PART I — FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 1. Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited).

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Stockholders and Board of Directors of Wyndham Destinations, Inc.

Results of Review of Interim Financial Statements

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet of Wyndham Destinations, Inc. (formerly Wyndham Worldwide Corporation) and subsidiaries (the "Company") as of June 30, 2018, the related condensed consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income and (deficit)/equity, for the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, and of cash flows for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "interim financial statements"). Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying interim financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We have previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2017, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, cash flows and equity for the year then ended prior to reclassification for the discontinued operations described in Note 6 (not presented herein) and prior to retrospective adjustment for a change in the Company's method of accounting for revenue from contracts with customers under Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 606, Revenues from Contracts with Customers described in Note 2 (not presented herein); and in our report dated February 16, 2018, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements. We also audited the adjustments described in Note 6 and Note 2 that were applied to reclassify and retrospectively adjust the December 31, 2017, consolidated balance sheet of the Company (not presented herein). In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied to the previously issued consolidated balance sheet in deriving the accompanying retrospectively adjusted condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2017.

Basis for Review Results

The interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with standards of the PCAOB. A review of interim financial statements consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unless otherwise noted, all amounts are in millions, except share and per share amounts)

(Unaudited)

1. Background and Basis of Presentation

Background

Wyndham Destinations, Inc., formerly known as Wyndham Worldwide Corporation, and its subsidiaries (collectively, “Wyndham Destinations” or the “Company”) is a global provider of hospitality services and products. The Company operates in two segments: Vacation Ownership and Exchange & Rentals. The Vacation Ownership segment develops, markets and sells vacation ownership interests (“VOIs”) to individual consumers, provides consumer financing in connection with the sale of VOIs and provides property management services at resorts. The Exchange & Rentals segment provides vacation exchange services and products to owners of VOIs and manages and markets vacation rental properties primarily on behalf of independent owners.

On May 31, 2018, the Company completed the previously announced spin-off of its hotel business into a separate publicly traded company, Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. (“Wyndham Hotels”). This transaction was effected through a pro rata distribution of the new hotel entity’s stock to existing Wyndham Destinations shareholders. In connection with the spin-off, the Company entered into certain agreements with Wyndham Hotels to implement the legal and structural separation, govern the relationship between the Company and Wyndham Hotels up to and after the completion of the separation, and allocate various assets, liabilities and obligations, including, among other things, employee benefits, intellectual property and tax-related assets and liabilities between the Company and Wyndham Hotels. The two public companies have entered into long-term exclusive license agreements to retain their affiliations with one of the industry’s top-rated loyalty programs, Wyndham Rewards, as well as to continue to collaborate on inventory-sharing and customer cross-sell initiatives.

On May 9, 2018, the Company completed the sale of its European vacation rentals business.

For all periods presented, the Company has classified the results of operations for its hotel business and its European vacation rentals business as discontinued operations. See further detail in Note 6—Discontinued Operations.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q include the accounts and transactions of Wyndham Destinations, as well as the entities in which Wyndham Destinations directly or indirectly has a controlling financial interest. The accompanying Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S.”). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. In addition, certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to comply with newly adopted accounting standards. See further detail in Note 2—New Accounting Pronouncements.

The Company changed its balance sheet presentation from classified (distinguishing between short-term and long-term accounts) to unclassified (no such distinction) in the second quarter of 2018. This change was prompted by the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels at which time the Company became predominantly a real-estate timeshare company. This presentation will conform to that of the Company’s peers within the timeshare industry. Both the December 31, 2017 and the June 30, 2018 Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets have been presented in an unclassified format.

In presenting the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements, management makes estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported and related disclosures. Estimates, by their nature, are based on judgment and available information. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. In management’s opinion, the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements contain all normal recurring adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of interim results reported. The results of operations reported for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for the entire year or any subsequent interim period. These Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's 2017 Consolidated Financial Statements included in its Annual Report filed on Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 16, 2018.

2. New Accounting Pronouncements

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

Leases. In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued new guidance for lease accounting. This guidance along with its subsequent corresponding updates requires companies generally to recognize on the balance sheet operating and financing lease liabilities and corresponding right-of-use assets. The new standard requires a modified retrospective transition approach for all leases existing at, or entered into after, the date of initial application. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018 and for interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. Progress continues with our implementation efforts, including the evaluation of the impact that adoption of this new guidance will have on our financial statements and disclosures.

We expect that the new guidance for lease accounting will have a material effect on our consolidated balance sheets.

Financial Instruments - Credit Losses. In June 2016, the FASB issued guidance which amends the guidance on measuring credit losses on financial assets held at amortized cost. The guidance requires the measurement of all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this guidance on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment. In January 2017, the FASB issued guidance which simplifies the current two-step goodwill impairment test by eliminating Step 2 of the test. The guidance requires a one-step impairment test in which an entity compares the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount and recognizes an impairment charge for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit’s fair value, if any. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019 and interim periods within those fiscal years, and should be applied on a prospective basis. Early adoption is permitted for the interim or annual goodwill impairment tests performed on testing dates after January 1, 2017. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this guidance on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Derivatives and Hedging - Targeted Improvements to Accounting for Hedging Activities. In August 2017, the FASB issued guidance intended to better align an entity’s risk management activities and financial reporting for hedging relationships through changes to both the designation and measurement guidance for qualifying hedging relationships and the presentation of hedge results. The guidance will expand and refine hedge accounting for both nonfinancial and financial risk components and align the recognition and presentation of the effects of the hedging instrument and the hedged item in the financial statements. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018 and for interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this guidance on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Reporting Comprehensive Income - Reclassification of Certain Tax Effects from Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income. In February 2018, the FASB issued guidance allowing for the reclassification of the stranded tax effects resulting from the implementation of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act from accumulated other comprehensive income (“AOCI”) to retained earnings. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018 and interim periods within those fiscal years, and should be applied either in the period of adoption or retrospectively to each period in which the effect of the change in the U.S. federal corporate income tax rate in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act is recognized. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this guidance on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Stock Compensation - Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting. In June 2018, the FASB issued guidance intended to simplify nonemployee share-based payment accounting. This new guidance will more closely align the accounting for share-based payment awards issued to employees and nonemployees. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018 and for interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this guidance on its financial statements and related disclosures.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In May 2014, the FASB issued guidance on revenue from contracts with customers. The guidance outlines a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. The guidance also requires disclosures regarding the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. Entities have the option to apply the new guidance under a retrospective approach to each prior reporting period presented or a modified retrospective approach with the cumulative effect of initially applying the new guidance recognized at the date of initial application within the statement of financial position. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2018 utilizing the full retrospective transition method. This new guidance had a minimal impact on the Company's continuing operations.

The tables below summarize the impact of the adoption of the new revenue standard and reclassifications related to discontinued operations on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Income Statements:

In addition, the cumulative impact to the Company's retained earnings at January 1, 2016, was a decrease of $90 million.

Intra-Entity Transfers of Assets Other Than Inventory. In October 2016, the FASB issued guidance which requires companies to recognize the income tax consequences of an intra-entity transfer of an asset other than inventory when the transfer occurs. This guidance requires the modified retrospective approach and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted.

The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2018, as required, which resulted in a cumulative-effect change to retained earnings of $19 million.

Clarifying the Definition of a Business. In January 2017, the FASB issued guidance clarifying the definition of a business, which assists entities when evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as acquisitions of businesses or assets. This guidance is effective on a prospective basis for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2018, as required. There was no material impact on its Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and related disclosures.

Compensation - Stock Compensation. In May 2017, the FASB issued guidance which provides clarification on when modification accounting should be used for changes to the terms or conditions of a share-based payment award. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017 and for interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2018, as required. There was no material impact on its Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and related disclosures.

Statement of Cash Flows. In August 2016, the FASB issued guidance intended to reduce diversity in practice in how certain transactions are classified in the statement of cash flows. This guidance requires the retrospective transition method and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2018, as required.

Restricted Cash. In November 2016, the FASB issued guidance which requires amounts generally described as restricted cash be included with cash and cash equivalents when reconciling the total beginning and ending amounts for the periods shown on the statement of cash flows. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2018, as required, using a retrospective transition method. The impact of this guidance resulted in escrow deposits and restricted cash being included with cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The table below summarizes the effects of the new statement of cash flows and restricted cash guidance on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows:

3. Revenue Recognition

Vacation Ownership

The Company develops, markets and sells VOIs to individual consumers, provides property management services at resorts and provides consumer financing in connection with the sale of VOIs. The Company's sales of VOIs are either cash sales or developer-financed sales. Developer financed sales are typically collateralized by the underlying VOI. Revenue is recognized on VOI sales upon transfer of control, which is defined as the point in time when a binding sales contract has been executed, the financing contract has been executed for the remaining transaction price, the statutory rescission period has expired and the transaction price has been deemed to be collectible.

For developer-financed sales, the Company reduces the VOI sales transaction price by an estimate of uncollectible consideration at the time of the sale. The Company's estimates of uncollectible amounts are based largely on the results of the Company's static pool analysis which relies on historical payment data by customer class.

In connection with entering into a VOI sale, the Company may provide its customers with certain non-cash incentives, such as credits for future stays at its resorts. For those VOI sales, the Company bifurcates the sale and allocates the sales price between the VOI sale and the non-cash incentive. Non-cash incentives generally have expiration periods of 18 months or less and are recognized at a point in time upon transfer of control.

The Company provides day-to-day property management services including oversight of housekeeping services, maintenance and certain accounting and administrative services for property owners' associations and clubs. These services may also include reservation and resort renovation activities. Such agreements are generally for terms of one year or less, and are renewed automatically on an annual basis. The Company's management agreements contain cancellation clauses, which allow for either party to cancel the agreement, by either a majority board vote or a majority vote of non-developer interests. The Company receives fees for such property management services which are collected monthly in advance and are based upon total costs to operate such resorts (or as services are provided in the case of resort renovation activities). Fees for property management services typically approximate 10% of budgeted operating expenses. The Company is entitled to consideration for reimbursement of costs incurred on behalf of the property owners' association in providing the management services ("reimbursable revenue"). The Company reduces its management fees for amounts it has paid to the property owners' association that reflect maintenance fees for VOIs for which it retains ownership, as the Company has concluded that such payments are consideration payable to a customer.

Exchange & Rentals

As a provider of vacation exchange services, the Company enters into affiliation agreements with developers of vacation ownership properties to allow owners of VOIs to trade their intervals for intervals at other properties affiliated with the Company's vacation exchange brands and, for some members, for other leisure-related services and products. Additionally, as a marketer of vacation rental properties, generally the Company enters into contracts for exclusive periods of time with property owners to market the rental of such properties to rental customers.

Table of Contents

The Company's vacation exchange brands derive a majority of revenues from membership dues and fees for facilitating members trading of their intervals. Revenues from membership dues represent the fees paid by members or affiliated clubs on their behalf. The Company recognizes revenues from membership dues paid by the member on a straight-line basis over the membership period as the performance obligations are fulfilled through delivery of publications, if applicable, and by providing access to other travel-related products and services. Consideration paid by affiliated clubs for memberships are recognized as revenue over the term of the contract with the affiliated club in proportion to the estimated average monthly member count. Such estimates are adjusted periodically for changes in the actual and forecasted member activity. For additional fees, members have the right to exchange their intervals for intervals at other properties affiliated with the Company's vacation exchange networks and, for certain members, for other leisure-related services and products. Fees for facilitating exchanges are recognized as revenue, net of expected cancellations, when these transactions have been confirmed to the member.

The Company's vacation exchange brands also derive revenues from: (i) additional services, programs with affiliated resorts, club servicing and loyalty programs and (ii) additional exchange-related products that provide members with the ability to protect trading power or points, extend the life of deposits, and combine two or more deposits for the opportunity to exchange into intervals with higher trading power. Other vacation exchange related product fees are deferred and recognized as revenue upon the occurrence of a future exchange, other related transaction or event.

The Company earns revenue from its RCI Elite Rewards co-branded credit card program which is primarily generated by cardholder spending and the enrollment of new cardholders. The advance payments received under the program are recognized as a contract liability. The program primarily contains two performance obligations: (i) brand performance services, for which revenue is recognized over the contract term on a straight-line basis, and (ii) issuance and redemption of loyalty points, for which revenue is recognized over time based upon the redemption pattern of the loyalty points earned under the program including an estimate of loyalty points that will expire without redemption.

The Company's vacation rental brands derive revenue from fees associated with the rental of vacation rental properties on behalf of independent owners. The Company remits the rental fee received from the renter to the independent owner, net of the Company's agreed-upon fee. The related revenue from such fees, net of expected refunds, is recognized over the renter's stay. The Company's vacation rental brands also derive revenues from additional services delivered to independent owners, vacation rental guests, and property owners' associations that are generally recognized when the service is delivered.

Contract Liabilities

Contract liabilities generally represent payments or consideration received in advance for goods or services that the Company has not yet transferred to the customer. Contract liabilities as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017 are as follows:

Contract Liabilities	June 30, December 31,
	2018	2017
Deferred subscription revenue	$ 233	$ 229
Deferred VOI trial package revenue	110	108
Deferred VOI incentive revenue	98	102
Deferred exchange-related revenue	60	63
Deferred vacation rental revenue	62	38
Deferred co-branded credit card programs revenue	14	13
Deferred other revenue	15	3
Total	$ 592	$ 556

In the Company's vacation ownership business, deferred VOI trial package revenue represents consideration received in advance for a trial VOI, which allows customers to utilize a vacation package typically within one year of purchase. Deferred VOI incentive revenue represents payments received in advance for additional travel-related services and products at the time of a VOI sale. Revenue is recognized when a customer utilizes the additional services and products, which is typically within one year of the VOI sale.

Table of Contents

Within the Company's vacation exchange business, deferred subscription revenue represents billings and payments received in advance from members and affiliated clubs for memberships in the Company's vacation exchange programs which are recognized in future periods. Deferred exchange-related revenue primarily represent payments received in advance from members for the right to exchange their intervals for intervals at other properties affiliated with the Company's vacation exchange networks and for other leisure-related services and products which are generally recognized as revenue within one year. In the Company's vacation rentals business, deferred vacation rental revenue represent billings and payments received in advance of a customer's rental stay which are generally recognized as revenue within one year.

Capitalized Contract Costs

The Company's vacation ownership business incurs certain direct and incremental selling costs in connection with VOI trial package and incentive revenues. Such costs are capitalized and subsequently amortized over the utilization period, which is typically within one year of the sale. As of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, these capitalized costs were $42 million and $44 million, respectively, and are included within other assets on the Condense Consolidated Balance Sheet.

The Company's vacation exchange and vacation rentals businesses incur certain direct and incremental selling costs to obtain contracts with customers in connection with subscription revenues, exchange-related revenues, and vacation rental revenues. Such costs, which are primarily comprised of commissions paid to internal and external parties and credit card processing fees, are deferred at the inception of the contract and recognized when the benefit is transferred to the customer. As of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, these capitalized costs were $22 million and $9 million, respectively.

Practical Expedients

The Company has not adjusted the consideration for the effects of a significant financing component if it expected, at contract inception, that the period between when the Company satisfied the performance obligation and when the customer paid for that good or service was one year or less.

For contracts with customers that were modified before the beginning of the earliest reporting period presented, the Company did not retrospectively restate the revenue associated with the contract for those modifications. Instead, it reflected the aggregate effect of all prior modifications in determining (i) the performance obligations and transaction prices and (ii) the allocation of such transaction prices to the performance obligations.

Performance Obligations

A performance obligation is a promise in a contract with a customer to transfer a distinct good or service to the customer. The consideration received from a customer is allocated to each distinct performance obligation and recognized as revenue when, or as, each performance obligation is satisfied. The following table summarizes the Company's remaining performance obligations for the twelve month periods set forth below:

	7/1/2018- 6/30/2019	7/1/2019- 6/30/2020	7/1/2020- 6/30/2021	Thereafter	Total

4. Earnings Per Share

The computation of basic and diluted earnings per share (“EPS”) is based on net income divided by the basic weighted average number of common shares and diluted weighted average number of common shares, respectively.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted EPS (in millions, except per share data):

	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,

For the three months ended June 30, 2018, the dilutive impacts of SSARS, RSUs and PSUs were excluded from the ^(a) diluted EPS calculation for continuing operations as their impact would have been anti-dilutive given the Company’s loss from continuing operations.

Excludes 0.2 million restricted stock units (“RSUs”) for the three months ended June 30, 2018 that would have been ^(b) anti-dilutive to EPS. Includes unvested dilutive RSUs which are subject to future forfeiture. The number of anti-dilutive RSUs for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 were immaterial.

