ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS.

Plan of Operation

Our current business plan is to seek, investigate, and, if warranted, acquire one or more properties or businesses, and to pursue other related activities intended to enhance our stockholder's value for their investment in our common stock. The acquisition of a business entity may be made by purchase of stock, merger, exchange of stock, or purchase of assets. We have nominal capital, and it is unlikely that we will be able to take advantage of more than one such business opportunity. We intend to seek opportunities demonstrating the potential of long-term growth as opposed to short-term earnings. We can give no assurance that we will be successful in finding or acquiring any business entity, or that any acquisition that occurs will be on terms that are favorable to us or our stockholders.

We have in the past engaged in preliminary negotiations with the principals of small business enterprises, but have been unable to obtain any agreements or commitments from such parties.

We do not propose to restrict our search for investment opportunities to any particular geographical area or industry, and may, therefore, engage in essentially any business, to the extent of our limited resources. This includes industries such as service, finance, natural resources, manufacturing, high technology, product development, medical, communications and others. Our management's discretion in the selection of business opportunities is unrestricted, subject to the availability of such opportunities, economic conditions, and other factors, including our ability to raise capital from private investors in the future.

Investigation and Selection of Business Opportunities

Our management believes that various types of potential merger or acquisition candidates might find a business combination with us to be attractive. These include acquisition candidates (1) desiring to create a public market for their shares in order to enhance liquidity for their current stockholders, (2) which have long-term plans for raising capital through the public sale of securities and which believe that the possible prior existence of a public market for their securities would be beneficial, (3) which plan to acquire additional assets through issuance of securities rather than for cash, and which believe that the possibility of development of a public market for their securities will be of assistance in that process. Acquisition candidates that have a need for an immediate cash infusion are not likely to find a potential business combination with us to be an attractive alternative.

The analysis of business opportunities will be undertaken by or under the supervision of our president, Kevin Halter, Jr. We anticipate that he will consider, among other things, the following factors in the analysis of business opportunities:

- o Potential for growth and profitability, indicated by new technology, anticipated market expansion, or new products;
- o His perception of how any particular business opportunity will be received by the investment community and by our stockholders;
- o Whether, following the business combination, the financial condition of the business opportunity would be, or would have a significant prospect in the foreseeable future of becoming sufficient to enable our securities to qualify for listing on an exchange or on a national automated securities quotation system, such as NASDAQ SmallCap Market;

Edgar Filing: SOYO GROUP INC - Form 10KSB/A

- o Capital requirements and anticipated availability of required funds, to be provided through the private sale of additional securities;
- o The extent to which the business opportunity can be advanced;
- o Competitive position as compared to other companies of similar size and experience within the industry segment as well as within the industry as a whole;
- o Strength and diversity of existing management, or management prospects that are scheduled for recruitment;
- o The cost of our participation as compared to the perceived tangible and intangible values and potential; and
- o The accessibility of required management expertise, personnel, raw materials, services, professional assistance, and other required items as such factors relate to the target company.

No one of the factors described above will be controlling in the selection of a business opportunity, and management will attempt to analyze all factors appropriate to each opportunity and make a determination based upon reasonable investigative measures and available data. Potential investors must recognize that, because of our lack of capital for investigation and our lack of management for business analysis, we may not discover or adequately evaluate adverse facts about the target company, its business and management.

We are unable to predict when we may be able to acquire a business entity. We expect, however, that the analysis of specific proposals and the selection of a business opportunity may take several months or more.

Possible Business Transactions

We can not predict the manner in which we may participate in a business transaction with an acquisition target. Specific business opportunities will be reviewed as well as the respective needs and desires of our stockholders and, upon the basis of that review and our relative negotiating strength, the legal structure or method deemed by management to be suitable will be selected. Such structure may include, but may not be limited to, leases, purchase and sale agreements, licenses, joint ventures and other contractual arrangements. We may act directly or indirectly through an interest in a partnership, corporation or other form of organization. Implementing such structure may require our merger, consolidation or reorganization with other corporations or other forms of business organization, and although it is likely, we can give no assurance that we would be the surviving entity. In addition, our present management and stockholders most likely will not have control of a majority of the voting shares of the company following a reorganization transaction. As part of such a transaction, our current officers and directors may resign and new officers and directors may be appointed without any vote by stockholders.

