PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES, INCORPORATED AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note A Basis of Presentation

The unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements of Performance Technologies, Incorporated and Subsidiaries (the "Company") have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, the Consolidated Financial Statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year. The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the audited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company as of December 31, 2006, as reported in its Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Note B Stock-Based Compensation and Earnings Per Share

The Company has stock options outstanding from three stock-based employee compensation plans: the Amended and Restated 1986 Incentive Stock Option Plan, the 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan, and the 2003 Omnibus Incentive Plan.

The Company recognizes compensation expense in the financial statements for stock option awards based on the grant-date fair value of those awards, estimated using the Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model. The table below summarizes the impact of outstanding stock options and restricted stock on the results of operations for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively, under the provisions of Statement of Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment :

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended

Stock-based compensation
expense:
Stock options	$ 167,000	$ 162,000	$ 326,000	$ 277,000
Restricted stock		6,000		12,000
Income tax benefit	(57,000)	(64,000)	(117,000)	(110,000)
Net decrease in net income	$ 110,000	$ 104,000	$ 209,000	$ 179,000
Decrease in earnings per share:
Basic	$ 0.01	$ 0.01	$ 0.02	$ 0.01
Diluted		$ 0.01		$ 0.01

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share calculations reflect the assumed exercise and conversion of dilutive stock options and unvested restricted stock, using the treasury stock method. Due to the net loss incurred in the first two quarters of 2007, there were no dilutive options. The diluted earnings per share calculation excludes the effect of approximately 1,208,000 and 1,330,000 options for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, since such options had an exercise price in excess of the average market price of the Company's common stock for those periods.

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

The following table summarizes stock option activity for the six months ended June 30, 2007:

	Number of shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Outstanding at January 1, 2007	1,567,966	$ 9.49

Outstanding at June 30, 2007	1,758,436	7.56
Exercisable at June 30, 2007	883,336	$ 9.59

On May 24, 2007, the Board of Directors granted the executive officers of the Company a total of 255,000 stock options with an exercise price of $4.93 per share. Half of these stock options are time vested and half are performance vested. All of the performance vested options will vest upon the Company's achievement of annual earnings per share of at least $.40 in any of the years ending December 31, 2007, 2008 or 2009.

At June 30, 2007, the Company had approximately $1,660,000 of unrecognized stock compensation expense which will be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 3.5 years.

Note C Inventories, net

Inventories consisted of the following:

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006
Purchased parts and components	$ 1,605,000	$ 2,444,000
Work in process	1,867,000	2,445,000
Finished goods	1,092,000	789,000
Net	$ 4,564,000	$ 5,678,000

The Restriction of Certain Hazardous Substances ( RoHS ) Directive issued by the European Union (EU) became effective on July 1, 2006. This directive restricts the distribution of products within the EU that exceed very low maximum concentration levels of certain substances, including lead. In the second quarter 2006, the Company recorded a charge to cost of goods sold amounting to $801,000 for excess non-compliant RoHS inventory that was not expected to be sold.

Note D Software Development Costs

Software development costs consisted of the following:

June 30,	December 31,

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

	2007	2006

Less: accumulated amortization	(8,968,000)	(8,214,000)
Net	$ 3,047,000	$ 3,185,000

Amortization of software development costs included in cost of goods sold was $844,000 and $405,000 in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively. Second quarter 2007 amortization included a charge to write off software development costs amounting to $475,000 that were capitalized for a new product which had not reached commercial general release and was discontinued. Amortization of software development costs included in cost of goods sold was $1,229,000 and $783,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Note E Notes Receivable

In May 2007, the Company received proceeds of $500,000 from the disposition of a note receivable from an unaffiliated company, upon which a valuation charge had been recorded in 2004. The proceeds were recorded as a note receivable recovery in the amount of $143,000 and interest income in the amount of $357,000.

Note F Investments

At June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, investments consisted of high grade, auction rate municipal securities which were classified as available-for-sale. At June 30, 2007 all investment securities mature in greater than ten years. At December 31, 2006, securities with a maturity of five to ten years totaled $2,000,000 and all other securities mature in greater than ten years.

These investments are recorded at cost, which approximates fair market value due to their variable interest rates. These investments typically reset on approximately a monthly basis, and, despite the long-term nature of their stated contractual maturities, these securities historically have had the ability to be quickly liquidated. All income generated from these investments was recorded as interest income.

Note G Warranty Obligations

Warranty obligations are incurred in connection with the sale of certain products. The warranty period is generally one year. The costs incurred to provide for these warranty obligations are estimated and recorded as an accrued liability at the time of sale. Future warranty costs are estimated based on product-based historical performance rates and related costs to repair. Changes in accrued warranty obligations for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 were as follows:

	2007	2006
Accrued warranty obligations, January 1	$ 309,000	$ 310,000
Actual warranty charges	(69,000)	(30,000)
Warranty provisions	(28,000)	(4,000)
Accrued warranty obligations, June 30	$ 212,000	$ 276,000

Note H Stock Repurchase Program

On July 11, 2005, the Board of Directors authorized the Company to repurchase shares of its Common Stock for an aggregate amount not to exceed $10,000,000. Under this program, shares of the Company's Common Stock may be repurchased through open market or private transactions, including block purchases. This program has been extended through July 2008. Repurchased shares will be used for the Company's stock option plans, potential acquisition initiatives and general corporate purposes. Under this program, the Company repurchased 576,154 shares through June 30, 2007 for $2,844,000.