Excludes 0.7 million and 0.6 million performance-vested restricted stock units (“PSUs”) for the three and ^(c) six months ended June 30, 2017, as the Company had not met the required performance metrics. As a result of the spin-off of the hotel business, the Company accelerated the vesting of PSUs. There were no outstanding PSUs as of June 30, 2018.

Excludes 0.3 million and 0.1 million outstanding stock awards for the three and six months ended June 30, 2018
^(d) that would have been anti-dilutive to EPS.

5. Acquisitions

In January 2018, the Company entered into an agreement with La Quinta Holdings Inc. (“La Quinta”) to acquire its hotel franchising and management businesses for $1.95 billion. At the time we entered into this agreement, we obtained financing commitments of $2.0 billion in the form of an unsecured bridge term loan, which was subsequently replaced with net cash proceeds from the issuance of $500 million unsecured notes, a $1.6 billion term loan and a $750 million revolving credit facility, which was undrawn as of June 30, 2018. This acquisition closed on May 30, 2018, prior to the hotel business spin-off. Upon completion of the spin-off, La Quinta became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wyndham Hotels and the associated debt was transferred to Wyndham Hotels.

6. Discontinued Operations

On May 9, 2018, the Company completed the previously announced sale of its European vacation rentals business to Compass IV Limited, an affiliate of Platinum Equity, LLC, and received net proceeds of $1.03 billion, which resulted in an after-tax gain of $432 million, net of $159 million in taxes. The after-tax gain factors in reductions for the impact of the estimated fair value of guarantees and other indemnities totaling $87 million, of which $41 million was provided by Wyndham Hotels, and a $53 million escrow deposit made by the Company in connection with post-closing credit support as discussed in Note 21—Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries. The transaction is subject to customary adjustments for cash, debt and working capital.

On May 31, 2018, the Company completed the spin-off of its hotel business. This transaction was effected through a pro rata distribution of the new hotel entity’s stock to existing Wyndham Destinations shareholders. This spin-off included the newly-acquired La Quinta businesses as discussed in Note 5—Acquisitions. In addition, in the second quarter the Company sold its Knights Inn brand and franchise system for $27 million, resulting in a $23 million gain.

For all periods presented, the Company has classified the results of operations for its hotel business and the European vacation rentals business as discontinued operations in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income, Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets, and Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. All results and information presented exclude these discontinued businesses unless otherwise noted. Discontinued operations include direct expenses clearly identifiable to the businesses being discontinued and will not continue to be recognized on an ongoing basis. Discontinued operations exclude the allocation of corporate overhead and interest. Discontinued operations included $72 million and $93 million of separation and related costs during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, respectively.

Prior to the spin-off of the hotel business, the Company had three reportable segments: Vacation Ownership, Destination Network and Hotel Group. Prior to its classification as a discontinued operation, the European vacation rentals business was part of the Destination Network segment and the hotel business comprised the Hotel Group segment. Following the spin-off of the hotel business, the Company changed the structure of its internal organization which caused the composition of its reportable segments to change. The Company now has two reportable segments: Vacation Ownership and Exchange & Rentals as discussed in Note 17—Segment Information.

The results of our discontinued businesses reflect the adoption of the new revenue recognition standard. Under this standard, initial fees were recognized ratably over the life of the noncancelable period of the franchise agreement and incremental upfront contract costs were deferred and expensed over the life of the noncancelable period of the franchise agreement. Revenue from rentals was recognized over the renters' stay, which is the period over which the service is rendered. Loyalty revenues were deferred and primarily recognized over the loyalty points' redemption pattern. Additionally, a liability is no longer accrued for future marketing and reservation costs when marketing and reservation revenues earned exceed costs incurred. Marketing and reservation costs incurred in excess of revenues earned were expensed as incurred.

The following table below presents information regarding certain components of income from discontinued operations, net of income taxes:

The Company's securitized vacation ownership contract receivables generated interest income of $89 million and $175 million during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, respectively, and $83 million and $166 million during the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, respectively. Such interest income is included within consumer financing revenue on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

During the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, the Company originated vacation ownership contract receivables of $686 million and $640 million, respectively, and received principal collections of $453 million and $443 million, respectively. The weighted average interest rate on outstanding vacation ownership contract receivables was 14.0% and 13.9% as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively.

The activity in the allowance for loan losses on vacation ownership contract receivables was as follows:

In accordance with the guidance for accounting for real estate time-sharing transactions, the Company recorded a provision for loan losses of $126 million and $218 million as a reduction of net revenues during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, respectively, and $110 million and $195 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, respectively.

Credit Quality for Financed Receivables and the Allowance for Credit Losses

The basis of the differentiation within the identified class of financed VOI contract receivables is the consumer's FICO score. A FICO score is a branded version of a consumer credit score widely used in the United States by the largest banks and lending institutions. FICO scores range from 300 to 850 and are calculated based on information obtained from one or more of the three major U.S. credit reporting agencies that compile and report on a consumer's credit history. The Company updates its records for all active VOI contract receivables with a balance due on a rolling monthly basis to ensure that all VOI contract receivables are scored at least every six months. The Company groups all VOI contract receivables into five different categories: FICO scores ranging from 700 to 850, ranging from 600 to 699, Below 600, No Score (primarily comprised of consumers for whom a score is not readily available, including consumers declining access to FICO scores and non-U.S. residents) and Asia Pacific (comprised of receivables in the Company's Wyndham Vacation Resort Asia Pacific business for which scores are not readily available).

The following table details an aging analysis of financing receivables using the most recently updated FICO scores (based on the policy described above):

As of June 30, 2018

The Company ceases to accrue interest on VOI contract receivables once the contract has remained delinquent for greater than 90 days. At greater than 120 days, the VOI contract receivable is written off to the allowance for loan losses. In accordance with its policy, the Company assesses the allowance for loan losses using a static pool methodology and thus does not assess individual loans for impairment separate from the pool.

During the six months ended June 30, 2018, the Company transferred $35 million of VOI inventory to property and equipment; and during the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company transferred $28 million from property and equipment to VOI inventory. In addition to the inventory obligations listed below, the Company had $7 million and $6 million of inventory accruals included within accounts payable on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively.

Inventory Sale Transactions

During 2013, the Company sold real property located in Las Vegas, Nevada and Avon, Colorado to a third-party developer, consisting of vacation ownership inventory and property and equipment. During 2015, the Company sold real property located in Saint Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands to a third-party developer, consisting of $80 million of vacation ownership inventory, in exchange for $80 million in cash consideration.

The Company recognized no gain or loss on these sales transactions. In accordance with the agreements with the third-party developers, the Company has conditional rights and conditional obligations to repurchase the completed properties from the developers subject to the properties conforming to the Company's vacation ownership resort standards and provided that the third-party developers have not sold the properties to another party. Under the sale of real estate accounting guidance, the conditional rights and obligations of the Company constitute continuing involvement and thus the Company did not account for these transactions as a sale.

During 2017, the Company acquired property located in Austin, Texas from a third-party developer for vacation ownership inventory and property and equipment.

The following table summarizes the activity related to the Company's inventory obligations:

New Credit Agreement

On May 31, 2018, the Company entered into a credit agreement with Bank of America, N.A. as administrative agent and collateral agent. The agreement provides for new senior secured credit facilities in the amount of $1.3 billion, consisting of secured term loan B of $300 million maturing in 2025 and a new revolving facility of $1.0 billion maturing in 2023. The interest rate per annum applicable to the term loan B is equal to, at the Company's option, either a base rate (currently 5.00%) plus a margin of 1.25% or LIBOR (Eurocurrency Rate) plus a margin of 2.25%. The interest rate per annum applicable to borrowings under the new revolving credit facility is equal to, at the Company's option, either a base rate (currently 5.00%) plus a margin ranging from 0.75% to 1.25% or LIBOR plus a margin ranging from 1.75% to 2.25%, in either case based upon the first-lien leverage ratio of Wyndham Destinations and its restricted subsidiaries. The LIBOR rate with respect to either term loan B or revolving credit facility borrowings are not subject to a minimum rate.

In connection with the new credit agreement, the Company entered into a security agreement with Bank of America, N.A., as collateral agent, as defined in the security agreement, for the secured parties. The security agreement granted a security interest in the collateral of the Company and added the holders of Wyndham Destinations' outstanding 7.375% notes due 2020, 5.625% notes due 2021, 4.25% notes due 2022, 3.90% notes due 2023, 4.15% notes due 2024, 5.10% notes due 2025 and 4.50% notes due 2027, as "secured parties," as defined in the security agreement, that share equally and ratably in the collateral owned by the Company for so long as indebtedness under the credit agreement is secured by such collateral.

Separation and Related Debt Activity

In connection with the spin-off and the entry into the credit facilities described above, on May 31, 2018, the Company used net proceeds from the secured term loan B and $220 million of borrowings under the new $1.0 billion revolving credit facility to repay $484 million of outstanding principal borrowings under its revolving credit facility maturing in 2020. In addition, effective May 31, 2018, the Company terminated the $1.5 billion revolving credit facility maturing in 2020, the $400 million 364-day credit facility maturing in 2018 and the $325 million term loan maturing in 2021.

In January 2018, the Company entered into an agreement with La Quinta to acquire its hotel franchising and management businesses for $1.95 billion. At the time we entered into this agreement, we obtained financing commitments of $2.0 billion in the form of an unsecured bridge term loan, which was subsequently replaced with net cash proceeds from the issuance of $500 million unsecured notes, a $1.6 billion term loan and a $750 million revolving credit facility, which was undrawn. This acquisition closed on May 30, 2018, prior to the hotel business spin-off. Upon completion of the spin-off, La Quinta became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wyndham Hotels and the associated debt remained debt of Wyndham Hotels for which we are not liable.

Following the spin-off, the Company's corporate notes were downgraded by Standard & Poor's Ratings Services ("S&P") and Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"). Pursuant to the terms of the indentures governing the Company's 4.15% Notes due 2024 (the "2024 Notes"), 5.10% Notes due 2025 (the "2025 Notes"), and 4.50% Notes due 2027 (the "2027 Notes"), as a result of such notes being downgraded by S&P and Moody's following the consummation of the spin-off, effective from October 1, 2018, the interest rate on the 2024 Notes, 2025 Notes and the 2027 Notes will be increased to 5.40%, 6.35% and 5.75% per annum, respectively. Pursuant to the terms of the indentures governing such series of notes, the interest rate on each such series of notes may be subject to future increases or decreases, as a result of future downgrades or upgrades to the credit ratings of such notes by S&P, Moody's or a substitute rating agency.

Sierra Timeshare Conduit Renewal

On April 6, 2018, the Company renewed its securitized timeshare receivables conduit facility for a two-year period through April 2020 and increased the capacity to $800 million. Borrowings under this facility are required to be repaid as the collateralized receivables amortize, no later than May 2021.

Table of Contents

Sierra Timeshare 2018-1 Receivables Funding, LLC

On April 18, 2018, the Company closed on a private placement of a series of term notes payable, issued by Sierra Timeshare 2018-1 Receivables Fundings, LLC, with an initial principal amount of $350 million, which are secured by vacation ownership contract receivables and bear interest at a weighted average coupon rate of 3.73%. The advance rate for this transaction was 90.00%.

Commercial Paper

The Company terminated its European and U.S. commercial paper programs during the first and second quarter of 2018, respectively. Prior to termination, the U.S. and European commercial paper programs had total capacities of $750 million and $500 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2018, the Company had no outstanding borrowings under these programs. As of December 31, 2017, the Company had outstanding borrowings of $147 million at a weighted average interest rate of 2.34% under its U.S. commercial paper program.

Fair Value Hedges

During the first quarter of 2017, the Company entered into pay-variable/receive-fixed interest rate swap agreements on its 4.50% senior unsecured notes with notional amounts of $400 million. The fixed interest rate on these notes was effectively modified to a variable LIBOR-based index. As of June 30, 2018, the variable interest rate on the notional portion of the 4.50% senior unsecured notes was 4.27%.

During 2013, the Company entered into pay-variable/receive-fixed interest rate swap agreements on its 3.90% and 4.25% senior unsecured notes with notional amounts of $400 million and $100 million, respectively. The fixed interest rates on these notes were effectively modified to a variable LIBOR-based index. During May 2015, the Company terminated the swap agreements resulting in a gain of $17 million, which is being amortized over the remaining life of the senior unsecured notes as a reduction to interest expense on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. The Company has $8 million and $9 million of deferred gains as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017 which are included within debt on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Maturities and Capacity

The Company's outstanding debt as of June 30, 2018 matures as follows:

	Non-recourse Vacation Ownership Debt	Debt	Total
Within 1 year	$ 229	$79	$308
Between 1 and 2 years	621	45	666
Between 2 and 3 years	408	252	660
Between 3 and 4 years	148	652	800
Between 4 and 5 years	160	651	811
Thereafter	528	1,301	1,829
	$ 2,094	$2,980	$5,074

Required principal payments on the non-recourse vacation ownership debt are based on the contractual repayment terms of the underlying vacation ownership contract receivables. Actual maturities may differ as a result of prepayments by the vacation ownership contract receivable obligors.

Table of Contents

As of June 30, 2018, available capacity under the Company's borrowing arrangements was as follows:

	Non-recourse Conduit Facilities (a)	Revolving Credit Facilities (b)
Total Capacity	$ 1,550	$ 1,000
Less: Outstanding Borrowings	868	243
Letters of credit	—	36
Available Capacity	$ 682	$ 721

Consists of the Company's Sierra Receivable Funding Conduit II 2008-A and Sierra Receivable Funding Conduit
(a) III 2017-A facilities. The capacity of these facilities is subject to the Company's ability to provide additional assets to collateralize additional non-recourse borrowings.

(b) Consists of the Company's $1.0 billion revolving credit facilities.

Debt Covenants

The revolving credit facilities and term loan are subject to covenants including the maintenance of specific financial ratios as defined in the credit agreement. Commencing with the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2018, the financial ratio covenants consist of a minimum interest coverage ratio of at least 2.5 to 1.0 as of the measurement date and a maximum first lien leverage ratio not to exceed 4.25 to 1.0 as of the measurement date. The interest coverage ratio is calculated by dividing consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the credit agreement) by consolidated interest expense (as defined in the credit agreement), both as measured on a trailing 12-month basis preceding the measurement date. As of June 30, 2018, our interest coverage ratio was 5.9 to 1.0. The first lien leverage ratio is calculated by dividing consolidated first lien debt (as defined in the credit agreement) as of the measurement date by consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the credit agreement) as measured on a trailing 12-month basis preceding the measurement date. As of June 30, 2018, our first lien leverage ratio was 2.9 to 1.0. These ratios do not include interest expense or indebtedness related to any qualified securitization financing (as defined in the credit agreement). As of June 30, 2018, we were in compliance with all of the financial covenants described above.

Each of our non-recourse term securitizations and bank conduit facilities contain certain tests based on default, delinquency and overcollateralization rates of the loan pool that collateralizes such non-recourse financing. If a loan pool is not in compliance with those tests, the cash flows from that loan pool will be retained as extra collateral for such financing or applied to accelerate the repayment of outstanding principal to the note holders. As of June 30, 2018, all of our loan pools were in compliance with the applicable tests.

Interest Expense

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, the Company incurred interest expense of $46 million and $91 million, respectively, on debt excluding non-recourse vacation ownership debt, partially offset by less than $1 million and $1 million of capitalized interest, respectively. Such amounts are included within interest expense on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Cash paid related to such interest was $90 million during the six months ended June 30, 2018.

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company incurred interest expense of $39 million and $73 million, respectively, on debt excluding non-recourse vacation ownership debt, partially offset by less than $1 million and $1 million of capitalized interest. Such amounts are included within interest expense on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Cash paid related to such interest was $69 million during the six months ended June 30, 2017.

Interest expense incurred in connection with the Company's non-recourse vacation ownership debt during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 was $20 million and $39 million, respectively, and $19 million and $37 million during the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, respectively, and is recorded within consumer financing interest on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Cash paid related to such interest was $25 million for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017.

10. Variable Interest Entities

In accordance with the applicable accounting guidance for the consolidation of a variable interest entity ("VIE"), the Company analyzes its variable interests, including loans, guarantees, special purpose entities ("SPEs") and equity investments, to determine if an entity in which the Company has a variable interest is a VIE. If the entity is considered to be a VIE, the Company determines whether it would be considered the entity's primary beneficiary. The Company consolidates into its financial statements those VIEs for which it has determined that it is the primary beneficiary.

