Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On February 16, 2011, Cowen Group, Inc. (the Company or Cowen) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Louisiana Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub), and LaBranche & Co Inc., a Delaware corporation (LaBranche).

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the satisfaction of the closing conditions, Merger Sub will be merged with and into LaBranche (the Merger) with LaBranche continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. As a result of the Merger: (i) each outstanding share of common stock of LaBranche, par value $0.01 per share (LaBranche Common Stock), other than shares held in LaBranche s treasury, will be converted into the right to receive 0.998 shares (the Merger Consideration) of Class A common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (Company Common Stock) and (ii) each outstanding option to purchase shares of LaBranche Common Stock will be cancelled for no consideration. Immediately following the consummation of the Merger, the Company shall cause LaBranche to be merged with and into Louisiana Merger Sub, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (LLC), with LLC continuing as the surviving company in such merger.

The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, so that none of the Company, Merger Sub or LaBranche, or any of LaBranche s stockholders generally will recognize any gain or loss in the transaction.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties for a transaction of this type. These include representations and warranties by LaBranche to the Company regarding, among other things, LaBranche s corporate organization and capitalization, the accuracy of LaBranche s reports and financial statements filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), the absence of certain changes or events relative to LaBranche since December 31, 2009 and certain specified financial conditions of LaBranche as of the date of the Merger Agreement. Similarly, the Company and Merger Sub made representations and warranties to LaBranche regarding, among other things, their corporate organization, the Company s capitalization and the accuracy of the Company s reports and financial statements filed under the Exchange Act and the absence of certain changes or events relative to the Company and its subsidiaries since December 31, 2009.

LaBranche and the Company have made customary covenants to one another in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, agreements (i) to continue conducting their respective businesses in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain specified kinds of transactions during that period, (iii) that each of LaBranche and the Company will hold a meeting of its respective stockholders to vote upon, in the case of the LaBranche stockholders, the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and, in the case of the Company stockholders, the issuance of the Merger Consideration, and (iv) that, subject to certain exceptions, the LaBranche board of directors and the Company board of directors will each recommend the adoption of the Merger Agreement and issuance of the Merger Consideration, as applicable, by their stockholders. In addition, LaBranche and the Company have made certain additional customary covenants, including, among others, not to (i) solicit or knowingly facilitate inquiries or proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, engage in discussions or negotiations regarding, or provide any non-public information in connection with alternative business combination transactions.

Edgar Filing: COWEN GROUP, INC. - Form 8-K

Closing of the Merger is subject to conditions, including approval of the Merger by holders of a majority of the outstanding LaBranche Common Stock, approval of the issuance of the Merger Consideration by the holders of a majority of the Company Common Stock entitled to vote at the meeting of the Company stockholders, LaBranche meeting certain specified financial conditions, there being no material adverse effect on the Company or LaBranche prior to the effective time of the Merger, the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, the effectiveness of the registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, covering the shares of Company Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, the approval for listing of such shares by NASDAQ and the delivery of customary opinions from counsel to each of the Company and LaBranche that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

RCG Holdings LLC (RCG), holding 33,576,099 shares of Company Common Stock as of the date of the Merger Agreement, which represented approximately 44.5% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock as of such date, has entered into a voting agreement with LaBranche pursuant to which RCG has agreed, among other things, to vote all of the shares of Company Common Stock held by it in favor of the issuance of the Merger Consideration. The Company has also entered into a voting agreement with certain executive officers of LaBranche, discussed in more detail below.

Edgar Filing: COWEN GROUP, INC. - Form 8-K

In connection with the Merger Agreement, the Company entered into employment agreements of two-year term with each of George M.L. LaBranche, IV, the chairman and chief executive officer of LaBranche, and William J. Burke, III, the chief operating officer of LaBranche, in each case effective upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Either LaBranche or the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement if, among other circumstances, (i) the Merger is not effective on or before August 31, 2011 or (ii) LaBranche's stockholders fail to approve the Merger or the Company's stockholders fail to approve the issuance of the Merger Consideration. In addition, LaBranche may terminate the Merger Agreement under other circumstances, including: (a) to allow LaBranche to enter into a definitive agreement for an alternative business combination transaction that constitutes a superior proposal, if LaBranche concurrently pays the Company a termination fee of $6,250,000 (the Termination Fee) or (b) the Company's board of directors withdrawing or adversely changing its recommendation of the issuance of the Merger Consideration. Among other circumstances, the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement if LaBranche's board of directors withdraws or adversely changes its recommendation of the Merger.

Under the Merger Agreement, LaBranche will be obligated to pay the Company the Termination Fee, among other circumstances, upon termination of the Merger Agreement in connection with (i) LaBranche's board withdrawing or adversely changing its recommendation of the Merger or (ii) LaBranche's entering into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that the Company will be obligated to pay LaBranche the Termination Fee, among other circumstances, upon termination of the Merger Agreement in connection with the Company's board withdrawing or adversely changing its recommendation of the issuance of the Merger Consideration.

As described above, the Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties that the Company, Merger Sub and LaBranche made to each other as of the date of the Merger Agreement or other specific dates, and those representations and warranties should not be relied upon by any other person. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company, Merger Sub and LaBranche and are subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the Company, Merger Sub and LaBranche in connection with negotiating the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as accurate or complete or characterizations of the actual state of facts as of any specified date since they are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules which are not filed publicly and which are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to stockholders and were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company, Merger Sub and LaBranche rather than establishing matters as facts.

Voting Agreement

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement on February 16, 2011, certain of the executive officers of LaBranche entered into a Voting Agreement with the Company (the Voting Agreement), pursuant to which they each agreed, among other things, to vote the shares of LaBranche Common Stock held by them in favor of the Merger and against any other proposal or offer to acquire LaBranche. The individuals who have entered into the Voting Agreement beneficially own in the aggregate 5,123,438 shares of LaBranche Common Stock as of February 16, 2011, which represented approximately 12.5% of the outstanding shares of LaBranche Common Stock as of such date. In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated, the Voting Agreement will also terminate.

The foregoing discussion of the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement does not purport to be completed and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of (i) the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 2.1, and (ii) the Voting Agreement attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 4.1, respectively, which Merger Agreement and Voting Agreement are incorporated in this Item 1.01 by reference.
