Independent Auditors' Report

January 16, 2003

The Board of Directors and Shareholders

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Regulations for Auditing of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants, and auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with the Guidelines for Securities Issuers' Financial Reporting and accounting principles generally accepted in the Republic of China.

As disclosed in Note 3 to the financial statements, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 30, "Accounting for Treasury Stock" (SFAS 30) on January 1, 2002. SFAS 30 requires a parent company to record stock held by its subsidiary as treasury stock. The adoption of SFAS 30 resulted in the decrease of long-term investments and simultaneous increase of the book value of treasury stock by NT$1,923,492 thousand as of December 31, 2002. Furthermore, net income increased by NT$25,909 thousand for the year ended December 31, 2002.

We have also audited the consolidated financial statements of Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. as of and for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and have expressed a modified unqualified opinion and an unqualified opinion on such financial statements, respectively.

TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING COMPANY LTD.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. GENERAL

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. (the Company or TSMC), a Republic of China corporation, was incorporated as a venture among the Government of the Republic of China, acting through the Development Fund of the Executive Yuan; Philips Electronics N.V. and certain of its affiliates (Philips); and certain other private investors. In September 1994, its shares were listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange. In October 8, 1997, TSMC listed some of its shares of stock on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares.

TSMC is engaged mainly in the manufacturing, selling, packaging, and testing and designing of integrated circuits and other semiconductor devices, and the manufacturing of masks.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and cash equivalents

Government bonds acquired under agreements that provide for their repurchase within less than three months from date of purchase are classified as cash equivalents.

Allowance for doubtful receivables

Allowance for doubtful receivables are provided based on a review of the collectibility of accounts receivables.

Sales and sales returns and allowances

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING CO LTD - Form 6-K

Sales are recognized when titles of products and risks of ownerships are transferred to customers, primarily upon shipment. Allowance and related provisions for sales returns and others are estimated based on historical experience. Such provisions are deducted from sales in the year the products are sold and the estimated related costs are deducted from cost of sales.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (standard cost and adjusted to approximate weighted-average cost at the end of each period) or market value. Market value represents net realizable value for finished goods and work in process, and replacement value for raw materials, supplies and spare parts.

Long-term investments

Investments in shares of stock of companies wherein the Company exercises significant influence on the operating and financial policy decisions are accounted for using the equity method. The Company's proportionate share in the net income or net loss of investee companies are recognized as components of the Investment income/loss recognized by equity method net account. The Company adopted Statements of Financial Accounting Standards No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock (SFAS 30) on January 1, 2002. SFAS 30 requires a parent company to record stock held by its subsidiary as treasury stock. The recorded value of treasury stock is based upon the carrying values of the short/long-term investments on the subsidiaries' books as of January 1, 2002.

When the Company subscribes to additional investee shares at a percentage different from its existing equity interest, the resulting carrying amount of the investment in equity investee differs from the amount of Company's proportionate share in the investee's net equity. The Company records such difference as an adjustment to capital surplus as well as the long-term investments accounts. In the event an investee has an accumulated deficit, it will record an offset to its capital surplus, excluding the reserve for asset revaluation, through retained earnings. The Company will also record a corresponding entry equivalent to its proportionate share of the investee capital surplus, excluding the reserve for asset revaluation, that was generated subsequent to any acquisition of equity interest in the investee. If an investee's functional currency is a foreign currency, cumulative translation adjustments would result from the process of translating the investee's financial statements into the functional currency of the Company.

Other stock investments are accounted for using the cost method. Cash dividends are recognized as income in the year received but are accounted for as reduction in the carrying values of the long-term investments if the dividends are received in the same year that the related investments are acquired. Stock dividends are recognized neither as investment income nor increase of long-term investment but recorded only as an increase in the number of shares held. An allowance is recognized for any decline in the market value of investments using quoted market prices with the corresponding amount debited to shareholders' equity. A reversal of the allowance will result from a subsequent recovery of the market value. The carrying values of investments with no quoted market price are reduced to reflect another than temporary decline in their values with the related impairment loss charged to income.

Investments in foreign mutual funds are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or net asset value (NAV). An allowance is recognized when the cost of the funds are lower than their net asset values, with the corresponding amount debited to shareholders' equity. A reversal of the allowance will result from a subsequent recovery of the net asset value.

The costs of investments sold are determined using the weighted-average method.

If an investee company has an unrealized loss on a long-term investment evaluated using the lower-of-cost-or-market method, the Company recognizes a corresponding unrealized loss in proportion to its equity interest and records the amount as a component of its own shareholders' equity.

Gain or loss on transactions with investee companies wherein the Company owned at least 20% of the outstanding common stock but less than a controlling interest are deferred in proportion to the ownership percentage until realized through a transaction with a third party. The entire amount of the gains or losses on sales to majority-owned subsidiaries are deferred until such gains or losses are realized through the subsequent sale of the related products to third parties. Gains or losses from sales by investee companies to the Company are deferred in proportion to the ownership percentage until realized through transactions with third parties.

Property, plant and equipment, assets leased to others and idle assets

Property, plant and equipment and assets leased to others are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Idle assets are stated at the lower of book value or net realized value. Significant additions, renewals, betterments and interest expense incurred during the construction period are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are expensed in the period incurred. Property, plant and equipment covered by agreements qualifying as capital leases are carried at the lower of the present value of future minimum rent payments, or the market value of the property at the inception date of the lease. The lessee's periodic rent payment includes the purchase price of the leased property and the interest expense.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over these estimated service lives: Buildings 10 to 20 years; machinery and equipment 5 years; and office equipment 3 to 5 years.

Upon sale or disposal of property, plant and equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is credited or charged to income in the period of disposal.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of fair market value of identifiable net assets acquired and consideration paid in connection with a business combination. The amount is amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of 10 years.

Deferred charges

Deferred charges consist of software and system design costs, technology know-how, bond issuance costs, and technology license fees. The amounts are amortized as follows: Software and system design costs 3 years, technology know-how 5 years; bond issuance costs the term of the bonds; technology license fee the shorter of the estimated life of the technology or the term of the technology transfer contract.

Pension costs

Net periodic pension costs are recorded on the basis of actuarial calculations. Unrecognized net transition obligation and unrecognized net gain/loss are amortized over 25 years.

Deferred gain on sales and leaseback

The gain on the sale of property by the Company that it simultaneously leased back is deferred. This deferred gain on sales and leaseback transactions is amortized as follows: (a) operating leases adjustment of rental expenses over the term of the leases and (b) capital leases adjustment of depreciation expenses over the estimated useful life or term of the lease; whichever is shorter.

Casualty loss

Casualty loss consists of the accrued loss caused by the earthquake on March 31, 2002 less the estimated insurance compensation.

Income tax

The Company uses an inter-period tax allocation method for income tax. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the tax effects of temporary differences, unused tax credits, and operating loss carry forwards. Valuation allowances are provided to the extent, if any, that it is more likely than not that deferred income tax assets will not be realized. A deferred tax asset or liability is, according to the classification of its related asset or liability, classified as current or non-current. However, if a deferred tax asset or liability does not relate to an asset or liability in the financial statements, then it is classified as current or non-current based on the expected length of time before it is realized.

Any tax credit arising from the purchase of machinery, equipment and technology, research and development expenditures, personnel training, investments in important technology-based enterprise are recognized using the current method.

Adjustments of prior years' tax liabilities are added to or deducted from the current year's tax provision.

As of January 1, 1998, income taxes on unappropriated earnings of 10% are expensed in the year of shareholder approval which is usually the year subsequent to the year incurred.

Derivative financial instruments

The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts to manage currency exposures in cash flow and in foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities. The differences in the New Taiwan dollar amounts translated using the current rate and the amounts translated using the contracted forward rates are amortized over the terms of the forward contracts using the straight-line method. At the balance sheet dates, the receivables or payables arising from forward contracts are restated using the prevailing current rate and the resulting differences are recognized in income. Also, the receivables and payables related to the forward contract are netted with the resulting amount presented as either an asset or liability.

The Company enters into interest rate swap transactions to manage exposures from changes in interest rates on existing liabilities. These transactions are accounted for on an accrual basis, in which the cash settlement receivable or payable is recorded as an adjustment to interest income or expense.

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING CO LTD - Form 6-K

The notional amount of foreign currency option contracts entered into for hedging purposes are not recognized as an asset or liability on the contract dates. The premiums paid or received for the call or put options are amortized to income on a straight-line basis over the term of the related contract.

Foreign-currency transactions

Foreign-currency transactions are recorded in New Taiwan dollars at the current rate of exchange in effect when the transaction occurs. Gains or losses derived from foreign currency transactions or monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are recognized in current operations. At year-end, foreign-currency assets and liabilities are revalued at the prevailing exchange rate with the resulting gain or loss recognized in current operations.

3. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock (SFAS 30) and other relevant regulations from Securities and Futures Commission (SFC), the Company is required to reclassify its common stock held by subsidiaries from short/long-term investments to treasury stock. The reclassification is based on the carrying value of NT$2,115,695 thousand as recorded by the Company's subsidiaries as of January 1, 2002. The adoption of SFAS 30 resulted in the decrease of long-term investments and the increase of treasury stock by NT$1,923,492 thousand as of December 31, 2002, and an increase in net income for the year ended December 31, 2002 by NT$25,909 thousand.

- g. Income from the following expansion and construction of the Company's manufacturing plants is exempt from income tax:

	Tax-Exemption Period
Expansion of Fab 1 and Fab 2 modules A and B, Fab 3 and Fab 4, and construction of Fab 5	1999 to 2002
Construction of Fab 6	2001 to 2004

- h. The tax authorities have examined income tax returns of the Company through 1999. However, the Company is contesting the assessment of the tax authority for 1992, 1993, 1996 and 1997.

13. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

The Company has issued 369,019 thousand American Depositary Shares (ADS) on the New York Stock Exchange as of December 31, 2002. The number of common shares represented by the ADSs is 1,845,097 thousand shares (one ADS represents five common shares).

Capital surplus can only be used to offset a deficit under the ROC Company Law. However, the components of capital surplus generated from donations (donated capital) and the excess of the issue price over the par value of capital stock (including the stock issued for new capital, mergers, and the purchase of treasury stock) can be transferred to capital as stock dividends.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation provide that the following shall be appropriated from annual net income (less any deficit):

- a. 10% legal reserve;
- b. Special reserve in accordance with relevant laws or regulations;
- c. Remuneration to directors and supervisors and bonus to employees equal to 0.3% and at least 1% of the remainder, respectively. Individuals who receive bonus to employees may include employees of affiliated companies and are approved by the board of directors or a representative of the board of directors.
- d. Dividends to holders of preferred shares equal to a 3.5% annual rate, based on the period which the preferred shares have been outstanding;
- e. The appropriation of the remaining balance after the above shall be decided at the shareholders' meeting;

Dividends are distributed in cash, shares of common stock or a combination of cash and common stock. Distribution of profits are preferably made in the form of stock dividend. The total of cash dividends paid in any given year should not exceed 50% of total dividends distributed.

These appropriations of net income shall be approved by the shareholders in the following year and given effect in the financial statements of that year.

The bonus to employees and the remuneration to directors and supervisors appropriated from the earnings of 2001 were approved in the shareholders' meeting on May 7, 2002:

	Amounts	Shares (Thousand)
Bonus to employees in stock	$ 1,070,783	107,078
Remuneration to directors and supervisors in cash	133,848
	$ 1,204,631

The shares distributed as a bonus to employees represent 0.64% of the Company's total outstanding common shares as of December 31, 2001.

