Item 2.02

Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On March 21, 2013, SuperMedia Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing its financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2012. A copy of the press release is furnished as part of this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Non-GAAP Measures

The Company's press release and financial schedules include financial information prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) as well as non-GAAP financial information. The non-GAAP financial information includes:

- EBITDA, which is earnings before interest, taxes, gains on early extinguishment of debt, reorganization items, depreciation and amortization;
- EBITDA margin, which is EBITDA divided by total operating revenue;
- adjusted EBITDA;
- adjusted EBITDA margin, which is adjusted EBITDA divided by total operating revenue; and
- free cash flow, which is cash from operations minus capital expenditures, including software capitalization.

EBITDA is determined by adjusting net income for interest, taxes, gains on early extinguishment of debt, reorganization items, depreciation and amortization. EBITDA margin is calculated by dividing EBITDA by total operating revenue. Management believes that EBITDA and EBITDA margin are useful to investors and other users of our financial information in evaluating our operating performance. EBITDA and EBITDA margin are used internally to evaluate current operating expense efficiency and operating profitability by excluding interest, tax, gains on early extinguishment of debt, reorganization items, depreciation and amortization items. In addition, EBITDA is used internally for incentive compensation purposes.

Adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margin are adjusted for the impacts of certain unique costs including severance costs, merger transaction costs, post-employment benefits amortization, impairments and certain other non-recurring costs. Adjusted EBITDA margin is calculated by dividing adjusted EBITDA by total operating revenue. Descriptions of the adjustments made to prepare our adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margin are provided in the financial schedules accompanying the press release attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report.

Management believes the presentations of adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margin assist readers in better understanding our results of operations and trends from period to period, consistent with management's evaluation of the Company's consolidated results of operations for a variety of internal measures including strategic business planning, capital allocation and incentive compensation. Management believes that the adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margin are more indicative of future operating results than GAAP results of operations because of the non-operational and/or non-recurring nature of the items adjusted.

Free cash flow is defined as cash from operations minus capital expenditures, including software capitalization. Management believes that free cash flow is useful to investors and other users of our financial information because management regularly reviews free cash flow as an important indicator of how much cash is generated by normal business operations.

As a result of these factors, management provides this information externally, along with a reconciliation to their comparable GAAP amounts, so readers have access to the detail and general nature of adjustments made to GAAP results to arrive at non-GAAP measures.

Management provides non-GAAP financial information to enhance the understanding of the Company's GAAP consolidated financial statements and readers should consider the information in addition to, but not instead of, the Company's financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP. This non-GAAP financial information may be determined or calculated differently by other companies.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

The Company is furnishing herewith additional information in conjunction with the March 21, 2013 earnings release. This additional information includes Company information and highlights of 2012 fourth quarter and annual results. The additional information, attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, is being furnished and will not be deemed filed for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section.

The information in this Current Report on Form 8-K will not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document filed by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, unless specifically identified therein as being incorporated by reference.
