Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains certain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our or our management's expectations, hopes, beliefs, intentions or strategies regarding the future and other statements that are other than statements of historical fact. In addition, any statements that refer to projections, forecasts or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. The words "anticipate", "believe", "continue", "could", "estimate", "expect", "intend", "may", "might", "plan", "possible", "potential", "predict", "project", "should", "would" and similar expressions may identify forward-looking statements, but the absence of these words does not mean that a statement is not forward-looking.

The forward-looking statements in this report are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends, data contained in our records and other data available from third parties. Although we believe that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond our control, we cannot assure you that we will achieve or accomplish these expectations, beliefs or projections. As a result, you are cautioned not to rely on any forward-looking statements.

In addition to these important factors and matters discussed elsewhere herein, important factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include among other things:

- changes in shipping industry trends, including charter rates, vessel values and factors affecting vessel supply and demand;
- changes in seaborne and other transportation patterns;
- changes in the supply of or demand for drybulk commodities, including drybulk commodities carried by sea, generally or in particular regions;

- changes in the useful lives and the value of our vessels and the related impact on our compliance with loan covenants;
- the aging of our fleet and increases in operating costs;
- changes in our ability to complete future, pending or recent acquisitions or dispositions;
- our ability to achieve successful utilization of our expanded fleet;
- changes to our financial condition and liquidity, including our ability to service our indebtedness;
- risks related to our business strategy, areas of possible expansion or expected capital spending or operating expenses;
- changes in the availability of crew, number of off-hire days, classification survey requirements and insurance costs for the vessels in our fleet;
- changes in our ability to leverage the relationships and reputation in the drybulk shipping industry of our third-party managers, V.Ships Limited, our technical manager, and Fidelity Marine Inc., our commercial manager;

· changes in our relationships with our contract counterparties, including the failure of any of our contract counterparties to comply with their agreements with us;

· loss of our customers, charters or vessels;

· damage to our vessels;

· potential liability from future litigation and incidents involving our vessels;

· our future operating or financial results;

· acts of terrorism and other hostilities;

· changes in global and regional economic and political conditions;

· other factors listed from time to time in registration statements, reports or other materials that we have filed with or furnished to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including our most recent annual report on Form 20-F. These factors could cause actual results or developments to differ materially from those expressed in any of our forward-looking statements. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could materially harm our results or developments. Consequently, there can be no assurance that actual results or developments anticipated by us will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to, or effects on, us. Given these uncertainties, prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.

We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law. If one or more forward-looking statements are updated, no inference should be drawn that additional updates will be made with respect to those or other forward-looking statements.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following management's discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our unaudited interim consolidated financial statements and related notes included herein. Unless the context indicates otherwise, references to the "Company", "we" or "our" include Seanergy Maritime Holdings Corp. and its subsidiaries. This discussion contains forward-looking statements that reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. Our actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements.

Operating Results

Factors Affecting our Results of Operations Overview

We are an international shipping company specializing in the worldwide seaborne transportation of drybulk commodities. We currently operate a modern fleet of ten dry bulk carriers, all Capesizes, with a combined cargo-carrying capacity of approximately 1,748,581 dwt and an average fleet age of about 9.7 years.

Important Measures for Analyzing Results of Operations

We use a variety of financial and operational terms and concepts. These include the following:

Ownership days. Ownership days are the total number of calendar days in a period during which we owned or chartered in on bareboat basis each vessel in our fleet. Ownership days are an indicator of the size of our fleet over a period and affect both the amount of revenues and the amount of expenses recorded during that period.

Available days. Available days are the number of ownership days less the aggregate number of days that our vessels are off-hire due to major repairs, dry-dockings, lay-up or special or intermediate surveys. The shipping industry uses available days to measure the aggregate number of days in a period during which vessels are available to generate revenues.

Operating days. Operating days are the number of available days in a period less the aggregate number of days that our vessels are off-hire due to unforeseen circumstances. Operating days include the days that our vessels are in ballast voyages without having fixed their next employment. The shipping industry uses operating days to measure the aggregate number of days in a period during which vessels could actually generate revenues.

Fleet utilization. Fleet utilization is the percentage of time that our vessels were generating revenues, and is determined by dividing operating days by ownership days for the relevant period.

Off-hire. The period a vessel is not being chartered or is unable to perform the services for which it is required under a charter.

Dry-docking. We periodically dry-dock each of our vessels for inspection, repairs and maintenance and any modifications to comply with industry certification or governmental requirements.

Time charter. A time charter is a contract for the use of a vessel for a specific period of time (period time charter) or for a specific voyage (trip time charter) during which the charterer pays substantially all of the voyage expenses, including port charges, bunker expenses, canal charges and other commissions. The vessel owner pays the vessel operating expenses, which include crew costs, provisions, deck and engine stores and spares, lubricants, insurance, maintenance and repairs. The vessel owner is also responsible for each vessel's dry-docking and intermediate and special survey costs. Time charter rates are usually fixed during the term of the charter. Prevailing time charter rates do fluctuate on a seasonal and year-to-year basis and may be substantially higher or lower from a prior time charter agreement when the subject vessel is seeking to renew the time charter agreement with the existing charterer or enter into a new time charter agreement with another charterer. Fluctuations in time charter rates are influenced by changes in spot charter rates.

Bareboat charter. A bareboat charter is generally a contract pursuant to which a vessel owner provides its vessel to a charterer for a fixed period of time at a specified daily rate. Under a bareboat charter, the charterer assumes responsibility for all voyage and vessel operating expenses and risk of operation.

