.

9.3 A participant may discontinue his participation in the Plan as provided in Section 14, but no other change can be made during an offering and, specifically, a participant may not alter the rate of his payroll deductions for that offering.

10. Granting of Option. On the offering date, this Plan shall be deemed to have granted to the participant an option for as many full shares as he will be able to purchase with the payroll deductions credited to his account during his participation in that offering.

11. Exercise of Option. Each employee who continues to be a participant in an offering on the last business day of that offering shall be deemed to have exercised his option on such date and shall be deemed to have purchased from the Company such number of full shares of common stock reserved for the purpose of the Plan as his accumulated payroll deductions on such date will pay for at the option price.

12. Employee's Rights as a Shareholder. No participating employee shall have any right as a shareholder with respect to any shares until the shares have been purchased in accordance with Section 11 above and the stock has been issued by the Company.

13. Evidence of Stock Ownership.

13.1 Promptly following the end of each offering, the number of shares of common stock purchased by each participant shall be deposited into an account established in the participant's name at a stock brokerage or other financial services firm designated by the Company (the "ESPP Broker").

13.2 The participant may direct, by written notice to the Company at the time of his enrollment in the Plan, that his ESPP Broker account be established in the names of the participant and one other person designated by the participant, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, tenants in common, or community property, to the extent and in the manner permitted by applicable law.

13.3 A participant shall be free to undertake a disposition (as that term is defined in Section 424(c) of the Code) of the shares in his account at any time, whether by sale, exchange, gift, or other transfer of legal title, but in the absence of such a disposition of the shares, the shares must remain in the participant's account at the ESPP Broker until the holding period set forth in Section 423(a) of the Code has been satisfied. With respect to shares for which the Section 423(a) holding period has been satisfied, the participant may move those shares to another brokerage account of participant's choosing or request that a stock certificate be issued and delivered to him.

13.4 A participant who is not subject to payment of U.S. income taxes may move his shares to another brokerage account of his choosing or request that a stock certificate be issued and delivered to him at any time, without regard to the satisfaction of the Section 423(a) holding period.

14. Withdrawal.

14.1 An employee may withdraw from an offering, in whole but not in part, at any time prior to the last business day of such offering by delivering a Withdrawal Notice to the Company, in which event the Company will refund the entire balance of his deductions as soon as practicable thereafter.

14.2 To re-enter the Plan, an employee who has previously withdrawn must file a new Enrollment Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1. The employee's re-entry into the Plan will not become effective before the beginning of the next offering following his withdrawal, and if the withdrawing employee is an officer of the Company within the meaning of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 he may not re-enter the Plan before the beginning of the second offering following his withdrawal.

15. Carryover of Account. At the termination of each offering the Company shall automatically re-enroll the employee in the next offering, and the balance in the employee's account shall be used for option exercises in the new offering, unless the employee has advised the Company otherwise. Upon termination of the Plan, the balance of each employee's account shall be refunded to him.

16. Interest. No interest will be paid or allowed on any money in the accounts of participating employees.

17. Rights Not Transferable. No employee shall be permitted to sell, assign, transfer, pledge, or otherwise dispose of or encumber either the payroll deductions credited to his account or any rights with regard to the exercise of an option or to receive shares under the Plan other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and such right and interest shall not be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, or liabilities of the employee. If any such action is taken by the employee, or any claim is asserted by any other party in respect of such right and interest whether by garnishment, levy, attachment or otherwise, such action or claim will be treated as an election to withdraw funds in accordance with Section 14.

18. Termination of Employment. Upon termination of employment for any reason whatsoever, including but not limited to death or retirement, the balance in the account of a participating employee shall be paid to the employee or his estate.

19. Amendment or Discontinuance of the Plan. The Board shall have the right to amend, modify, or terminate the Plan at any time without notice, provided that no employee's existing rights under any offering already made under Section 4 hereof may be adversely affected thereby, and provided further that no such amendment of the Plan shall, except as provided in Section 20, increase above 60,000 shares the total number of shares to be offered unless shareholder approval is obtained therefor.

20. Changes in Capitalization. In the event of reorganization, recapitalization, stock split, stock dividend, combination of shares, merger, consolidation, offerings of rights, or any other change in the structure of the common shares of the Company, the Board may make such adjustment, if any, as it may deem appropriate in the number, kind, and the price of shares available for purchase under the Plan, and in the number of shares which an employee is entitled to purchase.

21. Share Ownership. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no employee shall be permitted to subscribe for any shares under the Plan if such employee, immediately after such subscription, owns shares (including all shares which may be purchased under outstanding subscriptions under the Plan) possessing 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of shares of the Company or of its parent or subsidiary corporations. For the foregoing purposes the rules of Section 425(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall apply in determining share ownership. In addition, no employee shall be allowed to subscribe for any shares under the Plan which permits his rights to purchase shares under all employee stock purchase plans of the Company and its subsidiary corporations to accrue at a rate which exceeds $25,000 of the fair market value of such shares (determined at the time such right to subscribe is granted) for each calendar year in which such right to subscribe is outstanding at any time.

22. Administration. The Plan shall be administered by the Board. The Board may delegate any or all of its authority hereunder to such committee of the Board or officer of the Company as it may designate. The administrator shall be vested with full authority to make, administer, and interpret such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to administer the Plan, and any determination, decision, or action of the administrator in connection with the construction, interpretation, administration, or application of the Plan shall be final, conclusive, and binding upon all participants and any and all persons claiming under or through any participant.

23. Notices. All notices or other communications by a participant to the Company under or in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have been duly given when received by Shareholder Services of the Company or when received in the form specified by the Company at the location, or by the person, designated by the Company for the receipt thereof.

24. Termination of the Plan. This Plan shall terminate at the earliest of the following:

24.1 December 31, 2005.

24.2 The date of the filing of a Statement of Intent to Dissolve by the Company or the effective date of a merger or consolidation wherein the Company is not to be the surviving corporation, which merger or consolidation is not between or among corporations related to the Company. Prior to the occurrence of either of such events, on such date as the Company may determine, the Company may permit a participating employee to exercise the option to purchase shares for as many full shares as the balance of his account will allow at the price set forth in accordance with Section 5. If the employee elects to purchase shares, the remaining balance of his account will be refunded to him after such purchase.

24.3 The date the Board acts to terminate the Plan in accordance with Section 19 above.

24.3 The date when all shares reserved under the Plan have been purchased.

25. Limitations on Sale of Stock Purchased Under the Plan. The Plan is intended to provide common stock for investment and not for resale. The Company does not, however, intend to restrict or influence any employee in the conduct of his own affairs. An employee, therefore, may sell stock purchased under the Plan at any time he chooses, subject to compliance with any applicable Federal or state securities laws. THE EMPLOYEE ASSUMES THE RISK OF ANY MARKET FLUCTUATIONS IN THE PRICE OF THE STOCK.

26. Governmental Regulation. The Company's obligation to sell and deliver shares of the Company's common stock under this Plan is subject to the approval of any governmental authority required in connection with the authorization, issuance, or sale of such shares.