The above appropriation of the earnings is consistent with the resolution of the meeting of board of directors dated on March 26, 2002. If the above distributable earnings were both paid in cash, and charged against income of 2001, the basic EPS after income tax for the year ended December 31, 2001 would be decreased from NT$0.83 to NT$0.76.

As of January 16, 2003, the appropriation of the earnings of 2002 has not been yet resolved by the board of directors.

The above information associated with the appropriation of bonus to employees and remuneration to directors and supervisors is available at Market Observation System website.

The aforementioned appropriation for legal reserve shall be made until the reserve equals the aggregate par value of the Company's outstanding capital stock. The reserve can only be used to offset a deficit; or distribute as stock dividend when the balance is 50% of the aggregate par value of the outstanding capital stock of the Company up to the half amount of the reserve balance.

A special reserve equivalent to the debit balance of any account shown in the shareholder's equity section of the balance sheet (except for the recorded cost of treasury stock held by subsidiaries), other than the deficit, shall be made from unappropriated retained earnings pursuant to existing regulations promulgated by the Securities and Futures Commission. The special reserve is allowed to be appropriated when the debit balance of such accounts are reversed.

The gain on sales or disposal of property, plant and equipment generated prior to 2000, less the applicable income tax, was reclassified to capital surplus as of each year-end. A gain in the amount of NT$39,282 thousand, less applicable income tax, was recognized and transferred to the capital surplus at the end of 2001 prior to the amended regulations. To comply with the amended regulations, the aforementioned capital surplus was transferred to retained earnings upon the approval of the shareholders' meeting on May 7, 2002. The shareholders also approved the accumulated capital surplus of NT$127,236 thousand generated from gains prior to 2000 to be transferred to retained earnings, after appropriating the required 10% legal reserve.

Under the Integrated Income Tax System that became effective on January 1, 1998, ROC resident shareholders are allowed a tax credit for the income tax paid by the Company on earnings generated as of January 1, 1998. An Imputation Credit Account (ICA) is maintained by the Company for such income tax and the tax credit allocated to each shareholder.

On June 25, 2002, the SFC approved the Company's Employee Stock Option Plan (the Plan). The Plan provides qualified employees with 100,000 thousand units of option rights with each unit representing 1 common share of stock. The option rights are valid for 10 years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of issuance. Under the terms of the Plan, stock options are granted at an exercise price equal to the closing price of TSMC's common shares listed on Taiwan stock exchange at the date of grant. As of December 31, 2002, there were 19,726 thousand shares granted at a weighted average price of approximately NT$53.

The Company issued 1,300,000 thousand shares of unlisted Series A preferred stock to certain investors on November 29, 2000. The following are the rights of the preferred shareholders and other terms and conditions:

Preferred shareholders

- a. are entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends at an annual rate of 3.5%.
- b. are not entitled to receive any common stock dividends (whether declared out of unappropriated earnings or capital surplus).
- c. have priority over the holders of common shares to the assets of the Company available for distribution to shareholders upon liquidation or dissolution, however, the preemptive rights to the assets shall not exceed the issue value of the shares.
- d. have voting rights similar to that of the holders of common shares.
- e. have no right to convert their shares into common shares. The preferred shares are to be redeemed within thirty months from their issuance. The preferred shareholders have the aforementioned rights and the Company's related obligations remain the same until the preferred shares are redeemed by the Company.

Reclassification of stocks held by subsidiaries from short/long-term investment to treasury stocks	39,270	3,818	1,087	42,001

On January 1, 2002, the Company reclassified its capital stock held by its subsidiaries with book value of NT$2,115,695 thousand from long-term investments to treasury stock. Proceeds from the sale of treasury stock for the year ended December 31, 2002 were NT$96,501 thousand. As of December 31, 2002, the book value and market value of the treasury stock was NT$1,923,492 thousand and NT$2,048,164 thousand, respectively. Capital stock held by a subsidiary as an investment is recorded as treasury stock with the holder having the same rights as other common shareholders.

15. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Earnings per share (EPS) is computed as follows:

	Amounts (Numerator)		Share (Denominator) (Thousand)	EPS (Dollars)
	Before	After		Before	After
	Income Tax	Income Tax		Income Tax	Income Tax
December 31, 2002
Income	$ 27,112,455	$ 21,610,291
Less preferred stock dividends	(455,000)	(455,000)
Basic earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 26,657,455	$ 21,155,291	18,580,700	$ 1.43	$ 1.14
Diluted earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 26,657,455	$ 21,155,291	18,580,700	$ 1.43	$ 1.14
December 31, 2001
Income	$ 10,658,715	$ 14,483,174
Less preferred stock dividends	(455,000)	(455,000)
Basic earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 10,203,715	$ 14,028,174	18,622,887	$ 0.55	$ 0.75
Diluted earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 10,203,715	$ 14,028,174	18,622,887	$ 0.55	$ 0.75

The potential common shares from the employee stock option plan (see Note 13) are not included in the denominator of the diluted earning-per-share computation as such shares are not dilutive using the treasury stock method under the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 24, Earning Per Share .

The average number of shares outstanding for EPS calculation has been adjusted retroactively for issuance of stock dividends and stock bonuses. The retroactive adjustment caused the basic EPS before income tax and after income tax for the year ended December 31, 2001 to decrease from NT$0.61 and NT$0.83 to NT$0.55 and NT$0.75, respectively.

Sales to related parties are based on normal selling prices and collection terms. The payables to WAFERTECH represent the purchase of finished goods. The purchase prices of finished goods were calculated in accordance with the related contractual agreements.

The Company has authorized its exclusive distributor, TSMC North America, to promote semiconductor products in North America and South America starting January 2002. The selling prices to TSMC North America are approximately 99% of those to third parties and are invoiced with thirty day payment terms, which is not significantly different from third parties.

17. SIGNIFICANT LONG-TERM OPERATING LEASES

The Company leases land from the Science-Based Industrial Park Administration where its Fab 2 through Fab 14 manufacturing facilities reside. These agreements expire on various dates from March 2008 to December 2020 and have annual rent payments aggregating NT$225,576 thousand. The agreements can be renewed upon their expiration.

Future remaining lease payments are as follows:

Year	Amount

2008 and thereafter	1,742,413
	$ 2,870,293

18. SIGNIFICANT COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCY AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2002

The Company's commitments and contingency as of December 31, 2002 are as follows:

- a. Under a Technical Cooperation Agreement with Philips, as amended on May 12, 1997, the Company shall pay technical assistance fees as a percentage of net sales, as defined in the agreement, of certain products. The agreement shall remain in force up to July 8, 2007 and thereafter be automatically renewed for successive periods of three years. Under the amended agreement, the fee is subject to deduction by the amounts the Company pays to any third party for settling any licensing/infringement issue after the first five-year period of the amended agreement, provided that the fee after reduction will not be below a certain percentage of the net selling price.
- b. Subject to certain equity ownership and notification requirements, Philips and its affiliates can avail themselves each year of up to 30% of the Company's production capacity.

- c. Under a technical cooperation agreement with ITRI, the Company shall reserve and allocate up to 35% of certain of its production capacity for use by the Ministry of Economic Affairs (MOEA) or any other party designated by the MOEA.

- d. Under several foundry agreements, the Company shall allocate a portion of its production output for sale to certain major customers from whom guarantee deposits of US$39,810 thousand had been received as of December 31, 2002.
- e. Under a Shareholders Agreement entered into with Philips and EDB Investments Pte Ltd. on March 30, 1999, the parties formed a joint venture company to be named Systems on Silicon Manufacturing Company Pte Ltd. (SSMC) for the purpose of constructing an integrated circuit foundry in Singapore, and allow the Company to invest in 32% of SSMC's capital. The Company and Philips committed to buy a specific percentage of the production capacity of SSMC. If any party defaults on the agreement and the capacity utilization of SSMC falls below a specific percentage of its total capacity, the defaulting party should compensate SSMC for all related unavoidable costs.
- f. The Company provides of technical services to SSMC under a Technical Cooperation Agreement (the Agreement) entered into on May 12, 1999. The Company receives compensation for such services computed at a specific percentage of net selling prices of specific products sold by SSMC. The Agreement remains in force for ten years and is automatically renewed for successive periods of five years unless pre-terminated by either party under certain conditions.
- g. The Company provided guarantee on loans amounting to US$200,000 thousand, US$40,000 thousand and US$440,000 thousand for TSMC Development, Inc., TSMC- North America and WAFERTECH, LLC, respectively.
- h. Under a Technology Transfer Agreement with National Semiconductor Corporation (National) entered into on June 27, 2000, the Company shall receive payments for license of certain technology to National. The agreement will remain in force for ten years. After the initial expiration date, this agreement will be automatically renewed for successive periods of two years unless pre-terminated by either party under certain conditions. In January 2003, the agreement was amended such that National will discontinue making payments under the original terms and the Company will discontinue transferring any additional technology. The Company granted National the option to request additional technology transfers under the same terms and conditions of the original agreement through January 2008.
- i. The Company entered into a Manufacturing Agreement with Vanguard International Semiconductor Corp. (VIS). VIS agrees to reserve certain production capacity for the Company to manufacture certain logic devices or other technologies required by the Company's customers at selling prices as agreed by the parties. The Company paid NT$1,200,000 thousand to VIS as security bond. VIS shall return portions of the bond without any interest to the Company upon the purchase of wafers by the Company. The contract will remain in force for five years.
- j. Starting from 2001, the Company entered into several license arrangements for certain semiconductor patents. The terms of the contracts range from five to ten years with payments to be paid in the form of royalties over the term of the related contracts. The Company has recorded the related amounts as a liability and a deferred charge to be amortized to cost of sales on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the estimated life of the technology or the term of the contract.
- k. Unused letter of credits as of December 31, 2002 were NT$6,480 thousand, ¥51,000 thousand, Euro 520 thousand and SG$85 thousand.

l. As of December 31, 2002, unused credit lines for short-term loans were NT$7,930,000 thousand and US$337,500 thousand.

						Feb. 27, 2003

For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company recognized premium income of NT$ 228,030 thousand and premium expense of NT$647,543 thousand.

d) Transaction risk

- i) Credit risk. The banks, which are the counter-parties to the foregoing derivative financial instruments, are reputable financial institutions. Management believes its exposures related to the potential default by those counter-parties are low.

- ii) Market price risk. All derivative financial instruments are intended as hedges for fluctuations in currency exchange rates on the Company's foreign currency denominated receivables or payables and interest rate fluctuations on its floating rate long-term loans. Gains or losses from forward exchange contracts are likely to be offset by gains or losses from the hedged receivables and payables. Interest rate risks are also controlled as the expected cost of capital is fixed. Thus, market price risks are believed to be minimal.
- iii) Liquidity and cash flow requirements. The cash flow requirements on forward contracts are limited to the net differences between the current exchange rates and the contracted forward rates at the date of settlement. The cash flow requirements for interest rate swap contracts is limited to the amounts payable arising from the differences in the rates. In addition, options may not be exercised in the event the strike price is higher than the related market price at the exercise date. Management believes that the foregoing cash flow requirements are not material.

Fair values of financial instruments were determined as follows:

- a) Short-term financial instruments carrying values.
- b) Long-term investments market value for traded companies and net equity value for non-trade companies.

