Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 10, 2006, SCOLR Pharma, Inc. entered into an amendment to its exclusive patent license agreement with Archer-Daniels-Midland Company (ADM) which limits the license granted to ADM to isoflavone products. The amended agreement provides ADM with the worldwide, exclusive right to use certain of our technology for isoflavone products (as defined in the agreement) on a royalty free basis. The amendment also eliminates rights of first refusal and other rights previously granted to ADM. We believe the amended agreement will facilitate the introduction of additional dietary supplement products through our alliance with the Perrigo Company of South Carolina. In connection with the amendment, we paid ADM $200,000 and agreed to pay an additional $250,000 at the earlier of one year or the completion of a qualified securities offering. Perrigo has agreed to reimburse SCOLR for $50,000 of each payment to ADM.
