Officer, effective January 1, 2007. To provide for a period of transition from the current Chief Financial Officer, James M. DeAngelis, who has resigned that position effective January 1, 2007, Mr. Sharp began his employment on November 1 and will assume full responsibility for the position on the effective date.

Mr. Sharp is a Certified Public Accountant in Washington and Idaho, and has a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree in Accounting from Boise State University. He has more than 25 years of experience in treasury management, internal financial controls, international business and management, U.S. Security and Exchange compliance and Corporate Governance. Since 2003, he has been President of Sharp Executive Associates, Inc., a privately-held accounting firm providing Chief Financial Officer and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance services to clients. Several of those clients have had international subsidiaries, for which Mr. Sharp has provided an array of services. Prior to 2003, he worked for 14 years in positions of Chief Financial Officer, Managing Director of European Operations and Corporate Controller for Key Technology, Inc., a publicly-traded manufacturer of capital goods with headquarters in Walla Walla, Washington (KTEC on the Nasdaq microcap exchange). Mr. Sharp's earlier career experiences included financial management positions in industry and service in the tax department of a regional accounting firm.

The Company has entered into an employment contract with Mr. Sharp, engaging him on a part-time basis. Mr. Sharp will spend approximately 50% of his business hours on matters related to Commodore Applied Technologies, Inc. He also serves part-time as Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Treasurer under contract with Little Squaw Gold Mining, Inc., a publicly-traded exploration-stage mining Company with headquarters in Spokane, Washington (LITS on the OTCBB exchange).