It is likely that we will acquire our participation in a business transaction through the issuance of our common stock or other securities. Although the terms of any such transaction cannot be predicted, it should be noted that in certain circumstances the criteria for determining whether or not an acquisition is a so-called "tax free" reorganization under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, depends upon the issuance to the stockholders of the acquired company of a controlling interest (usually 80% or more) of the common stock of the combined entities immediately following the reorganization. If a transaction is structured to take advantage of these provisions rather than other "tax free" provisions provided under the Internal Revenue Code, our current stockholders will retain in the aggregate 20% or less of the issued and outstanding shares. This could result in substantial additional dilution in the equity of our stockholders prior to such reorganization. Any such issuance of additional shares might also be done simultaneously with a sale or transfer of shares representing a controlling interest of our company by our president, director and principal stockholder. Additionally, upon a business combination with an operating company, we will be required to report the transaction to the Commission on a Current Report on Form 8-K with disclosure as required pursuant to a registration statement on Form 10-SB. This could result in additional expense to us as well as delaying the consummation of an acquisition.

Our History

The Vermont Witch Hazel Company was incorporated on August 3, 1994 in the State of Vermont. On October 4, 1994 it was renamed Vermont Witch Hazel Co. and on September 16, 1996 it was renamed The Vermont Witch Hazel Company. On November 1, 1994 the Company registered to conduct business in the State of California.

For over seven years, the Company created and marketed skin care and pet care products. The Company manufactured and distributed a line of witch hazel based natural, hypoallergenic soaps, cleansers and other skin aids for people who prefer natural and environmentally friendly products.

Effective December 3, 2001, the Company transferred all its net assets and business to its wholly owned subsidiary, The Vermont Witch Hazel Co., LLC, a California limited liability company which had been formed in October 2001. Also, the Company's board of directors declared a dividend of all of the Company's interest in the LLC to be distributed to the Company's shareholders of record on December 10, 2001. Each shareholder received one member unit in the LLC for each share of common stock held of record by the shareholder.

On December 27, 2001 pursuant to a stock purchase agreement dated December 27, 2001, Kevin Halter Jr. purchased 6,027,000 shares of the Company's common stock from Deborah Duffy representing approximately 51% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of common stock. Simultaneously with the purchase, the current officers and directors of the Registrant resigned and the following three persons were elected to replace them: Kevin Halter Jr. President and Director, Kevin B. Halter Secretary, Treasurer & Director and Pam Halter, a Director. Deborah Duffy, Rachel Braun and Peter C. Cullen the directors of the Company resigned their respective positions and the following three persons were elected to replace them: Kevin Halter Jr., Kevin B. Halter and Pam Halter

Shares Eligible For Future Sale

We currently have 11,817,250 shares of common stock outstanding of which 5,789,000 shares are freely tradable on the OTC Bulletin Board and 6,028,250 shares of our common stock owned by Kevin Halter, Jr., our President, a director and our principle shareholder, are deemed "restricted securities," as that term is defined under Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act. Subject to the applicable affiliate rules and volume and holding period limitations of Rule 144, 1,250 of Mr. Halter's shares are currently eligible for sale under Rule 144 and 6,027,000 shares will be eligible for sale under Rule 144 after December 27, 2002.

Under Rule 144, and subject to satisfaction of certain other conditions, a person, including an affiliate of the our company (or persons whose shares are aggregated into such affiliate), who has owned restricted shares of common stock beneficially for at least one year is entitled to sell, within any three-month period, a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of one percent of the total number of outstanding shares of the same class or the average weekly trading volume of our common stock during the four calendar weeks preceding the sale. A person who has not been an affiliate of our company for at least the three months immediately preceding the sale and who has beneficially owned shares of our common stock for at least two years is entitled to sell such shares under Rule 144(k) without regard to any of the limitations described above.

The possibility that substantial amounts of our common stock may be sold in the public market in the future may adversely affect the prevailing market price for our common stock and could impair our ability in the future to raise capital through the sale of our equity securities.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our common stock is Securities Transfer Corporation, 2591 Dallas Parkway, Suite 102, Frisco, Texas 75034.

ITEM 6. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION.

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this report. This discussion contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties.

PLAN OF OPERATION

Our present plan of operations for the next twelve months is to seek to complete a merger or acquisition transaction with a small- or medium-sized operating enterprise which may allow our stockholders an opportunity to achieve appreciative value for their investment in our common stock. In selecting a potential merger or acquisition candidate, our management will consider many factors, including, but not limited to, potential for growth and profitability, quality and experience of management, capital requirements, and the ability of the acquired company to qualify its shares for trading on NASDAQ SmallCap Market or on a national exchange.

