PART IITEM 1. BUSINESS.*General

PRIMEDIA Inc. (PRIMEDIA or the Company) is a targeted media company and its properties comprise more than 100 brands that connect buyers and sellers through print publications, Internet sites, events, licensing, merchandising and video. PRIMEDIA products compete in two principal operating segments (i) Enthusiast Media, which encompasses PRIMEDIA s consumer magazines, Internet sites, events, licensing and merchandising and video, and (ii) Consumer Guides, which publishes and distributes free print guides across the United States, and operates classified listing Internet websites.

The results of these segments, consistent with past practice, are regularly reviewed by the Company s chief operating decision makers and the executive team to assess the performance of each segment and to determine resource allocations among the segments. During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it would classify its Education segment as a discontinued operation, due to the extent of the Company s decision to sell the assets in this segment.

During the first quarter of 2007, the Company announced that its Board of Directors had authorized the Company to explore the sale of its Enthusiast Media segment, as the market conditions are favorable, in lieu of exploring the spin-off of the Consumer Guides segment.

PRIMEDIA Enthusiast Media encompasses the Company s consumer magazines, the Internet, events, licensing and merchandising.

Automotive	56	63	52	2
Recreation	14	19	13	0
Lifestyles	6	9	1	0
Total	76	91	66	2

For the year ended December 31, 2006, in the Enthusiast Media segment, 56% of revenues were from advertising, 31% from circulation and 13% from other sources. Circulation revenue is divided between newsstand sales and subscriptions, at 58% and 42%, respectively.

Readers value enthusiast magazines for their targeted editorial content and also rely on them as primary sources of information in their topic areas. This aspect makes the enthusiast properties important media buys for advertisers. Advertising sales for the Company s enthusiast magazines are generated largely by in-house sales forces. The magazines compete for advertising on the basis of circulation and the niche markets they serve. Each of the Company s enthusiast magazines faces competition in its subject area from a variety of publishers and competes for readers on the basis of the high quality of its targeted editorial, which is provided by in-house and freelance writers.

Brands

The Company publishes 56 automotive magazines, including consumer automotive titles such as Automobile and Motor Trend which cater to the high-end and new car automotive market, as well as highly specialized enthusiast titles such as Hot Rod, Truckin , Super Street, Lowrider, Motorcyclist, 4Wheel & Off-Road and Four Wheeler. The Company s automotive magazines represent the largest portfolio of magazines in the automotive category. Supplementing the automotive print publications, PRIMEDIA has a strong presence on the Internet with each of its related websites to each publication. In the high-end and new car markets, PRIMEDIA's publications compete primarily against Car and Driver and Road and Track, both owned by Hachette Filipacchi Media U.S. Inc.

The Company is a publisher of magazines for other enthusiast markets with such titles as Stereophile, Power & Motoryacht and EQUUS. The Company also publishes numerous magazines targeting action sports enthusiasts such as Surfing, Skateboarder and Snowboarder. The Company's major competition in the enthusiast market includes the titles comprising the Time4Media division of Time Warner Inc., which are under contract for sale to the Bonnier Group. The Company also competes in individual enthusiast markets with a number of smaller, privately-owned or regionally-based magazine publishers. PRIMEDIA publishes two soap opera magazines, Soap Opera Digest and Soap Opera Weekly, which compete with Bauer Publishing.

The Company is focused on building multiple online revenue streams, including subscriber acquisition, transactions that connect buyers and sellers, lead generation and pay-per-click and other online advertising. During 2006, the Company continued to develop its Internet strategy with the integration of Automotive.com and Equine.com, and the launch of a boats marketplace, based on the Equine.com transactional model.

Automotive.com, incorporated in 1999, has proven expertise in car sales lead generation, search engine marketing, search engine optimization and a technology platform that can drive increased traffic and ultimately monetize that traffic into high quality lead generation. To obtain full advantage from this acquisition, PRIMEDIA contributed the valuable assets associated with its 52 automotive Internet sites to Automotive.com, creating new revenue opportunities for its portfolio of established automotive brands. As automakers divert marketing dollars to the Internet and as auto dealers seek increased car sale leads, the combination of Automotive.com and the auto Internet sites provides a platform for maximizing advertising and lead generation revenues across all those sites.

The Company also operates Retailvision, a specialty magazine distribution company, which distributes both Enthusiast Media and third party titles, is the largest specialty distributor of magazines and related items in the U.S. The wholly-owned subsidiary works with over 300 publishers and 46,000 retail locations to distribute a portfolio of nearly 850 titles on a monthly basis.

Recent Developments

Sale of Outdoors

During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company began the exploration of the sale of its Outdoors group within the Enthusiast Media segment, which consisted primarily of its hunting, fishing and shooting titles. In the first quarter of 2007, the Company completed the sale of its Outdoors group for $170.0 million in cash. The sale presented the Company with an opportunity to realize significant value, while at the same time maintaining its position with the 18-55 male demographic.

Exploration of Sale of Enthusiast Media Segment

In February 2007, the Company announced that its Board of Directors had authorized the Company to explore the sale of its Enthusiast Media segment, as market and other conditions are favorable. PRIMEDIA has retained Goldman Sachs and Lehman Brothers to manage this process. If the sale is completed, the Company will apply the proceeds from the sale to pay down debt.

Consumer Guides Segment

PRIMEDIA Consumer Guides is a publisher and distributor of free guides in the United States with Apartment Guide/ApartmentGuide.com, New Home Guide/ NewHomeGuide.com and Auto

Guide/AutoGuide.com. All of Consumer Guides' products are free, dedicated directories of category specific content that attract consumers who are actively in the market to rent an apartment or buy a new home or a pre-owned automobile.

The Company believes that the targeted nature of its integrated media products provides its advertising customers with some of the most cost-effective channels available to reach their customers. The Company distributes approximately 37 million print guides annually through its proprietary distribution network, DistribuTech, the leading national distributor of free publications with approximately 60,000 distribution locations. The Company's online guides are visited by approximately 49 million users annually and are marketed to end users through print guides, search engine optimization, email marketing and online advertising we purchase on a non-exclusive basis through an advertising agency, which places advertisements with companies such as Google, MSN, Yahoo and Advertising.com.

Apartments

PRIMEDIA Consumer Guides is the largest publisher and distributor of rental apartment guides in the U.S. with Apartment Guide publications in 74 regional markets with a combined monthly circulation of 1.5 million. Most of the Company's Apartment Guide publications are distributed monthly to primary retail locations and available free to the consumer. The majority of Apartment Guide advertising revenue is generated by large apartment community managers who need to fill vacant apartments. The Company provides large unit apartment listings through its retail distribution and national web site ApartmentGuide.com. The goal is to provide cost effective advertising generating quality results to the advertiser.

The year 2006 provided significant challenges to this business, including continued condominium conversion activity that limited existing and potential customers from Apartment Guide markets and decreased vacancy rates. The Company attributes Apartment Guide's relative stability in adverse conditions to its brand leadership, both in print and online. The industry is seeing a slight decrease in occupancy rates at the end of the fourth quarter at 94.2% versus 95.0% at the end of the third quarter.

Advertisers in Apartment Guide receive an integrated media program that includes advertising in their local Apartment Guide magazine as well as a listing on ApartmentGuide.com. ApartmentGuide.com attracts approximately 1.6 million unique visitors per month and had over 17,000 apartment property listings as of December 31, 2006. The website offers many premium features not provided by its print products including virtual tours and flexible search functionality.

The majority of Apartment Guide customers purchase 12-month contracts, and, in 2006, approximately 88% of standard listing contracts were renewed when they expired. In 2006, Apartment Guide had more than 20,000 advertisers. Advertising in the apartment publications is generated by a 300 person sales force located throughout the United States. The Company's national competitors, both print and online or online only, include Dominion Enterprises (publishers of For Rent), Network Communications Inc. (publishers of Apartment Finder), Classified Media Ventures (publisher of Apartments.com), and eBay (publishers of Rent.com).

In early 2006, the Company acquired RentClicks.com, an online marketplace for unit rental properties, which serves rental properties of less than 50 units, the largest segment of the rental market. RentClicks provides landlords, investors, and property managers with an efficient, easy to use Internet-based tool to advertise rental properties to qualified and informed rental customers. We believe that RentClicks provides a strong platform for growth that can both capture a new segment of the rental marketplace as well as recapture a portion of the Apartment Guide revenue lost to condominium conversion. In June 2006, the Company acquired HomeRentalAds.com and in January 2007, RentalHouses.com. These three websites target the less than 50 unit rental property market, which comprises about 85% of the total housing rental market. Effective February 2007, the apartment listings on Consumer Source's RentalHouses.com, HomeRentalAds.com, RentClicks.com, and ApartmentGuide.com are accessible via the Company's Rentals.com website, which now carries an estimated 62% of all paid small unit rental listings on the Internet.

