Time Warner Inc., a Delaware corporation that was formerly named AOL Time Warner Inc. ("Time Warner"), and its wholly-owned subsidiary, America Online, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("AOL") (collectively, the "Reporting Persons"), hereby file this Amendment No. 13 to amend the statement on Schedule 13D (as so amended, this "Statement") originally filed on August 22, 2000 and amended on January 22, 2001 and February 27, 2001, further amended and restated in its entirety on April 13, 2001 and further amended on April 5, 2002, June 17, 2002, August 29, 2002, October 18, 2002, January 24, 2003, May 6, 2003, October 14, 2003 and further amended and restated in its entirety on July 16, 2004 and further amended on January 13, 2005, with respect to the shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Class A Common Stock"), of America Online Latin America, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("AOL-LA"). As provided in the Joint Filing Agreement filed as Exhibit 7 to Amendment No. 1 filed on January 22, 2001, the Reporting Persons have agreed pursuant to Rule 13d-1(k) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), to file one statement on Schedule 13D with respect to their beneficial ownership of the Class A Common Stock.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Item 3 of this Statement is hereby amended by deleting the eighth paragraph thereof and adding the following in lieu thereof:

In accordance with the terms of the Convertible Notes, on September 30, 2002, December 31, 2002, March 31, 2003, June 30, 2003, September 30, 2003, December 31, 2003, March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004, September 30, 2004, December 31, 2004 and March 31, 2005, AOL-LA issued 5,681,975, 5,183,668, 10,513,739, 6,962,267, 4,037,502, 3,024,732, 2,878,713, 5,945,725, 10,304,678, 5,772,497 and 9,774,157 shares, respectively, of Series B Preferred Stock to Time Warner as payment of interest due as of such date on the aggregate principal amount of Convertible Notes outstanding at such time.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of this Statement is hereby amended by deleting the second paragraph thereof and adding the following in lieu thereof:

AOL and Time Warner, along with the Cisneros Group, exercise their control over AOL-LA through several instruments and agreements, including (i) a Second Amended and Restated Stockholders' Agreement, dated as of March 8, 2002, among AOL, ODC and AOL-LA (the "Second Amended and Restated Stockholders' Agreement"), (ii) an Amended and Restated Registration Rights and Stockholders' Agreement (the "Banco Itau Registration Rights Agreement"), dated as of March 30, 2001, among AOL-LA, the Banco Itau Reporting Persons and, for limited purposes, AOL and ODC, (iii) AOL-LA's Fifth Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended from time to time (the "Charter"), (iv) AOL-LA's Amended and Restated By-laws (the "By-laws"), and (v) the Note Purchase Agreement (collectively, the "Governing Documents"). In addition, AOL has entered into various agreements relating to the equity securities issued by AOL-LA, including the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Second Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 8, 2002, by and among AOL-LA, Time Warner, AOL, Aspen, and Atlantis (the "Second Amended and Restated AOL-ODC Registration Rights Agreement") (as described in Item 6 of this Statement) and the Letter Agreement, dated as of May 25, 2005, by and among Time Warner, AOL, Aspen, and Atlantis (the "Liquidation Letter Agreement").

Item 4 of this Statement is hereby further amended by deleting the seventeenth paragraph thereof and adding the following in lieu thereof:

In its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 ("Form 10-Q"), AOL-LA stated that it had $16.6 million of available cash on hand as of March 31, 2005 and that its available cash will only be sufficient to fund operations into the third quarter of 2005. AOL-LA further stated in its Form 10-Q that to continue normal operations beyond such time, it would need an additional, substantial capital infusion and that it will not be able to obtain such additional financing from any source.

In the Form 10-Q, AOL-LA discussed the strategic alternatives it has explored and the potential actions it would take if it is not successful in completing transactions to sell all or part of its businesses. AOL-LA stated that if it is not successful in selling its businesses in a timely manner, it expects to cease operating the businesses and that it may determine that it is advantageous to file a petition for bankruptcy under the U.S. bankruptcy laws or other jurisdictions in which it operates businesses. AOL-LA stated that any such voluntary filing would require the consent of its Series B Preferred Stock and Series C Preferred Stock, in addition to the authorization of its Board of Directors.