The types of business enterprises that we believe might find a business combination with us to be attractive include (1) candidates desiring to create a public market for their shares to enhance liquidity for current stockholders,

Edgar Filing: SOYO GROUP INC - Form 10KSB/A

(2) acquisition candidates which have long-term plans for raising capital through the public sale of securities and believe that the possible prior existence of a public market for their securities would be beneficial, (3) foreign companies desiring to obtain access to U.S. customers and U.S. capital markets, and (4) acquisition candidates which plan to acquire additional assets through issuance of securities rather than for cash.

We have engaged in preliminary negotiations with principals of small business enterprises but have been unable to obtain any agreements or commitments from such parties. We are also unable to predict when we may effect a business opportunity. We have not established any deadline for completion of a transaction, and anticipate that the process could continue throughout the next twelve months.

Our balance sheet at July 31, 2002 reflects current assets of $0 and current liabilities in the amount of $0. Accordingly, we may be required to raise additional funds from private investors, or our principal stockholder may be required to advance funds, in order to pay our current liabilities and to satisfy our cash requirements for the next twelve months.

The Company was incorporated in August of 1994 and began manufacturing all natural skin care products in 1995. We manufactured and marketed 14 all natural skin care products and 4 all natural pet care products., all of which contain witch hazel as a base ingredient. Originally, we marketed our products only to health food stores. Our first three years in business were moderately successful showing average gross incomes for fiscal years 1996, 1997 and 1998 of approximately $250,000.

Because we were dealing with a very small percent of the market, natural food and health stores, we felt we were limiting our income capabilities and decided to change our marketing strategy to focus on Internet sales and mass market. This decision required our changing all our labels which we estimated would cost us $150,000. We knew our income would drop substantially while we were making the transition from natural health and food stores to mass market chains, and that we would need capital to maintain overhead during the transition period. The Company decided to raise the money with a public offering. The offering was approved by the Securities & Exchange Commission and we became effective on February 15, 2001. The offering was closed May 14, 2001 when we began negotiating with Dickinson Brands regarding a license agreement and/or a merger.

Dickinson Brands is the largest witch hazel manufacturer in the United States, and had expressed a desire to license our brand and formulas for sale in the natural market place. At a meeting held in Las Vegas in July, 2001, the owner of Dickinson Brands also suggested a possible buyout or merger and requested projections through 2004. However no agreement was ever reached.

The Company was also approached regarding entering into a business combination with an ongoing business, Swabplus. Swapplus manufactures a delivery system for make-up removal, first aid, nail polish remover, cuticle conditioning, etc., and felt the two companies could complement each other. After careful consideration by management, this avenue was deemed to not be of benefit to the Company and no negotiations were initiated. September 11, 2001 the World Trade Center was destroyed and the market for penny stocks virtually disappeared.

On October 17, 2001 the Company filed Articles of Organization for The Vermont Witch Hazel Co., LLC., which the board of directors felt would be of more benefit as an entity for the shareholders than a corporation. On November 7, 2001 the board of directors of The Vermont Witch Hazel Company adopted a resolution to transfer all assets and liabilities from the Corporation into the LLC in exchange for 100% of the outstanding membership interest in the LLC, and to declare a 100% dividend of the LLC to each shareholder of record. The board of directors unanimously voted to distribute the dividend on December 10, 2001. A letter to NASDAQ was sent November 28, 2001 advising them of the board's decision, pursuant to Rule 10b-17.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

REVENUES

For the twelve months ended July 31, 2002 the company had sales of $10,572, which is a $33,273 decrease from sales for the twelve months ended July 31, 2001. This resulted from the transfer all assets and liabilities from the Corporation into the LLC and the resulting cessation of active business operations in December 2001.

COST OF SALES

For the twelve months ended July 31, 2002, the company had cost of sales of $4,151, which is a decrease of $10,318 from cost of sales for the twelve months ended July 31, 2001. This resulted from the transfer all assets and liabilities from the Corporation into the LLC and the resulting cessation of active business operations in December 2001.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

For the twelve months period ended July 31, 2002, selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to $50,659 from $113,402 for the comparable period ended July 31, 2002, for a decrease of $62,743. This resulted from the transfer all assets and liabilities from the Corporation into the LLC and the resulting cessation of active business operations in December 2001.

NET LOSS

For the twelve months period ended July 31, 2002, we had a net loss of $44,238 versus a loss of $121,393 for the comparable period ended July 31, 2001, a decrease of $77,155. This resulted from the transfer all assets and liabilities from the Corporation into the LLC and the resulting cessation of active business operations in December 2001.