New Homes

The Company is the leading publisher of new home guides with 33 publications in 25 major markets including Denver, Phoenix, Dallas-Fort Worth, Philadelphia, Orlando and Houston. The New Home Guide publications provide informational listings about featured new home communities with the majority of advertising revenue contributed by builders and developers. Most of the Company's New Home Guide publications are published bi-monthly with a combined monthly circulation of approximately 700,000. The New Home Guide is available free to consumers at leading retailers in each market through the Company's proprietary DistribuTech distribution network. New Home Guide advertisers purchase an integrated media package that includes advertising in their local print guide as well as a listing on Newhomeguide.com, which received over 3 million unique users in 2006 and featured almost 7,000 communities as of December 31, 2006. In 2006, the Company focused on strengthening its relationships with national clients.

The Company also owns the American Home Guide family of web sites that include 350 specific web sites that showcase new homes, including AmericanHomeGuides.com, FloridaGuide.com and ClickNewHomes.com. The Company's New Home Guide clients are also listed on the American Home Guide family of sites, providing its advertisers with maximum exposure to potential new home buyers. Over 10 million visitors used the Company's New Home websites in 2006. The Company's New Home properties compete primarily with local newspapers and national competitors such as Network Communications, Inc. (publishers of New Home Finder), and Move, Inc. (publisher of Move.com).

Autos

The Company's newest guide roll-out is Auto Guide and AutoGuide.com. Consumer Guides launched its first Auto Guide in Charlotte, North Carolina in March 2004 and expanded its presence to a total of 13 automotive publications in North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Southern California, Wisconsin and New England. The Company believes that the auto sector represents an attractive opportunity for growth with an addressable advertising market that is greater than that of its core apartment advertising market. The Company attributes its ability to expand into this space to the availability of its proprietary distribution channels, successful direct media sales experience and results-driven business model that proves the value of its advertising to its clients.

Auto Guide markets an integrated media program to auto dealers that advertises their pre-owned auto inventory in high quality local publications available free to consumers at leading local retailers as well as on the national web site AutoGuide.com. AutoGuide.com, which was launched in the third quarter of 2005, includes comprehensive technical information on all auto listings, flexible search functionality and several advanced listing features that will allow dealers to highlight certain portions of their auto inventory.

Auto Guide competes in each local market with traditional mass media, including local television, radio, newspaper and outdoor. On a national basis, the Company's main competitors are Trader Publishing Company (publisher of Auto Trader and Auto Mart), Classified Media Ventures (publisher of Cars.com) and eBay (publisher of eBay Automotive).

DistribuTech

DistribuTech, the nation's largest distributor of free publications distributes PRIMEDIA's consumer guides and over 2,400 third-party titles. In 2006, publications were distributed to approximately 60,000 leading grocery, convenience, video and drug stores, universities, military bases, major employers and other locations in 73 metropolitan areas. Approximately one-third of these locations have exclusive distribution agreements with DistribuTech. The guides are typically displayed in free-standing, multi-pocket racks located in high-visibility, high traffic locations at the entrance or exit of major retailers. DistribuTech generates revenues by leasing rack pockets to other publications and providing warehousing and delivery distribution services to these publications. DistribuTech stocks the racks at each location an average of two to three times per week. DistribuTech competes for third-party publication distribution primarily on the basis of its prime retail locations and its service. DistribuTech's principal competitor is Dominion Distribution Services, a division of Dominion Enterprises.

Divestitures

The Company has traditionally managed its portfolio of media assets by opportunistically divesting assets no longer part of to the Company's overall strategy. In 2006, PRIMEDIA continued to focus on reducing the amount of debt on its balance sheet.

In September 2006, the Company discontinued and sold its Gems group within the Enthusiast Media segment. In the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it had agreed to sell its Outdoors group, which consists primarily of its hunting, fishing and shooting titles. The sale presented the Company with an opportunity to realize significant value. The sale was completed during the first quarter of 2007. Also during the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it would classify its Education segment as a discontinued operation, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, due to the Company's decision to sell the assets in this segment.

During 2006, the Company completed the sales of its Crafts and History groups which were classified as discontinued operations during 2005.

Financial results for these divestitures and divestitures planned as of December 31, 2006 are reported in discontinued operations on the statements of consolidated operations for all periods presented.

Production and Fulfillment

Virtually all the Company's print products are printed and bound by independent printers. The Company believes that because of its buying power, outside printing services have been and can be purchased at favorable prices. The Company provides most of the content for its Web sites but outsources technology and production.

The principal raw material used in the Company's products is paper which is purchased directly from several paper mills, including three of the industry's largest paper mills, and from merchants. Paper prices did not increase during 2006.

The Company uses the U.S. Postal Service for distribution of many of its products and marketing materials and is therefore subject to postal rate changes. Many of the Company's products are packaged and delivered to the U.S. Postal Service directly by the printers. Other products are sent from warehouses and other facilities operated by the Company. Postal rates did not increase in 2005, however in early 2006 postal rates increased by approximately 5.4%.

In the future, the Company may be affected by cost increases driven by inflation or market conditions.

Company Explores Sale of its Enthusiast Media Businesses in Lieu of Spin-Off

In late 2005, the Company announced that its Board of Directors authorized management to explore the separation of its businesses via a tax-free spin-off into two separate publicly-traded companies. The plan contemplated a spin-off of PRIMEDIA's Consumer Guides segment. In furtherance of the assessment of a potential spin-off, the Board of Directors approved the filing of a ruling request with the Internal Revenue Service and a Form 10 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The Company has received a favorable IRS ruling and has taken substantial steps to finalize the registration statement on Form 10 and comply with the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission related thereto.

In February 2007, however, the Company announced that its Board of Directors had authorized the Company to explore the sale of its Enthusiast Media segment, as the market conditions are favorable, in lieu of exploring the spin-off. PRIMEDIA has retained Goldman Sachs and Lehman Brothers to manage this process. If the sale is completed, the Company will apply the proceeds from the sale to pay down debt. The spin-off remains an option.

Employees

During 2006, the Company's headcount declined primarily due to divestitures and consolidation of certain functions. As of December 31, 2006, the Company had approximately 2,800 full time equivalent employees compared to approximately 3,200 at the end of 2005. None of its employees are union members. Management considers its relations with its employees to be good.

Company Organization

PRIMEDIA was incorporated on November 22, 1991 in the State of Delaware. The principal executive office of the Company is located at 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10151; telephone number (212) 745-0100.

The Company makes available free of charge through its Web site its annual report on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, current reports on Form 8-K, as well as any other filings, and amendments to those reports filed or furnished pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as soon as reasonably practicable after such documents are electronically filed with, or furnished to, the SEC.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

Set forth below are risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results contemplated by the forward-looking statements contained in this Annual Report.

General economic trends, as well as trends in advertising spending and competition, may reduce our advertising and circulation revenues.

Our advertising revenues are subject to the risks arising from adverse changes in domestic and global economic conditions and possible shifting of advertising spending amongst media. A decline in the level of business activity of certain of our advertisers, including U.S. and non-U.S. automobile manufacturers, could have an adverse effect on our revenues and profit margins. Additionally, high levels of condominium conversions limited existing and potential customers from Apartment Guide markets and decreased vacancy rates in markets with higher condominium conversions, constraining growth in our Consumer Source segments. Extraordinary weather conditions can impact newsstand sales, advertising revenues and other revenues like distribution. Any adverse impact of economic conditions on the Company is difficult to predict but it may result in reductions in advertising revenue. Additionally, if geopolitical events negatively impact the economy or advertising spending patterns change, our results of operations may be adversely affected.

We have substantial indebtedness, which consumes a significant portion of the cash flow that we generate.

A significant portion of our cash flow is dedicated to the payment of interest on indebtedness which reduces funds available for capital expenditures and business opportunities and may limit our ability to respond to adverse developments in our business or in the economy.

Our debt instruments limit our business flexibility by imposing operating and financial restrictions on our operations.

The agreements and indentures governing our indebtedness impose specific operating and financial restrictions on us. These restrictions impose conditions or limitations on our ability to, among other things:

- change the nature of our business;
- incur additional indebtedness;
- create liens on our assets;
- sell assets;
- issue stock;
- engage in mergers, consolidations or transactions with our affiliates;
- make investments in or loans to specific subsidiaries;

- make guarantees or specific restricted payments; and
- declare or make dividend payments on our common stock.

Our failure to comply with the terms and covenants in our indebtedness could lead to a default under the terms of those documents, which would entitle the lenders to accelerate the indebtedness and declare all amounts owed due and payable. Moreover, the instruments governing almost all of our indebtedness contain cross-default provisions so that a default under any of our indebtedness may result in a default under our other indebtedness. If a cross-default occurs, the maturity of almost all of our indebtedness could be accelerated and become immediately due and payable. If that happens, we might not be able to satisfy our debt obligations, which could have a substantial adverse effect on our ability to continue as a going concern. We may not be able to comply with these restrictions in the future or, in order to comply with these restrictions, we may have to forego opportunities that might otherwise be beneficial to us.

Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. L.P., or KKR, has control of our common stock and has the power to elect all the members of our board of directors and to approve any action requiring stockholder approval.

As of December 31, 2006, approximately 60% of the shares of our common stock were held by investment partnerships, of which KKR Associates, L.P., a New York limited partnership (KKR Associates), and KKR GP 1996 LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (KKR GP 1996), each are an affiliate of KKR, the general partners. KKR Associates and KKR GP 1996 have sole voting and investment power with respect to these shares. Consequently, KKR Associates and KKR GP 1996 and their respective general partners and members, two of whom are also our directors, control us and have the power to elect all of our directors and approve any action requiring stockholder approval, including adopting amendments to our certificate of incorporation and approving mergers or sales of all or substantially all of our assets. KKR Associates and KKR GP 1996 will also be able to prevent or cause a change of control at any time.

If we do not continue to innovate and provide online products and services that are useful to users, our revenues and operating results could suffer.

The Company has been and remains focused on building multiple online revenue streams, including subscriber acquisition, transactions that connect buyers and sellers, lead generation and pay-per-click and other online advertising. We believe that a key success factor of our business is our ability to successfully integrate our previously implemented Internet strategy and to continue to provide online products and services that people use for a high quality Internet experience. Our competitors are constantly developing innovations in search, online advertising and providing information to consumers. As a result, we must continue to invest resources in order to enhance our technology and our existing products and services and introduce new high-quality products and services that consumers can easily and effectively use.

Increases in paper and postage costs may have an adverse impact on our future financial results.

The price of paper is a significant expense relating to our print products and direct mail solicitations. The Company incurred paper price increases in both 2004 and 2005 after many years of stable or declining prices, with no increases during 2006. However, worldwide demand, strikes and extraordinary weather conditions could result in higher prices in 2007. We use the U.S. Postal Service for distribution of many of our products and marketing materials. Postal rates increased in 2006 by approximately 5.4%. Paper and postage cost increases may have an adverse effect on our future results. We may not be able to pass these cost increases through to our customers.

We depend on some important employees, and the loss of any of those employees may harm our business.

Our performance is substantially dependent on the performance of our key employees. In addition, our success is dependent on our ability to attract, train, retain and motivate high quality personnel, especially for our management, sales and editorial teams. The loss of the services of any of our key employees may harm our business. The Company does not have any key man life insurance.

We may be unable to realize the benefits of our net operating loss carryforwards and, as a result, lose our future tax savings, which could have a negative impact on our liquidity and financial position.

Net operating losses may be carried forward to offset federal and state taxable income in future years and eliminate income taxes otherwise payable on such taxable income, subject to certain adjustments. The amount of NOLs we have has not been validated by the IRS. The IRS could challenge the amount of the NOLs, which could result in an increase in liability in the future for income taxes. Based on current federal corporate income tax rates, our NOLs could provide a benefit to us, if fully utilized, of significant future tax savings. However, if we do not have sufficient taxable income in future years to use the tax benefits before they expire, we will lose the benefit of these NOL carryforwards permanently. Our inability to utilize available NOLs, if any, could result in the Company being required to pay substantial additional federal and state taxes and interest, which may adversely affect our liquidity and financial position.

Future legislation may result in our inability to realize the tax benefits of our NOLs.

It is possible that legislation or regulations will be adopted that would limit our ability to use the tax benefits associated with our NOLs. However, we are not currently aware of any proposed changes in the tax laws or regulations that would materially impact our ability to use available NOLs, if any.

Our use of NOL carryforwards could be limited by ownership changes.

In addition to the general limitations on the carryback and carryforward of NOLs under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code (Code), Section 382 of the Code imposes further limitations on the utilization of NOLs by a corporation following various types of ownership changes which result in more than a 50 percentage point change in ownership of a corporation within a three-year period. Therefore, the future utilization of our NOLs may be subject to limitation for regular federal income tax purposes.

We cannot be certain that the limitations of Section 382 will not limit or deny in full our future utilization of available NOLs, if any. Such limitation or denial could require us to pay substantial additional federal and state taxes and interest. Moreover, we cannot be certain that future ownership changes will not limit or deny in full our future utilization of all of available NOLs, if any.

If we cannot utilize available NOLs, if any, we may be required to pay substantial additional federal and state taxes and interest. Such tax and interest liabilities may adversely affect our liquidity and financial position.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

Information required by this item with respect to equity compensation plans of the Company is incorporated by reference to the Company's Proxy Statement for its 2007 Annual Meeting of shareholders. The definitive Proxy Statement will be filed within 120 days of the end of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

In June 2004, the Company issued to George Roberts, a former director of the Company, 90,082 shares of the Company's unregistered Common Stock as compensation for his services as a director from March 1992 to May 2004. Mr. Roberts was permitted to defer payment of his director's fees and receive the fees in the form of Common Stock pursuant to the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan. Mr. Roberts deferred the payment of an aggregate of $385,975 of directors' fees that he would have otherwise received in cash at the time the services were provided. The issuance to Mr. Roberts was made by the Company in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Notes to Selected Financial Data (dollars in thousands)

(1) As a result of entities classified as discontinued operations during 2006 and the related requirements of SFAS No. 144, the Company reclassified amounts from revenues, net, to discontinued operations for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004, 2003, and 2002 as follows:

	Years Ended December 31,
	2005	2004	2003	2002
Revenues, net (as reported in 2005 Form 10-K)	$ 990,571	$ 969,796	$ 974,417	$ 1,007,234

Revenues, net (as reclassified)	$ 821,728	$ 803,554	$ 801,662	$ 773,732

(2) Includes an impairment of intangible assets, goodwill and other, of $2,337 and $7,319, for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

(3) In connection with the adoption of SFAS No. 142 Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, on January 1, 2002, the Company recorded an impairment charge related to its goodwill and certain indefinite lived intangible assets as a cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle. Additionally, SFAS No. 142 prohibited the amortization of goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets, effective January 1, 2002.

Effective January 1, 2006, PRIMEDIA adopted SFAS No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, using the modified prospective method. Prior to the adoption of this statement, the Company expensed the fair value of stock based compensation for all grants, modifications or settlements made on or after January 1, 2003 in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, adopted on January 1, 2003 using the prospective method. Upon adoption of SFAS No. 123(R), the Company is also required to expense the fair value of any awards that were granted prior to January 1, 2003 and were not fully vested as of January 1, 2006. The cumulative effect of adopting this change in accounting principle, as required by SFAS No. 123(R), was $22, included in the year ended December 31, 2006.

(4) Income (loss) per common share has been determined based on income (loss) applicable to common shareholders, divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for all years presented.

The securities that could potentially dilute basic earnings per share in the future consist of approximately 9,870,000 warrants at December 31, 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003, and 11,370,000 at December 31, 2002; and 19,815,029, 20,712,058, 25,502,277, 28,548,319 and 29,068,881 stock options at December 31, 2006, 2005, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Potentially dilutive securities were not included in the computation of diluted income (loss) per common share because the effect of their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

(5) Excludes current maturities of long-term debt.

(6) The Company adopted SFAS No. 150 Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity, prospectively, effective July 1, 2003, which requires the Company to classify as long-term liabilities its Series D Exchangeable Preferred Stock, Series F Exchangeable Preferred Stock and Series H Exchangeable Preferred Stock and to classify dividends from preferred stock as interest expense. Such stock is described as shares subject to mandatory redemption and dividends on these shares are now described as interest on shares subject to mandatory redemption, whereas previously they were presented below net income (loss) as preferred stock dividends. The adoption of SFAS No. 150 increased the loss from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 by $24,956, $45,124 and $22,547, respectively, which represents interest on shares subject to mandatory redemption of $24,203, $43,780 and $21,889 and amortization of issuance costs of $753, $1,344 and $658 which are included in the amortization of deferred financing costs on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations. If SFAS No. 150 was adopted on January 1, 2001, loss from continuing operations would have increased by $22,670 and $18,431 for the years ended December 31, 2003, and 2002, respectively. The 2003 and 2002 increase to loss from continuing operations has been reduced by a net gain of $944 and $32,788, respectively, on exchanges of the shares subject to mandatory redemption. During 2005, the Company purchased all of its outstanding shares subject to mandatory redemption.

Item 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS (DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS, EXCEPT SHARE AND PER SHARE AMOUNTS).

Introduction

The following discussion and analysis summarizes the financial condition and operating performance of the Company and its business segments and should be read in conjunction with the Company's historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere in this Annual Report.

