Item 1. PLAN INFORMATION

General Plan Information

We are registering three hundred million (300,000,000) shares of our Common Stock (the “Common Shares”) on this Form S-8 Registration pursuant to our 2012 Stock Incentive Plan. Our Board of Directors has authorized the issuance of the Common Shares to Employees upon effectiveness of this Registration Statement. For purposes of this Registration Statement and our 2012 Stock Incentive Plan, the term “Employee” includes any employee, director, consultant, attorney or advisor.

Plan Purpose

Our 2012 Stock Incentive Plan is to afford us a method of compensation for selected Employees and to advance our best interests by providing Employees with additional incentives to remain loyal and provide us with services by granting those shares of our Common Shares. We will issue the Common Shares to Employees pursuant to written consulting and employment agreements and the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan. The 2012 Stock Incentive Plan has been approved by our Board of Directors. The 2012 Stock Incentive Plan is intended to compensate Employees for services rendered to us. The Employees who will participate in 2012 Stock Incentive Plan have agreed or will agree in the future to provide their expertise and advice to us for the purposes and consideration set forth in their written agreements pursuant to the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan. The services to be provided by the Employees will not be rendered in connection with: (i) capital-raising transactions; (ii) direct or indirect promotion of our Common Shares; (iii) maintaining or stabilizing a market for our Common Shares. Our Board of Directors may at any time alter, suspend or terminate the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan.

We will provide to each Recipient a written statement advising it of the availability of documents incorporated by reference in Item 3 of Part II of this Registration Statement and of documents required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 428(b) under the Securities Act without charge and upon written or oral notice by contacting:

- (2) he or she is a natural person;

- (3) he or she provides bona fide services to us; and
- (4) the services are not in connection with the offer or sale of securities in a capital-raising transaction, and do not directly or indirectly promote or maintain a market for our securities.

Purchase of Securities Pursuant to the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan and Payment for Shares Offered

Employees shall have Common Shares issued to them as full consideration for their services. Employees shall be deemed to have been paid in full for the shares which they will receive as compensation for their services under our 2012 Stock Incentive Plan. The Common Shares issued pursuant to our 2012 Stock Incentive Plan will be issued directly from our treasury and no fees, commissions or other charges will be paid by us to any party.

Resale Restrictions

The Common Shares being registered on this Registration Statement are available for resale as of the date of effectiveness of this registration statement, which is upon filing with the SEC.

Tax Effects of Employees Who Participate in the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan

Employees will realize income when they receive the Common Shares, based on their agreement with us, and may realize a gain when they sell the Common Shares, based on the sale price they receive versus the purchase price. We do not foresee a tax consequence for ourselves. The 2012 Stock Incentive Plan does not, to the best of our knowledge, qualify under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Tax Treatment to Us

The amount of income recognized by any recipient hereunder in accordance with the foregoing discussion will be a tax deductible expense by us for federal income tax purposes in the taxable year during which we recognize income.

Investment of Funds

We will not receive funds in consideration of the Common Shares. The Common Shares are being issued in consideration for services rendered to us. We will not receive proceeds from the sale of the Common Shares by the recipients of the Common Shares.

No withdrawal or termination terms are currently contemplated. No assignment or hypothecation terms are currently contemplated, but we may permit at our sole discretion an assignment of the interests if Employees request to assign their interest to a third party; however, no assignment will be permitted to any person or entity performing services to us which relate to the offer or sale of our securities in a capital-raising transaction or the direct or indirect promotion or maintenance of a market for our Common Shares.

Item 6. Indemnification Of Directors and Officers And Disclosure Of Commission Position On Indemnification For Securities Act Liabilities

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law and our Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and our Bylaws, our directors will have no personal liability to us or our stockholders for monetary damages incurred as the result of the breach or alleged breach by a director of his "duty of care." This provision does not apply to the directors' (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law, (ii) acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the corporation or its stockholders or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director, (iii) approval of any transaction from which a director derives an improper personal benefit, (iv) acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to the corporation or its stockholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing a director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to the corporation or its stockholders, (v) acts or omissions that constituted an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to the corporation or its stockholders, or (vi) approval of an unlawful dividend, distribution, stock repurchase or redemption. This provision would generally absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence.

The effect of this provision in our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws is to eliminate the rights of our Company and our stockholders (through stockholder's derivative suits on behalf of our Company) to recover monetary damages against a director for breach of his fiduciary duty of care as a director (including breaches resulting from negligent or grossly negligent behavior) except in the situations described in clauses (i) through (vi) above. This provision does not limit nor eliminate the rights of our Company or any stockholder to seek non-monetary relief such as an injunction or rescission in the event of a breach of a director's duty of care. In addition, our Bylaws provide that if the Delaware General Corporation Law is amended to authorize the future elimination or limitation of the liability of a director, then the liability of the directors will be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the law, as amended. The Delaware General Corporation Law grants corporations the right to indemnify their directors, officers, employees and agents in accordance with applicable law.

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law and our Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and our Bylaws, our directors will have no personal liability to us or our stockholders for monetary damages incurred as the result of the breach or alleged breach by a director of his "duty of care." This provision does not apply to the directors' (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law, (ii) acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the corporation or its stockholders or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director, (iii) approval of any transaction from which a director derives an improper personal benefit, (iv) acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to the corporation or its stockholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing a director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to the corporation or its stockholders, (v) acts or omissions that constituted an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to the corporation or its stockholders, or (vi) approval of an unlawful dividend, distribution, stock repurchase or redemption. This provision would generally absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act" or "Securities Act") may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling our Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
