Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 23, 2015, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of StarTek, Inc. (the “Company”) approved certain amendments to the employment agreements of certain executive officers of the Company. In connection with the recent hire of a new chief financial officer, the Committee reviewed the terms of executive officer employment agreements in light of market trends and determined to amend certain of the severance terms of the employment agreements with Chad Carlson, the Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Rod Leach, the Company’s Senior Vice President and General Manager, Healthcare & Emerging Services and Peter Martino, the Company’s Senior Vice President and General Manager, Customer Support Services. The revised terms provide each executive with a lump sum payment equal to twelve months (twenty-four months in the case of the CEO) of the executive’s then-current annual base salary and certain health benefits in the event the executive’s employment with the Company is terminated without cause or for good reason upon, or within two years after, the consummation of a change of control. The health benefits provide that if the executive elects continuation of health insurance pursuant to COBRA, the Company will reimburse the executive for a portion of his COBRA premiums that is equal to the Company’s monthly contribution toward his health benefit premiums as of the date of termination for a period of twelve months (eighteen months in the case of the CEO). “Cause,” “good reason” and “change of control” are defined in the employment agreements.