Voyage charter. A voyage charter is generally a contract to carry a specific cargo from a load port to a discharge port for an agreed-upon total amount. Under voyage charters, voyage expenses, such as port charges, bunker expenses, canal charges and other commissions, are paid by the vessel owner, who also pays vessel operating expenses.

TCE. Time charter equivalent, or TCE, rate is defined as our net revenue less voyage expenses during a period divided by the number of our operating days during the period. Voyage expenses include port charges, bunker expenses, canal charges and other commissions.

Principal Factors Affecting Our Business

The principal factors that affect our financial position, results of operations and cash flows include the following:

- number of vessels owned and operated;
- voyage charter rates;
- time charter trip rates;
- period time charter rates;
- the nature and duration of our voyage and time charters;
- vessels repositioning;
- vessel operating expenses and voyage costs;
- maintenance and upgrade work;
- the age, condition and specifications of our vessels;
- issuance of our common shares and other securities;
- amount of debt obligations; and
- financing costs related to debt obligations.

We are also affected by the types of charters we enter into. Vessels operating on period time charters and bareboat time charters provide more predictable cash flows, but can yield lower profit margins than vessels operating in the spot charter market, either on trip time charters or voyage charters, during periods characterized by favorable market conditions.

Vessels operating in the spot charter market generate revenues that are less predictable, but can yield increased profit margins during periods of improvements in drybulk rates. Spot charters also expose vessel owners to the risk of declining drybulk rates and rising fuel costs in case of voyage charters. All of our vessels in the nine month periods ended September 30, 2018 and 2017 operated in the spot charter market, except for (i) the Lordship which was employed in June 2017 on a time charter for a period of about 18 months to about 22 months, (ii) the Partnership which was employed in June 2017 on a time charter for a period of about 12 months to about 18 months (iii) the Guardianship which was employed in June 2018 on a time charter for a period of about minimum 5 months to about 7 months and (iv) the Gladiatorship which was employed in May 2018 on a short-term time charter for a period of about 4 months to about 6 months.

Vessel Revenue, Net - The increase was attributable to the increase in prevailing charter rates and the increase in operating days. We had 2,988 operating days in the first nine months of 2018 as compared to 2,834 operating days in the first nine months of 2017. We acquired an additional Capesize vessel in May 2017. The TCE rate increased for the nine month period ended September 30, 2018 by 45% to $12,497 compared to $8,631 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2017. TCE rate is a non-GAAP measure. Please see the reconciliation below of TCE rate to net revenues from vessels, the most directly comparable U.S. GAAP measure.

Voyage Expenses - The increase was attributable to the increase in ownership days. We had 3,003 ownership days in the first nine months of 2018 as compared to 2,852 ownership days in the first nine months of 2017. We acquired an additional Capesize vessel in May 2017.

Vessel Operating Expenses - The increase was mainly attributable to the increase in ownership days. We had 3,003 ownership days in the first nine months of 2018 as compared to 2,852 ownership days in the first nine months of 2017. We acquired an additional Capesize vessel in May 2017.

Management Fees - The increase was attributable to the increase in ownership days. We had 3,003 ownership days in the first nine months of 2018 as compared to 2,852 ownership days in the first nine months of 2017. We acquired an additional Capesize vessel in May 2017.

General and Administrative Expenses - The increase is mainly attributable to $1.2 million of stock based compensation amortization in the first nine months of 2018 for shares granted pursuant to our 2011 Equity Incentive Plan and to others, compared to $0.6 million of respective stock based compensation amortization in the first nine months of 2017.

Depreciation and Amortization – The increase was attributable to the increase in ownership days. We had 3,003 ownership days in the first nine months of 2018 as compared to 2,852 ownership days in the first nine months of 2017. We acquired an additional Capesize vessel in May 2017.

Impairment Loss – The impairment loss relates to two vessels classified as "Vessels Held for Sale" as of September 30, 2018.

Interest and Finance Costs - The increase was primarily attributable to the ATB loan facility entered into in May 2017, the May 24, 2017 loan facility entered into with Jelco Delta Holding Corp., or Jelco, a company affiliated with Claudia Restis, who is our principal shareholder, or Sponsor, the new convertible note with Jelco entered into in September 2017 and the April 10, 2018 Jelco loan facility. The weighted average interest rate on our outstanding debt and convertible promissory notes for the nine months ended 2018 and 2017 was approximately 7.52% and 5.54%, respectively.

Performance Indicators

The figures shown below are non-GAAP statistical ratios used by management to measure performance of our vessels. For the "Fleet Data" figures, there are no comparable U.S. GAAP measures.

We include TCE rate, a non-GAAP measure, as we believe it provides additional meaningful information in conjunction with net revenues from vessels, the most directly comparable U.S. GAAP measure, because it assists (3) our management in making decisions regarding the deployment and use of our vessels and in evaluating their financial performance. Our calculation of TCE rate may not be comparable to that reported by other companies.

The following table reconciles our net revenues from vessels to TCE rate.

EBITDA is not a recognized measurement under U.S. GAAP. EBITDA is presented as we believe that this measure is useful to investors as a widely-used means of evaluating operating profitability. EBITDA as presented here may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures presented by other companies. This non-GAAP measure should not be considered in isolation from, as a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our principal source of funds has been our operating cash flows, long-term borrowings from banks and our Sponsor, and equity provided by the capital markets and our Sponsor. Our principal use of funds has primarily been capital expenditures to establish our fleet, maintain the quality of our drybulk vessels, comply with international shipping standards and environmental laws and regulations, fund working capital requirements and make principal repayments and interest payments on our outstanding debt obligations.