Note I Income Taxes

The Company's effective income tax rate is a combination of federal, state and foreign tax rates and is generally lower than statutory rates because it includes benefits derived from international operations, research activities, tax exempt interest and foreign sales. In the second quarter 2007, the Company's annual estimated effective tax rate was adjusted to 2%, and the tax provision included a discrete income tax charge in the amount of $190,000 associated with the Company's recovery on a note receivable (see Note E). The second quarter 2007 income tax provision also included a discrete income tax charge to adjust the Company's net deferred tax assets to reflect a change by the State of New York in its corporate income tax apportionment methodology. As a result of this change, the Company lowered its effective tax rate used in computing its net deferred tax assets from 38% to 36% and recorded an income tax charge in the amount of $127,000.

For the second quarter 2006, the effective tax rate was a benefit of 200%. This rate in 2006 was a combination of an adjustment to the annual expected effective income tax rate of 18% and a discrete tax benefit of $60,000 which was related to a previously unused tax credit.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted FASB Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" - an Interpretation of SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." FIN 48 applies to each income tax position accounted for under SFAS No. 109, at each financial statement reporting date. This process involves the assessment of whether each income tax position is more likely than not of being sustained based on its technical merits. In making this assessment, the Company must assume that the taxing authority will examine the income tax position and have full knowledge of all relevant information. For each income tax position that meets the more likely than not recognition threshold, the Company then assesses the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the taxing authority. The Company reports the difference between the tax benefit recorded for financial statement purposes and the amount reflected in the tax return within prepaid income taxes, income taxes payable, deferred tax assets or deferred tax liabilities.

Total unrecognized tax benefits recorded in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets as of June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006 are $1,094,000 and $1,053,000, respectively. Upon the adoption of FIN 48 on January 1, 2007, the Company recognized a $3,000 increase in its liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The increase was accounted for as a reduction to the January 1, 2007 balance of retained earnings. Subsequent to January 1, 2007, the Company recognized a $38,000 increase in the liability for unrecognized tax benefits related to interest.

The entire balance of the liability for unrecognized tax benefits at June 30, 2007 and at January 1, 2007 would, if recognized, impact the effective tax rate.

The activity in the liability for unrecognized tax benefits for the six month period ended June 30, 2007 was as follows:

	2007
Balance at December 31, 2006	$1,053,000
Impact of adopting of FIN 48	3,000
Interest added during 2007	38,000
Balance at June 30, 2007	$1,094,000

The Company accrues interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. Included in the balance of unrecognized tax benefits as of June 30, 2007 and January 1, 2007 are accrued interest and penalties in the amount of $122,000 and $84,000, respectively.

The Company files U.S. federal, U.S. state, and foreign tax returns. For federal and foreign tax returns, the Company is generally no longer subject to tax examinations for years prior to 2003. For state returns, the Company is no longer subject to tax examinations for years prior to 2002. Based upon the closing of the tax years in these various jurisdictions, the Company may adjust its liability for unrecognized tax benefits. Certain of the Company's unrecognized tax benefits are related to tax years that are expected to close in 2007.

Note J Restructuring Costs

Restructuring charges amounted to $214,000 and $559,000 in the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively, and $214,000 and $994,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Restructuring charges in 2007 relate to the Company's revision of its estimate of the restructuring charge related to sub-leasing property in San Luis Obispo, California due to a change in estimated future cash flows. At June 30, 2007, the Company's estimated restructuring liability related to this facility was $528,000. During the three months ended June 30, 2007, the utilization of this balance was approximately $90,000.

Restructuring charges in the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2006 included severance costs amounting to $437,000 and $872,000, respectively. Restructuring charges for the second quarter 2006 also included lease termination expenses amounting to $122,000. These costs were incurred and estimated for closing the Company's Norwood, Massachusetts engineering center. Total cash paid relating to restructuring efforts in the second quarter 2006 and six month period ended June 30, 2006 amounted to $548,000 and $889,000, respectively.

Note K Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2007, the FASB issued Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 07-3, Accounting for Nonrefundable Advance Payments for Goods or Services to be used in Future Research and Development Activities. The EITF concluded that nonrefundable advance payments for future research and development activities should be deferred and capitalized. Such amounts should be recognized as an expense as the related goods are delivered or the related services are performed. If an entity does not expect the goods to be delivered or services to be rendered, the capitalized advance payment should be charged to expense. The guidance in this EITF becomes effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007. The Company does not expect this EITF to have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.

