First Farmers & Merchants Bank Names Moody CFO

COLUMBIA, Tenn. July 26 2005 - Patricia P. Moody, who began her career at First Farmers & Merchants Bank in 1998, has been recently promoted from Vice President and Trust Officer to Chief Financial Officer, bank officials announced.

Among her new duties as CFO, Moody is responsible for coordinating the financial functions of the bank and holding company, preparing the annual budget, monitoring acceptable accounting principles and preparing the bank's financial statements. The CFO is a member of the bank's Senior Management Group.

"Pat is a key member of our management team," said T. Randy Stevens, F&M chairman and CEO. "We have every confidence that under her guidance, operational functions of the bank will run smoothly and we will continue to grow and serve our community."

A Certified Trust and Financial Advisor, Moody holds a Master of Business Administration from Middle Tennessee State University and is a graduate of the American Bankers Association's Graduate Trust School at Northwestern University. Prior to moving to Tennessee, she spent six years in Mississippi as manager of J. Clark & Associates - a public accounting firm. She is secretary of the Leadership Maury Board of Directors and a member of the Leadership Maury Alumni Board. She is also a member of the Columbia Breakfast Rotary Club.

"It's an honor to be able to serve such a truly great bank in this way," Moody said. "F&M has proven throughout its 95-year history that when you put the needs of the community first, success is sure to follow. It's wonderful to work at a place that so values people and relationships, and I look forward to many years of service to the bank and its customers."

Founded in 1909, First Farmers & Merchants Bank (Member FDIC) is one of the largest independent banks in Tennessee with total assets of over $840 million, as well as more than $2.3 billion in assets held by its Trust Department. Headquartered in Columbia, the bank operates over 20 offices in a six-county area that includes Maury, Marshall, Lawrence, Hickman, Dickson and Giles counties. It is distinguished by its commitment to traditional, personal banking relationships that incorporate state-of-the-art technology to provide the highest possible level of service.