Vacation Ownership Contract Receivables Securitizations

The Company pools qualifying vacation ownership contract receivables and sells them to bankruptcy-remote entities. Vacation ownership contract receivables qualify for securitization based primarily on the credit strength of the VOI purchaser to whom financing has been extended. Vacation ownership contract receivables are securitized through bankruptcy-remote SPEs that are consolidated within the Company's financial statements. As a result, the Company does not recognize gains or losses resulting from these securitizations at the time of sale to the SPEs. Interest income is recognized when earned over the contractual life of the vacation ownership contract receivables. The Company services the securitized vacation ownership contract receivables pursuant to servicing agreements negotiated on an arm's-length basis based on market conditions. The activities of these SPEs are limited to (i) purchasing vacation ownership contract receivables from the Company's vacation ownership subsidiaries, (ii) issuing debt securities and/or borrowing under a conduit facility to fund such purchases and (iii) entering into derivatives to hedge interest rate exposure. The bankruptcy-remote SPEs are legally separate from the Company. The receivables held by the bankruptcy-remote SPEs are not available to creditors of the Company and legally are not assets of the Company. Additionally, the non-recourse debt that is securitized through the SPEs is legally not a liability of the Company and thus, the creditors have no recourse to the Company for principal and interest.

The assets and liabilities of these vacation ownership SPEs are as follows:

(c) Included in trade receivables, net on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

(d) Primarily includes deferred financing costs for the bank conduit facility and a security investment asset, which is included in other assets on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

(e) Included in non-recourse vacation ownership debt on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

(f) Includes deferred financing costs of $13 million and $15 million as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively, related to non-recourse debt

(g) Primarily includes accrued interest on non-recourse debt, which is included in accrued expenses and other liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In addition, the Company has vacation ownership contract receivables that have not been securitized through bankruptcy-remote SPEs. Such gross receivables were $1.10 billion and $1.04 billion as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively.

Table of Contents

A summary of total vacation ownership contract receivables and other securitized assets, net of non-recourse liabilities and the allowance for loan losses, is as follows:

In addition to restricted cash related to securitizations, the Company had $119 million and $65 million of restricted cash related to escrow deposits as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively, which are recorded within other assets on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Clearwater, FL Property

During 2015, the Company entered into an agreement with a third-party partner whereby the partner would develop and construct VOI inventory through an SPE. During the first quarter of 2017, the third-party partner met certain conditions of the agreement, which resulted in the Company committing to purchase $51 million of VOI inventory from the SPE over a two-year period. Such proceeds from the purchase will be used by the SPE to repay its mortgage notes related to the property. The Company is considered to be the primary beneficiary for specified assets and liabilities of the SPE and, therefore, the Company consolidated $51 million of both property and equipment and other debt on its Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet.

Saint Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands Property

During 2015, the Company sold real property located in Saint Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands to a third-party developer to construct VOI inventory through an SPE. In accordance with the agreements with the third-party developer, the Company has conditional rights and conditional obligations to repurchase the completed property from the developer subject to the property conforming to the Company's vacation ownership resort standards and provided that the third-party developer has not sold the property to another party.

During the fourth quarter of 2017, the Company became the primary beneficiary for specified assets and liabilities of the SPE, and therefore consolidated $64 million of property and equipment and $104 million of debt on its Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet. As a result of this consolidation, the Company incurred a non-cash $37 million loss due to a write-down of property and equipment to fair value.

The assets and liabilities of the Clearwater, FL Property and Saint Thomas Property SPEs are as follows:

	June 30, December 31,
	2018	2017
Property and equipment, net	$ 55	$ 90
Total SPE assets	55	90
Accrued expenses and other liabilities	1	—
Debt ^(a)	75	131

(a) Included $75 million and $131 million relating to mortgage notes, which were included in Debt on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively.

During the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, the SPE conveyed $17 million and $30 million, respectively, of property and equipment to the Company.

Table of Contents

11. Fair Value

The Company measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value on a recurring basis and utilizes the fair value hierarchy to determine such fair values. Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets.

Level 2: Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value driver is observable.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs used when little or no market data is available. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls has been determined based on the lowest level input (closest to Level 3) that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment, and considers factors specific to the asset or liability.

As of June 30, 2018, the Company had interest rate swap contracts resulting in $17 million of liabilities which are included within other liabilities and foreign exchange contracts resulting in $1 million of assets which are included within other assets on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet. On a recurring basis, such assets and liabilities are remeasured at estimated fair value (all of which are Level 2) and thus are equal to the carrying value.

The Company's derivative instruments primarily consist of pay-fixed/receive-variable interest rate swaps, pay-variable/receive-fixed interest rate swaps, interest rate caps, foreign exchange forward contracts and foreign exchange average rate forward contracts. For assets and liabilities that are measured using quoted prices in active markets, the fair value is the published market price per unit multiplied by the number of units held without consideration of transaction costs. Assets and liabilities that are measured using other significant observable inputs are valued by reference to similar assets and liabilities. For these items, a significant portion of fair value is derived by reference to quoted prices of similar assets and liabilities in active markets. For assets and liabilities that are measured using significant unobservable inputs, fair value is primarily derived using a fair value model, such as a discounted cash flow model.

The fair value of financial instruments is generally determined by reference to market values resulting from trading on a national securities exchange or in an over-the-counter market. In cases where quoted market prices are not available, fair value is based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques, as appropriate. The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, trade receivables, accounts payable and accrued expenses and other current liabilities approximate fair value due to the short-term maturities of these assets and liabilities. The carrying amounts and estimated fair values of all other financial instruments are as follows:

	June 30, 2018		December 31, 2017
	Carrying Amount	Estimated Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Estimated Fair Value
Assets
Vacation ownership contract receivables, net	$2,904	$ 3,517	$2,901	$ 3,489
Debt
Total debt	$5,074	$ 5,057	$6,006	$ 6,084

The Company estimates the fair value of its vacation ownership contract receivables using a discounted cash flow model which it believes is comparable to the model that an independent third-party would use in the current market. The model uses Level 3 inputs consisting of default rates, prepayment rates, coupon rates and loan terms for the contract receivables portfolio as key drivers of risk and relative value that, when applied in combination with pricing parameters, determines the fair value of the underlying contract receivables.

The Company estimates the fair value of its non-recourse vacation ownership debt by obtaining Level 2 inputs comprised of indicative bids from investment banks that actively issue and facilitate the secondary market for timeshare securities. The Company estimates the fair value of its debt, excluding capital leases, using Level 2 inputs based on indicative bids from investment banks and determines the fair value of its senior notes using quoted market prices (such senior notes are not actively traded).

12. Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

Foreign Currency Risk

The Company has foreign currency rate exposure to exchange rate fluctuations worldwide with particular exposure to the British pound, Euro, Canadian and Australian dollars, Brazilian real, and Mexican peso. The Company uses freestanding foreign currency forward contracts to manage a portion of its exposure to changes in foreign currency exchange rates associated with its foreign currency denominated receivables, payables, forecasted earnings of foreign subsidiaries and intercompany borrowings that are denominated in currencies other than the Company's underlying functional currency.

Additionally, the Company uses foreign currency forward contracts designated as cash flow hedges to manage a portion of its exposure to changes in forecasted foreign currency denominated vendor payments. Gains and losses relating to freestanding foreign currency contracts are included in operating expenses on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income and are substantially offset by the earnings effect from the underlying items that were economically hedged. The freestanding foreign currency contracts resulted in $10 million and $1 million of gains during the three months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The freestanding foreign currency contracts resulted in $3 million and $2 million of gains during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The amount of gains or losses relating to contracts designated as cash flow hedges that the Company expects to reclassify from AOCI to earnings over the next 12 months is not material.

Interest Rate Risk

A portion of the debt used to finance the Company's operations is exposed to interest rate fluctuations. The Company uses various hedging strategies and derivative financial instruments to create a desired mix of fixed and floating rate assets and liabilities. Derivative instruments currently used in these hedging strategies include swaps and interest rate caps. The derivatives used to manage the risk associated with the Company's floating rate debt include freestanding derivatives and derivatives designated as cash flow hedges. The Company also uses swaps to convert specific fixed-rate debt into variable-rate debt (i.e., fair value hedges) to manage the overall interest cost. For relationships designated as fair value hedges, changes in the fair value of the derivatives are recorded in income with offsetting adjustments to the carrying amount of the hedged debt. The amount of gains or losses that the Company expects to reclassify from AOCI to earnings during the next 12 months is not material.

Losses on derivatives recognized in AOCI for the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017 were not material.

13. Income Taxes

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal and state jurisdictions, as well as in foreign jurisdictions. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations for years prior to 2014. In addition, with few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to state, local or foreign income tax examinations for years prior to 2009.

The Company's effective tax rate increased from (40.0)% during the three months ended June 30, 2017 to 146.2% during the three months ended June 30, 2018 primarily due to (i) the absence of the tax benefit recognized from an internal restructuring undertaken to realign the organizational and capital structure of certain foreign operations during 2017 (ii) the absence of a tax benefit on non-cash impairment charges primarily related to the write-down of undeveloped VOI land (iii) non-cash state tax charges associated with the separation of the hotel business partially offset by (iv) tax benefit from the corporate income tax rate reduction resulting from the enactment of the U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

The Company's effective tax rate increased from (2.0)% during the six months ended June 30, 2017 to 68.1% during the six months ended June 30, 2018 primarily due to (i) the absence of tax benefit on foreign currency losses recognized from an internal restructuring undertaken to realign the organizational and capital structure of certain foreign operations during 2017 (ii) non-cash state tax charges associated with the separation of the hotel business (iii) non-cash tax charges from certain internal restructurings associated with the sale of its European vacation rentals business during 2018 partially offset by (iv) tax benefit from the corporate income tax rate reduction resulting from the enactment of the U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

The Company made cash income tax payments, net of refunds, of $92 million and $142 million during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. In addition, the Company made cash income tax payments, net of refunds, of $10 million and $13 million during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively, related to discontinued operations.

Table of Contents

The Company has not made any additional measurement-period adjustments related to the impact from the U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act recorded for 2017 during this quarter, because none of its estimates have changed from year-end. However, the Company is continuing to gather additional information to complete its accounting by no later than December 31, 2018.

14. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in claims, legal and regulatory proceedings, and governmental inquiries related to the Company's business.

Wyndham Destinations Litigation

The Company is involved in claims, legal and regulatory proceedings, and governmental inquiries arising in the ordinary course of its business including but not limited to: for its vacation ownership business—breach of contract, bad faith, conflict of interest, fraud, consumer protection and other statutory claims by property owners' associations, owners and prospective owners in connection with the sale or use of VOIs or land, or the management of vacation ownership resorts, construction defect claims relating to vacation ownership units or resorts or in relation to guest reservations and bookings; and negligence, breach of contract, fraud, consumer protection and other statutory claims by guests and other consumers for alleged injuries sustained at or acts or occurrences related to vacation ownership units or resorts or in relation to guest reservations and bookings; for its exchange & rentals business—breach of contract, fraud and bad faith claims by affiliates and customers in connection with their respective agreements, negligence, breach of contract, fraud, consumer protection and other statutory claims asserted by members, guests and other consumers for alleged injuries sustained at or acts or occurrences related to affiliated resorts and vacation rental properties, or in relation to guest reservations and bookings; and for each of its businesses, bankruptcy proceedings involving efforts to collect receivables from a debtor in bankruptcy, employment matters including but not limited to, claims of wrongful termination, retaliation, discrimination, harassment and wage and hour claims, claims of infringement upon third parties' intellectual property rights, claims relating to information security, privacy and consumer protection, fiduciary duty/trust claims, tax claims, environmental claims and landlord/tenant disputes.

The Company records an accrual for legal contingencies when it determines, after consultation with outside counsel, that it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. In making such determinations, the Company evaluates, among other things, the degree of probability of an unfavorable outcome and, when it is probable that a liability has been incurred, the Company's ability to make a reasonable estimate of loss. The Company reviews these accruals each reporting period and makes revisions based on changes in facts and circumstances including changes to its strategy in dealing with these matters.

The Company believes that it has adequately accrued for such matters with reserves of $13 million and $25 million as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively. Such reserves are exclusive of matters relating to the Company's separation from Cendant. For matters not requiring accrual, the Company believes that such matters will not have a material effect on its results of operations, financial position or cash flows based on information currently available. However, litigation is inherently unpredictable and, although the Company believes that its accruals are adequate and/or that it has valid defenses in these matters, unfavorable results could occur. As such, an adverse outcome from such proceedings for which claims are awarded in excess of the amounts accrued, if any, could be material to the Company with respect to earnings and/or cash flows in any given reporting period. As of June 30, 2018, the potential exposure resulting from adverse outcomes of such legal proceedings could, in the aggregate, range up to $48 million in excess of recorded accruals. However, the Company does not believe that the impact of such litigation should result in a material liability to the Company in relation to its consolidated financial position and/or liquidity.

Other Guarantees and Indemnifications

Vacation Ownership

The Company has committed to repurchase completed property located in Las Vegas, Nevada from a third-party developer subject to such property meeting the Company's vacation ownership resort standards and provided that the third-party developer has not sold such property to another party (see Note 8—Inventory).

In connection with the Company's vacation ownership inventory sale transactions, for which it has conditional rights and conditional obligations to repurchase the completed properties, the Company was required to maintain an investment-grade credit rating from at least one rating agency. As a result of the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels, the Company failed to maintain an investment-grade credit rating with at least one rating agency, which triggered a default. The Company agreed to pay $8 million in fees in lieu of posting collateral in favor of the development partner in an amount equal to the remaining obligations under the agreements.

For information on guarantees and indemnifications related to the Company's former parent and subsidiaries see Note 21—Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries.

16. Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has a stock-based compensation plan available to grant RSUs, PSUs, SSARs, non-qualified stock options “NQs” and other stock-based awards to key employees, non-employee directors, advisors and consultants.

In June 2018, the Company replaced the Wyndham Worldwide Corporation 2006 Equity and Incentive Plan, as amended, with the Wyndham Destinations 2018 Equity and Incentive Plan. Under the new plan, a maximum of 15.7 million shares of common stock may be awarded.

Incentive Equity Awards Granted by the Company

In connection with the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels the Company accelerated vesting of all Wyndham Worldwide Corporation RSUs granted through the year ended December 31, 2017. RSUs held by Wyndham Hotel employees were immediately accelerated on date of spin-off and RSUs held by Wyndham Destination employees will vest on November 30, 2018.

During the three months ended June 30, 2018, the Company granted incentive equity awards to key employees and senior officers totaling $36 million in the form of RSUs and $7 million in the form of stock options. The awarded RSUs and stock options will vest ratably over a period of 48 months. Additionally, during the three months ended March 31, 2018, the Company granted incentive equity awards totaling $22 million to key employees and senior officers in the form of RSUs. These RSUs will vest ratably over a period of 16 months.

Table of Contents

The activity related to incentive equity awards granted by the Company for the six months ended June 30, 2018 consisted of the following:

(a) Impact of equity restructuring in connection with the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels.

(b) Aggregate unrecognized compensation expense related to RSUs was $68 million as of June 30, 2018, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 3.3 years.

(c) As a result of the hotel spin-off the Company accelerated the vesting of all PSUs, therefore there was no unrecognized compensation expense as of June 30, 2018.

(d) There were 0.4 million SSARs that were exercisable as of June 30, 2018. There was no unrecognized compensation expense related to SSARs as of June 30, 2018 as all SSARs were vested.

(e) Primarily reflects accelerated vesting in connection with the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels.

Stock-Based Compensation Expense

The Company recorded stock-based compensation expense of $109 million, $130 million, $15 million and $30 million during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively, related to incentive equity awards granted to key employees and senior officers. The Company also recorded stock-based compensation expense for non-employee directors of $1 million and less than $1 million during the three months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively, and $1 million during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, $15 million of this expense has been classified within discontinued operations in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Stock-based compensation expense for the three and six months ended June 30, 2018 included $87 million, and $92 million of expense related to the modification of certain grants to accelerate vesting in connection with the separation, which expense has been classified in the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Income within separation and related costs in continuing operations. The Company estimates that it will recognize an additional $15 million of stock-based compensation expense related to these modifications during the second half of 2018. Additionally, $1 million of stock-based compensation expense was recorded within restructuring expense during the six months ended June 30, 2017.