Executive Summary

Our Business

PRIMEDIA is a targeted media company doing business in the United States. The Company's properties comprise more than 100 brands that connect buyers and sellers through print publications, Internet sites, events, licensing, merchandising and TV video programs. The Company's products compete in two principal operating segments: (i) Enthusiast Media, which encompasses the Company's consumer magazines, Internet sites, events, licensing and merchandising, and (ii) Consumer Guides, which publishes and distributes free guides throughout the United States, and operates classified listing Internet websites.

PRIMEDIA's revenues are generated from advertising (print and online), circulation (subscriptions and newsstand sales) and other sources including online lead generation and transactions, events, third party distribution, television and video programs, list rental, brand licensing and merchandising. Operating Expenses, for Segment EBITDA purposes, include cost of goods sold (paper, printing and binding), exclusive of depreciation of property and equipment; marketing and selling (promotion, advertising and payroll); distribution, circulation and fulfillment (postage, shipping, distribution fees and payroll); editorial (content and payroll); and other general and corporate administrative expenses (rent and payroll) (excluding non-cash compensation) (collectively referred to as "Operating Expenses"). See Why We Use the Term Segment EBITDA below.

Background

PRIMEDIA was a broad-based media enterprise resulting from a series of acquisitions and comprised of numerous disparate assets. Since 2001, the Company has been opportunistically divesting and acquiring selective properties in order to better focus on its core businesses and de-leverage the Company. At December 31, 2006, the Company's net debt was approximately $1,320,000 versus net debt and preferred stock of approximately $2,700,000 at December 31, 2001. The Company has been positioning itself as a highly focused targeted media company and has invested in its businesses to drive growth.

Additionally, to counter the effects of the weakness in the print advertising environment, the Company has aggressively attacked its cost structure. The Company also realigned and reorganized its management structure to better reflect its emphasis on delivering products and brands to the marketplace to achieve organic growth. These initiatives have resulted in charges for restructuring costs to integrate Company operations and consolidate many back office functions and facilities, resulting in a significant reduction in the number of employees and office space, creating operational and financial efficiencies.

Overall, these actions have made the Company a more efficient organization with a strengthened balance sheet and improved liquidity.

Business Trends

The print media industry continues to be adversely affected by the shift to alternative forms of advertising, an overall advertising environment that is softer than historical norms and declining newsstand sales of consumer magazines. Additionally, high levels of condominium conversions, coupled with lower mortgage rates have spurred housing purchases and limited existing and potential customers for Apartment Guide markets, while some markets experienced decreased vacancy rates and lower advertising spending.

Company Strategy

The Company's strategy is to focus on its core targeted media businesses and grow by leveraging and expanding its brands. During 2006, the Company focused on integrating and growing the business launched and expanded in 2005. PRIMEDIA is well positioned to capitalize on the shift away from mass advertising to targeted media.

The Company is implementing its organic growth strategy through various actions, including:

- expanding Internet sites, particularly in developing new transactional marketplaces,
- improving existing products and optimizing distribution,
- leveraging its dominance in the highly targeted male 18-55 advertising market,
- broadening its advertiser base to include non-endemic national advertisers,
- leveraging its well known brands through extensions including events, television, radio, licensing and merchandising.

At the same time, the Company continues to focus on cost reduction which could be utilized to fund various elements of its growth strategies.

The Company's business segments are highlighted in the segment discussions below and in the Results of Operations section.

2006 Summary Consolidated Results

In 2006, revenues were $849,309, up 3.4% as compared to $821,728 in 2005. Revenue increased at both the Company's Enthusiast Media segment and Consumer Guides segment. In 2006, Operating Expenses were $698,951 up 3.3% compared to 2005. In 2006, operating income was $107,737 up 1.6% from $106,018 in 2005. Net income was $38,252 in 2006 compared to $564,618 in 2005, as 2005 included gains on the sales of the Business Information Segment of $221,978, About, Inc. of $378,930, PRIMEDIA Workplace Learning of $2,806 and Ward's of $501, and 2006 included gains on the sales of the Crafts group of approximately $45,400 and the History group of approximately $13,500.

Segment Strategy

- Enthusiast Media Enthusiast Media's revenues are generated from advertising (print and online), circulation (subscriptions and newsstand sales) and other sources including online lead generation, events, third party distribution, television programs and brand licensing. Enthusiast Media's strategy is to attract an increasing number of enthusiasts to its media properties, to capture a larger share of ad revenue and ultimately, to capture a growing portion of the thousands of dollars that enthusiasts spend on their avocations each year. In the past, Enthusiast Media generated revenue primarily through advertising and magazine sales. By adding Automotive.com and Equine.com to its portfolio, the Business has extended its model to include fees for connecting buyers and sellers.

Enthusiast Media has positioned itself to capitalize on the shift away from mass advertising to targeted media. The Business strategy is to focus on its core targeted media businesses and to grow by leveraging and expanding its market-leading brands. Enthusiast Media has made organic growth its top priority, bolstered by select, opportunistic acquisitions.

- Consumer Guides Continued focusing on bringing the 2005 Auto Guide launches to profitability, and expanding its presence in the online marketplace for small unit rental properties with the acquisition of RentClicks.com in early 2006. This segment of the market, which consists of rental houses, town homes, condos and single unit apartment accounts for approximately 70% of the total rental market. Consumer Guides believes that it can capture a new segment of the rental marketplace as well as recapture a portion of the Apartment Guide revenue lost to condominium conversion.

Enthusiast Media

Enthusiast Media

The Enthusiast Media segment produces and distributes content through magazines and via the Internet to consumers in various niche and enthusiast markets. It includes the Company's Automotive, Recreation and Lifestyles magazine groups, Internet sites, events, and licensing and merchandising. In 2006, revenues for the Enthusiast Media segment were $524,836, up 4.0%, and Segment EBITDA (as defined below) was $97,411, down 0.8%, compared to 2005.

The Company's strategy for this segment is to drive growth through:

- expand the Internet business and continue to diversify its revenue model,
- continue to improve product quality and optimize distribution,
- capitalize on well-known brands through product extensions and spin-off publications,
- leverage the 18-55 male audience to attract further non-endemic national advertisers, and
- complement organic growth with a targeted and disciplined merger and acquisition strategy.

Expand Internet Operations and Continue to Diversify its Revenue Model

Enthusiast Media has already successfully extended its print brands online, with over 90 websites that have a combined 13 million unique visitors and over 100 million page views per month. Enthusiast Media is now in the process of creating vertical-specific portals that group its digital assets by vertical and provide its visitors with enhanced features and new online services. Enthusiast Media's acquisitions in 2005 of Automotive.com and Equine.com were an important step in this direction. Both online properties are leading players in their respective verticals, with experienced management teams and state-of-the-art platforms that can be leveraged across Enthusiast Media's portfolio of online assets.

Improve Product Quality and Optimize Distribution

Enthusiast Media continues to enhance the quality of the senior editorial and art director team. In 2006, over 25 new staff members joined the editorial and art departments, including two new editors and two new art directors that were hired from outside the country. Historically, editorial oversight was managed by having the editors of individual titles report directly to publishers or business heads. To ensure that Enthusiast Media realized the maximum benefit from its top editorial talent, the editorial reporting structure was modified, with like subject matter titles organized into 11 groups. Each group is managed by a senior editor and art director. These individuals are responsible for editing the largest publication in the group and for providing direction and support to the editors and art directors of the other publications in the group.

Enthusiast Media's strategic initiative to improve the product and editorial content of its magazines increased revenue, which well exceeded the redesign costs. Product and editorial content improvement and redesigns are expected to lead to additional improvement in both newsstand and subscription performance. There are significant opportunities to apply this proven process to the remainder of the portfolio, particularly in the Truck, Motorcycle, Marine and Action Sports segments, where none of the titles have gone through the process to date. Building on Enthusiast Media's redesign program, it has established a more coordinated effort to capitalize on the advertising, content and design expertise to increase efficiencies, manage costs and appropriately utilize talent.

The Company continues to optimize circulation draw and distribution to improve profitability. During 2006, PRIMEDIA reduced draw by 13.2 million copies, or 7.7%. Based on the success of the program, the Company is implementing further reductions in 2007.

Capitalize on Well-Known Brands Through Product Extensions and Spin-off Publications

Due to management's lack of focus on product extensions up until 2006, Enthusiast Media has only just begun to leverage its highly recognized brands and valued content through product and distribution channel extensions such as events, television, radio and licensing. Enthusiast Media's auto shows and motorcycle events have resonated with enthusiasts across the country and Enthusiast Media is considering expanding the model further. Enthusiast Media recently partnered with Multicast Networks Group in its first television network, Motor Trend TV, which is scheduled to launch in 2007. If successful, Enthusiast Media could consider launching additional Enthusiast Media-branded TV shows.

