Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 10, 2005, a putative class action was filed in Delaware state court on behalf of The Gillette Company's (the Company) shareholders, alleging breaches of fiduciary duties by the Company's board of directors and senior management in connection with the proposed merger with The Procter & Gamble Company (Procter & Gamble). The complaint alleges, among other things, that the proposed merger is unduly favorable to Procter & Gamble and that, if consummated, the Company's senior managers will receive excessive compensation. The plaintiff seeks injunctive relief barring consummation of the proposed merger or, in the alternative, rescission following consummation. The plaintiff also seeks compensatory damages.

A virtually identical action was filed on February 11, 2005, also in Delaware state court. A motion to consolidate the two actions is pending. It is possible that other, similar actions will be filed.

The Company and the other named defendants believe the allegations are without merit and intend to vigorously defend the actions.