The Company paid $67 million and $34 million of taxes for the net share settlement of incentive equity awards that vested during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. Such amounts are included within financing activities on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

17. Segment Information

As a result of the hotel spin-off, the Company now has two operating segments: Vacation Ownership and Exchange & Rentals. The Vacation Ownership segment develops, markets and sells VOIs to individual consumers, provides consumer financing in connection with the sale of VOIs and provides property management services at resorts. The Exchange & Rentals segment provides vacation exchange services and products to owners of VOIs and manages and markets vacation rental properties primarily on behalf of independent owners. The reportable segments presented below represent the Company's operating segments for which discrete financial information is available and which is utilized on a regular basis by its chief operating decision maker to assess performance and to allocate resources. In identifying its reportable segments, the Company also considers the nature of services provided by its operating segments. The Company has updated its segment reporting this quarter to include Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP measure, whereas in the past EBITDA was presented. Following the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels and the sale of the European vacation rental business, management will base their performance review of the reportable segments on net revenues and Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA is defined by the Company as net income before depreciation and amortization, interest expense (excluding consumer financing interest), early extinguishment of debt, interest income (excluding consumer financing revenues) and income taxes, each of which is presented on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Adjusted EBITDA also excludes stock-based compensation costs, separation and restructuring costs, transaction costs, impairments, and items that meet the conditions of unusual and/or infrequent. The Company believes that Adjusted EBITDA is a useful measure of performance for its segments which, when considered with GAAP measures, the Company believes it gives a more complete understanding of its operating performance. The Company's presentation of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies.

18. Separation-Related and Transaction-Related Costs

On May 31, 2018, the Company completed the spin-off of its hotel business. This transaction resulted in operations being held by two separate, publicly traded companies as discussed in Note 1—Background and Basis of Presentation. Prior to the spin-off, the Company completed the sale of its European vacation rentals business.

During the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, the Company incurred $133 million and $163 million of expenses, respectively, in connection with the spin-off of the hotel business which are reflected within continuing operations and include related costs of the spin-off, of which $132 million and $161 million were related to stock compensation modification expense, severance and other employee costs offset in part by favorable foreign currency. In addition, these costs include certain impairment charges related to the separation including property sold to Wyndham Hotels.

Additionally, during the three and six months ended June 30, 2018, the Company incurred $72 million and $93 million of expenses, respectively, in connection with the hotel spin-off and $8 million and $19 million, respectively, related to the European vacation rentals business. These expenses are reflected within discontinued operations and include legal, consulting and auditing fees, stock compensation modification expense, severance, and other employee-related costs.

19. Restructuring 2017 Restructuring Plans

During 2017, the Company recorded $14 million of restructuring charges, all of which were personnel-related and consisted of (i) $8 million at its Exchange & Rentals segment which primarily focused on enhancing organizational efficiency and rationalizing its operations, and (ii) $6 million at its corporate operations which focused on rationalizing its sourcing function and outsourcing certain information technology functions. During 2018, the Company reduced its restructuring liability with $3 million of cash payments. The remaining liability of $1 million, as of June 30, 2018, is expected to be paid by the end of 2018.

The Company has additional restructuring plans which were implemented prior to 2017. The remaining liabilities of $1 million as of June 30, 2018, all of which is related to leased facilities, are expected to be paid through 2020.

The activity associated with all of the Company's restructuring plans is summarized by category as follows:

Liability as of	Liability as of
--------------------	--------------------

	December 31, Cash 2017	Payments	June 30, 2018
Personnel-related	$ 4	$ (3)	$ 1
Facility-related	1	—	1
	$ 5	$ (3)	$ 2

20. Impairments

During May 2017, the Company performed an in-depth review of its operations, including its current development pipeline and long-term development plan. In connection with such review, the Company updated its current and long-term development plan to focus on (i) selling existing finished inventory and (ii) procuring inventory from efficient sources such as just-in-time inventory in new markets and reclaiming inventory from owners' associations or owners. As a result, the Company's management performed a review of its land held for VOI development. Such review consisted of an assessment on 19 locations to determine its plan for future VOI development at those sites. As a result of this assessment, the Company concluded that no future development would occur at 17 locations, of which 16 were deemed to be impaired.

The Company performed a fair value assessment on the land held for VOI development which resulted in a $121 million non-cash impairment charge during the second quarter of 2017. In addition, the Company recorded a $14 million non-cash impairment charge relating to the write-off of construction in process costs at 6 of the 16 impaired locations. As a result, the Company reported a total non-cash impairment charge of $135 million, which is included within asset impairments on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income.

In conjunction with this review and impairment, in May 2017, the Company sold 3 of the 17 locations, as well as non-core revenue generating assets to a former executive of the Company for $2 million of cash consideration which resulted in a $7 million loss. The Company also has an agreement with the former executive to sell an additional 2 of the 17 locations for $2 million resulting in a $13 million non-cash impairment charge. Such transaction is to be completed no later than December 31, 2018. The $7 million loss and $13 million non-cash impairment charge on the expected sale were included within the total non-cash impairment charge of $135 million.

The Company had $4 million of land classified as assets held for sale as of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017 which was included within other assets on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. The fair value of the land held for sale was determined by reviewing prices of comparable assets which were recently sold and by actual purchase and sale agreements for the assets to be sold which represents level 3 fair value measurements. The Company entered into a three year agreement with the former executive whereby such executive may assist the Company in selling the land held for sale. As part of such agreement, the former executive will be entitled to receive brokerage commissions upon the sale of land classified as assets held for sale.

During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company incurred a $5 million non-cash impairment charge related to the write-down of assets resulting from the decision to abandon a new product initiative at the Company's vacation ownership business. This charge is recorded within asset impairments on the Condensed Consolidated Statement of Income.

Refer to Note 18—Separation-Related and Transaction-Related Costs, for discussion of 2018 impairment.

21. Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries

Matters Related to Cendant

Pursuant to the Cendant Separation and Distribution Agreement, the Company entered into certain guarantee commitments with Cendant and Cendant's former subsidiary, Realogy. These guarantee arrangements primarily relate to certain contingent litigation liabilities, contingent tax liabilities, and Cendant contingent and other corporate liabilities, of which Wyndham Worldwide assumed 37.5% of the responsibility while Cendant's former subsidiary Realogy is responsible for the remaining 62.5%. As a result of the Wyndham Worldwide separation, Wyndham Hotels agreed to retain one third of Cendant's contingent and other corporate liabilities and associated costs; therefore, Wyndham Destinations is effectively responsible for 25% of such matters subsequent to the separation. Since Cendant's separation, Cendant settled the majority of the lawsuits pending on the date of the separation.

As of June 30, 2018, the Cendant separation and related liabilities of $16 million are comprised of $13 million for tax liabilities, $1 million for other contingent and corporate liabilities and $2 million of liabilities where the calculated guarantee amount exceeded the contingent liability assumed at the separation date. These liabilities were recorded within accrued expenses and other liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet. As of December 31, 2017, the Company had $16 million of Cendant separation-related liabilities, which were recorded within accrued expenses and other liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet.

Matters Related to Wyndham Hotels

In connection with the spin-off of the hotel business on May 31, 2018, Wyndham Destinations entered into several agreements with Wyndham Hotels that govern the relationship of the parties following the distribution including the Separation and Distribution Agreement, the Employee Matters Agreements, the Tax Matters Agreement, the Transition Services Agreement and the License, Development and Noncompetition Agreement.

Table of Contents

In accordance with these agreements, Wyndham Hotels assumed one-third and Wyndham Destinations assumed two-thirds of certain contingent and other corporate liabilities of the Company incurred prior to the distribution, including liabilities of the Company related to certain terminated or divested businesses, certain general corporate matters, and any actions with respect to the separation plan. Likewise, Wyndham Hotels is entitled to receive one-third and Wyndham Destinations is entitled to receive two-thirds of the proceeds from certain contingent and other corporate assets of the Company arising or accrued prior to the distribution.

The Company conveyed the lease for its former corporate headquarters located in Parsippany, New Jersey to Wyndham Hotels, which resulted in the removal of a $66 million capital lease obligation and a $43 million asset.

Wyndham Destinations entered into a transition service agreement with Wyndham Hotels, pursuant to which the companies agreed to provide each other certain transitional services including human resources, facilities, payroll, tax, information technology, information management and related services, treasury, finance, sourcing, and employee benefits administration on an interim, transitional basis.

Matters Related to the European Vacation Rentals Business

In connection with the sale of the Company's European vacation rentals business, the Company and Wyndham Hotels agreed to certain post-closing credit support for the business for the benefit of certain credit card service providers, a British travel association, and certain regulatory authorities to allow them to continue providing services or regulatory approval to the business.

Such post-closing credit support includes a guarantee of up to $180 million through June 30, 2019, and a letter of credit for $11 million through May 1, 2019, which may be extended. The fair value of such guarantee was approximately $2 million.

The Company agreed to provide an additional $48 million in post-closing credit support, denominated in Pound sterling, to a British travel association and regulatory authorities by September 30, 2018, which is guaranteed by Wyndham Destinations in perpetuity. In connection with such additional post-closing credit support, Wyndham Destinations deposited approximately $48 million into an escrow account, which will be released to Wyndham Destinations to the extent alternative post-closing credit support is provided or otherwise will remain in place for the benefit of Compass IV Limited, an affiliate of Platinum Equity, LLC (the "Buyer"). The amount deposited in escrow reduced the gain on the sale of the business. If the Company provides acceptable alternative post-closing credit support to the Buyer, an additional gain on sale of the business will be recognized. Furthermore, Wyndham Hotels will receive one-third and Wyndham Destinations will receive two-thirds of any amount received in respect to the release of the escrow account.

Such post-closing credit support may be called if the business fails to meet its primary obligation to pay amounts when due. The Buyer has provided an indemnity to Wyndham Destinations in the event that the post-closing credit support (other than the guarantee by Wyndham Destinations of up to $180 million) are enforced or called upon.

The Company also deposited $5 million into an escrow account, which amount will be returned to the Company on May 9, 2019, if the gross limit of Barclays Bank PLC's ("Barclays") Pound sterling cash pooling arrangement with the Buyer remains at least £10 million ($14 million) and security is not required or demanded by Barclays. If any further security is required or demanded by Barclays, the Company must pay an additional £1 million ($1.4 million) into escrow.

In addition, the Company agreed to indemnify the Buyer against certain claims and assessments, including income tax, value-added tax and other tax matters, related to the operations of the European vacation rentals business for the periods prior to the transaction. The estimated fair value of the indemnifications totaled $43 million.

Wyndham Hotels provided certain post-closing credit support primarily for the benefit of a British travel association in the form of guarantees which are primarily denominated in Pound sterling of up to an approximate $81 million on a perpetual basis. The fair value of such guarantees was $41 million at June 30, 2018. Wyndham Destinations is responsible for two-thirds of these guarantees. Wyndham Hotels is required to maintain minimum credit ratings of Ba2 for Moody's and BB for S&P. If Wyndham Hotels drops below these minimum credit ratings, Wyndham Destinations would be required to post a letter of credit (or equivalent support) for the amount of the Wyndham Hotels guarantee.

Table of Contents

The estimated fair value of the guarantees and indemnifications for which Wyndham Destinations is responsible related to the sale of the European vacation rentals business totaled approximately $74 million and was recorded in accrued expenses and other liabilities at June 30, 2018. A receivable of approximately $16 million was included in other assets at June 30, 2018 representing the portion of these guarantees and indemnifications for which Wyndham Hotels is responsible.

22. Subsequent Events

Sierra Timeshare 2018-2 Receivables Funding LLC

On July 18, 2018, the Company closed on a placement of a series of term notes payable, issued by Sierra Timeshare 2018-2 Receivables Funding, LLC. These notes consisted of a $230 million note at a rate of 3.50%, a $156 million note at a rate of 3.65% and a $114 million note at a rate of 3.94% resulting in a weighted average coupon rate of 3.65%. The advance rate for this transaction was 88.65%. These notes are secured by vacation ownership contract receivables and mature in June 2035. The recourse on these notes is limited to the extent of the collateral. No other assets of the Company will be available to pay the notes.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report includes "forward-looking statements" as that term is defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Forward-looking statements are any statements other than statements of historical fact, including statements regarding our expectations, beliefs, hopes, intentions or strategies regarding the future. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "expects," "should," "believes," "plans," "anticipates," "estimates," "predicts," "potential," "continue," "future" or other words of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results of Wyndham Destinations to differ materially from those discussed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, general economic conditions, the performance of the financial and credit markets, the economic environment for the timeshare industry, the impact of war, terrorist activity or political strife, operating risks associated with the vacation ownership and vacation exchange and rentals businesses, uncertainties related to our ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the spin-off or the divestiture of our European vacation rentals business, unanticipated developments related to the impact of the spin-off, the divestiture of our European vacation rentals business and related transactions on our relationships with our customers, suppliers, employees and others with whom we have relationships, unanticipated developments resulting from possible disruption to our operations resulting from the spin-off and the divestiture of our European vacation rentals business, the timing and amount of future dividends and share repurchases and those disclosed as risks under "Risk Factors" in documents we have filed with the SEC, including in Part I, Item 1A of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, "Part II-Item 1A. Risk Factors" of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2018, and those described from time to time in our future reports. We caution readers that any such statements are based on currently available operational, financial and competitive information, and they should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect management's opinion only as of the date on which they were made. We undertake no obligation to review or update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances as they occur.

BUSINESS AND OVERVIEW

We are a global provider of hospitality services and products and operate our business in the following two segments: Vacation Ownership—develops, markets and sells vacation ownership interests ("VOIs") to individual consumers, provides consumer financing in connection with the sale of VOIs and provides property management services at resorts.

Exchange & Rentals—provides vacation exchange services and products to owners of VOIs and manages and markets vacation rental properties primarily on behalf of independent owners.

Hotel Business Spin-off

We completed the spin-off of our hotel business on May 31, 2018, which resulted in our operations being held by two separate, publicly traded companies. The two public companies have entered into long-term exclusive license agreements to retain their affiliations with one of the industry's top-rated loyalty programs, Wyndham Rewards, as well as to continue to collaborate on inventory-sharing and customer cross-sell initiatives. This transaction is expected to result in enhanced strategic and management focus on the core business and growth of each company; more efficient capital allocation, direct access to capital and expanded growth opportunities for each company; the ability to implement a tailored approach to recruiting and retaining employees at each company; improved investor understanding of the business strategy and operating results of each company; and enhanced investor choice by offering investment opportunities in separate entities. This transaction was effected through a pro rata distribution of the new hotel entity's stock to existing Wyndham Destinations shareholders. The new hotel company was named Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. ("Wyndham Hotels").

As a result of this spin-off, we have classified the results of operations of our hotel business as discontinued operations in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

European Vacation Rentals Business

In February 2018, we entered into an agreement for the sale of our European vacation rentals business for $1.23 billion. This sale closed on May 9, 2018. As a result of this sale, the Company received net proceeds of $1.03 billion and recognized an after-tax gain of $432 million. We have agreed to provide certain post-closing credit support in order to ensure that the buyer meets the requirements of certain service providers and regulatory authorities. The results of operations of this business have been classified as discontinued operations in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements unless otherwise noted. For further details see Note 6—Discontinued Operations.

La Quinta Acquisition

In January 2018, the Company entered into an agreement with La Quinta Holdings Inc. (“La Quinta”) to acquire its hotel franchising and management businesses for $1.95 billion. At the time we entered into this agreement, we obtained financing commitments of $2.0 billion in the form of an unsecured bridge term loan, which was subsequently replaced with net cash proceeds from the issuance of $500 million unsecured notes, a $1.6 billion term loan and a $750 million revolving credit facility, which was undrawn as of June 30, 2018. This acquisition closed on May 30, 2018, prior to the hotel business spin-off. Upon completion of the spin-off, La Quinta became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wyndham Hotels and the associated debt was transferred to Wyndham Hotels.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

As a result of the hotel spin-off, the Company now has two operating segments: Vacation Ownership and Exchange & Rentals. The Vacation Ownership segment develops, markets and sells VOIs to individual consumers, provides consumer financing in connection with the sale of VOIs and provides property management services at resorts. The Exchange & Rentals segment provides vacation exchange services and products to owners of VOIs and manages and markets vacation rental properties primarily on behalf of independent owners. The reportable segments presented below represent the Company’s operating segments for which discrete financial information is available and which is utilized on a regular basis by its chief operating decision maker to assess performance and to allocate resources. In identifying its reportable segments, the Company also considers the nature of services provided by its operating segments. The Company has updated its segment reporting this quarter to include Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP measure, whereas in the past EBITDA was presented. Following the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels and the sale of the European vacation rental business, management will base their performance review of the reportable segments on net revenues and Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA is defined by the Company as net income before depreciation and amortization, interest expense (excluding consumer financing interest), early extinguishment of debt, interest income (excluding consumer financing revenues) and income taxes, each of which is presented on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Adjusted EBITDA also excludes stock-based compensation costs, separation and restructuring costs, transaction costs, impairments, and items that meet the conditions of unusual and/or infrequent. The Company believes that Adjusted EBITDA is a useful measure of performance for its segments which, when considered with GAAP measures, the Company believes it gives a more complete understanding of its operating performance. The Company’s presentation of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures used by other companies.