- c) Refundable deposits and guarantee deposits carrying values.
- d) Long-term liabilities based on forecasted cash flows discounted at interest rates of similar long-term liabilities. Bonds payable is discounted to present value. Fair values of other long-term liabilities are also their carrying values as they use floating interest rate.
- e) Derivative financial instruments based on quotations from banks.

The fair values of non-financial instruments were not included in the fair values disclosed above. Accordingly, the sum of the fair values of the financial instruments listed above does not represent the fair value of the Company as a whole.

3) Investment in Mainland China:

The Company filed an investment project with the Investment Commission of MOEA to establish a foundry in mainland China. As of January 16, 2003, the foregoing project has not been approved by the authority.

Independent Accountants' Report

The Board of Directors and Shareholders

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd.

We have reviewed the combined balance sheet as of December 31, 2002 and the related combined statement of income for the year then ended of Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. and Vanguard International Semiconductor Corporation. Our reviews were made in accordance with the Guidelines for the Review of Combined Financial Statements of Affiliates. It is substantially less in scope than an examination in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the combined balance sheet and the combined statement of income taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the combined balance sheet and the combined statement of income referred to above in order for them to be in conformity with Regulations Governing the Preparation of Affiliates' Combined Operating Report, Combined Financial Statements and Relationship Report in the Republic of China (ROC), and the ROC regulation governing the preparation of financial statements of public company and the ROC generally accepted accounting principles.

As disclosed in Note 3 to the financial statements, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock on January 1, 2002. SFAS No. 30 requires a parent company to record stock held by its subsidiary as treasury stock. The adoption of SFAS No. 30 resulted in the decrease of long-term investments and simultaneous increase of the book value of treasury stock by NT$1,923,492 thousand as of December 31, 2002. Furthermore, net income increased by NT$25,909 thousand for the year ended December 31, 2002.

TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING COMPANY LTD.,
AND VANGUARD INTERNATIONAL SEMICONDUCTOR CORPORATION

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Amounts in Thousand New Taiwan Dollars, Unless Specified Otherwise)

1. GENERAL

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. ( TSMC ), a Republic of China corporation, was incorporated as a venture among the government of the Republic of China, acting through the Development Fund of the Executive Yuan; Philips Electronics N.V. and certain of its affiliates (Philips); and certain other private investors. In September 1994, its shares were listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange (TSE). In October 8, 1997, TSMC listed some of its shares of stock on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares. The shares of Vanguard International Semiconductor Corporation (VIS), TSMC's 25% owned affiliate, have been listed on the Republic of China (ROC) Over-the-Counter Securities Exchange since March 25, 1998.

TSMC is engaged mainly in the manufacturing, selling, packaging, testing and designing of integrated circuits and other semiconductor devices, and the manufacturing of masks. VIS is engaged mainly in the researching, designing, developing, manufacturing, packaging, testing and selling of memory integrated circuits, large scale integrated ICs, extra large scale integrated ICs and related parts.

Notice to Readers

The combined financial statements include the consolidated accounts of TSMC plus the accounts of VIS, which is not a consolidated subsidiary of TSMC. TSMC's consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, would not include the assets, liabilities, shareholders' equity, revenues or expenses of VIS.

TSMC has six direct wholly-owned subsidiaries, namely, TSMC North America (TSMC-North America), Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Europe B.V (TSMC-Europe), TSMC Japan K. K. (TSMC-Japan), TSMC International Investment Ltd. (TSMC International), TSMC Partners Ltd. (TSMC Partners), Ya Xin Technology, Inc. (Ya Xin), a 99.5% owned subsidiary, Emerging Alliance Fund, LP (Emerging Alliance) and two 36% owned affiliates Chi Cherng Investment Co., Ltd. (Chi Cherng, which is 36% owned by TSMC and 64% owned by Hsin Ruey Investment Co., Ltd.) and Hsin Ruey Investment Co., Ltd. (Hsin Ruey, which is 36% owned by TSMC and 64% owned by Chi Cherng). TSMC International has two wholly-owned subsidiaries TSMC Development, Inc. (TSMC Development), TSMC Technology, Inc. (TSMC Technology), and two 97%-owned subsidiaries InveStar Semiconductor Development Fund, Inc. (InveStar) and InveStar Semiconductor Development Fund, Inc. (II) LDC (InveStar II). TSMC Development has a 99.7% owned subsidiary, WaferTech, LLC (WaferTech). VIS has three direct and indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, namely, VIS Associates, Inc., VIS Investment Holding, Inc. and VIS Micro, Inc.

TSMC established Ya Xin in November 2002 and subsequently signed a merger agreement with Global UniChip Corp. (Global UniChip) in December 2002. The merger was effective on January 4, 2003 and Global UniChip is the surviving company. TSMC holds 52% of Global UniChips shares after the completion of the merger.

The following diagram presents information regarding the relationship and ownership percentages among TSMC, VIS and their affiliates as of December 31, 2002:

TSMC-North America is engaged in the sales and marketing of integrated circuits and semiconductor devices. TSMC-Europe, TSMC-Japan, TSMC Development and TSMC Technology are engaged mainly in marketing and engineering support activities. TSMC Partners, Chi Cherng and Hsin Ruey are engaged in investments. Ya Xin is engaged in design of integrated circuits. TSMC International is engaged in providing investment in companies involved in design, manufacture, and other related business in semiconductor industries. Emerging Alliance, InveStar and InveStar II are engaged in investing in new start-up companies in the fields of high-technology. WaferTech is engaged in the manufacturing, selling, testing and designing of integrated circuits and other semiconductor devices. VIS subsidiaries are mainly engaged in marketing, researching, developing and investing affairs.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Combination

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in these combined financial statements. The combined financial statements include, as of and for the year ended December 31, 2002, the accounts of all majority (directly and indirectly) owned subsidiaries of TSMC and VIS (TSMC's 25% owned affiliate), whom TSMC exercises significant influence on. TSMC and the foregoing subsidiaries and affiliates are hereinafter referred to collectively as the Company.

The respective total assets and revenues of VIS Associates, Inc. and its subsidiaries, which are subsidiaries of VIS, are less than 10% of those of VIS; therefore, the accounts of these entities are not included in VIS combined financial statements.

Minority interests in the aforementioned affiliates are presented separately in the combined financial statements.

Cash and cash equivalents

Government bonds acquired under agreements that provide for their repurchase within less than three months from date of purchase are classified as cash equivalents.

Short-term investments

Short-term investments are carried at the lower of cost or market value. The costs of investments sold are determined using the specific identification method.

Allowance for doubtful receivables

Allowance for doubtful receivables are provided based on a review of the collectibility of accounts receivables.

Sales and sales returns and allowances

Sales are recognized when titles of products and risks of ownerships are transferred to customers, primarily upon shipment. Allowance and related provisions for sales returns and others are estimated based on historical experience. Such provisions are deducted from sales in the year the products are sold and the estimated related costs are deducted from cost of sales.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market value. Inventories are recorded at standard cost and adjusted to approximate weighted-average cost at the end of each period. Market value represents net realizable value for finished goods and work in process, and replacement value for raw materials, supplies and spare parts.

Long-term investments

Investments in shares of stock of companies wherein the Company exercises significant influence on the operating and financial policy decisions are accounted for using the equity method. The Company's proportionate share in the net income or net loss of investee companies are recognized as components of the Investment income/loss recognized by equity method-net account. The Company adopted Statements of Financial Accounting Standards ( SFAS ) No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock on January 1, 2002. SFAS No. 30 requires a parent company to record stock held by its subsidiary as treasury stock. The recorded value of treasury stock is based on the carrying values of the short/long-term investments on the subsidiaries' books as of January 1, 2002.

When the Company subscribes to additional investee shares at a percentage different from its existing equity interest, the resulting carrying amount of the investment in equity investee differs from the amount of Company's proportionate share in the investee's net equity. The Company records such difference as an adjustment to capital surplus as well as the long-term investments accounts. In the event an investee has an accumulated deficit, it will record an offset to its capital surplus, excluding the reserve for asset revaluation, through retained earnings. The Company will also record a corresponding entry equivalent to its proportionate share of the investee capital surplus, excluding the reserve for asset revaluation that was generated subsequent to any acquisition of equity interest in the investee.

Other stock investments are accounted for using the cost method. Cash dividends are recognized as income in the year received but are accounted for as reduction in the carrying values of the long-term investments if the dividends are received in the same year that the related investments are acquired. Stock dividends are recognized neither as investment income nor increase of long-term investment but recorded only as an increase in the number of shares held. An allowance is recognized for any decline in the market value of investments using quoted market prices with the corresponding amount debited to shareholders' equity. A reversal of the allowance will result from a subsequent recovery of the market value. The carrying values of investments with no quoted market price are reduced to reflect other than temporary declines in their values with the related impairment loss charged to income.

Investments in foreign mutual funds are stated at the lower of cost or net asset value (NAV). An allowance is recognized when the cost of the funds are lower than their net asset values, with the corresponding amount debited to shareholders' equity. A reversal of the allowance will result from a subsequent recovery of the net asset value.

Investment in convertible notes and stock purchase warrants are carried at cost.

The costs of investments sold are determined using the weighted-average method.

If an investee company has an unrealized loss on a long-term investment evaluated using the lower-of-cost-or-market method, the Company recognizes a corresponding unrealized loss in proportion to its equity interest and records the amount as a component of its own shareholders' equity.

Gain or loss on transactions with investee companies wherein the Company owned at least 20% of the outstanding common stock but less than a controlling interest are deferred in proportion to the ownership percentage until realized through a transaction with a third party. The entire amount of the gains or losses on sales to majority-owned subsidiaries is deferred until such gains or losses are realized through the subsequent sale of the related products to third parties. Gains or losses from sales by investee companies to the Company are deferred in proportion to the ownership percentage until realized through transactions with third parties.

Property, plant and equipment, assets leased to others and idle assets

Property, plant and equipment and assets leased to others are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Idle assets are stated at the lower of book value or net realized value. Significant additions, renewals, betterments and interest expense incurred during the construction period are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are expensed in the period incurred. Property, plant and equipment covered by agreements qualifying as capital leases are carried at the lower of the present value of future minimum rent payments, or the market value of the property at the inception date of the lease. The lessee's periodic rent payment includes the purchase price of the leased property and the interest expense.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over these estimated service lives, which range as follows: Land improvements 20 years, buildings 5 to 20 years; machinery and equipment 5 years; and office and other equipment 2 to 7 years.

Upon sale or disposal of property, plant and equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is credited or charged to income in the period of disposal.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the consideration paid for acquisitions over the fair market value of identifiable net assets acquired and the difference between the investment cost and the Company's proportionate share in the net assets of acquired investee companies. Goodwill is amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated life of 10 years.

Deferred charges

Deferred charges consist of software and system design costs, technology know-how, bond issuance and financing costs, and technology license fees. The amounts are amortized as follows: Software and system design costs 3 years, technology know-how 5 years; bond issuance and financing costs the term of the bonds and related line of credit; technology license fee the shorter of the estimated life of the technology or the term of the technology transfer contract.

Pension costs

Net periodic pension costs are recorded on the basis of actuarial calculations. Unrecognized net transition obligation and unrecognized net gain are amortized over 25 years by TSMC and 26 years by VIS.