Our funding and treasury activities are conducted in accordance to corporate policies to maximize investment returns while maintaining appropriate liquidity for both our short and long term needs. This includes arranging borrowing facilities on a cost-effective basis. Cash and cash equivalents are held primarily in U.S. dollars, with minimal amounts held in Euros.

As of September 30, 2018, we had cash and cash equivalents of $5.2 million, as compared to $8.9 million as of December 31, 2017.

Working capital is equal to current assets minus current liabilities, including the current portion of long-term debt. As of September 30, 2018, we had a working capital deficit of $7.4 million as compared to a deficit of $15 million as of December 31, 2017. Our working capital was primarily affected by the re-classification of $9.7 million of our borrowings with Jelco to current liabilities from non-current liabilities as of December 31, 2017 due to the proximity of the underlying maturities offset by a $22.7 million classification of the Gladiatorship and the Guardianship to "Vessels held for sale" under current assets.

Our short term liquidity commitments, as of September 30, 2018, primarily relate to debt and interest repayments of approximately $49.1 million under our credit facilities and convertible promissory notes due by September 30, 2019. We expect to fund these commitments with cash on hand and cash inflows from operations, as our cash flow projections indicate that cash on hand and cash to be provided by operating activities, based on current and projected charter rates for the next twelve months, will be sufficient to cover the liquidity needs that become due in the twelve-month period ending one year after September 30, 2018.

Our long-term liquidity commitments primarily relate to the repayment of our long-term debt balances under our credit facilities and convertible promissory notes issued to Jelco. Please see "– Description of Indebtedness." We expect to fund these commitments with cash on hand, refinancing of existing financing arrangements and/or public and private debt and equity transactions in the capital markets.

As of September 30, 2018, we had total indebtedness under our credit facilities of $213.7 million, excluding unamortized financing fees, as compared to $213.8 million as of December 31, 2017.

Nine months ended September 30, 2018 as compared to nine months ended September 30, 2017

Operating Activities: Net cash used in operating activities amounted to $0.2 million for the nine month period ended September 30, 2018, consisting of net gain after non-cash items of $1.8 million plus a decrease in working capital of $2.0 million. Net cash used in operating activities amounted to $2.5 million for the nine month period ended September 30, 2017, consisting of net loss after non-cash items of $3.8 million plus an increase in working capital of $1.3 million.

Investing Activities: The 2018 cash outflow is mainly due to advances for acquisition of vessels and capitalized expenditures of office space and equipment. The 2017 cash outflow resulted from the acquisition of our Partnership in May 2017.

Financing Activities: The 2018 cash inflow resulted from proceeds of $24.5 million obtained from the Wilmington Trust loan facility dated June 11, 2018, proceeds of $18.6 million obtained from the Hanchen Limited sale and leaseback transaction in June 2018 for the Knightship and proceeds of $2 million obtained from the Jelco loan facility dated May 24, 2017. The 2018 cash inflow was offset by debt repayments of: $32 million with respect to the Northern Shipping Funds, or NSF, loan facility, $3.1 million with respect to the UniCredit loan facility, $6.1 million with respect to the HSH loan facility, $1.2 million with respect to the ATB loan facility, $0.5 million with respect to the Hanchen Limited financial liability, $0.2 million with respect to the Wilmington Trust loan facility, $0.8 million with respect to the March 2015 Alpha Bank loan facility, $2.5 million with respect to the November 2015 Alpha Bank loan facility and $0.6 million loan finance fees payments in respect with the loan amendments. The 2017 cash inflow resulted from proceeds of $34.5 million obtained from the ATB loan facility, proceeds of $16.2 million obtained from the Jelco loan facility dated May 24, 2017, proceeds of $9 million obtained from convertible promissory note to Jelco dated September 27, 2017 and proceeds of $2.7 million from common stock issuances. The 2017 cash inflow was offset by debt repayments of: $28 million with respect to the Natixis loan facility, $1.6 million with respect to the UniCredit loan facility, $1.1 million with respect to the HSH loan facility, $0.6 million with respect to the ATB loan facility, $0.5 million with respect to the March 2015 Alpha Bank loan facility and $0.6 million loan finance fees payments.

