Explanatory Note

This Registration Statement on Form S-8 (the "Registration Statement") is filed to register an additional 2,000,000 shares of common stock of United Defense Industries, Inc. (the "Common Stock"), par value $0.01 per share. These shares of Common Stock are reserved for issuance under the amended and restated United Defense Stock Option Plan (the "Option Plan") in the form of the Incentive Award Plan of United Defense Industries, Inc. (the "Amended and Restated Plan"). On March 2, 2004, the board of directors of United Defense Industries, Inc. (the "Company") approved the Amended and Restated Plan which increased the number of shares of Common Stock authorized for issuance under the Option Plan by 2,000,000 from 7,375,000 shares to 9,375,000 shares. At the Company's annual meeting of stockholders, held on April 13, 2004, the stockholders approved the Amended and Restated Plan. The Company has previously registered 7,375,000 shares of Common Stock authorized for issuance under the Option Plan. The Company registered 4,000,000 of these shares of Common Stock by filing a registration statement on Form S-8 (File No. 333-101673) on December 5, 2002. Pursuant to General Instruction E to Form S-8, the contents of the earlier registration statement are incorporated by reference to the extent not modified or superceded hereby or by any subsequently filed document that is incorporated by reference herein or therein.

Not required to be filed with this registration statement.

Item 2. Registrant Information and Employee Plan Annual Information.

Not required to be filed with this registration statement.

PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The following documents previously filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") are incorporated as of their respective dates in this Registration Statement by reference:

1. The Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, filed with the Commission on March 8, 2004 (File No. 001-16821).
2. The Company's current report on Form 8-K, filed with the Commission on February 24, 2004.
3. The description of the Company's common stock incorporated by reference to the Company's registration statement on Form 8-A filed with the Commission on December 13, 2001.

All documents subsequently filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act after the date of this Registration Statement and prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment which indicates that all securities offered have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold are deemed incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement and are a part hereof from the date of filing of such documents. Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this Registration Statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Registration Statement.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Reference is made to Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL, which enables a corporation in its original certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director for violations of the director's fiduciary duty, except (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL, which provides for liability of directors for unlawful payments of dividends of unlawful stock purchase or redemptions, or (4) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

Reference is also made to Section 145 of the DGCL, which provides that a corporation may indemnify any person, including an officer or director, who is, or is threatened to be made, party to any threatened, pending or completed legal action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of such corporation, by reason of the fact that such person was an officer, director, employee or agent of such corporation or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided such officer, director, employee or agent acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the corporation's best interest and, for criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify any officer or director in an action by or in the right of the corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him against the expenses that such officer or director actually and reasonably incurred.

The Company's amended and restated by-laws provides for indemnification of the officers and directors to the full extent permitted by applicable law.

The Company maintains insurance for its directors and officers for certain losses arising from claims or charges made against them in their capacities as directors and officers of the Company.