Deferred gain on sales and leaseback

The gain on the sale of property that it simultaneously leased back is deferred by the Company. This deferred gain on sales and leaseback transactions is amortized as follows: (a) operating leases adjustment of rental expenses over the term of the leases and (b) capital leases adjustment of depreciation expenses over the estimated useful life of the property or the term of the lease; whichever is shorter.

Casualty loss

Casualty loss consists of the accrued loss caused by the earthquake on March 31, 2002 less the estimated insurance compensation.

Income tax

The Company uses an inter-period tax allocation method for income tax. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the tax effects of temporary differences, unused tax credits, and operating loss carry forwards. Valuation allowances are provided to the extent, if any, that it is more likely than not that deferred income tax assets will not be realized. A deferred tax asset or liability is, according to the classification of its related asset or liability, classified as current or non-current. However, if a deferred tax asset or liability does not relate to an asset or liability in the financial statements, then it is classified as current or non-current based on the expected length of time before it is realized.

Any tax credit arising from the purchase of machinery, equipment and technology, research and development expenditures, personnel training, investments in important technology-based enterprise are recognized using the current method.

Adjustments of prior years tax liabilities are added to or deducted from the current year's tax provision.

As of January 1, 1998, income taxes on unappropriated earnings (excluding the foreign combined entity) of 10% are expensed in the year of shareholder approval which is usually the year subsequent to the year incurred.

Derivative financial instruments

The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts to manage currency exposures in cash flow and in foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities. The differences in the New Taiwan dollar amounts translated using the spot rate and the amounts translated using the contracted forward rates are amortized over the terms of the forward contracts using the straight-line method. At the balance sheet dates, the receivables or payables arising from forward contracts are restated using the prevailing spot rate at the balance sheet date and the resulting differences are recognized in charged to income. Also, the receivables and payables related to the forward contract are netted with the resulting amount presented as either an asset or a liability.

The Company enters into currency swap contracts to manage exposures to changes in the foreign exchange rate on existing assets and liabilities. These transactions are accounted for on an accrual basis, in which a cash settlement receivable or payable is recorded as an adjustment to interest income or expenses.

The Company enters into interest rate swap transactions to manage exposures from changes in interest rates on existing liabilities. These transactions are accounted for on an accrual basis, in which the cash settlement receivable or payable is recorded as an adjustment to interest income or expense.

The notional amount of foreign currency option contracts entered into for hedging purposes are not recognized as an asset or liability on the contract dates. The premiums paid or received for the call or put options are amortized to income on a straight-line basis over the term of the related contract.

Foreign-currency transactions

Foreign-currency transactions are recorded in New Taiwan dollars at the current rate of exchange in effect when the transaction occurs. Gains or losses derived from foreign currency transactions or monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are recognized in current operations. At year-end, foreign-currency assets and liabilities are revalued at the prevailing exchange rate with the resulting gain or loss recognized in current operations.

Translation of foreign-currency financial statements

ROC Financial Accounting Standards (FAS) No. 14, Accounting for Foreign-Currency Transactions, applies to foreign subsidiaries that use the local foreign currency as its functional currency. The financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are translated into New Taiwan dollars at the following exchange rates: assets and liabilities current rate on balance sheet date; shareholders equity historical rate; income and expenses weighted average rate during the year. The resulting translation adjustment is recorded as a separate component of shareholders equity.

3. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock and other relevant regulations from Securities and Futures Commission (SFC), the Company is required to reclassify its common stock held by subsidiaries from short/long-term investments to treasury stock. The reclassification is based on the carrying value of NT$2,115,695 thousand as recorded by the subsidiaries as of January 1, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 30 resulted in the decrease of long-term investments and the increase of treasury stock by NT$1,923,492 thousand as of December 31, 2002, and an increase in net income for the year ended December 31, 2002 by NT$25,909 thousand.

	$ 25,893,919

As of December 31, 2002, all of the US dollar loans above were guaranteed by TSMC. In addition, the property and equipment of WaferTech with carrying amount of approximately NT$29,053,508 thousand (US$836,000 thousand) is pledged for the secured loan. Under the unsecured loan, TSMC is required to maintain certain financial covenants which, if violated, could result in payment of this obligation becoming due prior to the originally scheduled maturity date. These financial covenants require TSMC to, among other things, maintain minimum levels of working capital, earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, and net worth. TSMC was in compliance with these financial covenants as of December 31, 2002. Properties of VIS with carrying value of NT$8,218,845 thousand have been pledged as collateral for the loans for purchases of equipment and facility and commercial paper.

The bonds (Note 14) and loan agreements of VIS require, among other things, the maintenance of certain financial ratios, including current ratio, debt ratio and net worth ratio. Among those specific ratios, VIS has failed to meet the net worth requirement as of December 31, 2002. The covenant violation can only be cured by raising additional capital or by approval by the banks. On January 8, 2003 VIS issued shares of capital stock for proceeds of NT$4,200,000 thousand to cure the covenant violation (Note 18).

As of December 31, 2002, future minimum principal payments under the Company's long-term bank loan arrangements are as follows:

Year	Amount
2003	$ 9,509,506
2004	1,156,000
2005	14,393,454

16. PENSION PLAN

TSMC and VIS have pension plans for all regular employees, which provide benefits based on length of service and average monthly salary for the six month period prior to retirement.

TSMC and VIS contribute an amount equal to 2% of salaries paid every month to Pension Funds (the Funds). The Funds are administered by pension fund monitoring committees (the Committees) and are deposited in the Committees' names in the Central Trust of China. The pension cost of VIS is accrued at an amount equal to 6% of salaries.

The changes in the Funds and accrued pension cost are summarized as follows:

Construction of Fab 6	2001 to 2004
VIS:
First expansion of manufacturing plant	2000 to 2003

h. The tax authorities have examined income tax returns of TSMC through 1999. However, TSMC is contesting the assessment by the tax authority for 1992, 1993, 1996 and 1997.

The tax authorities have examined income tax returns of VIS through 1999.

18. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

TSMC has issued 369,019 thousand American Depositary Shares (ADS) on the New York Stock Exchange as of December 31, 2002. The number of common shares represented by the ADSs is 1,845,097 thousand shares (one ADS represents five common shares).

Capital surplus can only be used to offset a deficit under the ROC Company Law. However, the components of capital surplus generated from donations (donated capital) and the excess of the issue price over the par value of capital stock (including the stock issued for new capital, mergers, and the purchase of treasury stock) can be transferred to capital as stock dividends.

TSMC's Articles of Incorporation provide that the following shall be appropriated from annual net income (less any deficit):

- a. 10% legal reserve;
- b. Special reserve in accordance with relevant laws or regulations;

- c. Remuneration to directors and supervisors and bonus to employees equal to 0.3% and at least 1% of the remainder, respectively. Individuals who receive bonus to employees may include employees of affiliated companies and are approved by the board of directors or a representative of the board of directors;
- d. Dividends to holders of preferred shares equal to a 3.5% annual rate, based on the period which the preferred shares have been outstanding;
- e. The appropriation of the remaining balance after the above shall be decided at the shareholders' meeting.

Dividends are distributed in cash, shares of common stock or a combination of cash and common stock. Distribution of profits is preferably made in the form of stock dividend. The total of cash dividends paid in any given year should not exceed 50% of total dividends distributed.

These appropriations of net income shall be approved by the shareholders in the following year and given effect in the financial statements of that year.

The bonus to employees and the remuneration to directors and supervisors appropriated from the earnings of 2001 were approved in the shareholders' meeting on May 7, 2002 as follows:

	Amounts	Shares (Thousand)
Bonus to employees in stock	$ 1,070,783	107,078
Remuneration to directors and supervisors in cash	133,848
	$ 1,204,631

The shares distributed as a bonus to employees represent 0.64% of TSMC's total outstanding common shares as of December 31, 2001.

The above appropriation of the earnings is consistent with the resolution of the meeting of board of directors dated on March 26, 2002. If the above distributable earnings were both paid in cash and charged against the income of 2001, the basic combined EPS for the year ended December 31, 2001 would decrease from NT$0.83 to NT$0.76.

As of January 16, 2003, the appropriation of the earnings of 2002 has not yet been resolved by the board of directors.

The above information associated with the appropriation of bonus to employees and remuneration to directors and supervisors is available at Market Observation System website.

The aforementioned appropriation for legal reserve shall be made until the reserve equals the aggregate par value of TSMC's outstanding capital stock. The reserve can only be used to offset a deficit; or distribute as a dividend when the balance is 50% of the aggregate par value of the outstanding capital stock of TSMC up to the half amount of the reserve balance.

A special reserve equivalent to the debit balance of any account shown in the shareholder's equity section of the balance sheets (except for the recorded costs of treasury stocks held by subsidiaries), other than the deficit, shall be made from unappropriated retained earnings pursuant to existing regulations promulgated by the Securities and Futures Commission. The special reserve is allowed to be appropriated when the debit balance of such accounts are reversed.

The gain on sales or disposal of property, plant and equipment generated prior to 2000, less the applicable income tax, was reclassified to capital surplus as of each year-end. A gain in the amount of NT$39,282 thousand, less applicable income tax, was recognized and transferred to the capital surplus at the end of 2001 prior to the amended regulations. To comply with the amended regulations, the aforementioned capital surplus was transferred to retained earnings upon the approval of the shareholders' meeting on May 7, 2002. The shareholders also approved the accumulated capital surplus of NT$127,236 thousand generated from gains prior to 2000 be transferred to retained earnings, after appropriating the required 10% legal reserve.

Under the Integrated Income Tax System that became effective on January 1, 1998, ROC resident shareholders are allowed a tax credit for the income tax paid by TSMC on earnings generated as of January 1, 1998. An Imputation Credit Account (ICA) is maintained by TSMC for such income tax and the tax credit allocated to each shareholder.

TSMC issued 1,300,000 thousand shares of unlisted Series A preferred stock to certain investors on November 29, 2000. The following are the rights of the preferred shareholders and the related terms and conditions:

Preferred shareholders

- a. Are entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends at an annual rate of 3.5%.
- b. Are not entitled to receive any common stock dividends (whether declared out of unappropriated earnings or capital surplus).
- c. Have priority over the holders of common shares to the assets of the Company available for distribution to shareholders upon liquidation or dissolution, however, the preemptive rights to the assets shall not exceed the issue value of the shares.
- d. Have voting rights similar to that of the holders of common shares.
- e. Have no right to convert their shares into common shares. The preferred shares are to be redeemed within thirty months from their issuance. The preferred shareholders have the aforementioned rights and the Company's related obligations remain the same until the preferred shares are redeemed by the Company.

On June 25, 2002, the SFC approved TSMC's Employee Stock Option Plan (the Plan I). Plan I provides qualified employees and non-employees with 100,000 thousand units of option rights with each unit representing one common share of stock. The option rights are valid for 10 years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of issuance. Under the terms of the plan, stock options are granted at an option price equals to the market price of TSMC on the TSE at the date of grant. At December 31, 2002, the maximum number of shares authorized to be granted by TSMC, TSMC-North America and WaferTech under this plan are 70,000 thousand, 16,000 thousand and 14,000 thousand option rights, respectively. The initial grant of options vests 50% two years after the grant date, 75% three years after the grant date and 100% four years after the grant date.