Our Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company is fully dependent on either future sales of securities or upon its current management and/or advances or loans from significant stockholders or corporate officers to provide sufficient working capital to preserve the integrity of the corporate entity.

There is no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain additional funding through the sales of additional securities or, that such funding, if available, will be obtained on terms favorable to or affordable by the Company.

It is the intent of management and significant stockholders to provide sufficient working capital necessary to support and preserve the integrity of the corporate entity. However, there is no legal obligation for either management or significant stockholders to provide additional future funding.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
THE VERMONT WITCH HAZEL COMPANY
Frisco, Texas

I have audited the accompanying balance sheets of THE VERMONT WITCH HAZEL COMPANY as of July 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of THE VERMONT WITCH HAZEL COMPANY as of July 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company has no viable operations or assets and is dependent upon significant stockholders to provide sufficient working capital to maintain the integrity of the corporate entity. Management's plans in regard to these matters are described in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For The Years Ended July 31, 2002 and 2001

1. NATURE OF BUSINESS

The Vermont Witch Hazel Company was incorporated in the State of Vermont on August 3, 1994 as Witch Hazel Company. On October 4, 1994 it was renamed Vermont Witch Hazel Co. and on September 16, 1996 it was renamed The Vermont Witch Hazel Company. On November 1, 1994 the Company registered to conduct business in the State of California.

For over seven years, the Company created and marketed skin care and pet care products. The Company manufactured and distributed a line of witch hazel based natural, hypoallergenic soaps, cleansers and other skin aids for people who prefer natural and environmentally friendly products.

During October, 2001, the Company created a separate entity known as The Vermont Witch Hazel Co. LLC, a California limited liability company (The "LLC") which the Company held as a wholly-owned subsidiary.

On November 7, 2001 the Company's board of directors approved the transfer of all assets and liabilities of the Company into "The LLC" for 100% of the outstanding membership interest in "The LLC." This became effective on December 3, 2001.

On November 20, 2001 the Company's board of directors declared of 100% dividend of "The LLC", to be distributed, on or before December 31, 2001, to each shareholder of record as of December 10, 2001. The dividend was paid at a rate of one member unit of "The LLC" for each outstanding share of common stock of the Company.

On December 3, 2001 a "Sale of Asset Agreement" was executed by which "The LLC" purchased the assets and assumed the liabilities of the Company for which it distributed 100% of its membership interests to the Company. Since December 3, 2001 the Company has been inactive.

On December 27, 2001 the majority shareholder, as well as most of the remaining shareholders of the now assetless Company agreed to sell their stock to other individuals at approximately $0.02 per share and to reinvest their proceeds into "The LLC".

The new Management, located in Frisco, Texas, is currently exploring various avenues to acquire and/or merge the Company with an existing business.

The Company is fully dependent either on future sales of securities or upon its current management and/or advances or loans from significant stockholders or corporate officers to provide sufficient working capital to preserve the integrity of the corporate entity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

A. Property and Equipment:

Furniture and equipment are stated at cost. The assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. It is the policy of the Company to capitalize significant improvements and to expense repairs and maintenance.

Depreciation expense for the years ended July 31, 2002 and 2001 was: none.

B. Loss Per Share:

Loss per share of common stock is computed using the weighted number of common shares outstanding during the periods shown. Common stock equivalents are not included in the determination of the weighted average number of shares outstanding, as they would be antidilutive.

C. Impairments of Long Lived Assets

The Company evaluates its long-lived assets by measuring the carrying amount of the assets against the estimated undiscounted future cash flows associated with them. If such evaluations indicate the future undiscounted cash flows of certain long-lived assets are not sufficient to recover the carrying value of such assets; the assets are adjusted to their fair values. No adjustment to the carrying values of the assets has been made.

D. Statement of Cash Flows

Supplemental disclosure of cash flow information is as follows:

Cash paid during the period August 1, 2001 to July 31, 2002 was as follows:

Interest	0
Income and franchise taxes	$1,200

E. Use of Estimates:

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from estimates and assumptions made.

F. Inventory:

Inventory is stated at lower of cost (first-in, first-out method) or market.

G. Revenue Recognition:

The Company recognizes revenue from the sale of its products at the date of sale. The buyer has the right to return the merchandise; however, the returns have been remote and insignificant, and all of the conditions of FAS-48 are met, thereby precluding an accrual of a loss contingency under FAS-5.

