Item 4. Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

The legal validity of the issuance of the shares of Common Stock and Common Stock Non-Voting offered by the Prospectus has been passed upon by Robert W. Skelton, Senior Vice President and General Counsel of the Company. As of January 31, 2003, the record date for the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Mr. Skelton owned 165,044 shares of the Company's Common Stock and 72,062 shares of Common Stock Non-Voting, which includes shares of Common Stock and Common Stock Non-Voting beneficially owned by Mr. Skelton alone or jointly with his spouse and children who have the same home as Mr. Skelton. It also includes shares which could be acquired within 60 days of January 31, 2003 pursuant to the exercise of stock options and shares beneficially owned by virtue of his participation in the McCormick 401(k) Retirement Plan. Ernst & Young LLP, independent auditors, have no reportable interest in the Company.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under the Company's By-Laws and the Maryland General Corporation Law, the directors and officers of the Company may be entitled to indemnification in respect to threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative ("proceedings") to which they are made a party by reason of their position as a director or officer of the Company. In the case of conduct in their official capacity with the Company, directors and officers will be entitled to indemnification so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner which they reasonably believed was in the best interests of the Company, and in all other cases they will be entitled to indemnification so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner that was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Company. In the case of criminal proceedings, the director or the officer also must have had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

If the director or officer is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any proceedings, the director or officer will be entitled to indemnification against reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceedings regardless of whether the foregoing standards are met. In addition, a court of competent jurisdiction may order indemnification if it determines that the director or officer has met the foregoing standards, or even if not, if it determines that the director or officer is entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances.

Any indemnification required or permitted by the Company's By-Laws and the Maryland General Corporation Law may be against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. However, if the proceeding is by or in the right of the Company, indemnification may be made only against expenses and may not be made in respect of any proceeding in which the director or officer is adjudged to be liable to the Company.

Under the Company's Charter, the monetary liability of directors and officers to the Company or its stockholders is eliminated except for, and to the extent of, actual receipt of an improper benefit in money, property or services, or in respect to an adjudication based upon a finding of active and deliberate dishonesty material to the cause of action adjudicated.

The Company also maintains for the benefit of its directors and officers insurance covering certain liabilities asserted against or incurred by such persons in their capacity as, or as a result of their position of, director or officer of the Company. This insurance may afford protection for liabilities not subject to indemnification under the Company's By-Laws and the Maryland General Corporation Law.