Information with respect to stock option rights activities under Plan I is as follows:

	Outstanding

In 1996, WaferTech adopted an Executive Incentive Plan, which was amended in 1997. Under the 1997 amendment, the Board of Directors approved the Senior Executive Incentive Plan and the Employee Incentive Plan (the Plan II) under which officers, key employees and non-employee directors may be granted option rights. Plan II provides 15,150 thousand option rights. While WaferTech may grant employees option rights that are exercisable at different times or within different periods, it has generally granted option rights which are exercisable on a cumulative basis in annual installments of 25% each on the first, second, third, and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant.

Information with respect to stock option rights activities under Plan II is as follows:

	          	          

Options granted will expire if not exercised at specified dates between May 2006 and June 2011.

In December 2000, WaferTech implemented a Stock Option Buyback Program ( Buyback ) with its employees. The Buyback program provides employees with the right to sell back all vested stock options and outstanding ownership interests granted under the program to WaferTech. The repurchase price for outstanding ownership interests is US$6. The repurchase price for vested stock options is US$6 less the exercise price of the option. As of December 31, 2002, the Company has repurchased 2,476 thousand outstanding ownership interests at a cost of US$15,466 thousand.

On February 20, 2001 and June 21, 2002, the SFC approved VIS's Employee Stock Option Plan ( 2001 Plan and 2002 Plan ). The 2001 Plan and 2002 Plan provide qualified employees with 16,000 thousand and 70,000 thousand units of option rights; with each unit representing ten and one common shares of stock, respectively. The option rights are valid for 10 years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of issuance. There were 78,239 thousand units of option rights granted as of December 31, 2002.

On January 8, 2003, VIS issued 600,000 thousand shares at a discounted price of NT$7 per share. As a result of the new capital stock issuance, the aggregate outstanding capital stock increased to 28,000,000 thousand shares with par value of NT$10 per share.

19. TREASURY STOCK (COMMON STOCK)

(Shares in Thousand)

Purpose of Purchase	Beginning			Ending
	Shares	Increase	Decrease	Shares
Year ended December 31, 2002
Reclassification of stocks held by subsidiaries from short/long-term investment to treasury stocks	39,270	3,818	1,087	42,001

On January 1, 2002, TSMC reclassified its capital stock held by its subsidiaries with book value of NT$2,115,695 thousand from short/long-term investments to treasury stock. Proceeds from sales of treasury stock for the year ended December 31, 2002 were NT$96,501 thousand. The book value and market value of such treasury stock was NT$1,923,492 thousand and NT$2,048,164 thousand, respectively. Effective from January 1, 2002, capital stock held by a subsidiary as an investment is recorded as treasury stock with the holder having the same rights as other common shareholders.

20. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Earnings per share (EPS) is computed as follows:

	Amounts (Numerator)		Share (Denominator) (Thousand)	EPS (Dollars)
	Income Before Income Tax	Combined Net Income		Income Before Income Tax	Combined Net Income
December 31, 2002
Income	$ 24,499,313	$ 21,610,291
Less preferred stock dividends	(455,000)	(455,000)
Basic earnings per share Income available to common shareholders	$ 24,044,313	$ 21,155,291	18,580,700	$ 1.29	$ 1.14
Diluted earnings per share Income available to common shareholders	$ 24,044,313	$ 21,155,291	18,580,700	$ 1.29	$ 1.14

The potential common shares from the employee stock option plan (see Note 17) are not included in the denominator of the diluted earning-per-share computation because such shares result in a non-dilutive per-share amount by using the treasury stock method under the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 24, Earning Per Share .

21. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company and its affiliates engaged in business transactions with the following related parties:

- a. Industrial Technology Research Institute (ITRI), the Chairman of TSMC and VIS is one of its directors
- b. Philips Electronics N.V., (Philips), a major shareholder of TSMC
- c. SSMC, an investee of TSMC
- d. VIS Micro, an investee of VIS s subsidiary (VIS Associates Inc.)
- e. Powerchip Semiconductor Corporation (PSC), VIS is one of its directors

- f. Walsin Advanced Electronics (WAE), VIS is one of its directors

- g. Megic Corporation (MC), an investee of VIS

The transactions with the aforementioned parties, in addition to those disclosed in other notes, are summarized as follows:

22. SIGNIFICANT LONG-TERM OPERATING LEASES

TSMC leases land from the Science-Based Industrial Park Administration where its Fab 2 through Fab 14 manufacturing facilities reside. These agreements expire on various dates from March 2008 to December 2020 and have annual rent payments aggregating NT$225,576 thousand. The agreements can be renewed upon their expiration.

TSMC-North America leases its office premises and certain equipment under non-cancellable operating agreements, which will expire in 2020. TSMC-Europe and TSMC-Japan entered into lease agreements for their office premises, which will expire in 2004. Current annual rent payments aggregate to NT$115,281 thousand.

VIS leases the sites of its manufacturing plant and parking lot from the Science-Based Industrial Park Administration under agreements which will expire in April 2010 and June 2015 and are renewable upon expiration. Annual rent payments aggregate to NT$23,812 thousand.

VIS also leases machinery and equipment from GE Capital Taiwan Ltd. under operating lease agreements which will expire in December 2003. Annual rent payments aggregate to NT$12,710 thousand (US$366 thousand).

Future remaining lease payments are as follows:

Year	Amount

23. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The commitments and contingencies of the Company and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002 are as follows:

- a. Under a Technical Cooperation Agreement with Philips, as amended on May 12, 1997, TSMC shall pay technical assistance fees as a percentage of net sales, as defined in the agreement, of certain products. The agreement shall remain in force up to July 8, 2007 and thereafter be automatically renewed for successive periods of three years. Under the amended agreement, the fee is subject to deduction by the amounts TSMC pays to any third party for settling any licensing/infringement issue after the first five-year period of the amended agreement, provided that the fee after reduction will not be below a certain percentage of the net selling price.
- b. Subject to certain equity ownership and notification requirements, Philips and its affiliates can avail themselves each year of up to 30% of TSMC's production capacity.
- c. Under a technical cooperation agreement with ITRI, TSMC shall reserve and allocate up to 35% of certain of its production capacity for use by the Ministry of Economic Affairs (MOEA) or any other party designated by the MOEA.
- d. Under several foundry agreements, TSMC shall allocate a portion of its production output for sale to certain major customers from whom guarantee deposits of US$39,810 thousand had been received as of December 31, 2002.
- e. Under a Shareholders Agreement entered into with Philips and EDB Investments Pte Ltd. on March 30, 1999, the parties formed a joint venture company named Systems on Silicon Manufacturing Company Pte Ltd. (SSMC) for the purpose of constructing an integrated circuit foundry in Singapore, and allow TSMC to invest in 32% of SSMC's capital. TSMC and Philips committed to buy a specific percentage of the production capacity of SSMC. If any party defaults on the agreement and the capacity utilization of SSMC falls below a specific percentage of its total capacity, the defaulting party is required to compensate SSMC for all related unavoidable costs.

- f. TSMC provides technical services to SSMC under a Technical Cooperation Agreement (the Agreement ) entered into on May 12, 1999. TSMC receives compensation for such services computed at a specific percentage of net selling prices of specific products sold by SSMC. The Agreement remains in force for ten years and is automatically renewed for successive periods of five years unless pre-terminated by either party under certain conditions.
- g. Beginning in 2001, TSMC entered into several license arrangements for certain semiconductor patents. The terms of the contracts range from five to ten years with payments to be paid in the form of royalties over the term of the related contracts. TSMC has recorded the related amounts as a liability and a deferred charge to be amortized to cost of sales on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the technology or the term of the contract.
- h. Under a Technology Transfer Agreement with National Semiconductor Corporation ( National ) entered into on June 27, 2000, TSMC shall receive payments for license of certain technology to National. The agreement will remain in force for ten years. After the initial expiration date, this agreement will be automatically renewed for successive periods of two years unless pre-terminated by either party under certain conditions. In January 2003, the agreement was amended such that National will discontinue making payments under the original terms and TSMC will discontinue transferring any additional technology. TSMC granted National the option to request additional technology transfers under the same terms and conditions of the original agreement through January 2008.
- i. VIS shall pay royalties under various patent and license agreements as follows:
  - 1) ITRI at a specific percentage of sales of certain products for five years starting from the commercial sale of certain products.
  - 2) Texas Instruments Incorporated at a specific percentage of net sales of certain products for ten years from January 1997.
  - 3) NEC Corporation at a specific amount in six installments from February 1999 to 2003.
  - 4) MITSUBISHI Corporation at a specific amount plus a specific percentage of net sales of certain products within five years from August 1999.
- j. In December 2000, TSMC-North America and WaferTech initiated stock appreciation right programs whereby the employees receive cash bonuses based on the appreciation of the quoted market price of the shares of stock of TSMC. This expense is recognized ratably over the vesting period and adjusted based on period fluctuations in the stock. At December 31, 2002, the exercise price of the stock appreciation right is higher than the market price of TSMC stock; therefore no compensation expense is recognized for the year ended December 31, 2002.
- k. WaferTech caused some contractors to incur additional labor and material costs outside the contracts. WaferTech recorded a reserve of US$3,000 thousand during 2002 for a litigation arising from a charge by certain contractors.

1. Unused letters of credit as of December 31, 2002 were NT$6,480 thousand, US$5,502 thousand, ¥51,000 thousand, Euro 520 thousand and S$85 thousand.

24. ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES

The following are the additional disclosures required by the SFC for TSMC and its affiliates:

For the year ended December 31, 2002, TSMC recognized premium income of NT$228,030 thousand and premium expenses of NT$647,543 thousand.

d) Cross currency swaps

The Company enters into currency swap contracts with banks to hedge exposure on foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations on various foreign currency transactions.

Outstanding currency swap contract as of December 31, 2002 is as follows:

Currency	Contract		Settlement Date
	Amount (Thousand)	Fair Value (Thousand)
US$	US$ 1,000	NT$ 206	Dec. 26 2002 Jan. 16, 2003

As of December 31, 2002, the prepayments from currency swap (included in other current liabilities account) aggregate to NT$97 thousand. The currency swap contract was used to hedge a US dollar accounts payable with a carrying value of NT$2,004 thousand.

e) Transaction risk

- i) Credit risk. The banks, which are the counter-parties to the foregoing derivative financial instruments, are reputable financial institutions. Management believes its exposures related to the potential default by those counter-parties are low.
- ii) Market price risk. All derivative financial instruments are intended as hedges for fluctuations in currency exchanges rates on the Company's foreign currency denominated receivables or payables, and interest rate fluctuations on its floating rate long-term loans. Gains or losses from forward exchange contracts are likely to be offset by gains or losses from receivables and payables. Interest rate risks are also managed as the expected interest expense on long-term loans is fixed. Thus, market prices are believed to be minimal.
- iii) Liquidity and cash flow requirements. The cash flow requirements on forward contracts are limited to the net differences between the current exchange rates and the contracted forward rates at the date of settlement. The cash flow requirements for interest rate swap contracts is limited to the amounts payable arising from the differences in the rates. In addition, options may not be exercised in the event the strike price is higher than the related market price at the exercise date. Management believes that the foregoing cash flow requirements are not material.

- a) Short-term financial instruments carrying values.
- b) Short-term investments market values.
- c) Long-term investments market value for traded companies and net equity value for non-traded companies.
- d) Refundable deposits, guarantee deposits and other long-term liabilities carrying values.
- e) Long-term bank loan Fair values of long-term bank loans are their carrying values as they use floating interest rate.

