On February 8, 2006, NACCO adopted Amendment No. 2 to the NACCO Industries, Inc. Non-Employee Directors Equity Compensation Plan (together with the Subsidiary Compensation Plans, the NACCO Compensation Plans)

The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (the Jobs Act) added a new Section 409A to the Internal Revenue Code that changed the rules regarding the governance, administration and taxation of deferred compensation benefits.

HB/PS, NMHG, NA Coal, KCI (collectively, the Subsidiaries) and NACCO adopted certain amendments to their deferred compensation plans in late 2004 based on initial guidance from the Internal Revenue Service interpreting provisions of the Jobs Act. In late 2005, the Internal Revenue Service issued additional guidance with respect to the Jobs Act (the Guidance).

Based on this Guidance, NACCO has determined that the NACCO Compensation Plans are exempt from the requirements of the Jobs Act. The amendments to the NACCO Compensation Plans specifically require that all payments under the NACCO Compensation Plans be made within two and one-half months after the end of the calendar year, in order to come within the short-term deferral exception of the Jobs Act.

Based on this Guidance, NACCO and the Subsidiaries have also determined that all or specified portions of the Subsidiary LTIP Plans, the Excess Defined Contribution Plans and the Excess Pension Plans (collectively, the Deferred Compensation Plans) are subject to the requirements of the Jobs Act. The restatements of the Deferred Compensation Plans implement changes permitted under the Guidance, including (i) dividing the pre-2005 and post-2004 benefits; (ii) changing the timing of deferral and payment elections for post-2004 benefits and (iii) placing restrictions on the time and form of payment of post-2004 benefits. The intent of the restatements is to retain the grandfathered status under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code for pre-2005 benefits under the Deferred Compensation Plans and comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code for post-2004 benefits (to the extent applicable).

The restatements of the Deferred Compensation Plans also contain other substantive, administrative and technical changes including, without limitation, (i) designating certain committees as plan administrators; (ii) clarifying or expanding the use of administrator discretion and (iii) changing permitted beneficiary designations and death benefits.

NMHG and HB/PS also decided to freeze their current senior long-term incentive compensation plans. Amendment No. 1 to the NMHG 2005 Senior LTIP and Amendment No. 1 to the HB/PS 2005 LTIP freeze the plans as of December 31, 2005, with the final awards to be granted thereunder to be effective on January 1, 2006. While no new awards will be granted under the plans, outstanding awards will continue to be subjected to the terms of the plans.

The amendments to the NACCO Compensation Plans and the restatements of the Deferred Compensation Plans are attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4, 10.5, 10.6, 10.7, 10.8, 10.9, 10.10, 10.11, 10.12, 10.13, 10.14, 10.15, 10.16, 10.17, 10.18 and 10.19 and are hereby incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing summary of the amendments to the NACCO Compensation Plans and the restatements of the
