Explanatory Note

This Form 8-K is being filed solely for the purpose of setting forth in a filing pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), a complete updated description of the common stock of Sparton Corporation (Registrant or our).

Description of Registrant s Common Stock.

The following is a brief description only and is not intended to be a complete legal description of our common stock or of the provisions of our articles of incorporation, code of regulations and bylaws, as amended, and described below.

General

Our articles of incorporation provide that we may issue up to 15,000,000 shares of common stock, par value of $1.25 per share, and 200,000 shares of serial preferred stock, without par value. All outstanding shares of our common stock are fully paid and nonassessable. Our common stock is registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act and is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol SPA.

Voting Rights

Each outstanding share of our common stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders, including the election of directors. The holders of our common stock possess exclusive voting power, except as otherwise provided by law or by articles of amendment establishing any series of our preferred stock.

There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that the holders of a plurality of our outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote can elect all of the directors then standing for election.

When a quorum is present at any meeting, questions brought before the meeting will be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares present and voting on such matter, whether in person or by proxy, except when the meeting concerns matters requiring a higher vote under applicable law, our articles of incorporation or our code of regulations. Our articles of incorporation and code of regulations provide certain anti-takeover provisions which may limit shareholders rights to effect a change in control, as described under the section below:

Anti-Takeover Provisions of Articles of Incorporation and Code of Regulations.

Classification of Board of Directors

Our code of regulations provide for a classified board, to which approximately one-third of our board of directors is elected each year at our annual meeting of shareholders. Accordingly, our directors serve three-year terms rather than one-year terms.

Dividends, Liquidation and Other Rights

Holders of shares of common stock are entitled to receive dividends only when, as and if approved by our board of directors from funds legally available for the payment of dividends, subject to payment of dividends on any of our outstanding series of preferred stock. Our common shareholders are entitled to share ratably in our assets legally available for distribution to our shareholders in the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, voluntarily or involuntarily, after payment of, or adequate provision for, all of our known debts and liabilities and of any preferential rights of any series of our preferred stock that may then be outstanding.

Holders of shares of our common stock have no preference, conversion, exchange, sinking fund or redemption rights and have no preemptive rights to subscribe for any of our securities. Our board of directors may issue additional shares of our common stock or rights to purchase shares of our common stock without the approval of our shareholders.

Preferred Stock

The rights of holders of our common stock may be limited by the rights of holders of our serial preferred stock that may be outstanding.

Our articles of incorporation authorize us to issue up to 200,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value. If issued, serial preferred stock would entitle the holder to preferential cumulative dividends, preferential liquidation rights and, under certain circumstances when dividends have not been paid on the shares of serial preferred stock, the right to elect two directors to our board. Each share of serial preferred stock is entitled to one vote on all matters presented to shareholders. In addition to any other vote or consent required by law or our articles of incorporation or code of regulations, the vote or consent of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of serial preferred stock, voting as a separate class, is required in order to take certain actions affecting the serial preferred stock.

Anti-Takeover Provisions of Articles of Incorporation and Code of Regulations

Our code of regulations provide for a classified board, to which approximately one-third of our board of directors is elected each year at our annual meeting of shareholders. Accordingly, our directors serve three-year terms rather than one-year terms. The classification of our board of directors has the effect of making it more difficult for shareholders to change the composition of our board of directors. At least two annual meetings of shareholders, instead of one, will generally be required to effect a change in a majority of our board of directors. Such a delay may help ensure that our directors, if confronted by a holder attempting to force a proxy contest, a tender or exchange offer, or an extraordinary corporate transaction, would have sufficient time to review the proposal as well as any available alternatives to the proposal and to act in what they believe to be the best interests of our shareholders. The classification provisions apply to every election of directors, however, regardless of whether a change in the composition of our board of directors would be beneficial to us and our shareholders and whether or not a majority of our shareholders believe that such a change would be desirable.

The classification of our board of directors could also have the effect of discouraging a third party from initiating a proxy contest, making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us, even though such an attempt might be beneficial to us and our shareholders. The classification of our board of directors could thus increase the likelihood that incumbent directors will retain their positions. In addition, because the classification of our board of directors may discourage accumulations of large blocks of our stock by purchasers whose objective is to take control of us and remove a majority of our board of directors, the classification of our board of directors could tend to reduce the likelihood of fluctuations in the market price of our common stock that might result from accumulations of large blocks of our common stock for such a purpose. Accordingly, our shareholders could be deprived of certain opportunities to sell their shares at a higher market price than might otherwise be the case.

Additionally, our articles of incorporation and code of regulations contain certain other provisions that may have the effect of deterring or discouraging an attempt to take control of Registrant. Among other things, these provisions:

eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors;

require advance notice of nominations for the election of directors and the presentation of shareholder proposals at meetings of shareholders.
