ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

In 1986, various Sections of Article 7 of the Business Corporation Law of New York (the "BCL") were amended to broaden the indemnification rights of directors, officers and employees. In 1987, BCL Section 402(b) was further amended to permit a provision to be included in a certificate of incorporation shielding directors from personal liability for breach of their duties as directors. In order to protect our directors, officers and employees, as applicable, to the fullest extent permitted by these statutory amendments, we amended and restated our By-laws (the "By-laws") and restated our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the "Certificate of Incorporation").

In general, the By-laws and Certificate of Incorporation provide that we shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Article 7 of the BCL, indemnify each person made or threatened to be made a party to, or called as a witness in, or asked to submit information in, any action or proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of us, or serves or served, at our request, any other corporation in any capacity, against judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such action or proceeding, or any appeal therein. This indemnification requirement covers any pending or threatened action, proceeding, hearing or investigation, whether civil or criminal, whether judicial, administrative or legislative in nature, and whether or not in the nature of a direct or shareholders' derivative action brought by us or on our behalf or any other corporation or enterprise which the director or officer of us serves or has served at our request. The By-laws prohibit indemnification if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such person establishes that his or her acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active or deliberate dishonesty and were material to the cause of action so adjudicated, or that he or she personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he or she was not legally entitled. The By-laws further provide that no indemnification shall be required with respect to any settlement or other non-adjudicated disposition of any threatened or pending action or proceeding unless we have given our prior consent to such settlement or other disposition. The By-laws require us to advance or promptly reimburse upon request any person entitled to indemnification for all expenses, including attorneys' fees, reasonably incurred in defending any action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay such amount if such person is ultimately not to be entitled to indemnification; provided, however, that such person cooperates with any request by us that counsel be utilized by the parties to an action or proceeding similarly situated unless to do so would be inappropriate due to actual or potential conflicts of interest.

The Certificate of Incorporation provides that the personal liability of our directors be eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of BCL Section 402(b). It also provides that we shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Article 7 of the BCL, indemnify under that statute from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters covered by the statute. The By-laws, summarized above, contain the detailed terms and conditions under which this indemnification requirement of the Certificate of Incorporation is to be effected.

We maintain an officers' and directors' liability insurance policy insuring our officers and directors against certain liabilities and expenses incurred by them in their capacities as such. The policy does not reimburse us for indemnification obligations to our officers and directors.

information in the registration statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered hereunder, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Long Island City, State of New York on this 7th day of June, 2005.
