Press Release

New York, NY

January 27, 2005

Eminence Capital, LLC, New York, NY is issuing the following press release. This press release represents the entire content of a letter that was presented by Eminence Capital, LLC to the Board of Directors of Masonite International Corporation on January 26, 2005:

As you may know, Eminence Capital LLC ("Eminence Capital") is a significant shareholder of Masonite International Corporation (the "Company"), owning approximately 3.8% of its outstanding common shares.

We are writing to you because we strongly oppose the announced leveraged buyout of Masonite by Stile Acquisition Corp., an affiliate of Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. ("KKR"). We think the company is worth far more than the C$40.20 per share purchase price. Also, based on our review of the proxy, we believe that the Special Committee of the Board of Directors, in reaching its conclusion that the offer is substantively fair to the shareholders of Masonite, relied upon factors and assumptions that were materially inconsistent with management's recent comments to shareholders about those same factors and assumptions.

We believe Masonite ("MHM") is worth at least C$50 per share. This can be supported by the same valuation techniques used in the analysis your investment banker prepared for the Special Committee of the Board of Directors. Our analysis, however, points out several inconsistencies and flaws we see in the analysis performed by the banker.

These inconsistencies and flaws are as follows:

- 1) Management of the Company supplied your banker with financial projections that were very inconsistent with statements your CEO Phil Orsino and Executive VP Larry Repar made to shareholders of the Company as recently as October 20, 2004. Management's projections used by your banker appear to assume an internal revenue growth rate of 1% - 3% compared to the 7% - 10% growth rate management discussed on its July and October earnings calls. [SEE ORGANIC GROWTH DISCUSSION BELOW] We performed LBO and DCF analyses using the assumptions presented in the proxy, however, assuming an internal growth rate of 7% (the low-end of management's range) and we calculate the mid-points of fair value at C$48 per share in the LBO analysis and C$53 per share in the DCF analysis. These values are C$7 - C$10 per share higher than the values (mid-points) your banker derived in its analysis.
- 2) Your banker applied a 20% to 35% discount to the comparable company multiple when valuing MHM because MHM has historically traded at a discount to its US peers. We believe that based on MHM's leading market position, solid internal growth rate and strong cash flow, the company is worth at least a comparable multiple to its US peers. Using the same EPS figure as your banker used in its analysis,

US$2.71 per share, we calculate a fair comparable company value of C$48.00 per share. This assumes no control premium though one is clearly justified.

- 3) Your banker used an LTM EBITDA figure that was not adjusted for the full-year effect of acquisitions that MHM consummated in the last nine months. When we value MHM's LTM EBITDA, adjusted for acquisitions, at the same multiple as the peer group presented in the proxy (no discount applied) we arrive at a value of C$46.00 per share, again assuming no control premium. This value is C$13.50 per share higher than the mid-point price in your banker's analysis.

We find it disconcerting that your banker (the Special Committee's financial advisor) was supplied financial projections by management that were significantly below the very targets management spoke about on its conference calls with investors as recently as October 20, 2004. These projections were also well below the projections management originally supplied to KKR, also in October 2004. Specifically, the projections supplied to the investment bankers for purposes of determining "Fairness" incorporate internal revenue growth assumptions far below levels that management publicly spoke about on its two most recent earnings conference calls.

Edgar Filing: MASONITE INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form SC 13D

Below we have provided the inconsistencies between the organic revenue growth rate assumptions provided by the Company to its banker and what was said to the public on the July 19th, 2004 and October 20th, 2004 conference calls.

ORGANIC GROWTH DISCUSSION:

The projections supplied to your banker for the purpose of their fairness opinion assumed a compounded annual growth rate ("CAGR") in total revenues from 2005 to 2009 of 6.3%. This growth rate included revenue added through US$100 million per year of acquisition spending. Backing out these acquisitions, this forecast implies internal revenue growth of 1% to 3%, far below management's recent projections of 7% to 10%.

On the July 19, 2004 conference call with investors<sup>1</sup>, your CEO Phil Orsino stated:

"Well, you know, what we targeted and what we talked about was that over the next three to five years that we could achieve growth of 7 to 10% top line. And we are still very, very confident in those target ranges."

On the October 20, 2004 conference call, management continued to support this target growth rate:

QUESTION FROM SELL SIDE ANALYST: "What's the outlook for organic growth in your assessment right now for sales growth in 2005? Can we do double-digit-plus?"

(1) All quotations per Street Events transcripts.

ANSWER FROM LARRY REPAR: "We are maintaining the targets that we have discussed throughout the year - organic growth ranging between 7 and 10 percent, and we are going to maintain that target for 2005."

ANSWER FROM PHILIP ORSINO: "I mean, if economic conditions continue to be similar to what they are at this point in time, then obviously in the same way that we broke through that range, so far this year we could continue to break through that range going into next year as well."

Given the above, we believe that the financial projections and valuation multiples used to evaluate the fairness of KKR's offer were significantly understated. We do not agree that the current offer reflects a fair price for the Company and believe the Company is worth at least C$50 per share based on a number of valuation parameters. Moreover, we are troubled by the sudden change in management's outlook for the business and would note that as participants in the transaction, management has a conflict of interest.

We intend to vote against the transaction as currently configured. Should we and other shareholders vote this transaction down, we strongly urge the Board of Directors of the Company to take one of the following actions:

- 1) Execute management's recently stated plan without any further disruptions and accelerate the Company's recently announced share repurchase program, possibly through a Dutch Auction; and / or
- 2) Implement a leverage recapitalization of the Company and pay a significant special dividend to current shareholders.

Edgar Filing: MASONITE INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form SC 13D

We have always been a supportive shareholder of the Company and believe that the Company is a well-managed business with favorable growth prospects. We are disappointed by the value that is being offered by KKR and the management team and find it disappointing in this day and age that you have recommended that KKR and management insiders acquire the Company, and its upside potential, for an inadequate price. We also believe that other significant shareholders share our concerns about the transaction.