- f) Long-term liabilities based on forecasted cash flows discounted at interest rates. Bonds payable is discounted to present value. Fair values of other long-term liabilities are also their carrying values as they use floating interest rates.
- g) Derivative financial instruments based on bank quotations.

The fair values of non-financial instruments were not included in the fair values disclosed above. Accordingly, the sum of the fair values of the financial instruments listed above does not represent the fair value of the Company.

3) Investment in Mainland China:

Independent Auditors' Report

January 16, 2003

The Board of Directors and the Shareholders

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2002, and 2001, and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Regulations for Auditing of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants, and auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with the Guidelines for Securities Issuers' Financial Reporting and generally accepted accounting principles in the Republic of China.

As disclosed in Note 3 to the financial statements, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ( SFAS ) No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock on January 1, 2002. SFAS No. 30 requires a parent company to record stock held by its subsidiary as treasury stock. The adoption of SFAS No. 30 resulted in the decrease of long-term investments and simultaneous increase of the book value of treasury stock by NT$1,923,492 thousand as of December 31, 2002. Furthermore, net income increased by NT$25,909 thousand for the year ended December 31, 2002.

TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING COMPANY LTD. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Amounts in Thousand New Taiwan Dollars, Unless Specified Otherwise)

1. GENERAL

Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Ltd. (TSMC), a Republic of China corporation, was incorporated as a venture among the government of the ROC, acting through the Development Fund of the Executive Yuan; Philips Electronics N.V. and certain of its affiliates (Philips); and certain other private investors. In September 1994, its shares were listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange. On October 8, 1997, TSMC listed its shares of stock on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares.

TSMC is engaged mainly in the manufacturing, selling, packaging, testing and designing of integrated circuits and other semiconductor devices, and the manufacturing of masks.

TSMC has six direct wholly-owned subsidiaries, namely, TSMC North America (TSMC-North America), Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company Europe B.V (TSMC-Europe), TSMC Japan K. K. (TSMC-Japan), TSMC International Investment Ltd. (TSMC International), TSMC Partners Ltd. (TSMC Partners), Ya Xin Technology, Inc. (Ya Xin), a 99.5% owned subsidiary, Emerging Alliance Fund, LP (Emerging Alliance) and two 36% owned affiliates Chi Cherng Investment Co., Ltd. (Chi Cherng, which is 36% owned by TSMC and 64% owned by Hsin Ruey Investment Co., Ltd.) and Hsin Ruey Investment Co., Ltd. (Hsin Ruey, which is 36% owned by TSMC and 64% owned by Chi Cherng). TSMC International has two wholly-owned subsidiaries TSMC Development, Inc. (TSMC Development), TSMC Technology, Inc. (TSMC Technology), and two 97%-owned subsidiaries InveStar Semiconductor Development Fund, Inc. (InveStar) and InveStar Semiconductor Development Fund, Inc. (II) LDC (InveStar II). TSMC Development has a 99.7% owned subsidiary, WaferTech, LLC (WaferTech).

TSMC established Ya Xin in November 2002 and subsequently signed a merger agreement with Global UniChip Corp. (Global UniChip) in December 2002. The merger was effective on January 4, 2003 and Global UniChip is the surviving company. TSMC holds 52% of Global UniChips shares after the completion of the merger.

The following diagram presents information regarding the relationship and ownership percentages among TSMC and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002:

TSMC-North America is engaged in the sales and marketing of integrated circuits and semiconductor devices. TSMC-Europe, TSMC-Japan, TSMC Development and TSMC Technology are engaged mainly in marketing and engineering support activities. TSMC Partners, Chi Cherng and Hsin Ruey are engaged in investments. Ya Xin is engaged in the design of integrated circuits. TSMC International is engaged in providing investment in companies involved in design, manufacture, and other related business in semiconductor industries. Emerging Alliance, InveStar and InveStar II are engaged in investing in new start-up companies in the fields of high-technology. WaferTech is engaged in the manufacturing, selling, testing and designing of integrated circuits and other semiconductor devices.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Consolidation

TSMC consolidates the accounts of all majority (directly and indirectly) owned subsidiaries. The consolidated financial statements include, as of and for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the accounts of TSMC, TSMC-North America, TSMC-Europe, TSMC-Japan, TSMC Partners, Emerging Alliance, Chi Cherng, Hsin Ruey, Ya Xin (a newly established entity in 2002) and TSMC International and its subsidiaries, InveStar, InveStar II, TSMC Development (including WaferTech) and TSMC Technology. TSMC and the foregoing subsidiaries are hereinafter referred to collectively as the Company. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in these consolidated financial statements.

TSMC's investees, Hsin Ruey, Chi Hsin Investment Co., Ltd. (Chi Hsin) and Kung Cherng Investment Co., Ltd. (Kung Cherng) were merged on October 30, 2002, with Hsin Ruey as the surviving company. In addition, TSMC's investees, Chi Cherng, Cherng Huei Investment Co., Ltd. (Cherng Huei) and Po Cherng Investment Co., Ltd. (Po Cherng) were merged on October 30, 2002 with Chi Cherng as the surviving company. Chi Hsin, Kung Cherng, Cherng Huei and Po Cherng were consolidated entities as of and for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Minority interests in Emerging Alliance (0.5%), InveStar (3%), InveStar II (3%) and WaferTech (0.3% in 2002 and 1% in 2001) are presented separately in the consolidated financial statements.

Cash and cash equivalents

Government bonds acquired under agreements that provide for their repurchase within less than three months from date of purchase are classified as cash equivalents.

Short-term investments

Short-term investments are carried at the lower of cost or market value. The costs of investments sold are determined by the specific identification method.

Allowance for doubtful receivables

Allowances for doubtful receivables are provided based on a review of the collectibility of accounts receivables.

Sales and sales returns and allowances

Sales are recognized when titles of products and risks of ownerships are transferred to customers, primarily upon shipment. Allowance and related provisions for sales returns and others are estimated based on historical experience. Such provisions are deducted from sales in the year the products are sold and the estimated related costs are deducted from cost of sales.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market value. Inventories are recorded at standard cost and adjusted to approximate weighted-average cost at the end of each period. Market value represents net realizable value for finished goods and work in process, and replacement value for raw materials, supplies and spare parts.

Long-term investments

Investments in shares of stock of companies wherein the Company exercises significant influence on the operating and financial policy decisions are accounted for using the equity method. The Company's proportionate share in the net income or net loss of investee companies are recognized as components of the Investment income/loss recognized by equity method net account. The Company adopted Statements of Financial Accounting Standards ( SFAS ) No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock on January 1, 2002. SFAS No. 30 requires a parent company to record stock held by its subsidiary as treasury stock. The recorded value of treasury stock is based on the carrying values of the short/long-term investments on the subsidiaries' books as of January 1, 2002.

When the Company subscribes to additional investee shares at a percentage different from its existing equity interest, the resulting carrying amount of the investment in equity investee differs from the amount of Company's proportionate share in the investee's net equity. The Company records such difference as an adjustment to capital surplus as well as the long-term investments' accounts. In the event an investee has an accumulated deficit, it will record an offset to its capital surplus, excluding the reserve for asset revaluation, through retained earnings. The Company will also record a corresponding entry equivalent to its proportionate share of the investee capital surplus, excluding the reserve for asset revaluation, that was generated subsequent to any acquisition of equity interest in the investee.

Other stock investments are accounted for using the cost method. Cash dividends are recognized as income in the year received but are accounted for as reduction in the carrying values of the long-term investments if the dividends are received in the same year that the related investments are acquired. Stock dividends are recognized neither as investment income nor increase of long-term investment but recorded only as an increase in the number of shares held. An allowance is recognized for any decline in the market value of investments using quoted market prices with the corresponding amount debited to shareholders' equity. A reversal of the allowance will result from a subsequent recovery of the market value. The carrying values of investments with no quoted market price are reduced to reflect an other than temporary decline in their values with the related impairment loss charged to income.

Investments in foreign mutual funds are stated at the lower of cost or net asset value (NAV). An allowance is recognized when the cost of the funds are lower than their net asset values, with the corresponding amount debited to shareholders' equity. A reversal of the allowance will result from a subsequent recovery of the net asset value.

Investment in convertible notes and stock purchase warrants are carried at cost.

The costs of investments sold are determined using the weighted-average method.

If an investee company has an unrealized loss on a long-term investment evaluated using the lower-of-cost-or-market method, the Company recognizes a corresponding unrealized loss in proportion to its equity interest and records the amount as a component of its own shareholders' equity.

Gain or loss on transactions with investee companies wherein the Company owned at least 20% of the outstanding common stock but less than a controlling interest are deferred in proportion to the ownership percentage until realized through a transaction with a third party. The entire amount of the gains or losses on sales to majority-owned subsidiaries are deferred until such gains or losses are realized through the subsequent sale of the related products to third parties. Gains or losses from sales by investee companies to the Company are deferred in proportion to the ownership percentage until realized through transactions with third parties.

Property, plant and equipment, assets leased to others and idle assets

Property, plant and equipment and assets leased to others are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Idle assets are stated at the lower of book value or net realized value. Significant additions, renewals, betterments and interest expense incurred during the construction period are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are expensed in the period incurred. Property, plant and equipment covered by agreements qualifying as capital leases are carried at the lower of the present value of future minimum rent payments, or the market value of the property at the inception date of the lease. The lessee's periodic rental payment includes the purchase price of the leased property and the interest expense.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over these estimated service lives, which range as follows: Land improvements - 20 years; buildings - 10 to 20 years; machinery and equipment - 5 years; and office equipment - 3 to 7 years.

Upon sale or disposal of property, plant and equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is credited or charged to income in the period of disposal.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the consideration paid for acquisitions over the fair market value of identifiable net assets acquired and the difference between the investment cost and the Company's proportionate share in the net assets of acquired investee companies. Goodwill is amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated life of 10 years.

Deferred charges

Deferred charges consist of software and system design costs, technology know-how, bond issuance and financing costs, and technology license fees. The amounts are amortized as follows: Software and system design costs 3 years, technology know-how 5 years; bond issuance and financing costs the term of the bonds or the related line of credit; technology license fee the shorter of the estimated life of the technology or the term of the technology transfer contract.

Pension costs

Net periodic pension costs are recorded on the basis of actuarial calculations. Unrecognized net transition obligation and unrecognized net gain/loss are amortized over 25 years.

Deferred gain on sales and leaseback

The gain on the sale of property that is simultaneously leased back is deferred by the Company. This deferred gain on sales and leaseback transactions is amortized as follows: (a) operating leases adjustment of rental expenses over the term of the leases and (b) capital leases adjustment of depreciation expenses over the estimated useful life of the property or the term of the lease; whichever is shorter.

Casualty loss

Casualty loss consists of the accrued loss caused by the earthquake on March 31, 2002 less the estimated insurance compensation.

Income tax

The Company uses an inter-period tax allocation method for income tax. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the tax effects of temporary differences, unused tax credits, and operating loss carry forwards. Valuation allowances are provided to the extent, if any, that it is more likely than not that deferred income tax assets will not be realized. A deferred tax asset or liability is, according to the classification of its related asset or liability, classified as current or non-current. However, if a deferred tax asset or liability does not relate to an asset or liability in the financial statements, then it is classified as current or non-current based on the expected length of time before it is realized.

Any tax credit arising from the purchase of machinery, equipment and technology, research and development expenditures, personnel training, investments in important technology-based enterprise are recognized using the current method.