With household names like Motor Trend or Hot Rod, Enthusiast Media has also partnered with consumer product companies such as Procter & Gamble and manufacturers such as Auto Trade and Alltrade Tools to co-brand a wide variety of products, including car-care products and automotive accessories. Enthusiast Media plans to pursue these types of partnerships more aggressively, as part of its strategy to diversify its revenue base. Contribution margins on licensing are very high, so by further pursuing these opportunities, management expects to be able to achieve incremental bottom line growth with very little risk.

Leverage the 18-55 Male Audience to Attract Further Non-Endemic National Advertisers

As one of the few media companies that reaches men between the ages of 18 and 55 through both print and digital media formats, Enthusiast Media continues to attract non-endemic advertisers that target this highly valued demographic. Enthusiast Media's major non-endemic advertisers include Geico, Canon, Procter & Gamble and Campbell's. Non-endemic advertising represents 12% of total print advertising for the segment's business.

Enthusiast Media boasts entrenched relationships with several Fortune 500 companies. As evidenced by the charts below, which show Enthusiast Media's advertising revenue from its top clients, Enthusiast Media enjoys a well-diversified revenue base from its leading advertising clients, with the top 30 advertisers accounting for less than 30% of total revenue in 2006. Enthusiast Media's automotive groups also have a highly diversified client base, with US Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) representing only 5% of total print advertising sales. Non-US OEM advertising sales represent only 8% of total print advertising revenue.

Complement Organic Growth With a Targeted and Disciplined Merger and Acquisition Strategy

Since its founding, Enthusiast Media has successfully grown its product portfolio through a disciplined approach of identifying and acquiring relatively small niche media businesses. Enthusiast Media's business model is highly scalable and offers a unique platform for growth through add-on acquisitions. Enthusiast Media has focused on acquiring complementary titles and businesses that serve targeted customer bases within specific market segments. Acquisitions in these smaller, relatively less-visible niches are typically below the radar screen of major media players and, therefore, are completed at comparatively low multiples because of the lack of competition.

In acquiring these businesses, Enthusiast Media prefers to retain management teams who are often highly entrepreneurial. By retaining management talent and through the exchange and implementation of best practices, as well as cost savings directly attributable to economies of scale, Enthusiast Media has rapidly expanded its reach and improved its ability to serve a variety of customers.

Consumer Guides

Consumer Guides

Revenues for the Consumer Guides segment were $324,521, up 2.3%, and Segment EBITDA was $81,274, up 8.5% compared to 2005.

Apartment Guide

The segment's largest business, Apartment Guide and its online property, ApartmentGuide.com, maintained its market leadership position in the most difficult market conditions in the business's 32-year history. The year continued to present significant challenges, including continued high levels of condominium conversions that eliminated existing and potential customers from Apartment Guide markets and decreased vacancy rates in markets with high condominium conversion. Apartment Guide revenue was down 5.2% in 2006. The Company attributes Apartment Guide's relative stability in these adverse market conditions to its established brand both in print and online.

The Company continues to capitalize on the online potential of the Apartment Guide business. ApartmentGuide.com grew unique users 24% in 2006, and continues to be a recognized brand in the apartment rental industry. Apartment Guide Printernet, Apartment Guide's combined offering of print and Internet media, provided approximately 8 million leads to customers in 2006.

Auto Guide

With a potential advertising market that is larger than that of the apartment industry, the Company believes that Auto Guide represents a very attractive long-term opportunity that is at least comparable to its 31-year old Apartment Guide business. In 2006, the Company focused on integrating and bringing to profitability its Auto Guide publications launched or acquired in 2005.

New Home Guide

In 2006, the New Home Guide business and its online property, NewHomeGuide.com, enjoyed the best year in its history with annual revenue growth of 36%. In 2005, the Company grew its New Home Guide presence through organic growth of 31% in its existing markets, through the launch of a new magazine in the Washington, DC market and the acquisition of new print guides in the Atlanta, Charlotte, Jacksonville, Nashville, Seattle and Portland markets, bringing its total markets served to 25. The Company also significantly expanded its new homes Internet presence with the acquisition of americanhomeguides.com. The acquisition provides new home advertisers with millions of additional potential customers and provides consumers with access to more new home listings across the country.

DistribuTech

In order to maintain our quality retail distribution network, the Company renewed existing agreements and expanded into new retail chains in 2005. These investments also enable us to quickly launch new publications and continue to grow our third party distribution business. In addition, these investments ensure continued priority placement for Consumer Guides existing publications and provide the Company with the platform to rapidly roll out its new market publications, and to continue to grow its third party distribution business.

Forward-Looking Information

As announced in December 2006, because the Company is actively pursuing the sale of its Education segment, that segment has been classified as a discontinued operation for all periods presented. As the decision to explore the sale of the Enthusiast Media Segment, excluding the Outdoors group which was classified as a discontinued operation in the fourth quarter of 2006, was not made until February 2007, the Enthusiast Media Segment was a continuing operation throughout 2006. Commencing the first quarter of 2007, the Enthusiast Media Segment will be classified as a discontinued operation for all periods presented.

As a result of the classification of those operations as discontinued, going forward into 2007, the Company will consist of one segment, Consumer Source. In 2007, the Company expects its Consumer Guides segment to deliver mid single digit percentage revenue and Segment EBITDA growth, reflecting revenue growth in New Home Guide, Auto Guide, and the Company's single unit rental property business, partially offset by a full-year decline in Apartment Guide. Reflecting improvement in the management and operations of Auto Guide, the Company expects operating losses in Auto Guide to diminish throughout the year. The Company expects to deliver sequential quarter revenue growth later in the year in Apartment Guide, depending on market conditions.

This Annual Report contains forward-looking statements as that term is used under the Private Securities Litigation Act of 1995 and are based on the current assumptions, expectations and projections of the Company's management about future events. Although the assumptions, expectations and projections reflected in these forward-looking statements represent management's best judgment at the time, the Company can give no assurance that they will prove to be correct. Numerous factors, including those related to market conditions and those detailed from time-to-time in the Company's filings with the SEC, may cause results of the Company to differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements. Many of the factors that will determine the Company's future results are beyond the ability of the Company to control or predict. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties and, therefore, actual results may differ materially. The Company cautions you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements, or to make any other forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. All references to Company and PRIMEDIA as used throughout this presentation refer to PRIMEDIA Inc. and its subsidiaries.

Why We Use the Term Segment EBITDA

Segment EBITDA represents each segment's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and other charges (income) (Segment EBITDA). Other charges (income) include severance related to separated senior executives, non-cash compensation, provision for restructuring costs, provision for unclaimed property and gain on sale of businesses and other, net. PRIMEDIA believes that Segment EBITDA is an accurate indicator of its segments' results, because it focuses on revenue and operating cost items driven by operating managers' performance, and excludes items largely outside of operating managers' control.

Segment EBITDA is not intended to be and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or loss (as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles), or as an indicator of the Company's operating performance. Segment EBITDA is presented herein because the Company's chief operating decision maker and the executive team evaluate and measure each business unit's performance based on its Segment EBITDA results. Segment EBITDA as presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies since not all companies necessarily calculate Segment EBITDA in an identical manner, and therefore, is not necessarily an accurate measure of comparison between companies.

Why We Use the Term Free Cash Flow

Free Cash Flow is defined as net cash provided by operating activities adjusted for additions to property, equipment and other, exclusive of acquisitions and capital lease payments (Free Cash Flow).

The Company believes that the use of Free Cash Flow enables the Company's chief operating decision maker, its Chairman, President and CEO, and the executive team to make decisions based on the Company's cash resources. Free Cash Flow also is considered to be an indicator of the Company's liquidity, including its ability to reduce debt and shares subject to mandatory redemption and make strategic investments.

Free Cash Flow is not intended to represent cash flows from operating activities as determined in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Free Cash Flow as presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies since not all companies necessarily calculate Free Cash Flow in an identical manner, and therefore, is not necessarily an accurate measure of comparison between companies. See Liquidity, Capital and Other Resources.

Intersegment Transactions

The information presented below includes certain intersegment transactions and is, therefore, not necessarily indicative of the results had the operations existed as stand-alone businesses. Intersegment transactions represent intercompany advertising and other services which are billed at what management believes are prevailing market rates. These intersegment transactions, which represent transactions between operating units in different business segments, are eliminated in consolidation.

Discontinued Operations

In September 2006, the Company completed the sale of its Gems group within the Enthusiast Media segment. In the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it had agreed to sell its Outdoors group, which consists primarily of its hunting, fishing and shooting titles. The sale presented the Company with an opportunity to realize significant value. The sale was completed during first quarter of 2007. Also during the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it would classify its Education segment as discontinued operations, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, due to the Company's decision to actively pursue the sale of this segment.