In May 2007, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) No. FIN 48-1, Definition of Settlement in FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The guidance in this FSP clarifies how an enterprise should determine whether a tax position is effectively settled for the purpose of recognizing previously unrecognized tax benefits. The guidance in this FSP becomes effective upon adoption of the FASB Interpretation No. 48, which the Company adopted in January 2007. The application of this FSP has not had a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

In February 2007, FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities - Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115. This statement permits companies to elect to measure certain financial instruments at fair value on an instrument-by-instrument basis, with changes in fair value recognized in earnings each reporting period. In addition, SFAS No. 159 establishes financial statement presentation and disclosure requirements for assets and liabilities reported at fair value under the election. SFAS No. 159 is effective as of the beginning of the first fiscal year beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of this Statement on our financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements, which establishes a comprehensive framework for measuring fair value in GAAP and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Specifically, this Statement sets forth a definition of fair value, and establishes a hierarchy prioritizing the inputs to valuation techniques, giving the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. This Statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The provisions of SFAS No. 157 are generally required to be applied on a prospective basis, except to certain financial instruments accounted for under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, for which the provisions of SFAS No. 157 should be applied retrospectively. The Company does not expect that adoption of this statement will have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Matters discussed in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and elsewhere in this Form 10-Q include forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and are subject to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Actual results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Assumptions

In preparing the financial statements in accordance with GAAP, estimates and assumptions are required to be made that have an impact on the assets, liabilities, revenue and expense amounts reported. These estimates can also affect supplemental information disclosures, including information about contingencies, risk and financial condition. It is believed that given the current facts and circumstances, these estimates and assumptions are reasonable, adhere to GAAP, and are consistently applied. Inherent in the nature of an estimate or assumption is the fact that actual results may differ from estimates, and estimates may vary as new facts and circumstances arise. The critical accounting policies, judgments and estimates that we believe have the most significant effect on our financial statements are set forth below:

- Revenue Recognition
- Software Development Costs
- Valuation of Inventories
- Income Taxes
- Product Warranty
- Carrying Value of Goodwill
- Stock-Based Compensation
- Restructuring Costs

Revenue Recognition: Revenue is recognized from product sales in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104, Revenue Recognition. Product sales represent the majority of our revenue and include both hardware products and hardware products with embedded software. Revenue is recognized from these product sales when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred or services have been provided, the sale price is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured. Additionally, products are sold on terms which transfer title and risk of loss at a specified location, typically the shipping point. Accordingly, revenue recognition from product sales occurs when all factors are met, including transfer of title and risk of loss, which typically occurs upon shipment. If these conditions are not met, revenue recognition is deferred until such time as these conditions have been satisfied.

Revenue earned from arrangements for software is accounted for under the provisions of Statement of Position 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition. For the sale of multiple-element arrangements whereby equipment is combined with other elements, such as software and maintenance, the Company allocates to, and recognizes revenue from, the various elements based on their fair value. Revenue from software requiring significant production, modification, or customization is recognized using the percentage of completion method of accounting. Any anticipated losses on contracts are charged to operations as soon as such losses are determined. If all conditions of revenue recognition are not met, revenue recognition is deferred and revenue will be recognized when all obligations under the arrangement are fulfilled. Revenue from software maintenance contracts is recognized ratably over the contractual period.

Revenue from consulting and other services is recognized at the time the services are rendered. Certain products are sold through distributors who are granted limited rights of return. Potential returns are accounted for at the time of sale.

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

The accounting estimate related to revenue recognition is considered a critical accounting estimate because terms of sale can vary, and judgment is exercised in determining whether to defer revenue recognition. Such judgments may materially affect net sales for any period. Judgment is exercised within the parameters of GAAP in determining when contractual obligations are met, title and risk of loss are transferred, sales price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured.

Software Development Costs: All software development costs incurred in establishing the technological feasibility of computer software products to be sold are research and development costs. Software development costs incurred subsequent to the establishment of technological feasibility of a computer software product to be sold and prior to general release of that product are capitalized. Amounts capitalized are amortized commencing after general release of that product over the estimated remaining economic life of that product, generally three years, or using the ratio of current revenues to current and anticipated revenues from such product, whichever provides greater amortization. If the technological feasibility for a particular project is judged not to have been met or recoverability of amounts capitalized is in doubt, project costs are expensed as research and development or charged to cost of goods sold, as applicable. The accounting estimate related to software development costs is considered a critical accounting estimate because judgment is exercised in determining whether project costs are expensed as research and development or capitalized as an asset. Such judgments may materially affect expense amounts for any period. Judgment is exercised within the parameters of GAAP in determining when technological feasibility has been met and recoverability of software development costs is reasonably assured.

Valuation of Inventories: Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market, using the first-in, first-out method. Inventory includes purchased parts and components, work in process and finished goods. Provisions for excess, obsolete or slow moving inventory are recorded after periodic evaluation of historical sales, current economic trends, forecasted sales, estimated product lifecycles and estimated inventory levels. Purchasing practices, electronic component obsolescence, accuracy of sales and production forecasts, introduction of new products, product lifecycles, product support and foreign regulations governing hazardous materials are the factors that contribute to inventory valuation risks. Exposure to inventory valuation risks is managed by maintaining safety stocks, minimum purchase lots, managing product end-of-life issues brought on by aging components or new product introductions, and by utilizing certain inventory minimization strategies such as vendor-managed inventories. The accounting estimate related to valuation of inventories is considered a critical accounting estimate because it is susceptible to changes from period-to-period due to the requirement for management to make estimates relative to each of the underlying factors, ranging from purchasing, to sales, to production, to after-sale support. If actual demand, market conditions or product lifecycles differ from estimates, inventory adjustments to lower market values would result in a reduction to the carrying value of inventory, an increase in inventory write-offs and a decrease to gross margins.

