Certain BlackRock Tax-Exempt Closed-End Funds Announce Results of Joint Special Meeting of Shareholders

New York, December 17, 2010 – BlackRock Advisors, LLC announced today that, at a special meeting of shareholders of BlackRock MuniAssets Fund, Inc. (NYSE:MUA) held today, shareholders of MUA have approved the reorganization of MUA with BlackRock Apex Municipal Fund, Inc (NYSE:APX) (the “Reorganization”).

A special meeting of APX shareholders with respect to the Reorganization was also held today, and has been adjourned upon shareholder motion to allow additional time to further solicit votes of APX shareholders. The reconvened special meeting of APX shareholders will be held at 800 Scudders Mill Road, Plainsboro, New Jersey at 9:00 a.m. on January 14, 2011. Subject to approval from APX shareholders and customary closing conditions being satisfied, it is currently expected that the Reorganization would be completed in the first quarter of 2011. The Reorganization, if completed, would occur based on the relative net asset values of APX and MUA.

BlackRock Advisors, LLC also announced today that, at the special meetings of shareholders held today, shareholders of MUA and APX have approved changes to certain investment guidelines on APX and MUA, as outlined in the Notice of Joint Special Meeting of Shareholders previously mailed to shareholders.

This communication is not intended to, and shall not, constitute an offer to purchase or sell shares of any of the BlackRock funds, including MUA, the surviving fund in the Reorganization. Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of their fund(s) carefully and consider in its entirety the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus relating to the Reorganization which contains important information regarding the investment objectives and policies, risks, charges, expenses and other important information about MUA.