Description of Indebtedness

Credit Facilities

March 2015 Alpha Bank A.E. Loan Facility

On March 6, 2015, we entered into a $8.75 million secured floating interest rate loan facility with Alpha Bank A.E. to partly finance the acquisition of the Leadership. On December 23, 2015, July 28, 2016 and June 29, 2018, we and Alpha Bank A.E. entered into a first, second and third supplemental agreement, respectively, to the facility agreement. As amended, to date, the facility bears interest at LIBOR plus a margin of 3.75% and is repayable in six installments of $0.25 million each, with a final balloon payment of $4.45 million due on March 17, 2020. The borrower under the facility is our applicable vessel-owning subsidiary and the facility is guaranteed by Seanergy Maritime Holdings Corp. The facility is secured by a first preferred mortgage over the vessel, a general assignment covering earnings, insurances, charter parties and requisition compensation, an account pledge agreement and technical and commercial managers' undertakings. The facility also imposes certain operating and financing covenants. Certain of these covenants may significantly limit or prohibit, among other things, the borrower's ability to incur additional indebtedness, create liens, sell capital shares of subsidiaries, engage in mergers, or sell the vessel without the consent of the relevant lenders. Certain other covenants require ongoing compliance. On a consolidated basis, we are required to (i) maintain a corporate leverage ratio, as defined in the loan agreement, that will not be (a) at the end of December 31, 2018 higher than 0.85:1.0, the compliance with such obligation to be tested on each financial semester starting from July 1, 2018; (b) on March 31, 2019 higher than 0.80:1.0 and (c) starting from June 1, 2019 and at the end of each accounting period higher than 0.75:1.0, (ii) from July 1, 2018 the consolidated interest cover ratio (EBITDA to Net Interest Expense) shall not be (a) until and including the 31, March 2019, lower than 1.2:1 and (b) as from April 1, 2019 until the expiration of the Security Period, lower than 2:1, and (iii) liquidity in a specified amount. In addition, from July 1, 2017, the borrower shall ensure that the market value of the vessel plus any additional security to total facility outstanding shall not be less than 125%. The lender may accelerate the maturity of the facility and foreclose upon the collateral securing the indebtedness upon the occurrence of certain events of default, including a failure to comply with any of the covenants contained in the facility. The facility also restricts our ability to distribute dividends in excess of 50% of our net income except if our cash and marketable securities are equal or greater than the amount required to meet our debt service for the following eighteen-month period. Pursuant to the second supplemental agreement, the four installments falling due after the date of such supplemental agreement were reduced by $0.6 million in total. At the time of the repurchase of the vessel by the Sub-charterer, the Sub-charterer has the obligation to pay to Cargill an amount equal to 20% of the difference between the market value of the vessel at the time of the repurchase and a pre-determined floor price, starting at $30.0 million with applicable depreciation of 5.5% per annum. The sub-bareboat charter is secured by an account pledge agreement and technical and commercial managers' undertakings, and it requires the Sub-charterer to maintain in aggregate $1.6 million as cash deposit until the expiration of the 5-year sale and leaseback period. The bareboat rate is $7,900 per day and is paid in monthly intervals. The cost of the financing is equivalent to an expected fixed interest rate of 4.69% for 5 years. In addition, under the sale and leaseback agreement the Company will, subject to certain conditions, draw an additional amount of $2.75 million in stages which will be used to finance the installation of an exhaust gas cleaning system, or scrubber, on the Championship (the "Scrubber Tranche"). The installation of the scrubber is expected to be completed by September 30, 2019 at which point it is expected for the Scrubber Tranche to be fully drawn. Once drawings commence, the Scrubber Tranche will be repayable through a premium in the daily bareboat hire of $350, which will increase to $1,740 following full drawdown of the Scrubber Tranche (the "Scrubber Premium"). As part of the sale and leaseback agreement, the Championship entered on November 7, 2018 a back-to-back time charter with Cargill for a period of five years plus an additional 18 months at charterer's option. The net daily charter hire payable by Cargill to the Sub-charterer is calculated at an index linked rate based on the five time charter routes of the Baltic Capesize Index by applying an average discount of 7% for the five-year period and in addition has a fixed element which is equal to the respective Scrubber Premium. On top of the daily hire, the Company will receive a compensation based on the spread between the price of High-Sulphur Fuel Oil and the price of Marine Gas Oil or other compliant Low-Sulphur Fuel Oil throughout the term of the time charter. The sale and leaseback agreement does not include any financial covenants or security value maintenance provisions. As part of the transaction, the Company has issued 1,800,000 of its common shares to Cargill which are subject to customary registration rights.

The note bears interest at three-month LIBOR plus a margin of 5% with interest payable quarterly. At Jelco's option, the principal amount under the convertible note or any part thereof may be paid at any time in common shares at a conversion price of $0.90 per share. Jelco also received customary registration rights with respect to any shares received upon conversion of the note. As of September 30, 2018, $3.8 million was outstanding under the note.

On September 7, 2015, we issued a revolving convertible promissory note to Jelco for an amount up to $6.8 million, or the Applicable Limit. Following nine amendments to the note between December 2015 and September 2017, the Applicable Limit was raised to $21.2 million and would be reduced by $3.3 million four years following the first drawdown. The aggregate outstanding principal was repayable on the third quarter of 2020. On September 1, 2018, we entered into a further amendment to the note pursuant to which a drawdown request of up to $3.5 million may be made by April 10, 2019 (the "Final Revolving Advance Date"). If the request is not made by the Final Revolving Advance Date, the advance will not be available to be drawn. In addition, principal repayments were eliminated, and the repayment of the aggregate outstanding principal was extended to December 2022. The note bears interest at three-month LIBOR plus a margin of 5% with interest payable quarterly. At Jelco's option, our obligation to repay the principal amount under the revolving convertible note or any part thereof may be paid in common shares at a conversion price of $0.90 per share. Jelco also received customary registration rights with respect to any shares received upon conversion of the note. As of September 30, 2018, $21.2 million was outstanding under the note.

On September 27, 2017, we issued a convertible promissory note to Jelco for an amount of $13.75 million. The note is repayable by two consecutive annual installments of $1.375 million, with the first installment occurring 24 months after the drawdown date, along with a balloon installment of $11 million payable four years after the drawdown date. The note bears interest at three-month LIBOR plus a margin of 5% with interest payable quarterly. At Jelco's option, the whole or any part of the principal amount under the note may be paid at any time in common shares at a conversion price of $0.90 per share. Jelco has received customary registration rights with respect to all shares upon conversion of the note. The note is secured by a second preferred mortgage and second priority general assignment covering earnings, insurances and requisition compensation over the Partnership and a guarantee from the respective vessel-owning subsidiary; all cross collateralized with the loan entered into with Jelco on May 24, 2017, as amended and restated. Of the $13.75 million under the note, $4.75 million were used to make a mandatory prepayment under the May 2017 Jelco loan facility. As of September 30, 2018, $13.75 million was outstanding under the note.

Our wholly-owned subsidiary Emperor Holding Ltd. has provided a guarantee, dated September 27, 2017, to Jelco for Seanergy Maritime Holdings Corp.'s obligations under all these notes.