Income Taxes: Income taxes are accounted for using the asset and liability approach, which requires recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of the temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax basis of such assets and liabilities. A valuation allowance is recorded to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized. The accounting estimate related to income taxes is considered a critical accounting estimate because judgment is exercised in estimating future taxable income, including prudent and feasible tax planning strategies, and in assessing the need for any valuation allowance. If it should be determined that all or part of a net deferred tax asset is not able to be realized in the future, an adjustment to the valuation allowance would be charged to income in the period such determination was made. Likewise, in the event that it should be determined that all or part of a deferred tax asset in the future is in excess of the net recorded amount, an adjustment to the valuation allowance would increase income in the period such determination was made. The Company operates within multiple taxing jurisdictions worldwide and is subject to audit in these jurisdictions. These audits can involve complex issues, which may require an extended period of time for resolution. Although management believes that adequate provision has been made for such issues, there is the possibility that the ultimate resolution of such issues could have an adverse effect on the earnings of the Company. Conversely, if these issues are resolved favorably in the future, the related provisions would be reduced, thus having a positive impact on earnings.

In addition, the calculation of the Company's tax liabilities involves dealing with uncertainties in the application of complex tax regulations. As a result of the implementation of FIN 48, the Company recognizes liabilities for uncertain tax positions based on the two-step process prescribed within the interpretation. The first step is to evaluate the tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained on audit, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes, if any. The second step requires the Company to estimate and measure the tax benefit as the largest amount that is more than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. It is inherently difficult and subjective to estimate such amounts, as this requires the Company to determine the probability of various possible outcomes. The Company re-evaluates these uncertain tax positions on a quarterly basis. This evaluation is based on factors including, but not limited to, changes in facts or circumstances, changes in tax law, effectively settled issues under audit, and new audit activity. Such a change in recognition or measurement would result in the recognition of a tax benefit or an additional charge to the tax provision in the period.

Product Warranty: Warranty obligations are incurred in connection with the sale of certain products. The warranty period for these products is generally one year. The costs incurred to provide for these warranty obligations are estimated and recorded as an accrued liability at the time of sale. Future warranty costs are estimated based on historical performance rates and related costs to repair given products. The accounting estimate related to product warranty is considered a "critical accounting estimate" because judgment is exercised in determining future estimated warranty costs. Should actual performance rates or repair costs differ from estimates, revisions to the estimated warranty liability would be required.

Carrying Value of Goodwill: Tests for impairments of goodwill are conducted annually, at year end, or more frequently if circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired. The accounting estimate related to impairment of goodwill is considered a "critical accounting estimate" because these impairment tests include estimates of future cash flows that are dependent upon subjective assumptions regarding future operating results including growth rates, discount rates, capital requirements and other factors that impact the estimated fair value. An impairment loss is recognized to the extent that the goodwill's carrying amount exceeds its fair value.

Stock-Based Compensation: Stock options are granted to purchase our Common Stock. Under the provisions of SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004) Share-Based Payment, stock compensation expense is recorded based upon the fair value of the stock option at the date of grant. The accounting estimate related to stock-based compensation is considered a "critical accounting estimate" because estimates are made in calculating compensation expense including expected option lives, forfeiture rates and expected volatility. Expected option lives are estimated using vesting terms and contractual lives. Expected forfeiture rates and volatility are calculated using historical information. Actual option lives and forfeiture rates may be different from estimates and may result in potential future adjustments which would impact the amount of stock-based compensation expense recorded in a particular period.

Restructuring Costs: Restructuring costs consist of employee-related severance costs, lease termination costs and other facility-related closing expenses. Employee-related severance benefits are recorded either at the time an employee is notified or, if there are extended service periods, is estimated and recorded pro-rata over the period of each planned restructuring activity. Lease termination costs are calculated based upon fair value considering the remaining lease obligation amounts and estimates for sublease receipts. The accounting estimate related to restructuring costs is considered a "critical accounting estimate" because estimates are made in calculating the amount of employee-related severance benefits that will ultimately be paid and the amount of sublease receipts that will ultimately be received in future periods. Actual amounts paid for employee-related severance benefits can vary from these estimates depending upon the number of employees actually receiving severance payments. Actual sublease receipts received may also vary from estimates.

Overview

The following discussion contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and these forward-looking statements are subject to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

The Company is a global supplier of integrated IP-packet based platforms and solutions for advanced communications networks and innovative computer system architectures. The Company targets three vertical markets for its products: telecommunications, aerospace and defense, and commercial. Of the three vertical markets served, telecommunications is the largest and represented approximately 75% of the Company's business in 2006.

The Company's products are marketed through a direct worldwide sales force under a variety of brand names including Advanced Managed Platforms, NexusWare® and SEGway. These products are based on open standards and are sold as fully-integrated, purpose-built, application ready platforms, or as individual blade components for the embedded communications marketplace. A key point of differentiation of the Company's products from competing products is the internally developed software available with each product. When sold as platforms, known as Advanced Managed Platform or SEGway products, customers can quickly move to the enhanced value steps of their products while realizing distinct cost advantages, increased overall system reliability and performance, and improved time-to-market.