Financial results for these divestitures and planned divestitures are reported in discontinued operations on the statements of consolidated operations for all periods presented.

(1) Segment EBITDA represents the segments' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and other charges (income) (see footnote 2 below). Segment EBITDA is not intended to be and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or loss (as determined in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted accounting in the United States of America), or as an indicator of the Company's operating performance. Segment EBITDA is presented herein because the Company's chief operating decision maker evaluates and measures each business unit's performance based on its Segment EBITDA results. PRIMEDIA believes that Segment EBITDA is an accurate indicator of its segments' results, because it focuses on revenue and operating cost items driven by each operating manager's performance, and excludes items largely outside of the operating manager's control. Segment EBITDA as presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies since not all companies necessarily calculate Segment EBITDA in an identical manner, and therefore, is not necessarily an accurate measure of comparison between companies.

(2) Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 was $26,105, $23,706 and $24,186, respectively. Amortization expense for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 was $10,757, $5,822 and $6,045, respectively. Other charges (income) include severance related to separated senior executives of $1,775 (including non-cash compensation of $146) and $658 for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively, non-cash compensation of $3,808, $6,089 and $6,097 for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively, provision for restructuring costs of $2,250, $1,815 and $8,176 for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively, a provision for unclaimed property of $2,811 for the year ended December 31, 2004 and gain on sale of businesses and other, net, of $299, $209 and $965 for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

(3) Effective July 1, 2003, the Company prospectively adopted SFAS No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity, which requires the Company to classify as long term liabilities its Series D Exchangeable Preferred Stock, Series F Exchangeable Preferred Stock and Series H Exchangeable Preferred Stock and to classify dividends from this preferred stock as interest expense. Such stock is collectively described as shares subject to mandatory redemption and dividends on these shares are now included in loss from continuing operations and described as interest on shares subject to mandatory redemption, whereas previously they were presented below net income (loss) as preferred stock dividends. The adoption of SFAS No. 150 increased the loss from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 by $24,956 and $45,124, respectively, which represents primarily interest on shares subject to mandatory redemption of $24,203 and $43,780 and amortization of issuance costs of $753 and $1,344, respectively, which are included in the amortization of deferred financing costs on the accompanying statement of consolidated operations. During 2005, the Company purchased all of its outstanding shares subject to mandatory redemption.

Results of Operations

2006 Compared to 2005

Consolidated Results:

Revenues, Net

Consolidated revenues were $849,309 in 2006 compared to $821,728 in 2005:

	Years Ended December 31,		Percent
	2006	2005	Change
Revenues, net:
Advertising	$ 561,195	$ 557,690	0.6
Circulation	163,721	164,125	(0.2)
Other	124,393	99,913	24.5
Total	$ 849,309	$ 821,728	3.4

Advertising revenues increased by $3,505 in 2006 compared to 2005 due to an increases of $7,661 in the Consumer Guides segment, partially offset by a decrease of $4,156 in the Enthusiast Media segment. Circulation revenues decreased $404 in 2006 in the Enthusiast Media segment. Other revenues increased $24,480 in 2006 compared to 2005 due to increases in the Enthusiast Media segment of $24,754 offset by a decrease in the Consumer Guides segment of $274. Revenue trends within each segment are further detailed in the segment discussions below.

Operating Income

Operating income was $107,737 in 2006 compared to $106,018 in 2005. The change in operating income in 2006 was primarily due to the increase in revenues of $27,581 partially offset by increases in cost of goods sold of $17,052, distribution, circulation and fulfillment of $1,651, and an increase in amortization and depreciation expenses of $7,334, all of which are primarily due to the acquisition of Automotive.com in the fourth quarter of 2005.

Net Income

The Company had net income of $38,252 in 2006 compared to $564,618 in 2005. In 2005, the Company recorded net gains on the sales of its Business Information Segment, of $221,978, About, Inc. of $378,930, PRIMEDIA Workplace Learning of $2,806 and Ward s of $501, included in discontinued operations, and 2006 included gains on the sale of the Crafts group of approximately $45,400 and the History group of approximately $13,500.

Other income (expense), net changed by \$11,572 to \$(1,947) in 2006 from \$(13,519) in 2005. The expense decreased primarily due to losses incurred of \$3,541 associated with the prepayment of the Company s term loan A and term loan B in 2005, \$4,348 associated with the Company s purchase of its 75 $\frac{7}{8}$ % Senior Notes in 2005, and \$9,887 associated with the write offs of deferred financing costs and premiums paid in connection with the purchase of all of the Company s outstanding shares subject to mandatory redemption during 2005. These losses in 2005 were partially offset by interest income on short-term investments of \$2,880. During 2006, the Company purchased a portion of its 8% and 8 $\frac{7}{8}$ % Senior Notes, recording a loss of \$2,599. This was partially offset by interest income on short-term investments of \$581.

Interest expense decreased $4,803 to $125,546 in 2006, from $130,349 in 2005. Interest expense was reduced by $2,452 in 2006 for the fair value measurement of the deferred purchase price liability arising from the forward agreement related to Automotive.com. Excluding this reduction, PRIMEDIA s interest expense decreased due to lower average debt levels, partially offset by higher interest rates.

Interest on shares subject to mandatory redemption was $0 during 2006 compared to $24,203 for the year ended December 31, 2005, as the company purchased all of its outstanding shares subject to mandatory redemption during 2005. Amortization of issuance costs of $753 associated with the shares subject to mandatory redemption is included in the amortization of deferred financing costs on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations for the years ended December 31, 2005.

Segment Results:

The results of the Company s reportable segments are discussed below.

Enthusiast Media Segment (includes Automotive, Recreation and Lifestyles groups)Revenues, NetRevenues, Net

Enthusiast Media revenues were $524,836 or 61.8% and $504,638 or 61.4% of the Company s consolidated revenues for 2006 and 2005, respectively. Enthusiast Media revenues increased $20,198 or 4.0% in 2006 compared to 2005 as follows:

	Years Ended December 31,		Percent
	2006	2005	Change
Revenues, net:
Advertising	$ 292,629	$ 296,785	(1.4)
Circulation	163,721	164,125	(0.2)
Other	68,438	43,684	56.7
Intersegment revenues	48	44
Total	$ 524,836	$ 504,638	4.0

Advertising Revenues

Advertising revenues decreased $4,156 or 1.4% in 2006 driven mainly by declines in the International Automotive Group. This decline was attributable to a cooling of import-focused trends and advertising rate competition.

In 2006, the Consumer Automotive Group delivered growth of $595 in advertising revenue and growth of $70 in subscription revenue, with flat newsstand revenue. The most significant growth in Consumer Automotive Group revenue was in non-print, which increased $3,780, with significant improvements in event revenue of $3,312 and television and radio revenue of $698.

The Performance Automotive Group delivered 2006 growth in newsstand revenue of $1,320 and events revenue of $215, primarily attributable to product improvement efforts, the successful launch of Diesel Power magazine, and improved marketing of events.

Recreation Group revenue grew 2.6% in 2006, driven primarily by success in Action Sports Group print advertising and online; and the acquisition of Equine.com. Recreation Group subscription revenue declined due to a deliberate cut in direct marketing, as units sold of the Group's rate-base publications exceeded the required rate-base. The savings in direct marketing expense more than offset the loss in revenue.

Lifestyles Group revenue declined $724 in 2006, primarily due advertising softness. This group however had strong gains in Soaps and Home Tech newsstand revenue of $2,340.

Other Revenues

Other revenues for Enthusiast Media, which include events, licensing and merchandising, TV/Radio and list rental and lead generation increased $24,754, or 56.7%, in 2006 compared to 2005. The increase was primarily due to the acquisition of Automotive.com in the fourth quarter of 2005, which accounted for approximately $27,300 of the increase. This increase was partially offset by a decline in other online revenue of approximately $2,300.

Segment EBITDA

Enthusiast Media Segment EBITDA decreased 0.8% to $97,411 in 2006 from $98,152 in 2005. This decrease of $741 was due predominantly to the increase in operating expenses of $20,939 primarily due to the integration of the acquisitions that occurred in late 2005. Segment EBITDA margin decreased to 18.6% in 2006 from 19.4% in 2005.

Operating Income

Operating income was $75,429 in 2006 compared to $80,321 in 2005, a decrease of $4,892, mainly due to the increases in depreciation and amortization of $5,792 due to the acquisition of Automotive.com in the fourth quarter of 2005. This was partially offset by the decrease in provision for restructuring costs of $1,315.

