(a) On September 19, 2014, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Atlas Air Worldwide Holdings, Inc. ("AAWW" or the "Company") approved changes to AAWW's Amended and Restated By-Laws, effective as of September 19, 2014, in connection with its annual review of corporate governance matters. The amendments include the following:

Article II (Meetings of Stockholders):

- Updating stockholder meeting procedures consistent with Delaware law to allow for virtual meetings, eliminating a defined date for the annual meeting, addition of provisions to allow a separate record date for notice and voting, adding procedures for postponement or cancellation of a previously called annual meeting, conforming provisions relating to location of the stock ledger in connection with annual meetings, allowing the chairman, as well as stockholders, to adjourn an annual meeting.
- Expanding informational requirements in connection with stockholder proposals and director nominations, including, in part, information regarding the stockholder's and its affiliates' (i) derivative or other similar transactions with respect to the Company's securities, and (ii) direct and indirect compensation arrangements with the proposed nominee.
- Expressly describing the powers and duties of the chairman of a meeting of the stockholders in establishing the agenda of, and the rules and regulations for, any meeting of the stockholders.

Article III (Directors):

- Providing that the number of directors shall be established by the Board of Directors.
- Clarifying that directors shall hold office until their successors are elected at the next annual meeting of stockholders at which their successors are elected and qualified, consistent with Delaware law.

Article IV (Chairman of the Board of Directors):

- Clarifying that any Chairman or Vice-Chairman elected or appointed by the Board may be removed at any time, with or without prior notice, by a majority vote of the Board.

Article V (Meetings of the Board of Directors):

- Streamlining the requirements for and notice provisions of regular and special meetings of the Board.

Article VI (Committees of Directors):

- Simplifying the process for establishing committees of the Board.
- Clarifying that the committees of the Board shall have those powers specified in a board resolution or duly authorized charter for such committee, except to the extent prohibited by Delaware law.
- Eliminating provisions allowing for alternate committee members and provisions related to election of committee chairs.

Article VII (Compensation of Directors):

- Adding a provision that compensation of directors can be determined by the compensation committee in addition to the full board.

Article IX (Notices):

- Providing for electronic delivery of notice to stockholders, as allowed by Delaware law.
- Adding a provision that that attendance at a meeting will constitute waiver of notice of the meeting, except attendance for the sole purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because such meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Article X (Officers):

- Allowing the Board to either elect or appoint officers of the corporation.
- Clarifying the term of elected and appointed officers, who shall hold office until their successors are elected or appointed by the Board, and

- Adding provisions clarifying record dates applicable to postponed or adjourned meetings consistent with Delaware law.

Article XXIII (Annual Statement):

- Deleting Article XXIII, which required the Board of Directors to present a full and clear statement of the business and condition of the corporation at the annual meeting.

Article XXVI (Indemnification):

- Clarifying that the corporation is required to provide mandatory indemnification only to elected officers of the corporation.
- Providing that an elected officer is entitled to a presumption of entitlement to indemnification when a proceeding is resolved in a manner other than adverse judgment, which presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence.
- Providing that the corporation is required to advance expenses incurred by an indemnitee against an unsecured promise to repay such amounts if it is determined that the person was not entitled to indemnification.
- Clarifying that indemnification is not exclusive of other indemnification rights arising out of other agreements or arrangements.
- Clarifying the ability of an indemnitee to seek enforcement of the indemnification provisions and be reimbursed for expenses if successful in such action.