A substantial portion of the telecommunications market served by the Company depends upon service provider spending to upgrade and evolve network infrastructure. A relatively low level of such infrastructure spending, particularly in the United States, and the ongoing effects of considerable consolidation in the telecommunications industry, continue to impact the Company's revenue and financial performance. Management expects the softness in the telecommunications market will extend beyond the current quarter.

Management has identified sales opportunities in selective areas within the communications market that it believes can drive future revenue growth and profitability. One such area is Aerospace and Defense. Several U.S. government agencies have begun initiatives to upgrade aging communications infrastructure with new communications networks over IP. The Company is pursuing additional government opportunities with numerous prime contractors including Raytheon, Lockheed Martin, Rockwell Collins and General Dynamics to incorporate the Company's Advanced Managed Platforms and NexusWare Linux-based software into these new network architectures. The Company's shipments for these programs accelerated during the second quarter 2007 and are expected to continue to grow as additional government programs of this nature are awarded.

Another such focused market opportunity is Signaling over IP transport solutions for traditional and emerging Tier 2 and Tier 3 telecommunications service providers. In June at NXTcomm 2007 the Company introduced a new platform product that doubles the capacity of its SEGway Signaling Systems and a new IP-Edge Signaling solution which drives the intelligence of signaling to the edge of the network. Management believes these two new products significantly broaden the Company's signaling product portfolio and attractiveness to cost conscious service providers who need to leverage legacy investments while migrating to IP-based signaling networks.

Currently, the sales cycles for the Aerospace and Defense and Signaling over IP product areas are shorter to revenue than the traditional embedded telecommunications equipment market we serve.

Management is proceeding with multi-faceted initiatives to position the Company for long-term growth. These Company initiatives include ongoing enhancement to the Embedded Systems Group's value proposition of a tightly integrated hardware/software solution set, continued investment in the Company's Signaling Systems Group, and actions to better maximize the return on the Company's considerable IP-packet and carrier-grade Linux core technologies.

Strategy

The Company supplies embedded, standards-based products and solutions to customers serving the telecommunications, aerospace and defense, and commercial markets. Today these products and solutions are typically integrated into combinations of computer systems hardware and software elements which the Company refers to as Advanced Managed Platforms. These platforms offer significant customer advantages that include reduced time-to-market, enhanced cost-versus-performance metrics, and high availability.

The Company's product strategy is to deliver fully managed, Linux-based, integrated IP-based platforms to the embedded communications marketplace. This strategy enables the Company to address approximately 60% of the served available market. Today, the Company's line of Advanced Managed Platforms with NexusWare Linux-based software specifically addresses equipment manufacturers' requirements for an increased level of system integration and services from suppliers, thus allowing them to focus on their value-added stages of product development, which in most cases is application software. This strategy provides a viable alternative to proprietary or legacy platforms and offers a contemporary platform replacement product of equal or greater capacity.

There are identifiable risks associated with carrying out the Company's strategy in the current economic climate. Some of the Company's end markets are not expected to grow in 2007. In order to improve profitability in this environment, the Company's sales efforts will have to be more innovative and aggressive. Management believes that based on its analysis of the marketplace and the strength of the Company's product and technology portfolio the identified risks are manageable. If successful, management believes its initiatives can yield improved profitability, particularly if the business cycle starts to show improvement.

Financial Overview

Revenue:

Revenue in the second quarter 2007 was $9.6 million, compared to $13.1 million in the corresponding quarter in 2006. The decline in revenue was spread across a variety of telecommunications customers including reduced shipments to the Company's two largest customers, which totaled $2.4 million in the second quarter 2007, compared to $3.5 million in the second quarter 2006. Revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2007 amounted to $19.0 million, compared to $25.2 million during the corresponding period in 2006.

Shipments to customers outside of the United States represented 54% and 43% of sales in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively, and 48% and 44% for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Earnings:

Net loss for the second quarter 2007 amounted to $.4 million, or $.03 per basic share, based on 12.9 million shares outstanding, and included:

Stock-based compensation expense of $.2 million, or $.01 per share;

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

A write-off of software development costs amounting to $.5 million, or $.04 per share;

Restructuring charges of $.2 million, or $.02 per share;

A recovery on a note receivable of $.5 million, or $.02 per share;

Discrete income tax charges totaling $.3 million, or $.02 per share.

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

Net income for the second quarter 2006 amounted to $.1 million, or $.01 per diluted share, based on 13.4 million shares outstanding, and included stock-based compensation expense amounting to $.2 million, or $.01 per share; restructuring charges of $.6 million, or $.03 per share; and a charge for non-compliant RoHS inventory of $.8 million, or $.04 per share.

Net loss for the six months ended June 30, 2007 amounted to $1.0 million, or $.08 per basic share, based on 13.0 million shares outstanding, and included:

Stock-based compensation expense of $.3 million, or $.02 per share;

A write-off of software development costs amounting to $.5 million, or $.04 per share;

Restructuring charges of $.2 million, or $.02 per share;

A recovery on a note receivable of $.5 million, or $.02 per share;

Discrete income tax charges totaling $.3 million, or $.02 per share.

