Section 4 - Matters Related to Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

In August 2007, during a review of our consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended July 31, 2007, our management became aware that our previously reported unaudited consolidated financial statements filed with its originally-filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Qs for the periods ended January 31, 2007 and April 30, 2007, did not properly accrue certain sales rebate payables. The consolidated financial statements properly recorded revenues from its sales, but did not properly account for certain rebates some of its customers were entitled to receive after the sales.

On or about September 15, 2007, our management and our Board of Directors, in conjunction with approving our consolidated financial statements for the period ended July 31, 2007, determined that the failure to properly accrue certain sales rebates would have a material impact on our consolidated financial statements and that as a result we needed to amend our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended January 31, 2007 and April 30, 2007, including restating our consolidated financial statements. These Quarterly Reports were originally filed with the Commission on March 19, 2007 and June 14, 2007, respectively.

The revisions to our consolidated financial statements relate to our failure to properly accrue for certain sales rebates we offer on our products. As a result, the primary revisions to our consolidated financial statements for these periods show an increase in our current liabilities and a decrease in our sales and net income. The restated amounts for both affected quarters are attached hereto as exhibits. Since this error was discovered during our review of our consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended July 31, 2007, all quarters starting with and subsequent to the quarter ended July 31, 2007 have the sales rebates properly accounted for in the consolidated financial statements. For the year ended October 31, 2006, and for prior periods, the sales rebates were properly accounted for in our consolidated financial statements. The error occurred in our consolidated financial statements for the periods ended January 31, 2007 and April 30, 2007.

Our authorized officers have discussed the matters disclosed in this filing with our independent registered public accounting firm. We anticipate that the amended Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q/A with the restated consolidated financial statements for the effected periods will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or about July 28, 2008..