2. Significant Accounting Policies:

A discussion of the Company's significant accounting policies can be found in the Company's consolidated financial statements included in the Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2017, filed with the SEC on March 7, 2018. There have been no material changes to these policies in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018, other than as disclosed below:

Recent Accounting Pronouncements Adopted

Revenue

On January 1, 2018, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers and the related amendments ("ASC 606" or "the new revenue standard") using the modified retrospective method, requiring to recognize the cumulative effect of adopting this guidance as an adjustment to the 2018 opening balance of retained earnings and not retrospectively adjusting prior periods. The core principle is that a company should recognize revenue when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled for those goods or services. The Company analyzed its contracts with charterers and has determined that its spot charters fall under the provisions of ASC 606, while its time charter agreements are lease agreements that contain certain non-lease elements. ASU No. 2014-09 indicates that an entity should perform a five-step approach in recognizing revenue, which might require more judgement and estimates compared to existing U.S. GAAP standards. The Company assessed its contract with charterers for spot charters during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018 and concluded that there is one single performance obligation for each of its spot charters, which is to provide the charterer with a transportation service within a specified time period. In addition, the Company has concluded that spot charters meet the criteria to recognize revenue over time as the charterer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits of the Company's performance. Previously, voyage revenue was recognized from the latter of the completion of the previous voyage and the signing of the next charter party (assuming a new charter has been agreed before the completion of the previous spot charter) until completion of cargo discharge. Under the new standard, voyage revenue is recognized beginning from when the vessel arrives at the load port until completion of cargo discharge. This change results in revenue being recognized later in the voyage, which may cause additional volatility in revenues and earnings between periods. Under a spot charter, the Company incurs and pays for certain voyage expenses, primarily consisting of bunkers consumption, brokerage commissions, port and canal costs. Before the adoption of ASC 606, all voyage costs are expensed as incurred, except for brokerage commissions. Brokerage commissions are deferred and amortized over the related voyage period in a charter to the extent revenue has been deferred since commissions are earned as the Company's revenues are earned. Under ASC 606 and after implementation of ASC 340-40 "Other assets and deferred costs" for contract costs, incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer, and contract fulfillment costs, should be capitalized and amortized as the performance obligation is satisfied, if certain criteria are met. The Company assessed the new guidance and concluded that voyage costs are recognized over the length of the voyage as the performance obligation is satisfied, while costs to obtain the contract primarily consisting of bunkers are deferred and amortized during the voyage period. The adoption of new standard resulted in an increase in the opening Accumulated deficit balance as of January 1, 2018 of approximately $1,301 as a result of the adjustment of Vessels revenue and Voyage expenses. Having not adopted ASC 606 the Company's: (i) vessel revenues would have been $68,020 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018, (ii) voyage expenses would have been $29,075 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018 and (iii) commissions would have been $2,386 as of September 30, 2018. The balance sheet accounts affected are Accounts Receivable Trade, Net, Deferred Voyage Expenses, Trade Accounts and Other Payables and Accrued Liabilities. The total net positive effect in the Company's consolidated net loss having not adopted ASC 606 would have been $781 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018. The Company does not disclose the value of unsatisfied performance obligations for contracts with an original expected length of one year or less, in accordance with the optional exception in ASC 606.

The following table presents the Company's net trade accounts receivable disaggregated by revenue source as at September 30, 2018 and as at December 31, 2017:

	September 30, 2018	December 31, 2017
Accounts receivable trade, net from spot charters	2,235	1,855
Accounts receivable trade, net from time charters	1,283	1,771

Notes To The Unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements

(All amounts in footnotes in thousands of US Dollars, except for share and per share and warrants data, unless otherwise stated)

Leases

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued ASU No. 2016-02 - Leases (ASC 842), and as amended, which requires lessees to recognize most leases on the balance sheet. This is expected to increase both reported assets and liabilities. The new lease standard does not substantially change lessor accounting. For public companies, the standard will be effective for the first interim reporting period within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018, although early adoption is permitted. Lessees and lessors will be required to apply the new standard at the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements in which they first apply the new guidance, using a modified retrospective transition method. In July 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-11, Leases (ASC 842) – Targeted Improvements. The amendments in this Update: (i) provide entities with an additional (and optional) transition method to adopt the new leases standard, under which an entity initially applies the new leases standard at the adoption date and recognizes a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings in the period of adoption consistent with preparers' requests and (ii) provide lessors with a practical expedient, by class of underlying asset, to not separate non-lease components from the associated lease component and, instead, to account for those components as a single component if both of the following are met: (a) The timing and pattern of transfer of the non-lease component(s) and associated lease component are the same and (b) The lease component, if accounted for separately, would be classified as an operating lease. If the non-lease component or components associated with the lease component are the predominant component of the combined component, an entity is required to account for the combined component in accordance with ASC 606. Otherwise, the entity should account for the combined component as an operating lease in accordance with ASC 842. Under ASC 842, lessees and lessors will be required to apply the new standard at the beginning of the earliest period presented in the financial statements in which they first apply the new guidance, using a modified retrospective transition method. The requirements of this standard include a significant increase in required disclosures. The Company elected to early adopt ASC 842 in the second quarter of 2018, retrospectively from January 1, 2018. The Company selected the optional transition method and adopted the standard by using the modified retrospective method. The Company also elected to apply all the practical expedients discussed above. In this respect no cumulative-effect adjustment was recognized to the 2018 opening balance of retained earnings. The Company assessed its new time charter contracts within the period under the new guidance and concluded that these contracts contain a lease with the related executory costs (insurance), as well as non-lease elements to provide other services related to the operation of the vessel, with the most substantial service being the crew cost to operate the vessel. The Company concluded that the criteria for not separating lease and non-lease components of its time charter contracts are met, since (i) the time pattern of recognizing revenues for crew and other services for the operation of the vessels is similar to the time pattern of recognizing rental income, (ii) the lease component of the time charter contracts, if accounted for separately, would be classified as an operating lease, and (iii) the predominant component in its time charter agreements is the lease component. In this respect, the Company accounts for the combined component as an operating lease in accordance with ASC 842. The early adoption of ASC 842 had no effect on the Company's consolidated financial position and results of operations for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018. As of September 30, 2018, the Company had two vessels employed under long-term time charters determined to be operating leases under ASC 842. The one vessel's period of employment is expected to end in December 2018 and the other vessel's period of employment is expected to end between December 2018 and April 2019. Operating lease-related income items for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018 are: (i) vessel rental income of $9,102, (ii) voyage expenses of $195 and (iii) commissions of $166. Cash lease payments received for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2018 were $8,468.