In connection with AOL-LA's stated inability to fund its operations beyond the third quarter of 2005 and its statements that it expects to sell its businesses or cease operating them and that it potentially would file a petition under U.S. bankruptcy laws, the Reporting Persons and ODC began negotiating the terms of an agreement for their mutual cooperation regarding the wind-down of AOL-LA. Accordingly, on May 25, 2005, the Reporting Persons and ODC entered into the Liquidation Letter Agreement, which sets forth the terms and conditions on which the Reporting Persons and ODC would support the wind-down of AOL-LA. Pursuant to the Liquidation Letter Agreement, the Reporting Persons and ODC agreed to cooperate with and support AOL-LA's management in the implementation of a wind-down and liquidation plan, and agreed to cause their respective representatives on AOL-LA's Board of Directors, subject to their fiduciary obligations, to take all necessary actions to implement and execute such plan. Essentially, the Reporting Persons and ODC agreed that, after distributions on account of (or reservation for payment of) operating and wind-down expenses, including Chapter 11 administrative expenses and other priority claims required to be paid, and certain general unsecured claims against AOL-LA (excluding any general unsecured claims of AOL against AOL-LA), the proceeds of the liquidation would be split on a 60-40 basis, with the Reporting Persons receiving 60% of the distributions and ODC receiving 40% of the distributions. Additionally, the Reporting Persons agreed to assume ownership of AOL-LA's Puerto Rico assets at an agreed upon net value of $15 million (subject to certain working capital and other adjustments as described in the Liquidation Letter Agreement). In exchange for the Reporting Persons receiving this "value" attributable to AOL-LA's Puerto Rico assets, ODC would be entitled to receive the first actual dollars generated by the liquidation of AOL-LA's other assets in an amount up to 40% of the difference between (x) the value of the Puerto Rico assets and (y) the amount of general unsecured claims of AOL against AOL-LA. Thus, after the payment of the unsecured creditor and priority claims described above, the Reporting Persons would receive 60% of the value generated by the liquidation (including the Puerto Rico assets, in respect of which the Reporting Persons would assume ownership), while ODC would receive 40% of the value generated by the liquidation. The Reporting Persons and ODC expect to continue discussions of more detailed terms in connection with a wind-down of AOL-LA and its businesses consistent with the broader terms of the Liquidation Letter Agreement, and may enter into additional agreements, instruments or term sheets to set forth such detailed terms.

Edgar Filing: AMERICA ONLINE LATIN AMERICA INC - Form SC 13D/A

The Liquidation Letter Agreement does not require AOL-LA to wind-down or to file a bankruptcy petition and is not binding on AOL-LA, which is not a party to the agreement. It is an agreement between the Reporting Persons and ODC. Any decision to cease operations and begin the wind-down of the businesses of AOL-LA or for AOL-LA to file a petition in bankruptcy under U.S. insolvency laws would be made by the Board of Directors of AOL-LA with the consent of the Reporting Persons and ODC.

Item 4 of this Statement is hereby further amended by deleting the last paragraph thereof and adding the following in lieu thereof:

References to, and descriptions of, the Note Purchase Agreement, the Convertible Notes, the Charter, the By-laws, the Second Amended and Restated AOL-ODC Registration Rights Agreement, the Second Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, the Banco Itau Registration Rights Agreement and the Liquidation Letter Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copies of such documents filed as exhibits to this Statement, and are incorporated in this Item 4 in their entirety where such references and descriptions appear.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

Item 5 of this Statement is hereby amended and restated to read in its entirety as follows:

The information set forth or incorporated by reference in Items 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

As of May 10, 2005, based on AOL-LA's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, filed on May 16, 2005, there were 135,260,715 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding. No shares of AOL-LA's Class B Common Stock or Class C Common Stock were outstanding. For purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, the Class A Common Stock issuable, directly or indirectly, upon conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock currently held by AOL, upon exercise of the AOL Warrant, and upon exercise by the Employees (defined below) of their options, (i) with respect to percentage ownership calculations made herein for AOL, increase the number of shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding to 231,882,641(1) and (ii) together with the 114,229,758 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable, directly or indirectly, upon conversion of (x) the Convertible Notes and (y) the 70,079,653 shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued to Time Warner by AOL-LA as payment of interest due on the Convertible Notes with respect to percentage ownership calculations made

-----
(1) Includes (i) the 135,260,715 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding (including 40,169,780 shares of Class A Common Stock owned by AOL), (ii) 79,840,676 shares of Class A Common Stock into which (ultimately) 79,840,676 shares of Series B Preferred Stock owned by AOL are immediately convertible on a one-for-one basis, (iii) 16,541,250 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon exercise of AOL's immediately exercisable warrant and (iv) 240,000 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon exercise of certain AOL-LA stock options.

herein for Time Warner, increase the number of Class A Common Stock outstanding to 346,112,399.

