Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Loan Agreement

On May 10, 2013, SofTech, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Loan Agreement (the Loan Agreement) among the Company, as borrower (Borrower) and Prides Crossing Capital L.P. and Prides Crossing Capital -A, L.P., (Lenders). The Loan Agreement provides for a $2.7 million, three-year term loan (the Loan) with interest only for the first seventeen (17) months (the Term Notes).

Approximately $1.8 million of the proceeds from the Loan were used to pay-off and terminate the Company's prior credit facilities.

The Term Notes mature on May 1, 2016 and bear an interest rate of 14% paid in arrears on a quarterly basis throughout the life of the loan. Commencing on October 1, 2014, and continuing on the last day of each calendar quarter thereafter through May 1, 2016, the Borrower will make quarterly principal payments of $135,000. Remaining principal balances will be due and payable on May 1, 2016.

The Company agreed to secure all of its obligations under the Term Notes by granting the Lenders a first priority security interest in all of the Company's assets, including the Company's intellectual property and pledges of (i) one hundred percent (100%) of the Company's equity interests in its domestic subsidiaries and (ii) sixty-five percent (65%) of the Company's equity interests in its foreign subsidiaries. In connection with the grant of the security interest in favor of the Lenders in the Company's intellectual property, the Company has entered into an intellectual property security agreement with the Lenders and a source code escrow agreement with the Lenders and an independent third party. In addition, the Company's Chief Executive Officer has provided the Lenders with a personal guaranty of up to $500,000 secured by his equity interests in the Company.

The Loan Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including covenants by the Company limiting additional indebtedness, liens, guaranties, mergers and consolidations, substantial asset sales, investments and loans, sale and leasebacks, transactions with affiliates and fundamental changes in its business. In addition, the Loan Agreement contains financial covenants by the Company that establish (i) a maximum ratio of indebtedness to recurring revenue; (ii) a maximum ratio of indebtedness to EBITDA; and (iii) a minimum liquidity test (defined as the Company's cash plus amounts available under a line of credit of up to $250,000). The Loan Agreement also imposes limits on capital expenditures for each calendar year during the term of the Loan Agreement.

The Loan Agreement provides for events of default customary for credit facilities of this type, including but not limited to non-payment, defaults on other debt, misrepresentation, breach of covenants, representations and warranties, insolvency and bankruptcy. Upon an event of default relating to insolvency, bankruptcy or receivership, the amounts outstanding under the Loan will become immediately due and payable and the Lenders commitments will be automatically terminated. Upon the occurrence and continuation of any other event of default, the Lenders may accelerate payment of all obligations and terminate the Lenders commitments under the Credit Facility.

The foregoing description is only a summary of the key provisions of the Loan and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Loan Agreement, a copy of which will be filed with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2013.

On May 16, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing that it had entered into the Loan Agreement. A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.
