Item 5. Other Events.
-----

On or about February 1, 2002, an action was filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois against Regal-Beloit Corporation (the "Company") and its Ohio Gear division ("Ohio Gear"). The plaintiffs in the litigation allege that in 1998 and 1999 Ohio Gear supplied defective differential assemblies that were used in transaxles manufactured by the plaintiffs. The alleged defect relates to a component part that Ohio Gear had sourced from a third party supplier. The plaintiffs allege that they have incurred damages in excess of $3.2 million, including repair and replacement costs, lost profits, and loss of goodwill. The plaintiffs seek recovery of $3.2 million plus fees and expenses.

Edgar Filing: REGAL BELOIT CORP - Form 8-K

The Company believes it has both the right to recover costs that it incurs in the litigation from the third party supplier of the defective component part and defenses to the bulk of the plaintiffs' claims. The Company intends to defend its position vigorously in the litigation and to pursue recovery from the third party supplier to the extent that the Company incurs costs in connection with this matter. Given the preliminary stage of the process, the Company cannot currently predict the ultimate outcome of the litigation.
