The table below reflects the material acquisitions and dispositions (for the purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) in Common Shares and Preferred Shares of Petrobras carried out directly by BNDESPAR (and indirectly by BNDES) and directly by BNDES. This table covers transactions since September 15, 2009, when the Reporting Person acquired beneficial ownership of more than 2.0% of the Common Shares during the preceding 12 months and became obligated to file a report on Schedule 13D, rather than a report on Schedule 13G, with respect to their interest in the Common Shares. Transactions prior to September 15, 2009, including several stock splits, are omitted, because they predated the event obligating the Reporting Persons to file a Schedule 13D.

Issuer that are based upon or relate to the value of Common Shares or Preferred Shares (collectively, "Securities") in the open market or otherwise, including in connection with business development transactions or financing commitments in relation thereto; (ii) disposing of any or all of their Securities in the open market or otherwise; (iii) engaging in any hedging or similar transactions with respect to the Securities; (iv) exercising director appointment rights or cumulative voting rights to the extent permitted under Petrobras' s bylaws and otherwise by law (as described further in Item 6 of this Schedule 13D); or (v) proposing or considering one or more of the actions described in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. In determining whether to carry out any of the above-mentioned actions, the Reporting Persons may consider factors such as Petrobras' s financial position and strategic direction, actions taken by Petrobras' s board of directors, price levels of the Common Shares and Preferred Shares, conditions in the securities market and general economic and industry conditions. In particular, from time to time, BNDESPAR' s board of executive officers also authorizes plans for the acquisition or disposal of up to a certain number of Common Shares for an established period of time.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) - (b) BNDESPAR is the direct beneficial owner of 11,700,392 Common Shares, or approximately 0.2% of Petrobras' s issued and outstanding Common Shares, and 905,692,996 Preferred Shares, or approximately 16.2% of Petrobras' s issued and outstanding Preferred Shares. BNDESPAR, as the wholly-owned subsidiary of BNDES, may be deemed to share with BNDES voting and dispositive power with respect to the Common Shares and the Preferred Shares directly beneficially owned by BNDESPAR (in the case of the Preferred Shares, to the extent the limited appointment rights of the holders of Preferred Shares give rise to voting power).

BNDES is the direct beneficial owner of 734,202,699 Common Shares and 161,596,958 Preferred Shares, with respect to which it has sole voting and dispositive power. BNDES, as the sole shareholder of BNDESPAR, may be deemed the indirect beneficial owner of the 11,700,392 Common Shares and the 905,692,996 Preferred Shares directly beneficially owned by BNDESPAR, with respect to which BNDES shares with BNDESPAR voting and dispositive power (in the case of the Preferred Shares, to the extent the limited appointment rights of the holders of Preferred Shares give rise to voting power). BNDES may be deemed to beneficially own in the aggregate 745,903,091 Common Shares, or 10.0% of Petrobras' s issued and outstanding Common Shares, and 1,067,289,954 Preferred Shares, or 19.1% of the Petrobras' s issued and outstanding Preferred Shares.

Each of the Reporting Persons disclaims beneficial ownership in all Common Shares and Preferred Shares of Petrobras reported herein, except to the extent of the Reporting Person' s respective pecuniary interest therein. All share percentages in this Schedule 13D are based on 7,442,454,142 Common Shares and 5,602,042,788 Preferred Shares issued and 7,442,231,382 Common Shares and 5,601,969,879 Preferred Shares outstanding as of December 31, 2018, as reported in Petrobras' s annual report on Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 1, 2019.

(c) No transactions in the Common Shares or in the Preferred Shares, other than the ones described herein, were effected by any Reporting Person in the sixty days prior to the date of this statement.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The Common Shares are not convertible into Preferred Shares, nor are the Preferred Shares convertible into Common Shares.

CUSIP No. 71654V101

Voting Rights in General

Pursuant to the Brazilian Corporate Law 6,404 and Petrobras' amended and restated bylaws approved at the annual general meeting and extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Petrobras held on April 26, 2018, as further amended at the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Petrobras held on October 4, 2018 (the "Bylaws"), each of the Common Shares carries the right to vote at a general meeting of shareholders.

Although the Preferred Shares do not confer a right to vote on matters generally voted on by holders of Common Shares (other than, as described below, certain corporate actions adversely affecting the Preferred Shares), holders of Preferred Shares have certain appointment rights with respect to Petrobras' board of directors and fiscal council, which are limited for BNDES and BNDESPAR based on an understanding with Brazilian authorities. For more information, see "Director Appointment Rights Preferred Shares" and "Other Rights of Preferred Shares."

The Brazilian federal government is required by law to own at least a majority of Petrobras' voting stock.

Cumulative Voting Rights

Minority shareholders representing at least 5.0% of Petrobras' Common Shares have the right to demand that a cumulative voting procedure be adopted to entitle each Common Share to as many votes as there are board members and to give each Common Share the right to vote cumulatively for only one candidate of Petrobras' board of directors or to distribute its votes among several candidates.

Director Appointment Rights

Common Shares

Minority holders of Common Shares have the right to appoint and/or dismiss one member to or from Petrobras' board of directors and to appoint or dismiss one member to or from Petrobras' fiscal council (and such members' respective alternate).

Preferred Shares

Holders of Preferred Shares holding, individually or as a group, at least 10.0% of Petrobras' total capital stock also have the right to appoint and/or dismiss one member to or from Petrobras' board of directors. Holders of Preferred Shares have the right to appoint separately one member to Petrobras' fiscal council (and such member's respective alternate).

If neither the holders of voting Common Shares nor the holders of Preferred Shares have, respectively, the quorum required above, they may aggregate their shares to elect jointly a member to Petrobras' s board of directors, attending to, in this event, the required minimum quorum of 10.0% of the total share capital.

Due to BNDES' s relationship with the Brazilian government (which is also the controlling shareholder of Petrobras), pursuant to the Brazilian Corporate Law 6,404, BNDES is not allowed to exercise the rights to demand (a) board of directors and fiscal council member appointment/dismissal or (b) cumulative voting for the election of directors and fiscal council members, in both cases in respect of appointments reserved for minority holders of Common Shares and holders of Preferred Shares. This is true despite the fact that BNDES currently beneficially owns 10.0% of the Petrobras' s Common Shares and 19.1% of Petrobras' s Preferred Shares. This understanding was memorialized in a Deed of Undertaking signed by BNDES and BNDESPAR, in which BNDES and BNDESPAR settled with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários, or securities commission, regarding accusations made against them in a punitive administrative proceeding. Following such Deed of Undertaking, BNDES and BNDESPAR no longer vote for members of the board of directors or members of the fiscal council reserved to minority holders of Common Shares and holders of Preferred Shares.

Other Features of Preferred Shares

Under Brazilian Corporate Law 6,404, the following actions must be submitted for approval or ratification by the outstanding adversely affected Preferred Shares before they are submitted for approval of at least half of the issued and outstanding Common Shares:

CUSIP No. 71654V408

- creation of preferred shares or increase in the existing classes of preferred shares, without preserving the proportions for any other class of preferred shares, except as set forth in or authorized by Petrobras's Bylaws;
- change in the preferences, privileges or redemption or amortization conditions of any class of preferred shares; and
- creation of a new class of preferred shares entitled to more favorable conditions than the existing classes.

The foregoing description of the Reporting Persons' rights with respect to the Common Shares and Preferred Shares does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Petrobras's Bylaws, a copy of which is filed as an exhibit to this Schedule 13D and is incorporated herein by reference.
