Departure of Director

William Ayer informed the board of his decision to retire as a director and as executive chairman of the board of directors of Alaska Air Group, Inc. (the "Company"). Ayer's resignation will be effective January 1, 2014, after fourteen years of service on the board. Ayer retired as chief executive officer of the Company and its subsidiaries in May 2012.

Appointment of Chairman of the Board

Bradley Tilden will succeed Ayer as chairman of the board, and will remain president and chief executive officer of the Company and Alaska Airlines, Inc., and chief executive officer of Horizon Air Industries, Inc.

On November 6, 2013, the board of directors appointed Helvi Sandvik, President of NANA Development Corporation, to the Company's and its subsidiaries' boards of directors effective immediately. Sandvik will participate in the current director compensation arrangements applicable to non-employee directors. Under the terms of those arrangements, she will receive a prorated annual retainer of $21,500 for service on the Company's board for 2013. In addition, under the Company's 2008 Performance Incentive Plan, Sandvik will receive a grant of 319 deferred stock units (determined by dividing $23,000 by the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date of her appointment to the board). The stock units will be paid in shares of the Company's common stock on a one-for-one basis following the termination of Sandvik's service as a member of the board.

In connection with Sandvik's appointment, the Company reports the following related party transactions under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. The aggregate dollar value of the amount involved in these transactions represents less than .5% of the 2012 gross revenues of NANA Development Corporation.
