SGL Carbon Increases Graphite Electrodes Prices in North and South America

WIESBADEN, Germany--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 8, 2003--With immediate effect for all new business SGL Carbon increases the prices of its Graphite Electrodes by 7 US cent/lb. in North America except Mexico and 140 US $/ton in South America and Mexico.

This price increase applies to product of all diameter. The new prices are valid only for orders received up to Nov. 30th 2003 and for shipments before Dec 31st 2004. Before year end the company will review its prices again reflecting the then prevailing demand, supply and currency situation. We remain operating on a very high level and all units continue to run near capacity. The company does not expect this situation to change in the near future.

Important Notice:

This document contains forward-looking statements as defined in the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 based on currently available information. Actual future results and trends could differ materially from those set forth in such statements due to various factors. Such factors include, among others, changes in economic, political, technical, business and competitive conditions, unforeseeable alterations in electric steel production, changes of interest and exchange rates, price developments, unanticipated developments relating to recently acquired businesses and Group companies, potential liability in connection with existing or future regulations, unforeseen difficulties relating to the investigations by the European antitrust authorities and to the now completed investigation by the Canadian and U.S. antitrust authorities and the civil actions related thereto and other risks and uncertainties, including those detailed in the Company's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. SGL Carbon does not intend to update these forward-looking statements, and does not assume any obligation to do so.
