Articles 330 of the Corporate Law of Japan (the “Corporate Law”) make the provisions of Section 10, Chapter 2, Book III of the Civil Code of Japan applicable to the relationships between the Registrant and its directors and corporate auditors, respectively. Section 10, among other things, provides in effect that:

- (1) Any director or corporate auditor of a company may demand advance payment of expenses which are considered necessary for the management of the affairs of such company entrusted to such director or corporate auditor;
- (2) If a director or corporate auditor of a company has defrayed any expenses which are considered necessary for the management of the affairs of such company entrusted to such director or corporate auditor, the director or corporate auditor may demand reimbursement therefor and interest thereon after the date of payment from the company;
- (3) If a director or corporate auditor has assumed an obligation necessary for the management of affairs entrusted to such director or corporate auditor, the director or corporate auditor may require the company to perform it in such director’s or corporate auditor’s place or, if it is not due, to furnish adequate security; and
- (4) If a director or corporate auditor, without any fault on such director’s or corporate auditor’s part, sustains damage through the management of the affairs entrusted to such director or corporate auditor, the director or corporate auditor may demand compensation therefor from the company.

Under Article 388 of the Corporate Law, a company may not refuse a demand from a corporate auditor referred to in subparagraphs (1) through (3) above unless the company establishes that the relevant expense or obligation was or is not necessary for the performance of the corporate auditor’s duties.

Pursuant to Article 426 of the Corporate Law, Article 27, Paragraph 1 and Article 38, Paragraph 1 of the Registrant’s Articles of Incorporation, the Registrant may, by resolution of its board of directors, exempt the liabilities of its directors and corporate auditors (including persons who have previously served as the Registrant’s directors or corporate auditors) to the extent of the amount permitted under the Corporate Law and applicable law and regulations. Pursuant to Article 427 of the Corporate Law, Article 27, Paragraph 2 and Article 38, Paragraph 2 of the Registrant’s Articles of Incorporation, the Registrant may conclude an agreement with its outside directors and outside corporate auditors to limit the liability for damages of the Registrant caused by non-performance of their duties to the extent of the amount permitted under the Corporate Law and applicable law and regulations.

The Registrant maintains a directors’ insurance policy to insure its directors and corporate auditors against liability for actions or omissions occurring in their capacity as director or corporate auditor, subject to certain exclusions and limitations.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

See Exhibit list on page 9 of this Registration Statement.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