Adjustments of prior years tax liabilities are added to or deducted from the current year's tax provision.

As of January 1, 1998, income taxes on unappropriated earnings (excluding the foreign consolidated entities) of 10% are expensed in the year of shareholder approval which is usually the year subsequent to the year incurred.

Derivative financial instruments

The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts to manage currency exposures in cash flow and in foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities. The differences in the New Taiwan dollar amounts translated using the spot rate and the amounts translated using the contracted forward rates are amortized over the terms of the forward contracts using the straight-line method. At the balance sheet dates, the receivables or payables arising from forward contracts are restated using the prevailing spot rate at the balance sheet date and the resulting differences are recognized in charged to income. Also, the receivables and payables related to the forward contract are netted with the resulting amount presented as either an asset or a liability.

The Company enters into interest rate swap transactions to manage exposures from changes in interest rates on existing liabilities. These transactions are accounted for on an accrual basis, in which the cash settlement receivable or payable is recorded as an adjustment to interest income or expense.

The notional amount of foreign currency option contracts entered into for hedging purposes are not recognized as an asset or liability on the contract dates. The premiums paid or received for the call or put options are amortized to income on a straight-line basis over the term of the related contract.

Foreign-currency transactions

Foreign-currency transactions are recorded in New Taiwan dollars at the current rate of exchange in effect when the transaction occurs. Gains or losses derived from foreign currency transactions or monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are recognized in current operations. At year-end, foreign-currency assets and liabilities are revalued at the prevailing exchange rate with the resulting gain or loss recognized in current operations.

Translation of foreign-currency financial statements

ROC Financial Accounting Standards (FAS) No. 14, Accounting for Foreign-Currency Transactions, applies to foreign subsidiaries that use the local foreign currency as its functional currency. The financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are translated into New Taiwan dollars at the following exchange rates: assets and liabilities current rate on balance sheet date; shareholders equity historical rate; income and expenses weighted average rate during the year. The resulting translation adjustment is recorded as a separate component of shareholders equity.

3. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 30, Accounting for Treasury Stock and other relevant regulations from Securities and Futures Commission (SFC), the Company is required to reclassify its common stock held by subsidiaries from short/long-term investments to treasury stock. The reclassification is based on the carrying value of NT$2,115,695 thousand as recorded by the subsidiaries as of January 1, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 30 resulted in the decrease of long-term investments and the increase of treasury stock by NT$1,923,492 thousand as of December 31, 2002, and an increase in net income for the year ended December 31, 2002 by NT$25,909 thousand.

15. PENSION PLAN

TSMC has pension plans for all regular employees that provide benefits based on length of service and average monthly salary for the six month period prior to retirement.

TSMC contributes an amount equal to 2% of salaries paid every month to a Pension Fund (the Fund). The Fund is administered by a pension fund monitoring committee (the Committee) and is deposited in the Committee's name in the Central Trust of China.

The changes in the Fund and accrued pension costs are summarized as follows:

a. Components of pension cost

	$ 9,773,226	$ 16,245,828

The effective tax rate used in determining TSMC's deferred tax asset as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 was 25%; the effective tax rates for the subsidiaries are 34% to 41% as of December 31, 2002 and 2001.

d. Integrated income tax information:

The balances of the imputation credit account (ICA) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 were NT$6,650 thousand and NT$9,365 thousand, respectively.

The expected and actual creditable ratio for 2002 and 2001 was 0.03% and 0.04%, respectively.

The imputation credit allocated to each shareholder shall be based on the balance in the ICA on the date of distribution of dividends; thus the expected creditable ratio for 2002 may be adjusted according to the difference between the expected and actual imputation credit allowed under the regulation.

e. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the unappropriated retained earnings generated up to December 31, 1997, was NT$0 and NT$4,827 thousand.

f. As of December 31, 2002, TSMC's investment tax credits consisted of the following:

g. The sales from the following expansion and construction of TSMC's manufacturing plants is exempt from income tax:

	Tax-Exemption Period
Expansion of Fab 1 and Fab 2 modules A and B, Fab 3 and Fab 4, and construction of Fab 5	1999 to 2002
Construction of Fab 6	2001 to 2004

h. The tax authorities have examined income tax returns of the Company through 1999. However, the Company is contesting the assessment by the tax authority for 1992, 1993, 1996 and 1997.

17. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

TSMC has issued 369,019 thousand American Depositary Shares (ADS) on the New York Stock Exchange as of December 31, 2002. The number of common shares represented by the ADSs is 1,845,097 thousand shares (one ADS represents five common shares).

Capital surplus can only be used to offset a deficit under the ROC Company Law. However, the components of capital surplus generated from donations (donated capital) and the excess of the issue price over the par value of capital stock (including the stock issued for new capital, mergers, and the purchase of treasury stock) can be transferred to capital as stock dividends.

TSMC's Articles of Incorporation provide that the following shall be appropriated from annual net income (less any deficit):

- a. 10% legal reserve;
- b. Special reserve in accordance with relevant laws or regulations;
- c. Remuneration to directors and supervisors and bonus to employees equal to 0.3% and at least 1% of the remainder, respectively. Individuals who receive bonus to employees may include employees of affiliated companies and are approved by the board of directors or a representative of the board of directors;
- d. Dividends to holders of preferred shares equal to a 3.5% annual rate, based on the period which the preferred shares have been outstanding;
- e. The appropriation of the remaining balance after the above shall be decided at the shareholders' meeting.

Dividends are distributed in cash, shares of common stock or a combination of cash and common stock. Distribution of profits is preferably made in the form of stock dividend. The total of cash dividends paid in any given year should not exceed 50% of total dividends distributed.

These appropriations of net income shall be approved by the shareholders in the following year and given effect in the financial statements of that year.

The bonus to employees and the remuneration to directors and supervisors appropriated from the earnings of 2001 were approved in the shareholders' meeting on May 7, 2002 as follows:

	Amounts	Shares (Thousand)
Bonus to employees in stock	$ 1,070,783	107,078
Remuneration to directors and supervisors in cash	133,848
	$ 1,204,631

The shares distributed as a bonus to employees represent 0.64% of TSMC's total outstanding common shares as of December 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING CO LTD - Form 6-K

The above appropriation of the earnings is consistent with the resolution of the meeting of board of directors dated on March 26, 2002. If the above distributable earnings were both paid in cash and charged against the income of 2001, the consolidated basic EPS for the year ended December 31, 2001 would decrease from NT$0.83 to NT$0.76.

As of January 16, 2003, the appropriation of the earnings of 2002 has not yet been resolved by the board of directors.

The above information associated with the appropriation of bonus to employees and remuneration to directors and supervisors is available at Market Observation System website.

The aforementioned appropriation for legal reserve shall be made until the reserve equals the aggregate par value of TSMC's outstanding capital stock. The reserve can only be used to offset a deficit; or distribute as a dividend when the balance is 50% of the aggregate par value of the outstanding capital stock of TSMC up to the half amount of the reserve balance.

A special reserve equivalent to the debit balance of any account shown in the shareholder's equity section of the balance sheets (except for the recorded costs of treasury stocks held by subsidiaries), other than the deficit, shall be made from unappropriated retained earnings pursuant to existing regulations promulgated by the Securities and Futures Commission. The special reserve is allowed to be appropriated when the debit balance of such accounts are reversed.

The gain on sales or disposal of property, plant and equipment generated prior to 2000, less the applicable income tax, was reclassified to capital surplus as of each year-end. A gain in the amount of NT$39,282 thousand, less applicable income tax, was recognized and transferred to the capital surplus at the end of 2001 prior to the amended regulations. To comply with the amended regulations, the aforementioned capital surplus was transferred to retained earnings upon the approval of the shareholders' meeting on May 7, 2002. The shareholders also approved the accumulated capital surplus of NT$127,236 thousand generated from gains prior to 2000 be transferred to retained earnings, after appropriating the required 10% legal reserve.

Under the Integrated Income Tax System that became effective on January 1, 1998, ROC resident shareholders are allowed a tax credit for the income tax paid by TSMC on earnings generated as of January 1, 1998. An Imputation Credit Account (ICA) is maintained by TSMC for such income tax and the tax credit allocated to each shareholder.

TSMC issued 1,300,000 thousand shares of unlisted Series A preferred stock to certain investors on November 29, 2000. The following are the rights of the preferred shareholders and the related terms and conditions:

Preferred shareholders

- a. are entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends at an annual rate of 3.5%.
- b. are not entitled to receive any common stock dividends (whether declared out of unappropriated earnings or capital surplus).
- c. have priority over the holders of common shares to the assets of the Company available for distribution to shareholders upon liquidation or dissolution, however, the preemptive rights to the assets shall not exceed the issue value of the shares.
- d. have voting rights similar to that of the holders of common shares.

- e. have no right to convert their shares into common shares. The preferred shares are to be redeemed within thirty months from their issuance. The preferred shareholders have the aforementioned rights and the Company's related obligations remain the same until the preferred shares are redeemed by the Company.

On June 25, 2002, the SFC approved TSMC's Employee Stock Option Plan (the "Plan I"). Plan I provides qualified employees and non-employees with 100,000 thousand units of option rights with each unit representing one common share of stock. The option rights are valid for 10 years and exercisable at certain percentages subsequent to the second anniversary of issuance. Under the terms of the plan, stock options are granted at an exercise price equal to the closing price of TSMC's common shares listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange at the date of grant. At December 31, 2002, the maximum number of shares authorized to be granted by TSMC, TSMC North America and WaferTech under this plan are 70,000 thousand, 16,000 thousand and 14,000 thousand option rights, respectively. The initial grant of options will be vested 50% two years after the grant date, 75% three years after the grant date and 100% four years after the grant date.

Information with respect to stock option rights activities under Plan I is as follows:

	Outstanding Option Rights
	Option Rights Available For Grant	Number of Option Rights	Weighted Average Exercise Price (NT$)
Option rights authorized	100,000
Options granted	(19,726)	19,726	53
Options exercised
Options cancelled	357	(357)	53
Balance, December 31, 2002	80,631	19,369

In 1996, WaferTech adopted an Executive Incentive Plan, which was amended in 1997. Under the 1997 amendment, the Board of Directors approved the Senior Executive Incentive Plan and the Employee Incentive Plan (the "Plan II") under which officers, key employees and non-employee directors may be granted option rights. Plan II provides 15,150 thousand option rights. While WaferTech may grant employees option rights that are exercisable at different times or within different periods, it has generally granted option rights which are exercisable on a cumulative basis in annual installments of 25% each on the first, second, third, and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant.

Information with respect to stock option rights activities under Plan II is as follows:

	Option Rights Available For Grant	Outstanding
		Option Rights
		Number of	Exercise
		Option Rights	Price (US$)
Balance, January 1, 2001	3,782	6,837	1.23

Options cancelled	826	(826)	1.27
Balance, December 31, 2001	4,608	3,062	1.43
Options granted
Options exercised		(1,260)	1.22
Options cancelled	216	(216)	1.93
Balance, December 31, 2002	4,824	1,586

Options granted will expire if not exercised at specified dates between May 2006 and June 2011.

In December 2000, WaferTech implemented a Stock Option Buyback Program ( Buyback ) with its employees. The Buyback program provides employees with the right to sell back all vested stock options and outstanding ownership interests granted under the program to WaferTech. The repurchase price for outstanding ownership interests is US$6. The repurchase price for vested stock options is US$6 less the exercise price of the option. As of December 31, 2002, the Company has repurchased 2,476 thousand outstanding ownership interests at a cost of US$15,466 thousand.

