In addition, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, in connection with the Mergers, Duke Energy NC converted its form of organization from a North Carolina corporation to a North Carolina limited liability company and changed its name to Duke Power Company LLC (Duke Power) and transferred to the registrant all of its membership interests in Duke Capital LLC (Duke Capital). As a result of the Mergers and the other transactions described above, each of Duke Power, Cinergy and Duke Capital is now a wholly-owned subsidiary of the registrant.

Pursuant to the Cinergy Merger, each share of common stock of Cinergy, par value $0.01 per share (the Cinergy Common Stock), was converted into the right to receive 1.56 shares of the registrant s common stock, par value $0.001 per share. Pursuant to the Duke Energy Merger, each share of common stock of Duke Energy NC, no par value per share, including the associated Preference Stock Purchase Rights (together, the Duke Energy NC Common Stock), was converted into the right to receive one share of the registrant s common stock.

The issuance of the registrant s common stock pursuant to the Mergers was registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the registrant s registration statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-126318) (the Registration Statement) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and declared effective on February 2, 2006. Pursuant to Rule 12g-3(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), the registrant s common stock is deemed to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act. The registrant s common stock has been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, and began trading under the symbol DUK on April 3, 2006.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On April 3, 2006, in connection with the transactions described above under Item 2.01, the registrant executed the Fifteenth Supplemental Indenture between Duke Energy NC and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as trustee, pursuant to which the registrant agreed to guarantee the obligations of Duke Power under the Senior Indenture dated as of September 1, 1998, as amended and supplemented. The description of the restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws which was contained under the caption "Comparison of Shareholder Rights" in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus is incorporated herein by reference. The registrant's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated By-Laws are attached hereto as Exhibits 3.1 and 3.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

The following summary of our capital stock is subject in all respects to the applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law and our certificate of incorporation. The following discussion is a summary of our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws following consummation of the mergers and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the certificate of incorporation and the by-laws attached as Exhibits 3.1 and 3.2, respectively, to this Current Report.

General

Our total number of authorized shares of capital stock consists of 2 billion shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 44 million shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share.

Common Stock

Except as otherwise required by law and subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of preferred stock, with respect to all matters upon which shareholders are entitled to vote or to which shareholders are entitled to give consent, the holders of any outstanding shares of common stock will vote together as a class, and every holder of common stock will be entitled to cast one vote in person or by proxy for each share of common stock standing in such holder's name on our books. We do not have a classified board of directors nor do we permit cumulative voting.

Holders of common stock are not entitled to any preemptive rights to subscribe for additional shares of common stock nor are they subject to further capital calls or to assessments by us.

Subject to applicable law and the rights, if any, of the holders of any class or series of preferred stock having a preference over the rights to participate with the common stock with respect to the payment of dividends, holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends or other distributions as declared by our board of directors at its discretion.

The board of directors may create a class or series of preferred stock with dividends the rate of which is calculated by reference to, and payment of which is concurrent with, dividends on shares of common stock.

Preferred Stock

Our board of directors has the full authority permitted by law, at any time and from time to time, to divide the authorized and unissued shares of preferred stock into one or more classes or series and, with respect to each such class or series, to determine by resolution or resolutions the number of shares constituting such class or series and the designation of such class or series, the voting powers, if any, of the shares of such class or series, and the preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, of the shares of any such class or series of preferred stock to the full extent now or as may in the future be permitted by the law of the State of Delaware. The powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of each class or series of preferred stock and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, may differ from those of any and all other classes or series at any time outstanding. Except as otherwise required by law, as provided in the certificate of incorporation or as determined by our board of directors, holders of preferred stock will not have any voting rights and will not be entitled to any notice of shareholder meetings.

Provisions that Have or May Have the Effect of Delaying or Prohibiting a Change in Control

Under our certificate of incorporation, the board of directors has the full authority permitted by Delaware law to determine the voting rights, if any, and designations, preferences, limitations and special rights of any class or any series of any class of the preferred stock.

The certificate of incorporation also provides that a director may be removed from office with or without cause. However, subject to applicable law, any director elected by the holders of any series of preferred stock may be removed without cause only by the holders of a majority of the shares of such series of preferred stock.

Our by-laws provide that prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders where directors are elected, the size of the initial board may not be increased or decreased without the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the entire board. Our certificate of incorporation requires an affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of stock of all our classes entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, to amend, alter or repeal provisions in the certificate of incorporation which relate to the number of directors and vacancies and newly created directorships.

Our certificate of incorporation provides that any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice only if consent in writing setting forth the action to be taken is signed by all the holders of our issued and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote in respect of such action.

Our by-laws provide that, except as expressly required by the certificate of incorporation or by applicable law, and subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock, special meetings of the shareholders or of any series entitled to vote may be called for any purpose or purposes only by the Chairman of the board of directors or by the board of directors. Shareholders are not entitled to call special meetings.

The provisions of our certificate of incorporation and by-laws conferring on our board of directors the full authority to issue preferred stock, the restrictions on removing directors elected by holders of preferred stock, the provision requiring a vote of 80% of the entire board of directors to change the size of the board of directors prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders, the supermajority voting requirements relating to the amendment, alteration or repeal of the provisions governing the number of directors and filling of vacancies and newly created directorships, the requirement that shareholders act at a meeting unless all shareholders agree in writing, and the inability of shareholders to call a special meeting, in certain instances could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control or the removal of existing management.