Consumer Guides Segment (includes Apartment Guide, New Home Guide, Auto Guide, Rentclicks.com, Rentals.com, and the DistribuTech distribution business)Revenues, Net

Consumer Guides revenues were $324,521 or 38.2% and $317,134 or 38.6% of the Company's consolidated revenues for 2006 and 2005, respectively. Consumer Guides revenues increased $7,387 or 2.3% in 2006 compared to 2005 as follows:

	Years Ended December 31,		Percent
	2006	2005	Change
Revenues, net:
Advertising	$ 268,566	$ 260,905	2.9
Other	55,955	56,229	(0.5)
Total	$ 324,521	$ 317,134	2.3

Advertising revenues for the Consumer Guides segment increased $7,661 to $268,566 compared to $260,905 in 2005 primarily due to the launches of new Auto Guide and New Home Guide publications during 2005. The Company's Apartment Guide continues to be impacted by high levels of condominium conversions that eliminated existing and potential customers from Apartment Guide markets and decreased vacancy rates in those markets.

Apartment Guide

Apartment Guide, ApartmentGuide.com, and small unit rentals, representing 77% of 2006 advertising revenue, continue to face challenging market conditions. Advertising revenue declined 5.2% in 2006, primarily due to high occupancy rates across over half of the markets along with a reduced advertiser base as a result of continued losses from condominium conversions, partially offset by growth in the Company's small unit rental business. Although the rate of condominium conversions has slowed considerably from this time last year, the lost advertiser base from conversions in prior periods and high occupancy rates continues to negatively impact the business.

New Home Guide

The Segment's New Home Guide/NewHomeGuide.com business, representing 17% of 2006 advertising revenue, continued to deliver strong results with total revenue growth of 36%, and 38% organic growth, in 2006. This strong growth reflects New Home Guide having established itself as one of the most cost-effective and attractive media channels for home builders, and its ability to successfully adapt to changing new home market conditions.

Auto Guide

In 2006, the Segment's Auto Guide business, representing 6% of advertising revenue, generated total revenue growth of 67%, and 7.1% in the fourth quarter. This new division represents a $15 million business based on annualized revenue in the fourth quarter, and continues to have strong growth potential both within its existing markets and through expansion into new markets.

DistribuTech

Consumer Guides other revenues, which relate to its distribution arm, DistribuTech, decreased $274, or 0.5% in 2006 compared to 2005. All of PRIMEDIA's Consumer Source print properties continue to benefit from the Company's leading distribution business, DistribuTech. Consumer Source's strategy is to continually optimize distribution for its own guides at minimal cost. DistribuTech's strategy to optimize its distribution locations to best meet the distribution needs of the Consumer Source guides has historically caused, and will continue to cause, DistribuTech revenue and profitability to fluctuate.

Segment EBITDA

Consumer Guides Segment EBITDA increased $6,353 or 8.5% in 2006 to $81,274. The increase in profitability was due mainly to the acquisitions and investments made during 2005.

Operating Income

Operating income increased $3,247 or 5.1% in 2006 to $66,617 from $63,370 in 2005. This increase is primarily driven by the increase in Segment EBITDA, partially offset by increases in depreciation and amortization of $2,567 due to the acquisitions and investments made during 2005.

Corporate

Corporate Administrative Expenses

Corporate administrative expenses, excluding non-cash compensation, were $28,327 in 2006, compared to $28,057 for the year ended December 31, 2005. This slight increase is primarily due to increased professional fees incurred related to the exploration of the separation of the Company's businesses via a tax-free spin-off, and to a New York office consolidation, partially offset by reduced compensation expense resulting from headcount reductions and lower professional fees.

Operating Loss

Corporate operating loss decreased $3,364 in 2006 to $34,309 from $37,673 in 2005, principally driven by a decrease in non-cash compensation, primarily due to a modification of existing stock options in the third quarter of 2005, which resulted in an increase of non-cash compensation during that period.

Discontinued Operations

In accordance with SFAS No. 144, the Company has classified the operating results of all of its divested entities and entities for which the company is actively pursuing the sale as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

Enthusiast Media

During 2005, the Company has classified as discontinued operations the following entities within the Enthusiast Media segment : About, Inc, Ward's Automotive Group, the Crafts and History groups and two magazine titles (shut down). In February 2006, the Company completed the sale of the History group, and in September 2006, the Company completed the sale of the Crafts group.

During the third quarter of 2006, the Company sold its Gems group, part of the Enthusiast Media segment. During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it had agreed to sell its Outdoors group, also part of the Enthusiast Media segment. This sale was completed during the first quarter of 2007.

Discontinued operations of the Enthusiast Media segment for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 include revenue of $144,877 and $192,908, respectively, and operating income of $100,826 and $420,448, respectively, which includes a gain on sale of business. This gain on sale of businesses, net of tax, was $62,192 and $379,431, for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Education

During 2005, the Company classified as discontinued operations its Software on Demand division.

During 2006, the Company announced that it would classify the remainder of its Education segment as a discontinued operation, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, due to the Company's decision to sell the assets in this segment. The Education segment is comprised of Channel One, a proprietary network for secondary schools; Films Media Group, a leading source of educational video; and PRIMEDIA Healthcare, a medical education business.

Discontinued operations of the Education segment for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 include revenue of $55,279 and $75,345, respectively, and operating loss of $11,261 and $13,250, respectively, which includes a gain on sale of business during 2005. This gain on sale of business, net of tax, was $2,806 and related to the sale of Workplace Learning (which was discontinued during 2004).

Business Information

The Company sold its Business Information segment during the third quarter of 2005. Business Information segment revenues of $164,967 are included in discontinued operations for the year ended December 31, 2005. Also included is operating income of $238,895, and gain on sale of business, net of tax, of $221,978 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Other	99,913	85,120	17.4
Total	$ 821,728	$ 803,554	2.3

Advertising revenues increased by $15,034 in 2005 compared to 2004 due to an increase of $21,654 in the Consumer Guides segment, partially offset by decreases of $6,620 in the Enthusiast Media segment. Circulation revenues decreased $11,653 in 2005 in the Enthusiast Media segment. Other revenues increased $14,793 in 2005 compared to 2004 due to increases in the Enthusiast Media segment of $6,406 and the Consumer Guides segment of $8,387. Revenue trends within each segment are further detailed in the segment discussions below.

Operating Income

Operating income was $106,018 in 2005 compared to $113,882 in 2004. This decline of $7,864 in operating income in 2005 was primarily due to anticipated investments, mainly in Consumer Guides for new product launches and renewals and expansions of distribution agreements for DistribuTech. Amortization and depreciation expenses decreased $223 and $480, respectively, in 2005 compared to 2004 primarily related to assets that became fully amortized during the year. In addition, severance related to separated senior executives increased $1,117 to $1,775 in 2005.

Net Income

The Company had net income in 2005 of $564,618 compared to $35,470 in 2004. In 2005, the Company recorded gains on the sales of its Business Information Segment, of $221,978, About, Inc. of $378,930, PRIMEDIA Workplace Learning of $2,806 and Ward s of $501, included in discontinued operations.

Interest expense increased $7,251, or 5.9% in 2005 to $130,349 from $123,098 in 2004. The increase in interest expense was due to increases in interest rates on floating rate debt during 2005.

Interest on shares subject to mandatory redemption was $24,203 for the year ended December 31, 2005 compared to $43,780 for the year ended December 31, 2004, as the company purchased all of its shares subject to mandatory redemption during 2005. Amortization of issuance costs of $753 and $1,344, associated with the shares subject to mandatory redemption, is included in the amortization of deferred financing costs on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Segment Results:

The results of the Company s reportable segments are discussed below. All amounts are from Continuing Businesses unless otherwise specified.

Enthusiast Media Segment (includes Automotive, Recreation and Lifestyles groups)

Revenues, Net

Revenues, Net

Enthusiast Media revenues were $504,638 or 61.4% and $516,632 or 64.3% of the Company s consolidated revenues for 2005 and 2004, respectively. Enthusiast Media revenues decreased $11,994 or 2.3% in 2005 compared to 2004 as follows:

	Years Ended December 31,		Percent
	2005	2004	Change
Revenues, net:

Total	$ 504,638	$ 516,632	(2.3)

Advertising Revenues

Advertising revenues decreased $6,620 or 2.2% in 2005 driven mainly by declines in the International Automotive, American Motorcycle and Consumer Automotive Groups.

International Automotive continued to experience a market correction that began in 2004, after several years of significant growth. This market correction led to an 11% decline in total advertising pages in the category, and a 21% decline in PRIMEDIA s advertising pages in the category, according to Inquiry Management Systems/The Auditor (IMS). While PRIMEDIA maintains a leadership position with almost 60% of total ad pages, the Company is aggressively addressing the challenges of declining circulation, strong competitors with lower profit expectations, migration of customers away from the sector, fewer parts and accessories entrants into market than those leaving, migration of Lowrider wheel business to urban lifestyle titles, and the lack of a new tuner platform for a number of years. At the end of 2005, Honda introduced a redesigned Civic, which has been very well received and is expected to help the International Automotive category over time.