As of September 30, 2018, the Company has entered into two time charter agreements for periods of thirty three to thirty seven months, with charterer's option to extend both time charters. These time charters will commence in the second half of 2019. As of September 30, 2018, an amount of $1,800, which is included in cash and cash equivalents and in trade accounts and other payables on the consolidated balance sheet, relates to an advance received from the charterer of these two charter agreements in order to fund the installation of exhaust gas cleaning systems, or scrubbers, on the two vessels associated with these time charters. The charterer will fund the entire cost of the scrubbers. As of September 30, 2018, the Company has also entered into an agreement for the installation of the scrubbers on these two vessels. Installation of the scrubbers is expected to take place in 2019 and conclude by September 30, 2019. The Company does not expect the scrubbers installation to have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-15 Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230) – Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments which addresses the following eight specific cash flow issues with the objective of reducing the existing diversity in practice: Debt prepayment or debt extinguishment costs; settlement of zero-coupon debt instruments or other debt instruments with coupon interest rates that are insignificant in relation to the effective interest rate of the borrowing; contingent consideration payments made after a business combination; proceeds from the settlement of insurance claims; proceeds from the settlement of corporate-owned life insurance policies (COLIs) (including bank-owned life insurance policies (BOLIs)); distributions received from equity method investees; beneficial interests in securitization transactions; and separately identifiable cash flows and application of the predominance principle. ASU 2016-15 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017 including interim periods within that reporting period, however early adoption is permitted. The Company adopted the new guidance on January 1, 2018 and it did not have a material impact on the consolidated results of operations, financial condition, or cash flows.

In May 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-09, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718). ASU 2017-09 clarifies when changes to the terms or conditions of a share-based payment award must be accounted for as modifications. ASU 2017-09 allows companies to make certain changes to awards without accounting for them as modifications. It does not change the accounting for modifications. ASU 2017-09 is effective for annual periods, and interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2017 for all entities. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in any interim period for which financial statements have not yet been issued or made available for issuance. The adoption of this new accounting guidance did not have a material effect on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company adopted the new guidance on January 1, 2018 and it did not have any effect on its consolidated financial statements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In June 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-07, Compensation—Stock Compensation which concerns Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting. The amendments in this Update affect all entities that enter into share-based payment transactions for acquiring goods and services from nonemployees. The amendments in this Update expand the scope of Topic 718 to include share-based payment transactions for acquiring goods and services from nonemployees. An entity should apply the requirements of Topic 718 to nonemployee awards except for specific guidance on inputs to an option pricing model and the attribution of cost (that is, the period of time over which share-based payment awards vest and the pattern of cost recognition over that period). The amendments specify that Topic 718 applies to all share-based payment transactions in which a grantor acquires goods or services to be used or consumed in a grantor's own operations by issuing share-based payment awards. The amendments also clarify that Topic 718 does not apply to share-based payments used to effectively provide (1) financing to the issuer or (2) awards granted in conjunction with selling goods or services to customers as part of a contract accounted for under Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Consistent with the accounting requirement for employee share-based payment awards, nonemployee share-based payment awards within the scope of Topic 718 are measured at grant-date fair value of the equity instruments that an entity is obligated to issue when the good has been delivered or the service has been rendered and any other conditions necessary to earn the right to benefit from the instruments have been satisfied. Equity-classified nonemployee share-based payment awards are measured at the grant date. The definition of the term grant date is amended to generally state the date at which a grantor and a grantee reach a mutual understanding of the key terms and conditions of a share-based payment award. Generally, the classification of equity-classified nonemployee share-based payment awards will continue to be subject to the requirements of Topic 718 unless modified after the good has been delivered, the service has been rendered, any other conditions necessary to earn the right to benefit from the instruments have been satisfied, and the nonemployee is no longer providing goods or services. This eliminates the requirement to reassess classification of such awards upon vesting. ASU 2018-07 is effective for public business entities in annual periods beginning after December 15, 2018 and interim periods within those years. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in any interim period for which financial statements have not yet been issued or made available for issuance, but not before an entity adopts the new revenue guidance. The Company is currently evaluating the provisions of this guidance and assessing its impact on its consolidated financial statements and notes disclosures.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-13, Disclosure Framework: Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement, which change the disclosure requirements for fair value measurements by removing, adding, and modifying certain disclosures. This ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, and for interim periods within that year. Early adoption is permitted for any eliminated or modified disclosures upon issuance of this ASU. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this adoption on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

On March 28, 2017, the Company entered into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party for the purchase of a secondhand Capesize vessel, at a gross purchase price of $32,650. On May 31, 2017, the Company acquired the 2012 Capesize, 179,213 DWT Partnership. The acquisition was financed with the Amsterdam Trade Bank N.V. loan facility (Note 7), the Jelco loan facility entered into on May 24, 2017 (Note 3) and by cash on hand. Additionally, approximately $89 and $465 worth of expenditures that increased the earning capacity and improved the efficiency of certain vessels were capitalized during the nine and twelve month periods ended September 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, respectively.