H. Fiscal Year and Basis of Operation:

The Company operates on a fiscal year ending July 31. The Company prepares its financial statements and Federal and State income tax returns on an accrual basis.

I. Management Representation

The financial statements and notes are representation of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. They include all adjustments deemed necessary in order to make the financial statements not misleading. Management represents that these financial statements conform to general accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

3. ADVANCES DUE STOCKHOLDERS

During the fiscal year ending July 31, 2001 and for the period ended October 31, 2001, stockholders advanced funds for working capital of $9,800 and $1,250, respectively. The company agreed to pay interest of 8% interest per annum. The advances and accrued interest of $553 were repaid during December, 2001.

4. NOTES PAYABLE

During the period August-October 2001, an individual advanced the Company $20,000 to be used for working capital. The Company issued a note bearing no interest for the first year and 7% thereafter. The note was repaid during December 2001.

5. CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Upon incorporation the Company was authorized to issue 100 shares of common stock. On July 24, 1995 the corporation amended its Articles of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of two classes of stock, common and preferred. The authorized common stock was increased to 1,000,000 shares, and the authorized preferred stock is 100,000 shares. Each type retains no par value.

On November 8, 1999 the Board of Directors agreed to increase the total number of the Company's authorized common shares to 10,000,000 shares and the authorized preferred shares to 1,000,000 shares. On February 20, 2000 the Articles of Incorporation were amended to reflect these increases.

On May 14, 2001 the Board of Directors agreed to increase the total number of the Company's authorized common shares to 75,000,000 shares. It also agreed to a ten for one forward stock split of the outstanding shares.

6. INCOME TAXES

Income taxes are provided pursuant to SFAS NO. 109 Accounting for Income Taxes. The statement requires the use of an asset and liability approach for financial reporting for income taxes. If it is more likely than not that some portion or all of a deferred tax asset will not be realized, a valuation allowance is recognized. No tax benefit of the Company's net operating loss carryforward has been recorded as it is more likely than not that the carryforward will expire unused. Accordingly, the tax benefit of the loss carryforward has been offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount. Thus, the Company has not recorded an asset or liability in accordance with SFAS No. 109.

The income tax expense incurred by the Company for the periods is attributable to the California minimum tax incurred by corporations doing business in California.

Due to a change in ownership effective December 3, 2001, net operation loss carry forwards may be limited.

7. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company has used market information for similar instruments and applied judgment to estimate fair value of financial instruments. At July 31, 2002, the fair value of cash, accounts receivable, notes payable and accounts payable approximated carrying values because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

8. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Leases:

For the period August 1 - December 3, 2001, the Company leased its main office facilities from its major stockholder on a month to month basis of $2,000. The Company leased its warehouse facilities on a month to month basis, at a cost of $500 per month. Prior years rental expense reflect the use of larger facilities. The Company currently maintains an office with its majority stockholder at no cost.

Rent expense for the years ended July 31, 2002 and 2001 was $15,000 and $16,875, respectively.

The Company is not presently involved in any litigation.

ITEM 12. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Changes of Control

On December 27, 2001 pursuant to a stock purchase agreement dated December 27, 2001, Kevin Halter Jr. purchased 6,027,000 shares of the Company's common stock from Deborah Duffy representing approximately 51% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of common stock. Simultaneously with the purchase, the current officers and directors of the Registrant resigned and the following three persons were elected to replace them: Kevin. Halter Jr. President and Director, Kevin B. Halter Secretary, Treasurer & Director, Pam Halter, a Director. Deborah Duffy, Rachel Braun and Peter C. Cullen the directors of the Company resigned their respective positions and the following three persons were elected to replace them: Kevin Halter Jr., Kevin B. Halter and Pam Halter

Conflicts of Interest

Our officers and directors will devote only a portion of their time to our affairs. There will be occasions when the time requirements of our business conflict with the demands of their other business and investment activities. These conflicts may require that we attempt to employ additional personnel.

Although management has no current plans to cause us to do so, it is possible that we may enter into an agreement with an acquisition candidate requiring the sale of all or a portion of the common stock held by the our current officers, directors or principal stockholders to the acquisition candidate or principals thereof, or to other individuals or business entities, or requiring some other form of payment to the our current stockholders, or requiring the future employment of specified officers and payment of salaries to them. It is more likely than not that any sale of securities by our current stockholders to an acquisition candidate would be at a price substantially higher than that originally paid by such stockholders. Any payment to current stockholders in the context of an acquisition involving us would be determined entirely by the largely unforeseeable terms of a future agreement with an unidentified business entity.