As of the date hereof, the Reporting Persons (i) beneficially own 40,169,780 shares of Class A Common Stock held by AOL and (ii) pursuant to Rule 13d-3(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act, may be deemed to beneficially own an additional 96,381,926 shares of Class A Common Stock, which are issuable upon conversion, directly or indirectly, of all of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by AOL and upon exercise of the AOL Warrant. Shares of Series B Preferred Stock are convertible into shares of Class B Common Stock at any time, initially on a one-for-one basis, and such Class B Common Stock is convertible into Class A Common Stock at any time, initially on a one-for-one basis.

Pursuant to Rule 13d-3(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act, the Reporting Persons may also be deemed to beneficially own options to purchase an aggregate of 240,000 shares of Class A Common Stock. As stated in Item 6 below, upon consummation of the Offering, J. Michael Kelly and Gerald Sokol, Jr., employees of AOL, were each granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Class A Common Stock in connection with their appointment to the Board. In addition, David Gang and Joseph A. Ripp, employees of AOL, were each granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Class A Common Stock in connection with their subsequent appointment to the Board. On December 20, 2004, J. Michael Kelly and Joseph A. Ripp resigned as members of the Board and, in connection therewith, the options to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock issued to them expired on February 18, 2005. Joseph M. Redling and Neil Smit, employees of AOL (each an "Employee" and along with Messrs. Gang and Sokol, the "Employees"), were appointed to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Messrs. Kelly and Ripp. Messrs. Redling and Smit were each granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Class A Common Stock in connection with their appointment to the Board. On May 17, 2005, David Gang resigned as a member of the Board and, in connection therewith, the options to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock issued to him will expire on or around July 16, 2005. Under the Reporting Persons' conflicts of interest standards, each such Employee must transfer the economic benefit of his options to AOL. Although each such Employee is the record holder of the option, AOL and Time Warner hold or share the disposition power with respect to all of the shares of Class A Common Stock underlying the options. The filing of this Statement and any amendment, however, shall not be construed as an admission for the purposes of Sections 13(d) and 13(g) of the Exchange Act and Regulation 13D-G promulgated thereunder that any of such Employees is the beneficial owner of any securities of AOL-LA other than the options and shares of Class A Common Stock underlying the options issued to such Employee.

Pursuant to Rule 13d-3(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act, Time Warner may also be deemed to beneficially own an additional 114,229,758 shares of Class A Common Stock which are issuable upon conversion, directly or indirectly, of (i) the Convertible Notes at the conversion price of $3.624 per share, as the same may be adjusted in accordance with the terms of the Convertible Notes and (ii) the shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued to Time Warner by AOL-LA as payment of interest due on the Convertible Notes. As further described in Item 6, the Convertible Notes are convertible at any time into Applicable Shares (as defined in Item 6 of this Statement), which may be shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Class A Common Stock, in any case at a conversion price of $3.624 per share.

Edgar Filing: AMERICA ONLINE LATIN AMERICA INC - Form SC 13D/A

Page 9 of 18

AOL and Time Warner have shared power to vote and dispose of 40,169,780 shares of Class A Common Stock held by AOL, the 79,840,676 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion, directly or indirectly, of all of the Series B Preferred Stock held by AOL, and 16,541,250 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the AOL Warrant. AOL and Time Warner share the power to dispose of the 240,000 shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the stock options that were granted to the Employees. Time Warner has sole power to vote and dispose of the 114,229,758 shares of Class A Common Stock that are issuable upon conversion, directly or indirectly, of both the Convertible Notes acquired by Time Warner pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement and the shares of Series B Preferred Stock issued to Time Warner as payment of interest due on the Convertible Notes.