As of September 30, 2018, all vessels, except for the Knightship, are mortgaged to secured loans (Notes 3 and 7).

Advances for Vessels Acquisitions and Other Costs

On August 31, 2018, the Company entered into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party for the purchase of one second hand Capesize vessel for a gross purchase price of $28,700. The vessel was delivered to the Company on November 22, 2018 (Note 14). The acquisition of the vessel was financed through the loan facility with UniCredit (Note 14) and by cash on hand. On September 30, 2018, an amount of $2,870 was paid in advance as a deposit to the sellers in accordance with the terms of the agreement and is classified as "Advances for vessels acquisitions and other costs" in the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at September 30, 2018.

Vessels Held for Sale

On September 20, 2018, the Company entered into two separate agreements with unaffiliated third parties for the sale of two Supramax vessels, namely the Gladiatorship and the Guardianship for a gross sale price of $10,960 and $11,700, respectively. The Gladiatorship and the Guardianship were delivered to their new owners on October 11, 2018 and on November 19, 2018, respectively (Note 14). As of September 30, 2018, both vessels were classified in current assets as "Vessels held for sale" in the Consolidated Balance Sheet, according to the provisions of ASC 360, as all the criteria for this classification were met. The specific vessels were impaired as of September 30, 2018, since their carrying amount as at the balance sheet date was higher than their fair value less cost to sell. Accordingly, an impairment loss of $6,878 was recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Loss, of which $25 are related to unamortized deferred dry-docking costs. The fair value of the vessels was determined based on the agreed sale prices (Note 8).

Secured credit facilities

Details of the Company's secured credit facilities are discussed in Note 7 of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017, included in the Company's 2017 annual report on Form 20-F and are supplemented by the below new activities.

On June 29, 2018, the Company further amended the March 6, 2015 loan agreement with Alpha Bank A.E. to amend certain covenant terms of the facility.

On March 28, 2018, the Company signed an amendment to the September 1, 2015 HSH facility to amend certain covenant terms of the facility.

On April 30, 2018, the Company signed a supplemental letter with UniCredit Bank A.G. to the September 11, 2015 facility to amend certain covenant terms of the facility. On November 22, 2018, the Company entered into an amendment and restatement of the facility (Note 14).

On June 29, 2018, the Company further amended the November 4, 2015 loan agreement with Alpha Bank A.E. to amend certain covenant terms of the facility.

On June 13, 2018 and June 28, 2018, respectively, NSF entered into deeds of release, with respect to the Lordship and the Knightship, respectively, resulting in a complete release of the facility agreement dated November 28, 2016 after full settlement of the outstanding balance of $32,000. The first-priority mortgages over the Lordship and the Knightship and all other securities created in favor of NSF were irrevocably and unconditionally released pursuant to the deeds of release.

On May 18, 2018, the Company signed a supplemental agreement with Amsterdam Trade Bank N.V. to the May 24, 2017 loan facility, as amended and restated on September 25, 2017, to amend certain covenant terms of the facility.

On June 11, 2018, the Company entered into a $24,500 loan agreement with Blue Ocean maritime lending funds managed by EnTrustPermal for the purpose of refinancing the outstanding indebtedness of the Lordship under the previous loan facility with NSF dated November 28, 2016. The borrower under the facility is the applicable vessel-owning subsidiary and the facility is guaranteed by the Company. The facility matures in June 2023 and can be extended until June 2025 subject to certain conditions. Specifically, the borrower has the right to sell the ship back to the lender at a pre-agreed price of $20,800 on the fifth anniversary of the loan utilization ("Year-5 Put Option"). If the borrower elects to exercise the Year-5 Put Option, the lender has the right to extend the termination date of the loan by a further two years, in which case the exercise of the Year-5 Put Option by the borrower shall be cancelled in its entirety. Furthermore, the borrower has the right to sell the ship back to the lender at a pre-agreed price of $15,000 on the seventh anniversary of the loan utilization ("Year-7 Put Option"). If the borrower elects to exercise the Year-7 Put Option then the lenders will be obliged to purchase the ship at the pre-agreed price. The new facility is secured by a first priority mortgage over the vessel, general assignment covering earnings, insurances and requisition compensation, an account pledge agreement and a share pledge agreement concerning the respective vessel-owning subsidiary and technical and commercial managers' undertakings. The new loan facility bears a weighted average all-in interest rate of 11.4% and 11.2% assuming a maturity date in June 2023 or in June 2025, respectively. The principal obligation amortizes in 20 or 28 quarterly installments, with a balloon payment of $15,300 or $9,500 due at maturity, assuming a maturity date in June 2023 or in June 2025, respectively. The facility also imposes certain customary operating covenants. Certain of these covenants may significantly limit or prohibit, among other things, the borrower's ability to incur additional indebtedness, create liens, sell capital shares of subsidiaries, engage in mergers, or sell the vessel without the consent of the relevant lenders. As of September 30, 2018, the amount outstanding under the facility was $24,300.

All of the Company's secured facilities bear either floating interest at LIBOR plus a margin or fixed interest. Each secured facility is secured by a first priority mortgage over the respective vessel.