OPERATING STATISTICS

The table below presents our operating statistics for the three months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017. These operating statistics are the drivers of our revenues and therefore provide an enhanced understanding of our businesses. Refer to the Results of Operations section for a discussion on how these operating statistics affected our business for the periods presented.

^(b) Represents the number of tours taken by guests in our efforts to sell VOIs.

VPG is calculated by dividing Gross VOI sales (excluding tele-sales upgrades, which are non-tour upgrade sales) by the number of tours. Tele-sales upgrades were $21 million and $20 million during the three months ended

^(c) June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. We have excluded tele-sales upgrades in the calculation of VPG because tele-sales upgrades are generated by a different marketing channel. We believe that VPG provides an enhanced understanding of the performance of our vacation ownership business because it directly measures the efficiency of this business's tour selling efforts during a given reporting period.

THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2018 VS. THREE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2017

Our consolidated results are as follows:

	Three Months Ended June 30,
	2018	2017	Favorable/(Unfavorable)
Net revenues	$1,007	$978	$ 29
Expenses	942	933	(9)

Income on disposal of discontinued businesses, net of income taxes	432	—	432
Net income	$378	$85	$ 293

Net revenues increased $29 million (3.0%) for the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year. Foreign currency favorably impacted net revenues by $1 million. Excluding foreign currency, the increase in net revenues was primarily the result of:

• $25 million of higher revenues at our vacation ownership business primarily resulting from an increase in net VOI sales and consumer financing revenues; and

• $4 million of higher revenues at our exchange & rentals business primarily driven by acquisitions.

Expenses increased $9 million (1.0%) for the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year. Foreign currency unfavorably impacted expenses by $3 million. Excluding the foreign currency impact, the increase in expenses was primarily the result of:

• $133 million increase in separation costs related to the hotel spin-off;

• $3 million incremental expenses primarily related to acquisitions at our exchange & rentals business; and

• $3 million increase in depreciation and amortization resulting from the impact of property and equipment additions that were placed into service over the last twelve months; partially offset by

• $135 million decrease related to the non-cash impairment recognized in 2017 for undeveloped VOI land.

Other income, net increased by $2 million for the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year, primarily due to proceeds received from business interruption insurance claims related to hurricanes Irma and Maria.

Interest expense increased $7 million for the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year primarily due to a significant increase in the average outstanding revolving credit facility balances year over year, our debt mix being less favorable, and higher interest rates.

Our effective tax rates were 146.2% and (40.0)% for the three months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The increase was primarily due to (i) the absence of the tax benefit recognized from an internal restructuring undertaken to realign the organizational and capital structure of certain foreign operations during 2017 (ii) the absence of a tax benefit on non-cash impairment charges primarily related to the write-down of undeveloped VOI land (iii) non-cash state tax charges associated with the separation of the hotel business partially offset by (iv) tax benefit from the corporate income tax rate reduction resulting from the enactment of the U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

For the three months ended June 30, 2018, there was a loss from operations of discontinued businesses, net of income taxes of $42 million compared to income of $71 million in the same period of the prior year. The primary drivers of the $113 million change were the costs associated with the completion of the hotel spin-off and the sale of the European vacation rentals business.

Table of Contents

Income on disposal of discontinued businesses, net of income taxes was $432 million for the three months ended June 30, 2018, representing the sale of the European vacation rentals business.

As a result of these items, net income increased $293 million compared with the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Vacation Ownership

Net revenues increased $25 million (3.4%) and Adjusted EBITDA increased $9 million (4.9%) during the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period of 2017. Foreign currency had no impact on net revenues and unfavorably impacted Adjusted EBITDA by $2 million. Increases in net revenues were primarily driven by:

$31 million increase in gross VOI sales, net of WAAM Fee-for-Service sales, compared to the same period last year primarily due to a 7.1% increase in sales, partially offset by a $15 million increase in our provision for loan losses.

Table of Contents

The increase in the provision for loan losses was due to higher gross VOI sales, increased percentage of sales financed, and the impact of higher defaults. Gross VOI sales increased primarily due to a 2.6% increase in tours, reflecting our continued focus on new owner generation, and a 4.7% increase in VPG.

$6 million and $4 million increase in commission revenues and expenses, respectively, compared to the same period last year as a result of higher WAAM Fee-for-Service VOI sales.

$6 million increase in consumer financing revenues compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily due to a higher weighted average interest rate earned on a larger average portfolio balance. Partially offsetting this increase, consumer financing interest expense also increased by $2 million resulting from an increase in the weighted average interest rate on our non-recourse debt. Additionally, there was a $2 million decrease in property management revenues compared to the prior year primarily due to lower reimbursable revenues partially offset by higher management fees. Adjusted EBITDA increased $2 million as a result of lower property management operating expenses.

In addition to the drivers mentioned above, Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by:

- $15 million increase in marketing costs due to our emphasis on adding new owners, which typically carry a higher cost per tour;

- $12 million of higher sales and commission expenses primarily due to higher gross VOI sales, and

- $8 million increase in the cost of VOIs sold primarily driven by higher gross VOI sales.

Such decreases in Adjusted EBITDA were partially offset by:

- $11 million of lower maintenance fees on unsold inventory; and

- $7 million of lower legal settlement expenses.

Exchange & Rentals

Net revenues increased $4 million (1.7%) and Adjusted EBITDA increased $5 million (7.7%) during the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period during 2017. Foreign currency favorably impacted net revenues by $1 million and Adjusted EBITDA by $3 million. Our acquisitions contributed $3 million of incremental revenues and had no impact on Adjusted EBITDA during the second quarter of 2018. Increases in net revenues were primarily driven by:

- $2 million increase in ancillary revenues,

- $1 million increase in exchange and related service revenues, and

- $1 million increase in net revenues generated from vacation rental transactions and related services.

In addition, Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by:

- $4 million of cost savings primarily related to overhead and operations, partially offset by

- the absence of $2 million of proceeds received during the second quarter of 2017 for business interruption insurance claims and other legal settlements.

Corporate and Other

Corporate adjusted EBITDA decreased $2 million during the three months ended June 30, 2018 compared to 2017 primarily due to lower employee-related costs.

Net revenues increased $54 million (2.9%) for the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year. Foreign currency favorably impacted net revenues by $5 million. Excluding foreign currency, the increase in net revenues was primarily the result of:

- $47 million of higher revenues at our vacation ownership business largely due to an increase in net VOI sales and consumer financing revenues; and
- $7 million of higher revenues at our exchange & rentals business primarily driven by acquisitions.

Expenses increased $51 million (3.0%) for the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year. Foreign currency unfavorably impacted expenses by $1 million. Excluding the foreign currency impact, the increase in expenses was primarily the result of:

- $163 million increase in separation costs related to the hotel spin-off;
- $14 million of increased expenses from operations in correlation with higher revenues;
- $9 million incremental expenses primarily related to acquisitions at our exchange and rentals business; and
- $7 million increase in depreciation and amortization resulting from the impact of property and equipment additions that were placed into service over the last twelve months; partially offset by
- $6 million decrease in restructuring related costs; and
- $140 million decrease related to the non-cash impairment in 2017 for undeveloped VOI land.

Other income, net increased by $8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year, primarily due to proceeds received from business interruption insurance claims related to hurricanes Irma and Maria.

Interest expense increased $18 million for the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period last year primarily due to a significant increase in the average outstanding revolving credit facility balances year over year, our debt mix being less favorable, and higher interest rates.

Our effective tax rates were 68.1% and (2.0)% for the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively. The increase was primarily due to (i) the absence of tax benefit on foreign currency losses recognized from an internal restructuring undertaken to realign the organizational and capital structure of certain foreign operations during 2017 (ii) non-cash state tax charges associated with the separation of the hotel business (iii) non-cash tax charges from certain internal restructurings associated with the sale of its European vacation rentals business during 2018 partially offset by (iv) tax benefit from the corporate income tax rate reduction resulting from the enactment of the U.S. Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

For the six months ended June 30, 2018, ended June 30, 2018 there was a loss from operations of discontinued businesses, net of income taxes of $49 million compared to income of $75 million in the same period of the prior year. The primary drivers of the $124 million change were the costs associated with the completion of the hotel spin-off and the sale of the European vacation rentals business.

Income on disposal of discontinued businesses, net of income taxes was $432 million for the six months ended June 30, 2018, representing the sale of the European vacation rentals business.

As a result of these items, net income increased $237 million compared with the six months ended June 30, 2017.

Vacation Ownership

Net revenues increased $47 million (3.4%) and Adjusted EBITDA increased $16 million (5.1%) during the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period of 2017. Foreign currency favorably impacted net revenues by $2 million and unfavorably impacted Adjusted EBITDA by $1 million. Increases in net revenues were primarily driven by:

Table of Contents

$46 million increase in gross VOI sales, net of WAAM Fee-for-Service sales, compared to the same period last year primarily due to a 6.7% increase in sales, partially offset by a $22 million increase in our provision for loan losses. The increase in the provision for loan losses was due to higher gross VOI sales and the impact of higher defaults. Gross VOI sales increased primarily due to a 4.9% increase in tours, reflecting our continued focus on new owner generation, and a 1.7% increase in VPG.

- $13 million and $11 million increase in commission revenues and expenses, respectively, compared to the same period last year as a result of higher WAAM Fee-for-Service VOI sales.

$12 million increase in consumer financing revenues compared to the same period last year. This increase was primarily due to a higher weighted average interest rate earned on a larger average portfolio balance. Partially offsetting this increase, consumer financing interest expense also increased by $2 million due to an increase in the weighted average interest rate on our non-recourse debt. Additionally, there was a

$2 million decrease in property management revenues compared to the prior year primarily due to lower reimbursable revenues partially offset by higher management fees. Adjusted EBITDA increased $3 million as a result of lower property management operating expenses.

In addition to the drivers mentioned above, Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by:

$27 million increase in marketing costs primarily due to our emphasis on adding new owners, which typically carry a higher cost per tour; and $20 million of higher sales and commission expenses primarily due to higher gross VOI sales.

Such decreases in Adjusted EBITDA were partially offset by:

$13 million of lower maintenance fees on unsold inventory; and

- $10 million of lower legal settlement expenses.

Exchange & Rentals

Net revenues increased $7 million (1.5%) and Adjusted EBITDA increased $7 million (4.9%) during the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared with the same period during 2017. Foreign currency favorably impacted net revenues and Adjusted EBITDA by $3 million and $4 million, respectively. Our acquisitions contributed $8 million of incremental revenues and $1 million of Adjusted EBITDA loss during the first half of 2018. Increases in net revenues were primarily driven by:

$4 million increase in ancillary revenues,

$2 million increase in exchange and related service revenues, and

$1 million increase in net revenues generated from vacation rental transactions and related services.

In addition, Adjusted EBITDA was favorably impacted by $7 million of cost savings primarily related to overhead and operations.

Corporate and Other

Corporate adjusted EBITDA decreased $5 million during the six months ended June 30, 2018 compared to 2017 primarily due to lower employee-related costs.

RESTRUCTURING PLANS

During 2017, we incurred $14 million of personnel-related restructuring charges consisting of (i) $8 million at our Exchange & Rentals segment, primarily focused on enhancing organizational efficiency and rationalizing operations, and (ii) $6 million at our corporate operations which focused on rationalizing the sourcing function and outsourcing certain information technology functions. During the six months ended June 30, 2018, we made $3 million of cash payments. The remaining liability of $1 million, as of June 30, 2018, is expected to be paid by the end of 2018.

We have additional restructuring plans which were implemented prior to 2017. The remaining liabilities of $1 million as of June 30, 2018 related to leased facilities is expected to be paid by 2020.

FINANCIAL CONDITION, LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Financial Condition

	June 30, December 31,		Change
	2018	2017
Total assets	$7,075	$ 10,450	$(3,375)
Total liabilities	7,595	9,676	(2,081)
Total (deficit)/equity (520)	774		(1,294)

Total assets decreased $3.38 billion from December 31, 2017 to June 30, 2018 primarily due to:

$3.56 billion decrease due to the completion of the hotel spin-off and the sale of the European vacation rentals business; partially offset by
 $39 million increase in prepaid assets, primarily prepaid insurance, maintenance fees, and marketing
 $61 million increase in other assets, primarily related to increases in restricted cash; and $107 million increase in cash primarily related to increase in international properties cash levels resulting from the European vacation rentals business.

Total liabilities decreased $2.08 billion from December 31, 2017 to June 30, 2018 primarily due to:

$1.42 billion decrease due to the completion of the hotel spin-off and the sale of the European vacation rentals business; and
 $928 million reduction in debt, primarily related to repayment of the unsecured note matured in March, 2018, the termination of the revolving credit facility maturing in 2020, the term loan maturing in 2021, and the commercial paper program, offset in part by borrowings under the new revolving credit facility maturing in 2023 and term loan maturing in 2025; partially offset by
 $88 million increase in deferred income taxes, primarily related to installment sales of VOIs, deferred income taxes transferred to Wyndham Hotels and the deduction associated with stock-based compensation; and $184 million increase in accrued expenses and other liabilities, primarily accrued legal and professional fees, guarantees associated with the sale of the European vacation rentals business, taxes payable, and severance.

Total equity decreased $1.29 billion from December 31, 2017 to June 30, 2018 primarily due to:

$1.50 billion decrease in retained earnings associated with the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels,
 $118 million treasury stock repurchases;
 $110 million of dividends; and
 $67 million reduction in additional paid-in capital related to net share settlement of incentive equity awards; partially offset by $130 million increase in deferred compensation, and $412 million of net income attributable to Wyndham Destinations shareholders.

Liquidity and capital resources

Currently, our financing needs are supported by cash generated from operations and borrowings under our revolving credit facility as well as issuance of secured debt. In addition, we use our two bank conduit facilities and non-recourse debt borrowings to finance our vacation ownership contract receivables. We believe that our net cash from operations, cash and cash equivalents, access to our revolving credit facilities, our bank conduit facilities and continued access to the debt markets provide us with sufficient liquidity to meet our ongoing cash needs.

In connection with the hotel spin-off and the entry into new credit facilities described in Note 9—Debt, on May 31, 2018, the Company used net proceeds from the term loan and $220 million of borrowings under the new revolving credit facility to repay $484 million of outstanding principal borrowings under its revolving credit facility maturing in 2020. In addition, effective May 31, 2018, the Company terminated its $1.5 billion revolving credit facility maturing in 2020, its $400 million 364-day credit facility maturing in 2018 and its $325 million term loan borrowings maturing in 2021.

Our five-year revolving credit facility, which expires in May 2023, has a total capacity of $1.0 billion. As of June 30, 2018, we had $721 million of available capacity, net of letters of credit.

The Company terminated its European and U.S. commercial paper programs during the first and second quarter of 2018, respectively. Prior to termination, the U.S. and European commercial paper programs had total capacities of $750 million and $500 million respectively. As of June 30, 2018, the Company had no outstanding borrowings under these programs. As of December 31, 2017, the Company had outstanding borrowings of $147 million at a weighted average interest rate of 2.34% under its U.S. commercial paper program.

Our two-year non-recourse vacation ownership receivables bank conduit facility, with borrowing capability through April 2020, has a total capacity of $800 million and available capacity of $457 million as of June 30, 2018. Borrowings under this facility are required to be repaid as the collateralized receivables amortize, but no later than May 2021.

Our fifteen-month, $750 million non-recourse vacation ownership receivables bank conduit facility has borrowing capability through January 2019 and available capacity of $225 million as of June 30, 2018. Borrowings under this facility are required to be repaid as the collateralized receivables amortize, but no later than January 2020.

We may, from time to time, depending on market conditions and other factors, repurchase our outstanding indebtedness, whether or not such indebtedness trades above or below its face amount, for cash and/or in exchange for other securities or other consideration, in each case in open market purchases and/or privately negotiated transactions.

CASH FLOW

The following table summarizes the changes in cash and cash equivalents during the six months ended June 30, 2018 and 2017:

	Six Months Ended June 30,

Net change in cash and cash equivalents	$(29)	$295	$(324)

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations for the six months ended June 30, 2018 decreased by $138 million compared to the same period in the prior year. Such decrease was driven by a $71 million decrease in net income from continuing operations and a $99 million increase in cash utilized for working capital (net change in assets and liabilities), partially offset by a $32 million increase in non-cash items.

Net cash provided by operating activities from discontinued operations for the six months ended June 30, 2018 decreased $219 million compared to the same period in the prior year. Such decrease was driven by a $160 million decrease in income on discontinued operations, net of income taxes adjusted for non-cash items and a $59 million increase in cash utilized for working capital (net change in assets and liabilities).