Consequently, under Rule 13d-3(a), upon conversion of the B Stock held by AOL, the exercise of the AOL Warrant and the exercise of the stock options granted to the Employees, AOL would beneficially own 136,791,706 shares of Class A Common Stock in the aggregate, or approximately 59.0% of the 231,882,641 shares of Class A Common Stock that would be issued and outstanding. Upon conversion of the B Stock held by AOL, the exercise of the AOL Warrant, the exercise of the stock options granted to the Employees, the conversion of the B Stock held by Time Warner and the conversion of the Convertible Notes, Time Warner would beneficially own 251,021,464 shares of Class A Common Stock in the aggregate, or approximately 72.5% of the 346,112,399 shares of Class A Common Stock that would be issued and outstanding. However, assuming (i) the conversion of all B Stock and C Stock, (ii) the conversion of all of the Convertible Notes and (iii) the exercise and conversion of all outstanding warrants and stock options held by the Reporting Persons and the Cisneros Group, AOL and Time Warner would beneficially own approximately 32.1% and 59.0%, respectively, of the 425,751,101 shares of Class A Common Stock of AOL-LA that would be issued and outstanding.

Pursuant to Rule 13d-5(b)(1) promulgated under the Exchange Act, to the extent a "group" is deemed to exist by virtue of the Second Amended and Restated Stockholders' Agreement and the Second Amended and Restated AOL-ODC Registration Rights Agreement (each as defined in Item 6 of this Statement), the Reporting Persons may be deemed to have beneficial ownership, for purposes of Sections 13(d) and 13(g) of the Exchange Act, of all of the equity securities of AOL-LA beneficially owned by the Cisneros Group. According to the Cisneros Group's Amendment No. 6 to the statement on Schedule 13D filed on January 17, 2003, members of the Cisneros Group individually beneficially own 35,895,292 shares of Class A Common Stock, 79,518,702 shares of Series C Preferred Stock, which represents all of such Series C Preferred Stock outstanding, and currently exercisable options to purchase 120,000 shares of Class A Common Stock. Shares of Series C Preferred Stock are convertible into AOL-LA's Class C Common Stock at any time, initially on a one-for-one basis, and such Class C Common Stock is convertible into Class A Common Stock at any time, initially on a one-for-one basis. Consequently, upon conversion of the C Stock and the exercise of the options held by the Cisneros Group, the Cisneros Group would beneficially own an aggregate of 115,533,994 shares of Class A Common Stock. Such beneficial ownership represents approximately 27.1% of the 425,751,101 shares of Class A Common Stock that would be issued and outstanding, assuming (i) the conversion of all B Stock and C Stock, (ii) the conversion of all of the Convertible Notes and (iii) the exercise and conversion of all outstanding warrants and stock options held by the Reporting Persons and the Cisneros Group. The Cisneros Group has sole power to vote and dispose of its 35,895,292 shares of Class A Common Stock, 79,518,702 shares of Series C

Preferred Stock and currently exercisable options to purchase 120,000 shares of Class A Common Stock. The Reporting Persons disclaim beneficial ownership of any AOL-LA securities owned directly or indirectly by the Cisneros Group.

Pursuant to Rule 13d-5(b)(1) promulgated under the Exchange Act, to the extent a "group" is deemed to exist by virtue of the Banco Itau Registration Rights Agreement, the Reporting Persons may be deemed to have beneficial ownership, for purposes of Sections 13(d) and 13(g) of the Exchange Act, of all of the equity securities of AOL-LA beneficially owned by the Banco Itau Reporting Persons. According to Banco Itau's Amendment No. 10 to the statement on Schedule 13D filed on November 12, 2003, Banco Itau beneficially owns 35,937,840 shares of Class A Common Stock. Such beneficial ownership represents approximately 8.4% of the 425,751,101 shares of Class A Common Stock that would be issued and outstanding, assuming (i) the conversion of all B Stock and Stock, (ii) the conversion of all of the Convertible Notes and (iii) the exercise and conversion of all outstanding warrants and stock options held by the Reporting Persons and the Cisneros Group. The Reporting Persons disclaim beneficial ownership of any AOL-LA securities owned directly or indirectly by the Banco Itau Reporting Persons.

Other than as set forth herein, to the best of the Reporting Persons' knowledge as of the date hereof, (i) neither the Reporting Persons nor any subsidiary or affiliate of the Reporting Persons nor any of the Reporting Persons' executive officers or directors, beneficially owns any shares of Class A Common Stock, and (ii) there have been no transactions in the shares of Class A Common Stock effected during the past 60 days by the Reporting Persons, nor to the best of the Reporting Persons' knowledge, by any subsidiary or affiliate of the Reporting Persons or any of the Reporting Persons' executive officers or directors.

