Teva Announces Amir Elstein Joins Board of Directors

Jerusalem, Israel, January 5, 2009 - Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (NASDAQ: TEVA) announced today that Amir Elstein has joined the Company's board of directors, effective January 1, 2009.

Mr. Elstein has been a member of Teva's senior management since 2005. He most recently held the position of Executive Vice President, Global Pharmaceutical Resources. Prior to joining Teva as an executive officer, Mr. Elstein served on the Company's board of directors from 1995 to 2004. Mr. Elstein has resigned his executive position with the Company in order to rejoin its board of directors.

"I would like to thank Amir for his invaluable contribution to Teva over the past four years as a member of our senior management," said Shlomo Yanai, President and CEO of Teva. "Throughout his tenure at Teva, Amir made significant contributions to expanding our business and strengthening Teva's market leadership. I am confident that Teva will continue to benefit from his experience and dedication as a director."

"I am delighted to have Amir rejoin Teva's board of directors," said Eli Hurvitz, Teva's Chairman of the Board. "Teva's board brings together a wide range of experiences and vast expertise in different fields. I am certain that Amir's added insight into Teva as a senior executive over the past few years will further enhance his contribution to the board's work".

Prior to joining Teva, Mr. Elstein spent over 24 years at Intel Corporation, most recently as General Manager of Intel Electronics Ltd., an Israeli subsidiary of Intel Corporation. He holds a B.Sc. in Physics and Mathematics from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, a M.Sc. in Solid State Physics from the Department of Applied Physics of the Hebrew University and a diploma of Senior Business Management from the Hebrew University.

Safe Harbor Statement under the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This release contains forward-looking statements, which express the current beliefs and expectations of management. Such statements are based on management's current beliefs and expectations and involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause our future results, performance or achievements to differ significantly from the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include risks relating to: our ability to successfully develop and commercialize additional pharmaceutical products, the introduction of competing generic equivalents, the extent to which we may obtain U.S. market exclusivity for certain of our new generic products and regulatory changes that may prevent us from utilizing exclusivity periods, competition from brand-name companies that are under increased pressure to counter generic products, or competitors that seek to delay the introduction of generic products, the impact of consolidation of our distributors and customers, potential liability for sales of generic products prior to a final resolution of outstanding patent litigation, including that relating to the generic versions of Neurontin® and Lotrel® and Protonix®, the effects of competition on our innovative products, especially Copaxone® sales, the impact of pharmaceutical industry regulation and pending legislation that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, the difficulty of predicting U.S. Food and Drug Administration, European Medicines Agency and other regulatory authority approvals, the regulatory environment and changes in the health policies and structures of various countries, our ability to achieve expected results through our innovative R&D efforts, our ability to successfully identify, consummate and integrate acquisitions, including the pending acquisition of Barr Pharmaceuticals Inc., potential exposure to product liability claims to the extent not covered by insurance, dependence on the effectiveness of our patents and other protections for innovative products, significant operations worldwide that may be adversely affected by terrorism, political or economical instability or major hostilities, supply interruptions or delays that could result from the complex manufacturing of our products and our global supply chain, environmental risks, fluctuations in currency, exchange and interest rates, and other factors that are discussed in this report and in our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