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities from continuing operations for the six months ended June 30, 2018 was relatively consistent with the prior year, increasing by $(9) million due to lower additions of property and equipment.

Net cash used in investing activities from discontinued operations for the six months ended June 30, 2018 increased by $646 million. The increase was driven by $1.7 billion of net cash used to acquire La Quinta offset by $1.03 billion of cash proceeds from the sale of the European vacation rentals business.

Table of Contents

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities from continuing operations for the six months ended June 30, 2018 increased $1.37 billion compared to the same period in the prior year, primarily due to higher net borrowings of $1.04 billion, $495 million of cash transferred to Wyndham Hotels upon spin-off, partially offset by $177 million lower share repurchases.

Net cash provided by financing activities from discontinued operations for the six months ended June 30, 2018 increased $2.08 billion compared to the same period in the prior year representing the proceeds from borrowings associated with the La Quinta acquisition.

Capital Deployment

We focus on optimizing cash flow and seek to deploy capital for the highest possible returns. Ultimately, our business objective is to grow our business while transforming our cash and earnings profile by managing our cash streams to derive a greater proportion of Adjusted EBITDA from our fee-for-service businesses. We intend to continue to invest in select capital and technological improvements across our business. We may also seek to acquire additional property management contracts and exclusive agreements for vacation rental properties on a strategic and selective basis as well as grow the business through merger and acquisition activities. In addition, we intend to return cash to shareholders through the repurchase of common stock and payment of dividends.

During the six months ended June 30, 2018, we spent $137 million on vacation ownership development projects (inventory). We believe that our vacation ownership business currently has adequate finished inventory on our balance sheet to support vacation ownership sales for at least the next year. During 2018, we anticipate spending between $220 million and $250 million on vacation ownership development projects. The average inventory spend on vacation ownership development projects for the five-year period 2018 through 2022 is expected to be approximately $250 million annually. After factoring in the anticipated additional average annual spending, we expect to have adequate inventory to support vacation ownership sales through at least the next four to five years.

During the six months ended June 30, 2018, we spent $41 million on capital expenditures primarily for information technology enhancement projects. During 2018, we anticipate spending between $150 million and $170 million on capital expenditures.

In connection with our focus on optimizing cash flow, we are continuing our asset-light efforts in vacation ownership by seeking opportunities with financial partners whereby they make strategic investments to develop assets on our behalf. We refer to this as WAAM Just-in-Time. The partner may invest in new ground-up development projects or purchase from us, for cash, existing in-process inventory which currently resides on our balance sheet. The partner will complete the development of the project and we may purchase finished inventory at a future date as needed or as obligated under the agreement.

We expect that the majority of the expenditures that will be required to pursue our capital spending programs, strategic investments and vacation ownership development projects will be financed with cash flow generated through operations. Additional expenditures are financed with general secured corporate borrowings, including through the use of available capacity under our revolving credit facility.

Stock Repurchase Program

On August 20, 2007, our Board of Directors authorized a stock repurchase program that enables us to purchase our common stock. The Board of Directors has since increased the capacity of the program eight times, most recently in October 2017 by $1.0 billion, bringing the total authorization under the current program to $6.0 billion. Proceeds received from stock option exercises have increased repurchase capacity by $78 million since the inception of this program.

Under our current stock repurchase program, we repurchased 1 million shares at an average price of $96.18 for a cost of $118 million during the six months ended June 30, 2018. The average price was impacted by five months of higher per share price pre-spin and one month of lower per share price post-spin.

Dividends

During the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2018 and June 30, 2018, we paid cash dividends of $0.66 and $0.41 per share, respectively ($114 million in aggregate). Cash dividends per share were reduced ratably in the second quarter as a result of the spin-off of Wyndham Hotels. During each of the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017 we paid cash dividends of $0.58 per share ($125 million in aggregate).

Table of Contents

Our ongoing dividend policy is to grow our dividend at the rate of growth of our earnings at a minimum, with the exception of the adjustment during the second quarter as a result of the separation. The declaration and payment of future dividends to holders of our common stock are at the discretion of our Board and depend upon many factors, including our financial condition, earnings, capital requirements of our business, covenants associated with certain debt obligations, legal requirements, regulatory constraints, industry practice and other factors that our Board deems relevant. There is no assurance that a payment of a dividend will occur in the future.

Financial Obligations

Debt Covenants

The revolving credit facilities and term loan are subject to covenants including the maintenance of specific financial ratios as defined in the credit agreement. Commencing with the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2018, the financial ratio covenants consist of a minimum interest coverage ratio of at least 2.5 to 1.0 as of the measurement date and a maximum first lien leverage ratio not to exceed 4.25 to 1.0 as of the measurement date. The interest coverage ratio is calculated by dividing consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the credit agreement) by consolidated interest expense (as defined in the credit agreement), both as measured on a trailing 12-month basis preceding the measurement date. As of June 30, 2018, our interest coverage ratio was 5.9 to 1.0. The first lien leverage ratio is calculated by dividing consolidated first lien debt (as defined in the credit agreement) as of the measurement date by consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the credit agreement) as measured on a trailing 12-month basis preceding the measurement date. As of June 30, 2018, our first lien leverage ratio was 2.9 to 1.0. These ratios do not include interest expense or indebtedness related to any qualified securitization financing (as defined in the credit agreement). As of June 30, 2018, we were in compliance with all of the financial covenants described above.

Each of our non-recourse term securitizations and bank conduit facilities contain certain tests based on default, delinquency and overcollateralization rates of the loan pool that collateralizes such non-recourse financing. If a loan pool is not in compliance with those tests, the cash flows from that loan pool will be retained as extra collateral for such financing or applied to accelerate the repayment of outstanding principal to the note holders. As of June 30, 2018, all of our loan pools were in compliance with the applicable tests.

LIQUIDITY

The Company finances certain of its vacation ownership contract receivables through (i) asset-backed bank conduit facilities and (ii) term asset-backed securitizations, all of which are non-recourse to the Company with respect to principal and interest.

We believe that our $800 million bank conduit facility with a term through April 2020 and our $750 million bank conduit facility with a term through January 2019, combined with our ability to issue term asset-backed securities, should provide sufficient liquidity for our expected sales pace, and we expect to have available liquidity to finance the sale of VOIs. As of June 30, 2018, we had $682 million of availability under these asset-backed bank conduit facilities. Any disruption to the asset-backed securities market could adversely impact our future ability to obtain asset-backed financings.

We primarily utilize surety bonds at our vacation ownership business for sales and development transactions in order to meet regulatory requirements of certain states. In the ordinary course of our business, we have assembled commitments from twelve surety providers in the amount of $1.32 billion, of which we had $402 million outstanding as of June 30, 2018. The availability, terms and conditions and pricing of such bonding capacity are dependent on, among other things, continued financial strength and stability of the insurance company affiliates providing the bonding capacity, general availability of such capacity and our corporate credit rating. If bonding capacity is unavailable, or alternatively, if the terms and conditions and pricing of such bonding capacity are unacceptable to us, our vacation ownership business could be negatively impacted.

Our liquidity position may also be negatively affected by unfavorable conditions in the capital markets in which we operate or if our vacation ownership contract receivables portfolios do not meet specified portfolio credit parameters. Our liquidity as it relates to our vacation ownership contract receivables securitization program could be adversely affected if we were to fail to renew or replace our conduit facility on its expiration date, or if a particular receivables pool were to fail to meet certain ratios, which could occur in certain instances if the default rates or other credit metrics of the underlying vacation ownership contract receivables deteriorate. Our ability to sell securities backed by our vacation ownership contract receivables depends on the continued ability and willingness of capital market participants to invest in such securities.

Our senior secured debt is rated Ba2 with a “stable outlook” by Moody’s Investors Service, BB- with a “positive outlook” by Standard and Poor’s, and BB- with a “stable outlook” by Fitch Rating Agency. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and is subject to revision or withdrawal by the assigning rating organization. Reference in this report to any such credit rating is intended for the limited purpose of discussing or referring to aspects of our liquidity and of our costs of funds. Any reference to a credit rating is not intended to be any guarantee or assurance of, nor should there be any undue reliance upon, any credit rating or change in credit rating, nor is any such reference intended as any inference concerning future performance, future liquidity or any future credit rating.

SEASONALITY

We experience seasonal fluctuations in our net revenues and net income from sales of VOIs, management fees, vacation exchange fees and commission income earned from renting vacation properties. Revenues from sales of VOIs are generally higher in the third quarter than in other quarters due to increased leisure travel. Revenues from management fees are generally higher in the second and third quarters than in the first or fourth quarters due to increased leisure travel during the spring and summer months. Revenues from vacation exchange fees are generally highest in the first quarter, which is generally when members of our vacation exchange business book their vacations for the year. Revenues from vacation rentals are generally highest in the third quarter, when vacation arrivals are highest. The seasonality of our business may cause fluctuations in our quarterly operating results. As we expand into new markets and geographical locations, we may experience increased or different seasonality dynamics that create fluctuations in operating results different from the fluctuations we have experienced in the past.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

The following table summarizes our future contractual obligations for the twelve month periods set forth below:

	7/1/18 - 6/30/19	7/1/19 - 6/30/20	7/1/20 - 6/30/21	7/1/21 - 6/30/22	7/1/22 - 6/30/23	Thereafter	Total

(a) Represents debt that is securitized through bankruptcy-remote special purpose entities the creditors of which have no recourse to us for principal and interest.

(b) Includes interest on both debt and non-recourse debt; estimated using the stated interest rates on our debt and the swapped interest rates on our non-recourse debt.

Includes (i) $157 million relating to the development of vacation ownership properties, of which $43 million was

(c) included within total liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet, (ii) $47 million for information technology activities and (iii) $65 million for marketing-related activities.

(d) Represents obligations to repurchase completed vacation ownership properties from third-party developers (See Note 8—Inventory for further detail) of which $55 million was included within accrued expenses and other liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet.

(e) Represents liabilities which we assumed and are responsible for pursuant to the Cendant Separation (See Note 21—Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries for further details).

Excludes a $35 million liability for unrecognized tax benefits associated with the accounting guidance for

(f) uncertainty in income taxes since it is not reasonably estimable to determine the periods in which such liability would be settled with the respective tax authorities.

COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in claims, legal and regulatory proceedings, and governmental inquiries related to the Company's business. For discussion of these matters along with the Company's guarantees and indemnifications see Note 14—Commitments and Contingencies.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

In presenting our financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, we are required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported therein. Several of the estimates and assumptions we are required to make relate to matters that are inherently uncertain as they pertain to future events. However, events that are outside of our control cannot be predicted and, as such, they cannot be contemplated in evaluating such estimates and assumptions. If there is a significant unfavorable change to current conditions, it could result in a material impact to our consolidated results of operations, financial position and liquidity. We believe that the estimates and assumptions we used when preparing our financial statements were the most appropriate at that time. These Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the audited Consolidated Financial Statements included in the Annual Report filed on Form 10-K with the SEC on February 16, 2018 which includes a description of our critical accounting policies that involve subjective and complex judgments that could potentially affect reported results. For additional information see Note 3—Revenue Recognition to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Part I, Item 1 of this report for a discussion of our updated accounting policies on Revenue Recognition.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risks.

We assess our market risks based on changes in interest and foreign currency exchange rates utilizing a sensitivity analysis that measures the potential impact in earnings, fair values and cash flows based on a hypothetical 10% change (increase and decrease) in interest and foreign currency exchange rates. We used June 30, 2018 market rates to perform a sensitivity analysis separately for each of our market risk exposures. The estimates assume instantaneous, parallel shifts in interest rate yield curves and exchange rates. We have determined, through such analyses, that a hypothetical 10% change in foreign currency exchange rates would have resulted in an approximate $2 million increase or decrease to the fair value of our outstanding forward foreign currency exchange contracts, which would generally be offset by an opposite effect on the underlying exposure being economically hedged.

Our variable rate borrowings, which include our term loan, senior unsecured notes synthetically converted to variable rate debt via interest rate swaps, bank conduit facility and revolving credit facility, expose us to risks caused by fluctuations in the applicable interest rates. The total outstanding balance of such variable rate borrowings at June 30, 2018 was approximately $868 million in non-recourse vacation ownership debt and $921 million in corporate debt. A 100 basis point change in the underlying interest rates would result in an approximate $9 million increase or decrease in annual consumer financing interest expense and an approximate $9 million increase or decrease in our annual debt interest expense.

As such, we believe that a 10% change in interest and foreign currency exchange rates would not have a material effect on our prices, earnings, fair values and cash flows.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures. As of the end of the period covered by this report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rule 13(a)-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”). Based on such evaluation, our principal executive and principal financial officers concluded that our (a) disclosure controls and procedures were effective and operating to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the SEC, and to provide reasonable assurance that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the period to which this report (b) relates that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. As of June 30, 2018, we utilized the criteria established in Internal Control-Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

We are involved in various claims and lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of business, none of which, in the opinion of management, is expected to have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition. See Note 14—Commitments and Contingencies to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for a description of claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of our business and Note 21—Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for a description of our obligations regarding Cendant contingent litigation, matters related to Wyndham Hotels and matters related to the European vacation rentals business.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

As a result of the completion of the spin-off of our hotel franchising and management business, Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc., we are restating our risk factors in their entirety. You should carefully consider each of the following risk factors and all of the other information set forth in this report. The risk factors generally have been separated into three groups: risks related to our business and our industry, risks relating to our common stock and risks related to the recent spin-off. Based on the information currently known to us, we believe that the following information identifies the most significant risk factors affecting our company in each of these categories of risks. However, the risks and uncertainties we face are not limited to those set forth in the risk factors described below. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also adversely affect our business. In addition, past financial performance may not be a reliable indicator of future performance and historical trends should not be used to anticipate results or trends in future periods.

If any of the following risks and uncertainties develop into actual events, these events could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations. In such case, the trading price of our common stock could decline.

Risks Related to Our Business and Our Industry

The timeshare industry is highly competitive and we are subject to risks related to competition that may adversely affect our performance.

We will be adversely impacted if we cannot compete effectively in the highly competitive timeshare industry. Our continued success depends upon our ability to compete effectively in markets that contain numerous competitors, some of which may have significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than we have. Competition in the timeshare industry is based on brand name recognition and reputation as well as location, price, property size and availability, quality, customer satisfaction, amenities and the ability to earn and redeem loyalty program points. New resorts may be constructed and these additions to supply may create new competitors, in some cases without corresponding increases in demand. Competition may reduce fee structures, potentially causing us to lower our fees or prices, which may adversely impact our profits. New competition or existing competition that uses a business model that is different from our business model may require us to change our model so that we can remain competitive.

We may not be able to achieve our growth and performance objectives.

We may not be able to achieve our growth and performance objectives for increasing: our earnings and cash flows; the number of tours and new owners generated and vacation ownership interests sold by our vacation ownership business; and the number of vacation exchange members and related transactions.

Acquisitions, dispositions and other strategic transactions may not prove successful and could result in operating difficulties.

We regularly consider a wide array of acquisitions and other potential strategic transactions, including acquisitions of businesses and real property, joint ventures, business combinations, strategic investments and dispositions. Any of these transactions could be material to our business. We often compete for these opportunities with third parties, which may cause us to lose potential opportunities or to pay more than we may otherwise have paid absent such competition. We cannot assure you that we will be able to identify and consummate strategic transactions and opportunities on favorable terms or that any such strategic transactions or opportunities, if consummated, will be successful. Assimilating any strategic transactions may also create unforeseen operating difficulties and costs.

On May 9, 2018, we completed the sale of our European vacation rentals business. Dispositions of businesses, such as our European vacation rentals transaction, pose risks and challenges that could negatively impact our business, including costs or disputes with buyers. Dispositions may also involve continued financial involvement, as we may be required to retain responsibility for, or agree to indemnify buyers against, credit support obligations, contingent liabilities related to a divested business, such as lawsuits, tax liabilities, or other matters. Under these types of arrangements, performance by the divested business or other conditions outside of our control could affect our financial condition or results of operations. See Note 21—Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for a description of our obligations related to the European vacation rentals business.

Our business operations are dependent upon our new senior management team and the ability of our other new employees to learn their new roles.

In connection with the spin-off and the transition of our corporate headquarters from Parsippany, New Jersey to Orlando, Florida, we substantially changed our senior management team and have replaced many of the other employees performing key functions at our corporate headquarters. As new employees gain experience in their roles, we could experience inefficiencies or a lack of business continuity due to loss of historical knowledge and a lack of familiarity of new employees with business processes, operating requirements, policies and procedures, some of which are new, and key information technologies and related infrastructure used in our day to day operations and financial reporting and we may experience additional costs as new employees learn their roles and gain necessary experience. It is important to our success that these key employees quickly adapt to and excel in their new roles. If they are unable to do so, our business and financial results could be materially adversely affected. In addition, losing the services of any member of our senior management team could adversely affect our strategic and customer relationships and impede our ability to execute our business strategies. The market for qualified individuals may be highly competitive and finding and recruiting suitable replacements for senior management may be difficult, time consuming and costly.

