ATTENTION

INTENTIONAL MISSTATEMENTS OR OMISSIONS OF FACT CONSTITUTE FEDERAL CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS (SEE 18 U.S.C. 1001)

[for Part III, Narrative]

The registrant's Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2003, cannot be filed timely and the reason for the untimely filing cannot be eliminated without incurring unreasonable effort and expense. The Company is finalizing its accounting disclosures relating to an impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets as well as impairment to certain long-lived assets. In addition, the Company is completing the analysis of the above charges on deferred tax assets and certain contractual obligations. The Company is also seeking waivers from its lenders with respect to certain covenants in its lending agreements. Certain of these covenants, if not waived, would make the debt callable by the lending institutions. Completion of these matters requires discussions between management and the Audit Committee and Board of Directors, which has not been possible to complete prior to the due date for the Report, and this delay cannot be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense.

[for Part IV, Other Information, (3)]

It is currently anticipated that the Company will report a net loss approximating $65-70 million for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2003, of which approximately $50 million relates to an impairment charge taken in the fourth quarter. Losses of $15-20 million in the fiscal year are attributable to losses in its Wet Friction segment, the impact of certain deferred tax asset adjustments and environmental charges. The Company recorded a net loss of $2.8 million or $.07 loss per basic share for the 2002 fiscal year.

The impact of the charges noted above was a decrease in cash during fiscal 2003 of $3.6 million. The year-end cash of $16.4 million compares to $20.0 million at year-end 2002. The total cash and available lines of credit were $27 million and $28.8 million at year-end 2003 and 2002, respectively.
