Subject: E-Delivery of Proxy Statement and Annual Report and Online Voting

Date: March 5, 2003

The time for distributing the Proxy Statement and 2002 Annual Report to Equity Residential's shareholders is fast approaching. In our continuing effort to reduce costs, we are making these documents available online to employees who have a Company email address and hold shares through the Company's employee share purchase plan and restricted share plans. (Shares held in the 401(K) and SERP are voted by the plan administrators.)

If you are enrolled in the online program, you will receive an email message in mid-April informing you that the documents are available. The email will contain a link to the documents and another link to the online voting site.

Taking advantage of these online services is fast and convenient and helps eliminate printing, mailing and delivery costs associated with hard copy distribution. Voting online, as opposed to by telephone or paper ballot, further reduces the Company's expenses. We urge all employees in these plans who have a company-provided email address to view the Proxy Statement and Annual Report and vote online.

If you have any questions or if you prefer to receive these documents in the traditional, hard copy format, please notify Yasmina Duwe or Marty McKenna. To be effective for this year, please let them know by March 14, 2003. In the future, unless you discontinue your enrollment, you will continue to receive these documents electronically.

We thank you for your continued cost-saving efforts on behalf of the Company.

Subject: E-Delivery of Proxy Statement and 2002 Annual Report to Shareholders and Online Voting

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Equity Residential will take place on May 30, 2003. The time for distributing the Proxy Statement and 2002 Annual Report to Shareholders is fast approaching.

Edgar Filing: EQUITY RESIDENTIAL - Form DEFA14A

These documents will be available online to employees who hold shares through Company plans, including the ESPP and MIP (restricted share) plans and have a Company email address. The shares held in the 401(K) and SERP are voted by the plan administrator.

Online services provide savings to the Company by eliminating printing, mailing, handling and delivery costs associated with hard copy distribution. Online access is fast, convenient and reduces the amount of paper delivered to your home. Voting online is completely confidential because online ballots, like telephone and paper ballots, are received and tabulated by an independent third party. We urge all employees in these plans having a company-provided email address to view the Proxy Statement and Annual Report and vote online.

If you prefer to receive these documents in the traditional, hard copy format, please notify Yasmina Duwe or Marty McKenna. To be effective for this year, please let them know by March 14, 2003.

If you are enrolled in the online program you will receive an email message at your Company-provided email address on or about the week of April 14, informing you that the documents are ready to be viewed online. The email will contain a hyperlink to the documents and another hyperlink to the voting site. Follow the simple instructions to view the documents and vote your shares. In the future, unless you discontinue your enrollment as described in the preceding paragraph, you will continue to receive these documents electronically.

Please contact Yasmina Duwe or Marty McKenna with any questions.