Our revenues are highly dependent on the travel industry and declines in or disruptions to the travel industry such as those caused by economic conditions, terrorism, political strife, severe weather events and other natural disasters, war and pandemics or threats of pandemics may adversely affect us.

Declines in or disruptions to the travel industry may adversely impact us. Risks affecting the travel and timeshare industries include: economic slowdown and recession; economic factors such as increased costs of living and reduced discretionary income adversely impacting decisions by consumers and businesses to use and consume travel services and products; terrorist incidents and threats and associated heightened travel security measures; political and regional strife; natural disasters such as earthquakes, hurricanes, fires, floods and volcano eruptions; war; concerns with or threats of pandemics, contagious diseases or health epidemics; environmental disasters; lengthy power outages; increased pricing, financial instability and capacity constraints of air carriers; airline job actions and strikes; and increases in gasoline and other fuel prices. Any such disruptions to the travel or timeshare industries may adversely affect our affiliated resorts, our RCI affiliates and other developers of vacation ownership resorts and timeshare property owner associations, thereby impacting our operations and the trading price of our common stock.

We are subject to numerous business, financial, operating and other risks common to the timeshare industry, any of which could reduce our revenues and our ability to make distributions and limit opportunities for growth.

Our business is subject to numerous business, financial, operating and other risks common to the timeshare industry, including adverse changes with respect to any of the following:

- consumer travel and vacation patterns and consumer preferences;
- increased travel costs, including air travel, which could negatively impact consumer preferences for our resort and rental destinations;

increased or unanticipated operating costs, including as a result of inflation, energy costs and labor costs such as minimum wage increases and unionization, workers' compensation and health-care related costs and insurance which may not be fully offset by price or fee increases in our business or otherwise;

desirability of geographic regions where resorts in our business are located;

the supply and demand for vacation ownership services and products and exchange and rentals services and products;

- seasonality in our businesses, which may cause fluctuations in our operating results;

geographic concentrations of our operations and customers;

the availability of acceptable financing and the cost of capital as they apply to us, our customers, our RCI affiliates and other developers of vacation ownership resorts and timeshare property owner associations;

the quality of the services provided by affiliated resorts and properties in our exchange and rentals business or resorts in which we sell vacation ownership interests or participants in the Wyndham Rewards loyalty program, which may adversely affect our image, reputation and brand value;

- overbuilding or excess capacity in one or more segments of the timeshare industry or in one or more geographic regions;
- our ability to develop and maintain positive relations and contractual arrangements with vacation ownership interest owners, current and potential vacation exchange members, resorts with units that are exchanged through our exchange and rentals business and timeshare property owner associations;
- organized labor activities and associated litigation;
- the bankruptcy or insolvency of any one of our customers, which could impair our ability to collect outstanding fees or other amounts due or otherwise exercise our contractual rights;
- our effectiveness in keeping pace with technological developments, which could impair our competitive position;
- disruptions, including non-renewal or termination of agreements, in relationships with third parties including marketing alliances and affiliations with e-commerce channels;
- owners or other developers that have development advance notes with, or who have received loans or other financial arrangements incentives from, us may experience financial difficulties;
- consolidation of developers could adversely affect our exchange and rentals business;
- decrease in the supply of available exchange and rentals accommodations due to, among other reasons, a decrease in inventory included in the system or resulting from ongoing property renovations or a decrease in member deposits could adversely affect our exchange and rentals business;
- decrease in or delays or cancellations of planned or future development or refurbishment projects;
- the viability of property owners' associations that we manage and the maintenance and refurbishment of vacation ownership properties, which depend on property owners associations levying sufficient maintenance fees and the ability of members to pay such maintenance fees;
- increases in maintenance fees, which could cause our product to become less attractive or less competitive;
- our ability to securitize the receivables that we originate in connection with sales of vacation ownership interests;
- defaults on loans to purchasers of vacation ownership interests who finance the purchase price of such vacation ownerships;
- the level of unlawful or deceptive third-party vacation ownership interest resale schemes, which could damage our reputation and brand value;
- the availability of and competition for desirable sites for the development of vacation ownership properties,
- difficulties associated with obtaining required approvals to develop vacation ownership properties, liability under state and local laws with respect to any construction defects in the vacation ownership properties we develop, and risks related to real estate project development costs and completion;
- private resale of vacation ownership interests and the sale of vacation ownership interests on the secondary market, which could adversely affect our vacation ownership resorts and exchange and rentals business;
- disputes with owners of vacation ownership interests and property owners associations, vacation exchange affiliation partners, which may result in litigation and the loss of management contracts;
- laws, regulations and legislation internationally and domestically, and on a federal, state or local level, concerning the timeshare industry, which may make the operation of our business more onerous, more expensive or less profitable;
- our failure or inability to adequately protect and maintain our trademarks and other intellectual property rights; and
- market perception of the timeshare industry and negative publicity from online social media postings and related media reports, which could damage our brands.

Any of these factors could increase our costs, reduce our revenues or otherwise adversely impact our opportunities for growth.

Third-party Internet reservation systems, peer-to-peer online networks and alternative lodging channels may adversely impact us.

Consumers increasingly use third-party Internet travel intermediaries and peer-to-peer online networks to search for and book their lodging accommodations. As the percentage of Internet reservations increases, travel intermediaries may be able to obtain higher commissions and reduced room rates from us to the detriment of our business. Additionally, such travel intermediaries may divert reservations away from our direct online channels or increase the overall cost of Internet reservations for our affiliated resorts through their fees. As the use of these third-party reservation channels and peer-to-peer online networks increases, consumers may rely on these channels, adversely affecting our vacation ownership, resort and rental brands, reservation systems, bookings and rates. The continued development and use of peer-to-peer online networks for lodging and vacation rentals are also causing some local governments to enact bans or restrictions on short-term property rentals that may adversely impact our vacation rental business. In addition, if we fail to reach satisfactory agreements with travel intermediaries as our contracts with them come up for periodic renewal, our affiliated resorts may no longer appear on their websites and we could lose business as a result.

In addition to competing with traditional hotels, resorts, lodging and vacation rental properties, our vacation rental business competes with alternative lodging channels, including third-party providers of short-term rental properties and serviced apartments. Increasing use of these alternative lodging channels could materially adversely affect the occupancy and/or average rates and prices at our resorts and vacation properties and our revenues.

We are subject to risks related to our vacation ownership receivables portfolio.

We are subject to risks that purchasers of vacation ownership interests who finance a portion of the purchase price default on their loans due to adverse macro or personal economic conditions, third-party organizations that encourage defaults, or otherwise, which necessitates increases in loan loss reserves and adversely affects loan portfolio performance. When such defaults occur during the early part of the loan amortization period, we may not have recovered the marketing, selling, administrative and other costs associated with such vacation ownership interests. Additional costs are incurred in connection with the resale of repossessed vacation ownership interests, and the value we recover in a resale is not in all instances sufficient to cover the outstanding debt on the defaulted loan.

Our international operations are subject to additional risks not generally applicable to our domestic operations.

Our international operations are subject to numerous risks, including exposure to local economic conditions; potential adverse changes in the diplomatic relations of foreign countries with the U.S.; hostility from local populations; political instability; threats or acts of terrorism; the effect of disruptions caused by severe weather, natural disasters, outbreak of disease or other events that make travel to a particular region less attractive or more difficult; the presence and acceptance of varying levels of business corruption in international markets and the effect of various anti-corruption and other laws; restrictions and taxes on the withdrawal of foreign investment and earnings; government policies against businesses or properties owned by foreigners; investment restrictions or requirements; diminished ability to legally enforce our contractual rights in foreign countries; forced nationalization of assets by local, state or national governments; foreign exchange restrictions; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; conflicts between local laws and U.S. laws including laws that impact our rights to protect our intellectual property; withholding and other taxes on remittances and other payments by subsidiaries; and changes in and application of foreign taxation structures including value added taxes. Any of these risks or any adverse outcome resulting from the financial instability or performance of foreign economies, the instability of other currencies and the related volatility on foreign exchange and interest rates, could impact our results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

Changes in U.S. federal, state and local or foreign tax law, interpretations of existing tax law or adverse determinations by tax authorities could increase our tax burden or otherwise adversely affect our financial condition or results of operations.

We are subject to taxation at the federal, state and local levels in the United States and various other countries and jurisdictions. Our future effective tax rate and future cash flows could be affected by changes in the composition of earnings in jurisdictions with differing tax rates, changes in statutory rates and other legislative changes, changes in the valuation of our deferred tax assets and liabilities, changes in determinations regarding the jurisdictions in which we are subject to tax, and our ability to repatriate earnings from foreign jurisdictions. From time to time, U.S. federal, state and local and foreign governments make substantive changes to tax rules and their application, which could result in materially higher corporate taxes than would be incurred under existing tax law and could otherwise adversely affect our financial condition or results of operations. This includes potential changes in tax laws or the interpretation of tax laws arising out of the Base Erosion Profit Shifting project initiated by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development.

We are subject to ongoing and periodic tax audits and disputes in U.S. federal and various state, local and foreign jurisdictions. An unfavorable outcome from any tax audit could result in higher tax costs, penalties and interest, thereby adversely affecting our financial condition or results of operations.

Additionally, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 was recently enacted in the U.S., which broadly reforms the corporate tax system. The tax reform law, which among other items, reduces the U.S. corporate tax rate, eliminates or limits the deduction of certain expenses which were previously deductible, imposes a mandatory deemed repatriation tax on undistributed historic earnings of foreign subsidiaries and requires a minimum tax on earnings generated by foreign subsidiaries, could have a significant impact on our effective tax rate, cash tax expenses and/or deferred income tax balances.

We are subject to certain risks related to our indebtedness, hedging transactions, securitization of certain of our assets, surety bond requirements, the cost and availability of capital and the extension of credit by us.

We are a borrower of funds under credit facilities, credit lines, senior notes, a term loan and securitization financings. We use financial instruments to reduce or hedge our financial exposure to the effects of currency and interest rate fluctuations. We are required to post surety bonds in connection with our development and sales activities. In connection with our debt obligations, hedging transactions, securitization of certain of our assets, surety bond requirements, the cost and availability of capital and the extension of credit by us, we are subject to numerous risks, including:

- our cash flows from operations or available lines of credit may be insufficient to meet required payments of principal and interest, which could result in a default and acceleration of the underlying debt and other debt instruments that contain cross-default provisions;
- we may be unable to comply with the terms of the financial covenants under our revolving credit facility or other debt, including a breach of the financial ratio tests, which could result in a default and acceleration of the underlying revolver debt and under other debt instruments that contain cross-default provisions;
- our leverage may adversely affect our ability to obtain additional financing on favorable terms or at all;
- our leverage may require the dedication of a significant portion of our cash flows to the payment of principal and interest thus reducing the availability of cash flows to fund working capital, capital expenditures, dividends, share repurchases or other operating needs;
- increases in interest rates may adversely affect our financing costs and the costs of our vacation ownership interest financing and associated increases in hedging costs;
- rating agency downgrades of our debt could increase our borrowing costs and prevent us from obtaining additional financing on favorable terms or at all;
- failure or non-performance of counterparties to foreign exchange and interest rate hedging transactions could result in losses;
- an inability to securitize our vacation ownership loan receivables on terms acceptable to us because of, among other factors, the performance of the vacation ownership loan receivables, adverse conditions in the market for vacation ownership loan-backed notes and asset-backed notes in general and the risk that the actual amount of uncollectible accounts on our securitized vacation ownership loan receivables and other credit we extend is greater than expected;
- breach of portfolio performance triggers under securitization transactions which if violated may result in a disruption or loss of cash flow from such transactions;
- a reduction in commitments from surety bond providers, which may impair our vacation ownership business by requiring us to escrow cash in order to meet regulatory requirements of certain states;
- prohibitive cost, or inadequate availability, of capital could restrict the development or acquisition of vacation ownership resorts by us and the financing of purchases of vacation ownership interests;
- the inability of developers of vacation ownership properties that have received mezzanine and other loans from us to pay back such loans;
- increases in interest rates, which may prevent us from passing along the full amount of such increases to purchasers of vacation ownership interests to whom we provide financing; and
- disruptions in the financial markets, failure of financial institutions that support our credit facilities, general economic conditions and market liquidity factors outside of our control, which may limit our access to short- and long-term financing, credit and capital.

We are subject to risks related to litigation.

We are subject to a number of claims and legal proceedings and the risk of future litigation as described in this report. We cannot predict with certainty the ultimate outcome and related damages and costs of litigation and other proceedings filed or asserted by or against us. Unfavorable rulings or outcomes in litigation and other proceedings may harm our business.

Our operations are subject to extensive regulation and the cost of compliance or failure to comply with such regulations may adversely affect us.

Our operations are regulated by federal, state and local governments in the countries in which we operate. In addition, U.S. and international federal, state and local regulators may enact new laws and regulations that may reduce our revenues, cause our expenses to increase or require us to modify our business practices substantially. If we are not in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including, among others, those governing timeshare (including required government registrations), vacation rentals, consumer financings and other lending, information security, data protection and privacy (including the General Data Protection Regulation), credit card and payment card security standards, marketing, sales, consumer protection and advertising, unfair and deceptive trade practices, fraud, bribery and corruption, telemarketing (including do-not-call and call-recording regulations), licensing, labor, employment, anti-discrimination, health care, health and safety, accessibility, immigration, gaming, environmental (including climate change) and remediation, intellectual property, securities, stock exchange listing, accounting, tax and regulations applicable under the Dodd-Frank Act, Office of Foreign Asset Control, Americans with Disabilities Act, the Sherman Act, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and local equivalents in international jurisdictions, including the United Kingdom Bribery Act, we may be subject to regulatory investigations or actions, fines, civil and/or criminal penalties, injunctions and potential criminal prosecution.

While we continue to monitor all such laws and regulations and provide training to our employees as part of our compliance programs, the cost of compliance with such laws and regulations impacts our operating costs and compliance with such laws and regulations may also impact or restrict the manner in which we operate and market our business. There can be no assurance that our compliance programs will protect us against any non-compliance with these laws and regulations. Future changes to such laws and regulations and the cost of compliance or failure to comply with such regulations may adversely affect us.

Failure to maintain the security of personally identifiable and proprietary information, non-compliance with our contractual obligations or other legal obligations regarding such information or a violation of our privacy and security policies with respect to such information could adversely affect us.

In connection with our business, we and our service providers collect and retain large volumes of certain types of personal and proprietary information pertaining to our guests, shareholders and employees. Such information includes, but is not limited to, large volumes of guest credit and payment card information. We are at risk of attack by cyber-criminals operating on a global basis attempting to gain access to such information.

While we maintain what we believe are reasonable security controls over personal and proprietary information, including the personal information of guests, shareholders and employees, a breach of or breakdown in our systems that results in the unauthorized release of personal or proprietary information could nevertheless occur, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our brands, reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as subject us to significant regulatory actions and fines, litigation, losses, third-party damages and other liabilities. Such a breach or a breakdown could also materially increase our costs to protect such information and to protect against such risks.

Additionally, the legal and regulatory environment surrounding information security and privacy in the United States and international jurisdictions is constantly evolving. Should we violate or not comply with any of these laws or regulations, contractual requirements relating to data security and privacy, or with our own privacy and security policies, either intentionally or unintentionally, or through the acts of intermediaries, it could have a material adverse effect on our brands, reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as subject us to significant fines, litigation, losses, third-party damages and other liabilities.

Our information technology infrastructure, including but not limited to our, and our third-party service providers', information systems and legacy proprietary online reservation and management systems, has been and will likely continue to be vulnerable to system failures, computer hacking, cyber-terrorism, computer viruses and other intentional or unintentional interference, negligence, fraud, misuse and other unauthorized attempts to access or interfere with these systems and our personal and proprietary information. In addition, as we transition from our legacy systems to new, cloud-based technologies, we may face start-up issues that may negatively impact guests. The increased scope and complexity of our information technology infrastructure and systems could contribute to the potential risk of security breaches or breakdown.

The insurance we carry may not always pay, or be sufficient to pay or reimburse us, for our liabilities, losses or replacement costs.