(All amounts in footnotes in thousands of US Dollars, except for share and per share and warrants data, unless otherwise stated)

Certain of the Company's credit facilities contain financial covenants and undertakings requiring the Company to maintain various financial ratios, including:

- a minimum earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") to interest coverage ratio;
- a minimum borrower's liquidity;
- a minimum guarantor's liquidity;
- a security coverage requirement; and
- a leverage ratio.

The March 6, 2015 and November 4, 2015 facilities with Alpha Bank A.E. place a restriction on the Company's ability to distribute dividends to its shareholders, pursuant to which the amount of the dividends so declared shall not exceed 50% of the Company's net income except in case the cash and marketable securities are equal or greater than the amount required to meet the Company's consolidated debt installments and interest payments for the following eighteen-month period.

Failed Sale and Leaseback Agreement (Financial Liability)

On June 28, 2018, the Company entered into a $26,500 sale and leaseback agreement for the Knightship with Hanchen Limited "Hanchen"), an affiliate of AVIC International Leasing Co., Ltd., for the purpose of refinancing the outstanding indebtedness of the Knightship under the previous loan facility with NSF dated November 28, 2016. The Company's wholly-owned subsidiary ("Charterer") sold and chartered back the vessel on a bareboat basis for an eight year period, having a purchase obligation at the end of the eighth year and it further has the option to repurchase the Knightship at any time following the second anniversary of the bareboat charter. Under ASC 842-40, the transaction was accounted for as a failed sale and leaseback transaction and resulted in a financial liability. The bareboat charter is secured by a general assignment covering earnings, insurances and requisition compensation, an account pledge agreement and a share pledge agreement of the shares of the Charterer and technical and commercial managers' undertakings. The Company provided a guarantee to Hanchen. An upfront charterhire of $6,625 was paid by the Charterer to Hanchen upon the delivery of the vessel. An amount of $1,325 was paid by the Charterer to Hanchen upon the delivery of the vessel in order to secure the due observance and performance by the Charterer of its obligations and undertakings as per the sale and leaseback agreement. The deposit can be set off against the balloon payment at maturity. The Charterer is required to maintain a value maintenance ratio (as defined in the additional clauses of the bareboat charter) of at least 120%. In addition, the bareboat charter requires the Charterer to maintain an amount of $1,325 (Note 4) until the second anniversary of the delivery date or if earlier, a sub-charter in form and substance acceptable to Hanchen is available.

The charterhire principal bears interest at LIBOR plus a margin of 4% and amortizes in thirty two consecutive equal quarterly installments of approximately $456 along with a balloon payment at maturity of $5,299. The charterhire principal, as of September 30, 2018, is $19,420.

The borrowers under each of the existing financing arrangements are the applicable vessel owning subsidiaries or bareboat charterers of the vessels, as applicable, and the facilities are guaranteed by Seanergy Maritime Holdings Corp.

8. Financial Instruments:

The guidance for fair value measurements applies to all assets and liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. This guidance enables the reader of the financial statements to assess the inputs used to develop those measurements by establishing a hierarchy for ranking the quality and reliability of the information used to determine fair values. The same guidance requires that assets and liabilities carried at fair value should be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories based on the inputs used to determine its fair value:

- Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: Observable market based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data;
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

(a) Significant Risks and Uncertainties, including Business and Credit Concentration

The Company places its temporary cash investments, consisting mostly of deposits, primarily with high credit qualified financial institutions. The Company performs periodic evaluations of the relative credit standing of those financial institutions that are considered in the Company's investment strategy. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair values of the financial instruments shown in the consolidated balance sheets as of September 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, represent management's best estimate of the amounts that would be received to sell those assets or that would be paid to transfer those liabilities in an orderly transaction between market participants at that date. Those fair value measurements maximize the use of observable inputs. However, in situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date, the fair value measurement reflects the Company's own judgments about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Those judgments are developed by the Company based on the best information available in the circumstances. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments:

- a. Cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, accounts receivable trade, other current assets and trade accounts and other payables: the carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments. The carrying value approximates the fair market value for interest bearing cash classified as restricted cash, non-current.

Long-term debt and other financial liabilities: The carrying value of long-term debt and other financial liabilities with variable interest rates approximates the fair market value as the long-term debt and other financial liabilities bear interest at floating interest rate. The fair value of fixed interest long-term debt is estimated using prevailing market rates as of the period end. The Company believes the terms of its fixed interest long-term debt are similar to those that could be procured as of September 30, 2018, and the carrying value of $2,000 approximates the fair market value of $2,002. The fair value of the fixed interest long-term debt has been obtained through Level 2 inputs of the fair value hierarchy which includes observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1.

Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis

As described in Note 6, the Company recognized an impairment loss of $6,878 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2018 with respect to the two vessels classified as "Vessels Held for Sale" as of September 30, 2018. The carrying value of these vessels was written down to the fair value as determined by reference to their agreed sale prices less costs of sale obtained through Level 2 inputs of the fair value hierarchy which includes observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1.

9. Commitments and Contingencies:

Contingencies

Various claims, lawsuits, and complaints, including those involving government regulations and product liability, arise in the ordinary course of the shipping business. Currently, management is not aware of any such claims or contingent liabilities, which should be disclosed, or for which a provision should be established in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The Company accrues for the cost of environmental liabilities when management becomes aware that a liability is probable and is able to reasonably estimate the probable exposure. Currently, management is not aware of any such claims or contingent liabilities, which should be disclosed, or for which a provision should be established in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The Company is covered for liabilities associated with the individual vessels' actions to the maximum limits as provided by Protection and Indemnity (P&I) Clubs, members of the International Group of P&I Clubs.
