Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As of June 29, 2007, 3D Systems Corporation (the Company) entered into Amendment No. 6 to Loan and Security Agreement (Amendment No. 6) with Silicon Valley Bank (the Bank), 3D Systems, Inc. and the other parties thereto pursuant to which the parties agreed to amend certain provisions of the Loan and Security Agreement (the Loan and Security Agreement) dated as of June 30, 2004 (as previously amended by Amendments Nos. 1 through 5) relating to the credit facility between the Company and the Bank.

Amendment No. 6 extends the Revolving Maturity Date until October 1, 2007 and provides for a suspension of the requirement that the Company comply with the financial covenants under the Loan and Security Agreement for the calendar quarter ended June 30, 2007 so long as the Company satisfies certain conditions, which the Company expects to satisfy.

The amendment also amends the borrowing base tied to the Company's accounts receivable that is contained in the Loan and Security Agreement to explicitly include certain receivables that would otherwise have been excluded. The Amendment No. 6 also decreased the borrowing margins for prime-rate loans to 0 basis points for such loans and the borrowing margins for LIBOR-rate loans to 275 basis points for such loans. The Company paid the Bank a $9,375 fee in connection with this amendment.

The foregoing summary is subject to and qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Amendment No. 6 attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 2, 2007, the Company issued a press release in connection with Amendment No. 6. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
