Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 5, 2007, Old Second Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Old Second), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger between Old Second, Old Second Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Old Second, and HeritageBanc, Inc., an Illinois corporation (Heritage) (the Merger Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Old Second Acquisition, Inc. will be merged with and into Heritage with Heritage as the surviving corporation as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Old Second. Following the consummation of the Merger, the parties intend to merge Heritage Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Heritage, with and into Old Second National Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Old Second, with Old Second National Bank as the surviving bank. The description of the Merger Agreement contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Old Second will pay an aggregate purchase price of $86.0 million to Heritage shareholders. The purchase price will be paid 50% in cash and 50% in common shares of Old Second. The per share value of Heritage stock in the merger will be $10,333, based upon 8,323 shares of Heritage stock currently outstanding. Heritage shareholders may elect to exchange each share held for either cash or common shares of Old Second. Shareholder elections will be subject to pro-ration if the results of the aggregate elections differ from the prescribed 50%/50% cash-stock split.

The Merger has been unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of each of Old Second and Heritage, and is subject to certain regulatory approvals as well as the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement by holders of not less than two thirds of Heritage s outstanding shares. Old Second and Heritage have made customary representations and warranties about their business and covenants pending the closing of the Merger, including covenants by each of Old Second and Heritage to conduct its business in the ordinary course and to cause a shareholder meeting to be held to vote upon the Merger Agreement. Each party has agreed not to (i) solicit proposals related to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or negotiations or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. Old Second will register under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the shares to be issued in connection with the Merger.

Each party also has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances. Either Old Second or Heritage may, with certain exceptions, terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by end of the day on May 1, 2008.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger, John Ladowicz, the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Heritage, will join Old Second s board of directors. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that Patrick Roe, President and Chief Operating Officer of Heritage, will join Old Second National Bank as Senior Vice President Regional Manager, overseeing Heritage s market regions.

The Merger Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms, contains representations and warranties of each of Old Second and Heritage. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what a shareholder might view as material, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Interested parties should read the Merger Agreement, together with the other information concerning the parties, including the information that Old Second publicly files in reports and statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Old Second and certain shareholders of Heritage have entered into agreements by which the shareholders have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction. A form of the voting agreement is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
