Convertible Note Hedge
Transactions and Warrant
Transactions:

In connection with the pricing of the Notes, the Issuer has entered into privately negotiated convertible note hedge transactions with one or more of the underwriters or their respective affiliates or other financial institutions ("hedge counterparties"). The convertible note hedge transactions will cover, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments, the number of shares of Common Stock that will initially underlie the Notes. The Issuer also has entered into warrant transactions with the hedge counterparties relating to the same number of shares of Common Stock, with a strike price of $184.48, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments.

The convertible note hedge transactions are expected to reduce potential dilution to Common Stock and/or offset potential cash payments the Issuer is required to make in excess of the principal amount upon any conversion of Notes. However, the warrant transactions could separately have a dilutive effect to the extent that the market price per share of Common Stock exceeds the applicable strike price of the warrants on the applicable expiration dates.

If the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional Notes, the Issuer may enter into additional convertible note hedge and warrant transactions.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the conversion rate per $1,000 principal amount of Notes exceed 10.8413, subject to adjustment in the same manner as the conversion rate as set forth under Conversion Rate Adjustments in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.

- (1) Gives effect to the repayment in full of the DOE Loan Facility with $452.4 million of the net proceeds from our convertible notes offering and our common stock offering, including payment of prepayment premium in connection with the early repayment of the DOE Loan Facility. Also gives effect to our net payment of approximately $50.9 million to enter into convertible note hedge warrant transactions (after such cost is partially offset by the proceeds to us from the warrant transactions).

- (2) The restricted cash includes $14.6 million deposited in dedicated DOE accounts in accordance with the requirements of our DOE Loan Facility which will be used primarily for repayment of all principal and interest that will come due on June 15, 2013. Restricted cash also includes security deposits held by vendors as part of the vendors' standard credit policies, security deposits related to lease agreements and equipment financing, and certain refundable reservation payments segregated in accordance with state consumer protection regulations. Upon consummation of our convertible notes offering and our common stock offering and the repayment of the DOE Loan Facility in full, the $14.6 million deposited in dedicated DOE accounts will be returned to us by the DOE.
- (3) Gives effect to the repayment in full of the DOE Loan Facility with proceeds from our convertible notes offering and our common stock offering.
- (4) Reflects on an as-further-adjusted basis the issuance of $600 million aggregate principal amount of notes in our convertible notes offering. In accordance with ASC 470-20, a convertible debt instrument that may be settled entirely or partially in cash is required to be separated into a liability and equity component, such that interest expense reflects the issuer's nonconvertible debt interest rate. Upon issuance, a debt discount will be recognized as a decrease in debt and an increase in additional paid-in capital. The debt component will accrete up to the principal amount over the expected term of the debt. ASC 470-20 does not affect the actual amount that we are required to repay, and the amount shown in the table above for the notes does not reflect the debt discount that we will be required to recognize or the related increase to additional paid-in capital. Additional paid-in capital is reduced as a result of the net cost of the convertible note hedge transactions and the warrant transactions.