Net income for the six months ended June 30, 2006 amounted to $.6 million, or $.05 per diluted share, based on 13.3 million shares outstanding and included stock-based compensation expense amounting to $.3 million, or $.01 per share; restructuring charges of $1.0 million, or $.05 per share; and a charge for non-compliant RoHS inventory of $.8 million, or $.04 per share.

Liquidity:

Cash, cash equivalents and investments amounted to $35.3 million and $35.2 million at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively. The Company had no long-term debt at either date.

Cash generated from operating activities amounted to $4.3 million and $.5 million in the six month periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The period-over-period increase in cash generated from operating activities amounted to $3.8 million and is primarily attributable to changes in working capital (reduced inventories and accounts receivable balances) and increased amortization (due to the software development cost write-off), offset by lower net income in the comparative periods.

Restructuring activities:

Restructuring charges amounted to $.2 million in the second quarter 2007, compared to $.6 million in the second quarter 2006. For the six months ended June 30, 2007, restructuring charges were $.2 million, compared to $1.0 million in the comparable 2006 period.

In the second quarter 2007, the Company reduced its estimate of future cash flows from sub-leasing property in San Luis Obispo, California necessitating the $.2 million restructuring charge. The second quarter 2006 restructuring charge related to closing the Company's engineering center in Norwood, Massachusetts and transferring product development and customer support for the voice technology products to the Company's other engineering centers. Restructuring charges in the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2006 included severance costs amounting to $.4 million and $.9 million, respectively. Restructuring charges for the second quarter 2006 also included lease termination expenses amounting to $.1 million. Total cash paid relating to restructuring efforts in the second quarter 2006 and six month period ended June 30, 2006 amounted to $.5 million and $.9 million, respectively.

Key Performance Indicators:

The Company works closely with customers to incorporate its platforms, blades and software solutions into their new product designs. Such design wins have been a useful metric for the Company to judge product acceptance in the marketplace. Design wins in the Company's traditional embedded communications equipment market, if successfully implemented by customers, reach production volumes at varying rates, generally beginning twelve to eighteen months after the design win occurs. A variety of risks such as schedule delays, cancellations, changes in customer markets and economic conditions can adversely affect a design win before production is reached, or during deployment.

During the second quarter 2007, the Company was notified of four design wins including one design win for a Communications product, which is expected to generate at least $1.5 million of annualized revenue if production volumes are reached. During the second quarter 2006, the Company realized two design wins for our products. These design wins were for the Company's Advanced Managed Platform (with multiple products), and switch products. Not all design wins necessarily result in production orders.

The Company believes that another key indicator for its business is the volume of orders received from customers. During weak economic periods, customers' ability to forecast their requirements deteriorates causing delays in the placement of orders. Forward-looking visibility on customer orders continues to be very limited. Shipments to customers in the second quarter 2007 amounted to $9.6 million, compared to $13.1 million in the second quarter 2006. Revenue in the second quarter of 2007 was negatively impacted by weaker demand in the telecommunications market including reduced shipments to the Company's two largest customers.

More in-depth discussions of the Company's strategy can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

accounted for 18% of our sales. In the second quarter 2006, one customer, Lucent, represented 17% of sales and another customer represented 10% of our sales. In the second quarter 2007, the Company's four largest customers represented 40% of sales, compared to 40% of sales in the second quarter 2006.

Shipments to customers outside of the United States represented 54% and 43% of the Company's sales during the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively; and 48% and 44% for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. Total shipments to customers in the United Kingdom represented 12% of sales in the second quarter of 2007, and 12% of sales in the second quarter of 2006. Total shipments to customers in the United Kingdom amounted to 13% and 11% in the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

The Company's products are grouped into three distinct categories in one market segment. Revenue from each product category is expressed as a percentage of sales for the periods indicated:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	June 30, 2007	2006	June 30, 2007	2006
Communications	55%	52%	56%	50%

Communications products:

Communications products are comprised of network access, SEGway signaling and voice products. Network access products provide a connection between a variety of voice, data and signaling networks and embedded systems platforms that are used to control the network and/or process information being transported over networks. This family includes a complete line of communications protocols. Many of the Company's signaling products provide a signaling bridge between circuit switched networks and the growing IP-packet based networks, and enable the transport of signaling messages over IP networks. Voice products enable voice, data and fax processing for communications applications.

Revenue from Communications products amounted to $5.3 million and $6.7 million in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively. This decrease of $1.4 million, or 22%, was primarily a result of weaker demand among a variety of telecommunications customers during the comparative periods.

Revenue from Communications products amounted to $10.6 million and $12.6 million in the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. This decrease of $2.0 million, or 16%, was primarily a result of weaker demand among a variety of telecommunications customers during the comparative periods.

Computing products:

Computing products include integrated Advanced Managed Platform solutions, a range of single board computers and associated chassis management products.

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

Computing products revenue amounted to $2.0 million and $3.4 million in the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively; and $4.5 million and $5.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The decrease in revenue of $1.4 million in both periods is primarily attributable to decreased shipments to three customers, partially offset by new aerospace and defense customer shipments.

