Except as set forth herein, no other changes are being made to the information set forth in the Form 8-K filed on October 24, 2005 and this Form 8-K/A does not reflect events occurring after the filing of the original Form 8-K, or modify or update those disclosures, including the exhibits to the original Form 8-K affected by subsequent events. Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(d) There were no arrangements or understandings between Mr. David C. Hardesty, Jr. and any other person pursuant to his election as a director of the Company. The Company is disclosing the following which occurred since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year, or are currently proposed in connection with Mr. Hardesty's election as a director.

In 2004, the Company made a five-year pledge of a total of $200,000 to the West Virginia University Foundation Incorporated (the Foundation), a legally separate fundraising entity associated with West Virginia University (the University), as part of a capital campaign to benefit the University's College of Engineering and Mining Resources. The Company also occasionally makes cash gifts to the University. The aggregate of cash gifts made by the Company to the Foundation and the University for 2004 and currently anticipated for 2005 is approximately $103,000. In 2005 the Company also donated its Dolls Run facility, located in Monongalia County, West Virginia and valued at $423,000, to the Foundation for use as a coal mine training and placement center. Apart from gifts, the Company has in arms length transactions paid the University and its related entities for conferences, technical training and classes for employees, as well as acquired football and basketball tickets and made payments with respect to other minor items. The aggregate of these other payments during 2004 and currently anticipated for 2005 is approximately $144,000. The Company may also decide from time to time during the remainder of 2005 and in subsequent years make additional contributions of cash or property not included in the foregoing and/or to enter into additional transactions with the University. The foregoing matters did not relate to or influence the Company's decision to request that Mr. Hardesty join the Company's board of directors.
