PRESS RELEASE

September 13, 2005

Nokia ups its third-quarter 2005 sales and EPS guidance:

Third quarter expected to result in EPS (diluted) of EUR 0.18 – EUR 0.19 and net sales of EUR 8.4 billion – EUR 8.5 billion

Espoo, Finland - Nokia today updated its guidance for the third quarter 2005. Nokia net sales are now expected to be in the range of EUR 8.4 billion – EUR 8.5 billion compared to the previous guidance of EUR 7.9 billion – EUR 8.2 billion. This is due to stronger than expected mobile device volumes and relatively firm prices during the quarter. Management also expects Nokia mobile device volumes to grow somewhat faster than the overall market during the quarter.

Stronger than expected sales during the first two months of the quarter, good cost control and one time positive items result in Nokia forecasting third quarter diluted EPS of EUR 0.18 – EUR 0.19, exceeding its previous guidance for EPS of EUR 0.14 – EUR 0.17 for the quarter.

The mobile device market has continued to be strong and Nokia delivery volumes of mobile devices in the third quarter are anticipated to exceed its earlier expectations. In addition, due to geographical sales mix and relatively firm pricing, the average sales prices during the quarter are expected to decline less than initially anticipated.

The underlying business performance of the Networks business group is anticipated to be largely in line with the earlier expectations.

The revised EPS guidance now also includes the positive impact of one-time items related to divestments that are expected to be completed in the third quarter. The positive impact of these items to the EPS is estimated to be one euro cent or slightly higher.

Nokia will report full third quarter 2005 results on October 20, 2005.