Switching products:

The Company's Ethernet switch elements operate as the nexus of the IP packet switching functionality for Advanced Managed Platforms and competing platforms.

Switch revenue totaled $2.4 million and $2.9 million in the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively. This decrease of $.5 million, or 18%, reflects the combination of lower switch shipments to one customer, Alcatel-Lucent, of $.8 million, whose customer demand decreased, partially offset by increased sales to other customers serving the carrier market.

Switch revenue amounted to $3.9 million and $6.8 million in the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. This decrease of $2.9 million was principally due to lower switch shipments to Alcatel-Lucent.

Gross profit. Gross profit consists of sales, less cost of goods sold including material costs, manufacturing expenses, depreciation, amortization of software development costs, and expenses associated with engineering contracts and the technical support function. Gross margin was 47.8% and 46.8% of sales for the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively. Gross margin was negatively impacted by the second quarter 2007 charge to write off software development costs and the second quarter 2006 charge for excess non-compliant RoHS inventory, which were 4.9% and 6.1% of sales, respectively.

Gross profit for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 was 48.8% for both periods. The second quarter 2007 charge to write off software development costs and second quarter 2006 charge for excess non-compliant RoHS inventory were 2.5% and 3.2% of six month period sales, respectively. Excluding these charges, the decrease in margin is principally due to lower sales and manufacturing levels which resulted in a higher fixed cost component of cost of goods sold.

Total Operating Expenses. Total operating expenses in the second quarter 2007 amounted to $5.5 million, compared to $6.5 million for the second quarter 2006. Total operating expenses included restructuring charges amounting to $.2 million and $.6 million in the second quarters of 2007 and 2006, respectively. Total operating expenses for the first six months of 2007 amounted to $11.3 million, compared to $12.3 million for the comparable period in 2006. Total operating expenses included restructuring charges amounting to $.2 million and $1.0 million in the first six months of 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Selling and marketing expenses were $1.7 million and $1.5 million for the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, selling and marketing expenses were $3.3 million and $2.8 million, respectively. The increase in the 2007 periods over the comparable 2006 periods is primarily related to the hiring of additional sales and marketing personnel for the Signaling Systems Group.

Research and development expenses were $2.4 million and $3.0 million in the second quarter 2007 and 2006, respectively. The Company capitalizes certain software development costs, which reduces the amount of software development charged to operating expenses. Amounts capitalized were $.6 million and $.5 million during the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively. Research and development expenses were $5.3 million in the six months ended June 30, 2007, as compared to $5.8 million in the comparable 2006 period. Six month amounts capitalized to software development costs amounted to $1.1 million and $.9 million in 2007 and 2006, respectively. The year-over-year decrease in gross expenditures for the second quarter 2007 and six month period ended June 30, 2007 was $.5 million and $.3 million, respectively, and is primarily related to the closing of the Company's Norwood, Massachusetts engineering center in the second quarter 2006.

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

General and administrative expenses were $1.2 million in the second quarter 2007, compared to $1.5 million in the second quarter 2006. General and administrative expenses were $2.5 million and $2.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The year-over-year decrease in both the second quarter and year-to-date amounts is primarily related to lower incentive compensation and stock compensation expenses in 2007.

Restructuring charges amounted to $.2 million in the second quarter and first six months of 2007. The Company revised its estimate of the restructuring charge related to sub-leasing property in San Luis Obispo, California due to a change in estimated future cash flows during the second quarter 2007. Restructuring charges amounting to $.6 million and $1.0 million were recorded in the second quarter and first six months of 2006, respectively, and primarily relate to severance and facility expenses incurred for closing the Company's Norwood, Massachusetts engineering center in June 2006.

Other Income, net. Other income consists primarily of interest income. Funds are primarily invested in high quality, auction rate municipal securities. An increase in the funds available for investment as well as higher interest rates resulted in a portion of the increase in interest income in 2007.

During the second quarter 2007, the Company received $.5 million of proceeds from the disposition of a note receivable from an unaffiliated company, upon which a valuation charge had been recorded in 2004. The proceeds were recorded as a note receivable recovery in the amount of $.1 million and interest income in the amount of $.4 million.

Income taxes. The effective income tax rate is a combination of federal, state and foreign tax rates and is generally lower than statutory rates because it includes benefits derived from the Company's international operations, research activities, tax exempt interest and foreign sales.

The Company's income tax provision for the second quarter 2007 amounted to $.5 million including the income tax effect of recording the note receivable disposition at 38%, which was $.2 million. In addition, the Company adjusted its net deferred tax assets at June 30, 2007 to reflect a change by the State of New York in its corporate income tax apportionment methodology. To reflect this change, the Company recorded an income tax charge amounting to $.1 million. Finally, the Company revised its estimated net effective income tax rate for 2007 from 18% to 2% and recorded an income tax charge in the amount of $.2 million.

The Company's income tax provision for the six months ended June 30, 2007 amounted to $.3 million, which reflects the Company's annual estimated effective income tax rate at 2% and the effects of discrete items recorded in the second quarter.