References to, and descriptions of, the Note Purchase Agreement, the Convertible Notes, the Second Amended and Restated AOL-ODC Registration Rights Agreement, the Second Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement and the Banco Itau Registration Rights Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copies of such documents included as exhibits to this Statement and are incorporated in this Item 5 in their entirety where such references and descriptions appear.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Item 6 of this Statement is hereby amended by deleting the second paragraph thereof and adding the following in lieu thereof:

Upon consummation of the Offering, J. Michael Kelly and Gerald Sokol, Jr., employees of AOL, were each granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Class A Common Stock in connection with their appointment to the Board at the offering price of $8.00. In addition, David Gang and Joseph A. Ripp, employees of AOL, were each granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Class A Common Stock in connection with their subsequent appointment to the Board at the exercise price of $0.98 and $1.49, respectively. On December 20, 2004, J. Michael Kelly and Joseph A. Ripp resigned as members of the Board and, in connection therewith, the options to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock issued to them expired on February 18, 2005. Joseph M. Redling and Neil Smit, employees of AOL, were appointed to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Messrs. Kelly and Ripp. Messrs.

Redling and Smit were each granted an option to purchase 60,000 shares of Class A Common Stock in connection with their appointment to the Board at the exercise price of $0.85. On May 17, 2005, David Gang resigned as member of the Board and, in connection therewith, the options to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock issued to him will expire on or around July 16, 2005.

Item 6 of this Statement is hereby further amended by deleting the fourteenth paragraph thereof and adding the following in lieu thereof:

Pursuant to the Liquidation Letter Agreement, the Reporting Persons and ODC agreed to cooperate with and support AOL-LA's management in the implementation of a wind-down and liquidation plan, and agreed to cause their respective representatives on AOL-LA's Board of Directors, subject to their fiduciary obligations, to take all necessary actions to implement and execute such plan. Essentially, the Reporting Persons and ODC agreed that, after distributions on account of (or reservation for payment of) operating and wind-down expenses, including Chapter 11 administrative expenses and other priority claims required to be paid, and certain general unsecured claims against AOL-LA (excluding any general unsecured claims of AOL against AOL-LA), the proceeds of the liquidation would be split on a 60-40 basis, with the Reporting Persons receiving 60% of the distributions and ODC receiving 40% of the distributions. Additionally, the Reporting Persons agreed to assume ownership of AOL-LA's Puerto Rico assets at an agreed upon net value of $15 million (subject to certain working capital and other adjustments as described in the Liquidation Letter Agreement). In exchange for the Reporting Persons receiving this "value" attributable to AOL-LA's Puerto Rico assets, ODC would be entitled to receive the first actual dollars generated by the liquidation of AOL-LA's other assets in an amount up to 40% of the difference between (x) the value of the Puerto Rico assets and (y) the amount of general unsecured claims of AOL against AOL-LA. Thus, after the payment of the unsecured creditor and priority claims described above, the Reporting Persons would receive 60% of the value generated by the liquidation (including the Puerto Rico assets, in respect of which the Reporting Persons would assume ownership), while ODC would receive 40% of the value generated by the liquidation. The Reporting Persons and ODC expect to continue discussions of more detailed terms in connection with a wind-down of AOL-LA and its businesses consistent with the broader terms of the Liquidation Letter Agreement, and may enter into additional agreements, instruments or term sheets to set forth such detailed terms.

The Liquidation Letter Agreement does not require AOL-LA to wind-down or to file a bankruptcy petition and is not binding on AOL-LA, which is not a party to the agreement. It is an agreement between the Reporting Persons and ODC. Any decision to cease operations and begin the wind-down of the businesses of AOL-LA or for AOL-LA to file a petition in bankruptcy under U.S. insolvency laws would be made by the Board of Directors of AOL-LA.

References to, and descriptions of, the Note Purchase Agreement, the Convertible Notes, the Charter, the By-laws, the Second Amended and Restated AOL-ODC Registration Rights Agreement, the Second Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, the Banco Itau Registration Rights Agreement and the Liquidation Letter Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the copies of such documents filed as exhibits to this Statement, which are incorporated in this Item 6 in their entirety where such references and descriptions appear.
