Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The net investment cost (including commissions, if any) of the Common Stock as to which the Reporting Persons exercise voting or dispositive power as of the date hereof, including options over Common Stock exercisable within 60 days of the date hereof, was approximately $1,600,000. Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Common Stock and options over Common Stock have been acquired for investment purposes. The Reporting Persons believe the Company is substantially undervalued in its current form, and have communicated with the directors of the Company on a number of occasions to set forth their analysis of the Company's potential worth and their proposals for unlocking additional value for shareholders, in particular their proposals that the Company execute as soon as practicable a spinoff of the NOOK business, possibly through a rights offering to current Barnes & Noble shareholders in which each Barnes & Noble shareholder would receive rights to exchange a proportion of their Barnes & Noble shares for NOOK shares, or an equity carve-out of the NOOK business. See the letters and attachments thereto appended to this statement as Exhibits 99.2, 99.3 and 99.4, including the analysis attached to Exhibit 99.4. The Reporting Persons have also been communicating with other shareholders regarding the value and potential value of the Company.

Consistent with their investment intent, the Reporting Persons may from time to time in the future discuss with the Company's directors, management, other shareholders and others, the Company's business, operations, performance, strategic direction, capital structure, prospects and other matters, including ways of maximizing stockholder value that may or may not include extraordinary transactions. The Reporting Persons also intend to participate in the affairs of the Company through the exercise of voting rights with respect to the holdings of Common Stock they manage.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Reporting Persons expect to continuously review the investments in Barnes & Noble that they manage and, depending on various factors, including but not limited to the market price of the Common Stock, the terms and conditions of potential available transactions, prevailing market conditions, liquidity and diversification objectives and such other considerations as the Reporting Persons deem relevant, may at any time or from time to time, and subject to regulatory compliance, acquire or dispose of shares of Common Stock or other securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock, on the open market, in privately negotiated transactions, directly from the Company, upon the conversion, exercise or exchange of securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock, or otherwise.

Except as otherwise expressly described herein, no Reporting Person has any plan or proposal that relates to or would result in any of the transactions or other matters specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Each Reporting Person may, at any time and from time to time, review or reconsider his or its position and/or change his or its purpose and/or formulate plans or proposals with respect thereto.