We carry insurance for general liability, property, business interruption, cyber security, and other insurable risks with respect to our business operations. We also self-insure for certain risks up to certain monetary limits. The terms and conditions or the amounts of coverage of our insurance may not at all times be sufficient to pay or reimburse us for the amount of our liabilities, losses or replacement costs, and there may also be risks for which we do not obtain insurance in the full amount or at all concerning a potential loss or liability, due to the cost or availability of such insurance. As a result, we may incur liabilities or losses in the operation of our business that are substantial, which are not sufficiently covered by the insurance we maintain, or at all, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Following the significant casualty losses incurred by the insurance industry due to hurricanes, fires and other events, property insurance costs may be higher, and availability may be lower, in future periods, particularly in certain geographies.

We rely on information technologies and systems to operate our business, which involves reliance on third-party service providers and on uninterrupted operation of service facilities.

We rely on information technologies and systems to operate our business, which involves reliance on third-party service providers and on uninterrupted operation of service facilities, including those used for reservation systems, vacation exchange systems, property management, communications, procurement, member record databases, call centers, operation of our loyalty programs and administrative systems. We also maintain physical facilities to support these systems and related services. Any natural disaster, disruption or other impairment in our technology capabilities and service facilities or those of our third-party service providers could result in financial losses, customer claims, litigation or damage to our reputation, or otherwise harm our business. In addition, any failure of our ability to provide our reservation systems, as a result of failures related to us or our third-party providers, may deter prospective resort owners from entering into agreements with us, and may expose us to liability from other parties with whom we have contracted to provide reservation services. Similarly, failure to keep pace with developments in technology could impair our operations or competitive position.

We are subject to risks related to corporate social responsibility.

Many factors influence our reputation and the value of our brands including the perception held by our customers and other key stakeholders and the communities in which we do business. Our business faces increasing scrutiny related to environmental, social and governance activities and risk of damage to our reputation and the value of our brands if we fail to act responsibly or comply with regulatory requirements in a number of areas, such as safety and security, responsible tourism, environmental stewardship and sustainability, supply chain management, climate change, diversity, human rights and modern slavery, philanthropy and support for local communities.

We are responsible for certain of Cendant's contingent and other corporate liabilities.

Under the separation agreement and the tax sharing agreement that we executed with Cendant (now Avis Budget Group) and former Cendant units, Realogy and Travelport, we and Realogy generally are responsible for 37.5% and 62.5%, respectively, of certain of Cendant's contingent and other corporate liabilities and associated costs including certain contingent and other corporate liabilities of Cendant or its subsidiaries to the extent incurred on or prior to August 23, 2006. As a result of the completion of the spin-off of our hotel franchising and management business, Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. agreed to retain one-third of Cendant's contingent and other corporate liabilities and associated costs; therefore, we are responsible for 25% of these liabilities and costs subsequent to the spin-off. These liabilities include those relating to certain of Cendant's terminated or divested businesses, the Travelport sale, certain Cendant-related litigation, actions with respect to the separation plan and payments under certain contracts that were not allocated to any specific party in connection with the separation.

If any party responsible for the liabilities described above were to default on its obligations, each non-defaulting party would be required to pay an equal portion of the amounts in default. Accordingly, we could under certain circumstances be obligated to pay amounts in excess of our share of the assumed obligations related to such liabilities including associated costs.

Changes to estimates or projections used to assess the fair value of our assets or operating results that are lower than our current estimates may cause us to incur impairment losses and require us to write-off all or a portion of the remaining value of our goodwill or other intangibles of companies we have acquired.

Our total assets include goodwill and other intangible assets. We evaluate our goodwill for impairment on an annual basis or at other times during the year if events or circumstances indicate that it is more likely than not that the fair value is below the carrying value. We may be required to record a significant non-cash impairment charge in our financial statements during the period in which any impairment of our goodwill, other intangible assets or other assets is determined, negatively impacting our results of operations and shareholders' equity.

Risks Relating to Our Common Stock

The trading price of our shares of common stock may fluctuate.

The trading price of our common stock may fluctuate depending upon many factors some of which may be beyond our control including our quarterly or annual earnings or those of other companies in our industry; actual or anticipated fluctuations in our operating results due to seasonality and other factors related to our business; our ability or perceived ability to realize the benefits of the spin-off; our credit ratings, including the impact of the spin-off on such ratings; changes in accounting principles or rules; announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions or dispositions; the lack of securities analysts covering our common stock; changes in earnings estimates by securities analysts or our ability to meet those estimates; the operating and stock price performance of comparable companies; overall market fluctuations; and general economic conditions. Stock markets in general have experienced volatility that has often been unrelated to the operating performance of a particular company. These broad market fluctuations may adversely affect the trading price of our common stock.

Your percentage ownership in Wyndham Destinations may be diluted in the future.

Your percentage ownership in Wyndham Destinations may be diluted in the future because of equity awards that we have and expect will be granted over time to our Directors and employees. In addition, our Board of Directors ("Board") may issue shares of our common and preferred stock and debt securities convertible into shares of our common and preferred stock up to certain regulatory thresholds without shareholder approval.

Provisions in our certificate of incorporation and by-laws and under Delaware law may prevent or delay an acquisition of Wyndham Destinations which could impact the trading price of our common stock.

Our certificate of incorporation and by-laws and Delaware law contain provisions that are intended to deter coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids. These provisions include that shareholders do not have the right to act by written consent, rules regarding how shareholders may present proposals or nominate directors for election at shareholder meetings, the right of our Board to issue preferred stock without shareholder approval and limitations on the right of shareholders to remove directors. Delaware law also imposes restrictions on mergers and other business combinations between us and any holder of 15% or more of our outstanding common stock. We believe these provisions protect our shareholders from coercive or otherwise unfair takeover tactics by requiring potential acquirers to negotiate with our Board and by providing our Board with more time to assess any acquisition proposal. These provisions are not intended to make us immune from takeovers. However, these provisions apply even if the offer may be considered beneficial by some stockholders and could delay or prevent an acquisition that our Board determines is not in the best interests of our company and our shareholders.

We cannot provide assurance that we will continue to pay dividends or purchase shares of our common stock under our stock repurchase program.

There can be no assurance that we will have sufficient cash or surplus under Delaware law to be able to continue to pay dividends or purchase shares of our common stock under our stock repurchase program. This may result from extraordinary cash expenses, actual expenses exceeding contemplated costs, funding of capital expenditures, increases in reserves or lack of available capital. Our Board may also suspend the payment of dividends or our stock repurchase program if the Board deems such action to be in the best interests of our shareholders.

Risks Related to the Recent Spin-Off

We may be unable to achieve some or all of the benefits we expect to achieve from the spin-off.

On May 31, 2018, we completed the spin-off of our hotel franchising and management business - Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. Although we believe that the spin-off will enhance our long-term value, we may not be able to achieve some or all of the anticipated benefits from the separation of our businesses, and the spin-off may adversely affect our business. Separating the businesses resulted in two independent, publicly traded companies, each of which is now a smaller, less diversified and more narrowly focused business than before the spin-off which makes us more vulnerable to changing market and economic conditions and the risk of takeover by third parties. Operating as a smaller, independent entity may reduce or eliminate some of the benefits and synergies which previously existed across our business platforms before the spin-off, including our operating diversity, purchasing and borrowing leverage, available capital for investments, partnerships and relationships and opportunities to pursue integrated strategies with the businesses within our former combined company and ability to attract, retain and motivate key employees. In addition, as a smaller company, our ability to absorb costs may be negatively impacted, including the significant cost of the spin-off transaction, and we may be unable to obtain financings, goods or services at prices or on terms as favorable as those obtained by our former combined company. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, business prospects and the trading price of our common stock. By separating our hotel business, we also may be more susceptible to market fluctuations and other adverse events than we would be if we did not spin-off the hotel business. If we fail to achieve some or all of the benefits that we expect to achieve as a result of the spin-off, or do not achieve them in the time we expect, our results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

The spin-off and related transactions may expose us to potential liabilities arising out of state and federal fraudulent conveyance laws and legal distribution requirements.

While we did receive a solvency opinion from an investment bank confirming that we and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. were adequately capitalized immediately after the spin-off, the spin-off could be challenged under various state and federal fraudulent conveyance laws. An unpaid creditor could claim that we did not receive fair consideration or reasonably equivalent value in the spin-off, and that the spin-off left us insolvent or with unreasonably small capital or that we intended or believed we would incur debts beyond our ability to pay such debts as they mature. If a court were to agree with such a plaintiff, then such court could void the spin-off as a fraudulent transfer and could impose a number of different remedies, including without limitation, returning the assets or the shares of common stock in Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. being distributed as part of the spin-off or providing us with a claim for money damages against the spun-off business in an amount equal to the difference between the consideration received by us and the fair market value of Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. at the time of the spin-off.

Following completion of the spin-off, our success depends in part on our ongoing relationship with Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc.

In connection with the spin-off, we entered into a number of agreements with Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. that govern the ongoing relationships between Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. and us following the spin-off. Our success will depend, in part, on the maintenance of these ongoing relationships with Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. as well as Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc.'s performance of its obligations under these agreements, including Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc.'s maintenance of the quality of its products and services as well as the reputation of the Wyndham-branded trademarks, tradenames and certain related intellectual property that we license from it pursuant to the license, development and noncompetition agreement. If we are unable to maintain a good relationship with Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc., or if Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. does not perform its obligations under these agreements, fails to protect the trademarks, tradenames and intellectual property that we license from it or if these brands deteriorate or materially change in an adverse manner, or the reputation of these brands declines, our brand may be negatively affected, our profitability and revenues could decrease and our growth potential may be adversely affected.

We are responsible for certain contingent and other corporate liabilities incurred prior to the spin-off.

In accordance with the agreements we entered into with Wyndham Hotels in connection with the spin-off, Wyndham Hotels assumed one-third and Wyndham Destinations assumed two-thirds of certain contingent and other corporate liabilities of the Company incurred prior to the distribution, including liabilities of the Company related to certain terminated or divested businesses, certain general corporate matters, and any actions with respect to the separation plan. See Note 21—Transactions with Former Parent and Former Subsidiaries to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for a description of our obligations related to Wyndham Hotels.

If Wyndham Hotels was to default on its obligations, we would be required to pay the amounts in default. Accordingly, we could under certain circumstances be obligated to pay amounts in excess of our share of the assumed obligations related to such liabilities including associated costs.

Certain directors who serve on our Board of Directors currently serve as directors of Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. following the spin-off, and ownership of shares of common stock of Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. following the spin-off by our directors and executive officers may create, or appear to create, conflicts of interest.

Certain of our directors who serve on our Board of Directors currently serve on the board of directors of Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. This may create, or appear to create, conflicts of interest when our or Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc.'s management and directors face decisions that could have different implications for us and Wyndham

Hotels & Resorts, Inc., including the resolution of any dispute regarding the terms of the agreements governing the spin-off and the relationship between us and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. after the spin-off or any other commercial agreements entered into in the future between us and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc.

Substantially all of our executive officers and some of our non-employee directors currently own shares of the common stock of Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. The continued ownership of such common stock by our directors and executive officers following the spin-off creates or may create the appearance of a conflict of interest when these directors and executive officers are faced with decisions that could have different implications for us and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc.

If the distribution, together with certain related transactions, were to fail to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (Code), then our shareholders, we and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. might be required to pay substantial U.S. federal income taxes.

The distribution was conditioned upon our receipt of opinions of our spin-off tax advisors to the effect that, subject to the assumptions and limitations described therein, the distribution, together with certain related transactions, will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 of the Code in which no gain or loss is recognized by us or our shareholders, except, in the case of our shareholders, for cash received in lieu of fractional shares. The opinions of our spin-off tax advisors were based on, among other things, certain assumptions as well as on the continuing accuracy of certain factual representations and statements that we and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. made to the spin-off tax advisors. In rendering their opinions, the spin-off tax advisors also relied on certain covenants that we and Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. entered into, including the adherence by us and by Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. to certain restrictions on future actions contained in the Tax Matters Agreement. If any of the representations or statements that we or Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. made are or become inaccurate or incomplete, or if we or Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. breach any of such covenants, the distribution and such related transactions might not qualify for such tax treatment. The opinions of the spin-off tax advisors are not binding on the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") or a court, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge the validity of the distribution and such related transactions as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 of the Code eligible for tax-free treatment, or that any such challenge ultimately will not prevail.

In addition, we received a private letter ruling from the IRS regarding certain U.S. federal income tax aspects of transactions related to the spin-off ("IRS Ruling"). Although the IRS Ruling generally is binding on the IRS, the continued validity of the IRS Ruling will be based upon and subject to the continuing accuracy of factual statements and representations made to the IRS by us. In addition, there is a risk that the IRS could promulgate new administrative guidance prior to the spin-off that could adversely impact the tax-free treatment of the distribution (even taking into account the receipt of the IRS Ruling). The IRS Ruling is limited to specified aspects of the spin-off under Sections 355 and 361 of the Code and does not represent a determination by the IRS that all of the requirements necessary to obtain tax-free treatment to holders of our common stock and to us have been satisfied.

If the distribution does not qualify as a tax-free transaction for any reason, including as a result of a breach of a representation or covenant, we would recognize a substantial gain attributable to Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In such case, under U.S. Treasury regulations, each member of our consolidated group at the time of the spin-off (including the hotel business) would be jointly and severally liable for the entire resulting amount of any U.S. federal income tax liability. Additionally, if the distribution of the common stock of Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. does not qualify as tax-free under Section 355 of the Code, our shareholders will be treated as having received a taxable distribution equal to the value of the stock distributed, treated as a taxable dividend to the extent of our current and accumulated earnings and profits, and then would have a tax-free basis recovery up to the amount of their tax basis in their shares, and then would have taxable gain from the sale or exchange of the shares to the extent of any excess.

Our ability to engage in acquisitions and other strategic transactions is subject to limitations because we have agreed to certain restrictions intended to support the tax-free nature of the distribution.

The U.S. federal income tax laws that apply to transactions like the spin-off generally create a presumption that the distribution would be taxable to us (but not to our stockholders) if we engage in, or enter into an agreement to engage in, a transaction that would result in a 50% or greater change by vote or by value in our stock ownership during the four-year period beginning two years before the distribution date, unless it is established that the transaction is not pursuant to a plan or series of transactions related to the distribution. U.S. Treasury regulations currently in effect generally provide that whether an acquisition transaction and a distribution are part of a plan is determined based on all of the facts and circumstances, including specific factors listed in the Treasury regulations. In addition, these Treasury regulations provide several "safe harbors" for acquisition transactions that are not considered to be part of a plan that includes a distribution.

There are other restrictions imposed on us under current U.S. federal income tax laws with which we will need to comply in order for the distribution and certain related transactions to qualify as a transaction that is tax-free under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 of the Code. For example, we will generally be required to continue to own and manage our business, and there will be limitations on issuances, redemptions and sales of our stock for cash or other property following the distribution, except in connection with certain stock-for-stock acquisitions and other permitted transactions. If these restrictions are not followed, the distribution could be taxable to us and our stockholders.

We entered into a Tax Matters Agreement with Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. under which we have allocated, between Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. and ourselves, responsibility for U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. income and other taxes relating to taxable periods before and after the spin-off and provided for computing and apportioning tax liabilities and tax benefits between the parties. In the Tax Matters Agreement, we agreed that, among other things, we may not take, or fail to take, any action following the distribution if such action, or failure to act: would be inconsistent with or prohibit the spin-off and certain restructuring transactions related to the distribution and certain related transactions from qualifying as a tax-free reorganization under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 and related provisions of the Code to us and our stockholders (except with respect to the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares of our stock); or would be inconsistent with, or cause to be untrue, any representation, statement, information or covenant made in connection with the IRS Ruling, the tax opinions provided by our spin-off tax advisors or the Tax Matters Agreement relating to the qualification of the distribution and certain related transactions as a tax-free transaction under Sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 and related provisions of the Code.

In addition, we agreed that we may not, among other things, during the two-year period following the spin-off, except under certain specified circumstances, issue, sell or redeem our stock or other securities (or those of certain of our subsidiaries); liquidate, merge or consolidate with another person; sell or dispose of assets outside the ordinary course of business or materially change the manner of operating our business; or enter into any agreement, understanding or arrangement, or engage in any substantial negotiations with respect to any transaction or series of transactions which would cause us to undergo a specified percentage or greater change in our stock ownership by value or voting power. These restrictions could limit our strategic and operational flexibility, including our ability to finance our operations by issuing equity securities, make acquisitions using equity securities, repurchase our equity securities, or raise money by selling assets or enter into business combination transactions. We also agreed to indemnify Wyndham Hotels & Resorts, Inc. for certain tax liabilities resulting from any such transactions. Further, our stockholders may consider these covenants and indemnity obligations unfavorable as they might discourage, delay or prevent a change of control.