The Company's income tax provision for the second quarter 2006 was a benefit of $.05 million. This amount was the result of a combination of an adjustment to the annual expected effective tax rate to 18% and a discrete tax benefit of $.1 million, which was related to a previously unused tax credit. The effective rate for the six month period ended June 30, 2006 was 9%.

The Company implemented the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes as of January 1, 2007. As required by FIN 48, the cumulative effect of applying the provisions of the Interpretation have been reported as an adjustment to the Company's retained earnings balance as of January 1, 2007. The Company reduced its January 1, 2007 retained earnings by approximately $3,000 with a corresponding increase to the appropriate tax liability accounts as a result of the adoption of FIN 48.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's primary sources of liquidity are cash, cash equivalents and investments, which combined totaled $35.3 million at June 30, 2007, plus a line of credit totaling $5.0 million available under a bank credit facility. The Company had working capital of $45.5 million and $47.7 million at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively.

For the six months ended June 30, 2007, cash provided by operating activities amounted to $4.3 million. This amount included a net loss of $1.0 million, offset by a depreciation and amortization charge of $1.6 million. Cash provided by operations due to changes in operating assets and liabilities included an increase in cash associated with decreases of inventory and accounts receivable of $2.7 million and $1.1 million, respectively. The decrease in inventory was a result of reduced purchases due to implementation of a vendor consigned inventory program and lower levels of production. The decrease in accounts receivable was primarily the result of lower sales during the second quarter 2007. Cash provided by operations due to changes in operating assets and liabilities also included a use of cash relating to the decrease in accounts payable of $.8 million, principally due to lower production and inventory levels.

Cash used by investing activities during the first six months of 2007 totaled $2.8 million. This utilization included capitalization of software development costs amounting to $1.0 million, capital expenditures of $.4 million, and a net increase in investments of $1.4 million.

Cash used by financing activities for the first six months of 2007 amounted to $2.7 million, resulting primarily from the purchases of treasury stock, which totaled $2.8 million for the period. The Board of Directors authorized the Company to repurchase shares of the Company's Common Stock for an aggregate amount not to exceed $10.0 million in July 2005. This program has been extended to July 2008. Under this program, shares of Common Stock may be repurchased through open market or private transactions, including block purchases. Repurchased shares can be used for stock option plans, potential acquisition initiatives and general corporate purposes. Under this program, the Company repurchased 573,000 common shares in the six months ended June 30, 2007.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements:

The Company did not enter into any off-balance sheet arrangements during the second quarter 2007.

Contractual Obligations:

The Company did not enter into any other significant contractual obligations during the second quarter 2007.

The Company has approximately $1.1 million associated with unrecognized tax benefits and estimated related interest and penalties at June 30, 2007. These liabilities are included as a component of long-term liabilities in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheet as the Company does not anticipate that settlement of the liabilities will require payment of cash within the next twelve months. The Company does not believe that the ultimate settlement of these obligations will materially affect the Company's liquidity.

Current Position:

Assuming there is no significant change in the business, management believes that the Company's current cash, cash equivalents and investments, together with cash generated from operations should be sufficient to meet our anticipated cash requirements, including working capital and capital expenditure requirements, for at least the next twelve months. However, management is continuing to evaluate opportunities for strategic acquisitions to accelerate the Company's growth and market penetration efforts. If any of these opportunities come to fruition, they could have an impact on working capital, liquidity or capital resources.

Edgar Filing: PERFORMANCE TECHNOLOGIES INC \DE\ - Form 10-Q

In June 2007, the FASB issued Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 07-3, Accounting for Nonrefundable Advance Payments for Goods or Services to be used in Future Research and Development Activities. The EITF concluded that nonrefundable advance payments for future research and development activities should be deferred and capitalized. Such amounts should be recognized as an expense as the related goods are delivered or the related services are performed. If an entity does not expect the goods to be delivered or services to be rendered, the capitalized advance payment should be charged to expense. The guidance in this EITF becomes effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2007. The Company does not expect this EITF to have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.

In May 2007, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) No. FIN 48-1, Definition of Settlement in FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The guidance in this FSP clarifies how an enterprise should determine whether a tax position is effectively settled for the purpose of recognizing previously unrecognized tax benefits. The guidance in this FSP becomes effective upon adoption of the FASB Interpretation No. 48, which the Company adopted in January 2007. The application of this FSP has not had a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

In February 2007, FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115. This statement permits companies to elect to measure certain financial instruments at fair value on an instrument-by-instrument basis, with changes in fair value recognized in earnings each reporting period. In addition, SFAS No. 159 establishes financial statement presentation and disclosure requirements for assets and liabilities reported at fair value under the election. SFAS No. 159 is effective as of the beginning of the first fiscal year beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of this Statement on our financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements, which establishes a comprehensive framework for measuring fair value in GAAP and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Specifically, this Statement sets forth a definition of fair value, and establishes a hierarchy prioritizing the inputs to valuation techniques, giving the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. This Statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The provisions of SFAS No. 157 are generally required to be applied on a prospective basis, except to certain financial instruments accounted for under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, for which the provisions of SFAS No. 157 should be applied retrospectively. The Company does not expect that adoption of this statement will have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.