Year ended December 31, 2002
Reclassification of stocks held by subsidiaries from short/long-term investment to treasury stock	39,270	3,818	1,087	42,001

Edgar Filing: TAIWAN SEMICONDUCTOR MANUFACTURING CO LTD - Form 6-K

On January 1, 2002, TSMC reclassified its capital stock held by its subsidiaries with book value of NT$2,115,695 thousand from short/long-term investments to treasury stock. Proceeds from sales of treasury stock for the year ended December 31, 2002 were NT$96,501 thousand. The book value and market value of such treasury stock was NT$1,923,492 thousand and NT$2,048,164 thousand, respectively. Effective from January 1, 2002, capital stock held by a subsidiary as an investment is recorded as treasury stock with the holder having the same rights as other common shareholders.

19. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Earnings per share (EPS) is computed as follows:

	Amounts (Numerator)		Income Share (Denominator) (Thousand)	EPS (Dollars)
	Income Before Income Tax	Consolidated Net Income		Before Income Tax	Consolidated Net Income
Year ended December 31, 2002
Income	$ 27,222,148	$ 21,610,291
Less preferred stock dividends	(455,000)	(455,000)
Basic earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 26,767,148	$ 21,155,291	18,580,700	$ 1.44	$ 1.14
Diluted earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 26,767,148	$ 21,155,291	18,580,700	$ 1.44	$ 1.14
Year ended December 31, 2001
Income	$ 10,786,505	$ 14,483,174
Less preferred stock dividends	(455,000)	(455,000)
Basic earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 10,331,505	$ 14,028,174	18,622,887	$ 0.55	$ 0.75
Diluted earnings per share
Income available to common shareholders	$ 10,331,505	$ 14,028,174	18,622,887	$ 0.55	$ 0.75

The potential common shares from the employee stock option plan (see Note 17) are not included in the denominator of the diluted earning-per-share computation as such shares result in a non-dilutive per-share amount using the treasury stock method under the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 24, Earning Per Share .

The average number of shares outstanding for EPS calculation has been adjusted retroactively for issuance of stock dividends and stock bonuses. The retroactive adjustment caused the basic EPS before income tax and after income tax for the year ended of December 31, 2001 to decrease from NT$0.61 and NT$0.83 to NT$0.55 and NT$0.75, respectively.

20. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

21. SIGNIFICANT LONG-TERM OPERATING LEASES

TSMC leases land from the Science-Based Industrial Park Administration where its Fab 2 through Fab 14 manufacturing facilities reside. These agreements expire on various dates from March 2008 to December 2020 and have annual rent payments aggregating NT$225,576 thousand. The agreements can be renewed upon their expiration.

TSMC-North America leases its office premises and certain equipment under non-cancellable operating agreements, which will expire in 2020. TSMC-Europe and TSMC-Japan entered into lease agreements for their office premises, which will expire in 2004. Current annual rent payments aggregate to NT$115,281 thousand.

Future remaining lease payments are as follows:

Year	Amount
2003	$ 340,857
2004	343,886
2005	339,821
2006	339,779
2007	336,857
2008 and thereafter	2,073,229
	$ 3,774,429

22. SIGNIFICANT COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The significant commitments and contingencies of the Company and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2002 are as follows:

- a. Under a Technical Cooperation Agreement with Philips, as amended on May 12, 1997, TSMC shall pay technical assistance fees as a percentage of net sales, as defined in the agreement, of certain products. The agreement shall remain in force up to July 8, 2007 and thereafter be automatically renewed for successive periods of three years. Under the amended agreement, the fee is subject to deduction by the amounts TSMC pays to any third party for settling any licensing/infringement issue after the first five-year period of the amended agreement, provided that the fee after reduction will not be below a certain percentage of the net selling price.
- b. Subject to certain equity ownership and notification requirements, Philips and its affiliates can avail themselves each year of up to 30% of TSMC's production capacity.
- c. Under a technical cooperation agreement with ITRI, TSMC shall reserve and allocate up to 35% of certain of its production capacity for use by the Ministry of Economic Affairs (MOEA) or any other party designated by the MOEA.
- d. Under several foundry agreements, TSMC shall allocate a portion of its production output for sale to certain major customers from whom guarantee deposits of US$39,810 thousand had been received as of December 31, 2002.
- e. Under a Shareholders Agreement entered into with Philips and EDB Investments Pte Ltd. on March 30, 1999, the parties formed a joint venture company named Systems on Silicon Manufacturing Company Pte Ltd. (SSMC) for the purpose of constructing an integrated circuit foundry in Singapore, and allow TSMC to invest in 32% of SSMC's capital. TSMC and Philips committed to buy a specific percentage of the production capacity of SSMC. If any party defaults on the agreement and the capacity utilization of SSMC falls below a specific percentage of its total capacity, the defaulting party is required to compensate SSMC for all related unavoidable costs.
- f. TSMC provides technical services to SSMC under a Technical Cooperation Agreement (the Agreement) entered into on May 12, 1999. TSMC receives compensation for such services computed at a specific percentage of net selling prices of specific products sold by SSMC. The Agreement remains in force for ten years and is automatically renewed for successive periods of five years unless pre-terminated by either party under certain conditions.
- g. Beginning in 2001, TSMC entered into several license arrangements for certain semiconductor patents. The terms of the contracts range from five to ten years with payments to be paid in the form of royalties over the term of the related contracts. TSMC has recorded the related amounts as a liability and a deferred charge to be amortized to cost of sales on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the technology or the term of the contract.

- h. Under a Technology Transfer Agreement with National Semiconductor Corporation ( National ) entered into on June 27, 2000, TSMC shall receive payments for license of certain technology to National. The agreement will remain in force for ten years. After the initial expiration date, this agreement will be automatically renewed for successive periods of two years unless pre-terminated by either party under certain conditions. In January 2003, the agreement was amended such that National will discontinue making payments under the original terms and TSMC will discontinue transferring any additional technology. TSMC granted National the option to request additional technology transfers under the same terms and conditions of the original agreement through January 2008.
- i. TSMC entered into a Manufacturing Agreement with VIS. VIS agrees to reserve certain production capacity for TSMC to manufacture certain logic devices or other technologies required by TSMC's customers at selling prices as agreed by the parties. TSMC paid NT$1,200,000 thousand to VIS as a security bond. VIS shall return portions of the bond without any interest to TSMC upon the purchase of wafers by TSMC. The contract will remain in force for five years.
- j. In December 2000, TSMC North America and WaferTech initiated stock appreciation right programs whereby the employees receive cash bonuses based on the appreciation of the quoted market price of the shares of stock of TSMC. At December 31, 2002, the exercise price of the stock appreciation right was higher than the market price of TSMC stock, therefore no compensation expense is recognized for the year ended December 31, 2002.
- k. WaferTech caused some contractors to incur additional labor and material costs outside the contracts. WaferTech recorded a reserve of US$3,000 thousand during 2002 for a litigation arising from a charge by certain contractors.
- l. Unused letters of credit as of December 31, 2002 were NT$6,480 thousand, US$1,509 thousand, ¥51,000 thousand, Euro 520 thousand and S$85 thousand.

Buy	JPY	¥	4,274,850	NT$	1,249,159	Jan. 6, 2003	Jan 15, 2003	NT$	1,250,394

As of December 31, 2002, receivables from forward exchange contracts (included in other current assets account) aggregate to NT$199,609 thousand, and payables from forward exchange contracts (included in other current liabilities account) aggregate to NT$17,538 thousand. The net exchange gain for the year ended December 31, 2002 was NT$1,522,383 thousand.

The net assets and liabilities hedged by the above forward exchange contracts are as follows:

	Amount
	(Thousand)
Accounts receivable	US$487,905
Accounts payable	JP¥4,287,733
Accounts payable	EUR 49,026

b) Interest rate swaps

The Company entered into interest rate swap contracts to hedge exposures from rising interest rates on its floating rate long-term loans. Interest expense on these transactions for the year ended December 31, 2002 were NT$261,107 thousand. Outstanding contracts as of December 31, 2002 were as follows:

Contract Date	Period		Amount
			(Thousand)
April 28, 1998	May 21, 1998	May 21, 2003	NT$	2,000,000
April 29, 1998	May 21, 1998	May 21, 2003	NT$	1,000,000
June 26, 1998	June 26, 1998	June 26, 2003	NT$	1,000,000
June 26, 1998	July 6, 1998	July 6, 2003	NT$	1,000,000
July 1, 1999	July 1, 1999	June 28, 2004	US$	11,429

c) Option contracts

The Company entered into foreign currency option contracts to hedge risks of exchange rate fluctuations arising from its anticipated U.S. dollar cash receipts on export sales and its European and Yen currency obligations for purchases of machinery and equipment.

Outstanding option contracts as of December 31, 2002 were as follows:

Type	Contract	Currency	Contract		Strike Price	Maturity
			Amount (Thousand)	Carrying Value
European	Call option written	USD	$ 230,000	$	32.78 33.22	Jan. 9, 2003
					(US$/NT$)	Feb. 25, 2003
European	Call option written	USD	$ 10,000		119.2	Feb. 30, 2003
					(US$/JPY)	Feb. 27, 2003
European	Put option written	EUR	10,000		1.017	Jan. 30, 2003
					(US$/EUR)	Feb. 27, 2003

For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company recognized premium income of NT$ 228,030 thousand and premium expense of NT$647,543 thousand.

d) Transaction risk

- i) Credit risk. The banks, which are the counter-parties to the foregoing derivative financial instruments, are reputable financial institutions. Management believes its exposures related to the potential default by those counter-parties are low.

- ii) Market price risk. All derivative financial instruments are intended as hedges for fluctuations in currency exchange rates on the Company's foreign currency denominated receivables or payables and interest rate fluctuations on its floating rate long-term loans. Gains or losses from forward exchange contracts are likely to be offset by gains or losses from the hedged receivables and payables. Interest rate risks are also controlled as the expected cost of capital is fixed. Thus, market price risks are believed to be minimal.

- iii) Liquidity and cash flow requirements. The cash flow requirements on forward contracts are limited to the net differences between the current exchange rates and the contracted forward rates at the date of settlement. The cash flow requirements for interest rate swap contracts is limited to the amounts payable arising from the differences in the rates. In addition, options may not be exercised in the event the strike price is higher than the related market price at the exercise date. Management believes that the foregoing cash flow requirements are not material.

- b) Short-term investments market values.
- c) Long-term investments market value for traded companies and net equity value for non-traded companies.
- d) Refundable deposits, guarantee deposits and other long-term liabilities carrying values.

- e) Long-term bank loan fair values of long-term bank loans are their carrying values as they use floating interest rate.

- f) Long-term liabilities based on forecasted cash flows discounted at interest rates. Bonds payable is discounted to present value. Fair values of other long-term liabilities are also their carrying values as they use floating interest rate.
- g) Derivative financial instruments based on bank quotations.

The fair values of non-financial instruments were not included in the fair values disclosed above. Accordingly, the sum of the fair values of the financial instruments listed above does not represent the fair value of the Company and its subsidiaries as a whole.

- 3) Investment in Mainland China

TSMC filed an investment project with the Investment Commission of MOEA to establish a foundry in mainland China. As of January 16, 2003, the foregoing project has not been approved by the authority.
