Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 1, 2016, EPR Properties (the "Company") entered into a Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of August 1, 2016 (the "Note Purchase Agreement"), by and among the Company and certain institutional purchasers (the "Purchasers") of the Company's to-be-issued 4.35% Series A Guaranteed Senior Notes due August 22, 2024 (the "Series A Notes") and 4.56% Series B Guaranteed Senior Notes due August 22, 2026 (the "Series B Notes" and, together with the Series A Notes, the "Notes"). The Note Purchase Agreement provides that the Company will issue and sell to the Purchasers in a private placement exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (i) $148 million in aggregate principal amount of the Series A Notes on August 22, 2016, and (ii) $192 million in aggregate principal amount of the Series B Notes on August 22, 2016.

The Series A Notes will bear interest at the rate of 4.35% per annum from the date of issuance, payable semi-annually on February 22 and August 22 of each year, commencing on February 22, 2017. The Series B Notes will bear interest at the rate of 4.56% per annum from the date of issuance, payable semi-annually on February 22 and August 22 of each year, commencing on February 22, 2017.

The Notes will be senior unsecured obligations of the Company and will rank equal in right to payment with all other senior unsecured indebtedness of the Company. The Company will use the proceeds from the sale of the Notes to refinance existing indebtedness and for general corporate purposes.

Certain subsidiaries of the Company will guarantee the payment and performance of the Company's obligations under the Notes and the Note Purchase Agreement pursuant to a Subsidiary Guaranty Agreement, substantially in the form attached to the Note Purchase Agreement. Those guarantor subsidiaries will be the same subsidiaries that are co-borrowers or guarantors under the Company's combined unsecured revolving credit and term loan facility and outstanding senior unsecured notes. If any other subsidiaries of the Company subsequently become a co-borrower or guarantor under the foregoing credit facility or senior unsecured notes, such subsidiaries must likewise guarantee the Company's obligations under the Notes and the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains affirmative and negative covenants customary for such agreements, including, among other covenants, restrictions on (i) transactions with affiliates, (ii) mergers, consolidations, sales of assets and other arrangements, (iii) lines of business, and (iv) incurrence of liens. The Note Purchase Agreement also contains various financial covenants for the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries, including (i) limiting unsecured indebtedness to 60% of unencumbered asset value, (ii) limiting total indebtedness to 60% of total asset value (or, in certain limited circumstances, 65% of total asset value), (iii) limiting secured indebtedness to 35% of total asset value, and (iv) maintaining EBITDA equal to at least 150% of fixed charges. The Note Purchase Agreement also incorporates certain financial covenants from the Company's combined unsecured revolving credit and term loan facility, and provides that any financial covenants added in the future under the foregoing credit facility will apply to the Notes and be incorporated into the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains customary events of default, including, without limitation, payment defaults; covenant defaults; material inaccuracy of representations and warranties; bankruptcy and other insolvency events; cross defaults to other indebtedness in excess of $75 million; and entry of certain judgments not appealed or satisfied.

The Note Purchase Agreement provides that the Company may, at its option, prepay at any time all, or from time to time any part of, the Notes, in an amount not less than 5% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding in the case of a partial prepayment, at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid, plus accrued but unpaid interest to the date of prepayment and a "make-whole amount" determined for the prepayment date with respect to such principal amount. The make-whole amount is an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the discounted value of the remaining scheduled payments with respect to the principal amount of the Notes to be prepaid over the principal amount of such Notes, with the discounted value based on a discount factor equal to 0.50% over the yield to maturity of U.S. Treasury securities having a remaining average life comparable to the principal amount to be prepaid. The Company is required to offer to repay the Notes at par upon a "change in control" (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement), but without payment of a make-whole amount.

The foregoing description of the Note Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Note Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.