In the American Motorcycle Group, 2005 was plagued by poor performance in ad revenue and newsstand sales relative to the competition. According to IMS, PRIMEDIA's advertising pages in the category declined 9% while total advertising pages in the category grew 7%. The Company believes that this underperformance was largely driven by staffing issues that are being resolved in 2006.

Consumer Automotive advertising was negatively impacted by reduced U.S. automaker advertising. In 2005, over 90% of Enthusiast Media's advertising revenue was print advertising. Five percent of Enthusiast Media's 2005 print advertising revenue came from U.S. automakers, 7% from non-U.S. automakers, 53% from automotive advertisers that are not automakers (aftermarket parts and accessories, as examples), and 35% from non-automotive advertisers. In 2005, U.S. automaker advertising declined 20% from 2004, while non-U.S. automaker advertising was flat year-over-year.

Advertising revenue declines described above were partially offset by strong growth in the Action Sports and Outdoors groups. According to IMS, advertising pages in Action Sports increased 6% lead by increases in non-endemic advertising, with the addition of key advertisers such as Gillette, Sony Music and Taco Bell. In the Outdoor group, Power & Motoryacht had a great year with over 7% increase in advertising revenue.

Circulation Revenues

Circulation revenues at Enthusiast Media declined $11,653 or 6.6% for the year ended December 31, 2005 due mainly to continued softness in newsstand sales for the Soap Opera and International Automotive titles, with revenue declines of 11% and 21%, respectively, in 2005 compared to 2004.

Other Revenues

Other revenues for Enthusiast Media, which include events, licensing and merchandising, TV/Radio and list rental and lead generation increased $6,406, or 17.2%, in 2005 compared to 2004. The increase was led primarily by growth in licensing and merchandising, events and TV/Radio. Strong revenue growth of 34% in licensing was a result of new licensees signed across all categories, additional success with existing licensees, the increased availability of PRIMEDIA licensed products at retailers, and growth in video continuity programs. PRIMEDIA's licensed products grew to approximately 650, up from 330 in 2004, and the Company's products were available at approximately 65 retail chains and in nearly 1,000 independent retailers.

Segment EBITDA

Enthusiast Media Segment EBITDA decreased 8.8% to $98,152 in 2005 from $107,607 in 2004. This decrease was due predominantly to the decrease in advertising and circulation revenues. Segment EBITDA margin decreased to 19.4% in 2005 from 20.8% in 2004.

Operating Income

Operating income was $80,321 in 2005 compared to $86,733 in 2004, a decrease of $6,412, which was principally driven by the decrease in Segment EBITDA, partially offset by a provision for unclaimed property recorded in 2004 (see Note 18).

Consumer Guides Segment (includes Apartment Guide, New Home Guide, Auto Guide, ApartmentGuide.com, NewHomeGuide.com, Rentclicks.com, Autoguide.com, Rentals.com, and the DistribuTech distribution business)

Revenues, Net

Consumer Guides revenues were $317,134 or 38.6% and $287,093 or 35.7% of the Company's consolidated revenues for 2005 and 2004, respectively. Consumer Guides revenues increased $30,041 or 10.5% in 2005 compared to 2004 as follows:

	Years Ended December 31,		Percent
	2005	2004	Change
Revenues, net:
Advertising	$ 260,905	$ 239,251	9.1
Other	56,229	47,842	17.5
Total	$ 317,134	$ 287,093	10.5

Advertising revenues for the Consumer Guides segment increased $21,654 to $260,905 in 2005 compared to $239,251 in 2004 primarily due to the launches of new Auto Guide and New Home Guide publications. The Company's Apartment Guide continues to be impacted by high levels of condominium conversions that eliminated existing and potential customers from Apartment Guide markets and decreased vacancy rates in those markets.

Apartment Guide

Despite the difficult apartment rental market, Apartment Guide revenues were down slightly in 2005. The Company was able to maintain the Apartment Guide's strong fundamental performance through an aggressive focus on its sales and servicing programs and by showcasing the industry leading performance of ApartmentGuide.com. These efforts allowed Apartment Guide to increase its number of advertisers to approximately 22,000 and to maintain its strong advertiser renewal rate of approximately 90%. Apartment Guide.com attracted 28 million monthly page views and over 1.3 million unique users, increases of 6.8% and 8.8%, respectively, compared to 2004.

New Home Guide

New Home Guide posted strong advertising gains in 2005, up 60% from 2004. Based on fourth quarter 2005 revenue, the two New Home Guide publications launched in the first half of 2004, in Orlando and Houston, were running at a $1.8 million annualized revenue rate and the New Home Guide launched in the second quarter of 2005 in Washington DC was running at a $0.9 million annualized revenue rate.

Auto Guide

In 2005, Consumer Guides continued its investment in a major expansion of its Auto Guide business and its online property, AutoGuide.com. The Company grew this business to a total of 14 publications. In August, 2005, the Company launched the national website, AutoGuide.com, to provide its dealers with an integrated media product on which to advertise their vehicles. By year end, the Company had grown Auto Guide into a $14 million business based on annualized revenue run rate.

DistribuTech

Consumer Guides other revenues, which relate to its distribution arm, DistribuTech, increased $8,387, or 17.5% in 2005 compared to 2004 due to continued expansion of its exclusive distribution network to new locations and new retail chains, increased rack utilization and a more effective pricing strategy. In 2005,

DistribuTech added approximately 650 retail locations and boosted its total rack utilization to 79% at December 31, 2005 up from 77% at December 31, 2004.

Segment EBITDA

Consumer Guides Segment EBITDA decreased $6,559 or 8.0% in 2005 to $74,921. The decrease in profitability was due mainly to investments of approximately $19,500 related to Auto Guide and New Home Guide launches and higher distribution expenses as the company signed several long term DistribuTech contracts. Segment EBITDA margin decreased to 23.6% in 2005 compared to 28.4% in 2004.

Operating Income

Operating income decreased $6,912 to $63,370 from $70,282 in 2004 or 9.8% in 2005. This decrease is primarily driven by the decrease in Segment EBITDA.

Corporate:

Corporate Administrative Expenses

Corporate administrative expenses, excluding non-cash compensation, were $28,057 for the year ended December 31, 2005, flat compared to $28,197 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Operating Loss

Corporate operating loss decreased $5,460 in 2005 to $37,673 from $43,133 in 2004 principally driven by a decrease in restructuring expenses of $5,659, from an expense of $5,094 in 2004 to income of $565 in 2005, partially offset by an increase in senior executive severance of $1,117 to $1,775 in 2005.

Discontinued Operations

In accordance with SFAS No. 144, the Company has classified the operating results of all of its divested entities and entities for which the Company is actively pursuing the sale as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

Enthusiast Media

The Company has classified as discontinued operations the following entities within the Enthusiast Media segment during 2005: About, Inc, Ward's Automotive Group, the Crafts and History groups, two magazine titles (shut down), and in 2004: Sprinks, New York magazine, About Web Services and six magazines titles (shut down). In February 2006, the Company completed the sale of the History group, and in September 2006, the Company completed the sale of the Crafts group.

During the third quarter of 2006, the Company discontinued and sold its Gems group, part of the Enthusiast Media segment. During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it had agreed to sell its Outdoors group, also part of the Enthusiast Media segment. The sale was completed during the first quarter of 2007.

Discontinued operations of the Enthusiast Media segment for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 include revenue of $192,908 and $221,327, respectively, and operating income of $420,448 and $86,675, respectively, which includes a gain on sale of business. This gain on sale of businesses, net of tax, was $379,431 and $41,483, for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Consumer Guides

The Company divested RealEstate.com, part of the Consumer Guides segment, during 2004.

Discontinued operations of the Consumer Guides segment for the year ended December 31, 2004 include revenue of $458 and operating loss of $239, which includes a loss on sale of business. This loss on sale of business, net of tax, was $506 from the sale of RealEstate.com for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Education

During 2005, the Company classified as discontinued operations its Software on Demand division.

The Company classified as discontinued operations the entire Education segment during the fourth quarter of 2006. The Company's Education segment is comprised of Channel One, a proprietary network for secondary schools; Films Media Group, a leading source of educational video; and PRIMEDIA Healthcare, a medical education business. Additionally the Company discontinued and shut down the operations of its Software on Demand division during 2005, and discontinued in 2004 and sold in 2005 its Workplace Learning division, excluding PRIMEDIA Healthcare.

Discontinued operations of the Education segment for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 include revenue of $75,345 and $103,656, respectively, and operating loss of $13,250 and $20,860, respectively, which includes a gain on sale of business during 2005. This gain on sale of business, net of tax, was $2,806 and related to the sale of Workplace Learning (which was discontinued during 2004).

Business Information

The Company sold its Business Information segment during the third quarter of 2005. Business Information segment revenues of $164,967 and $230,084 are included in discontinued operations for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Also included is operating income of $238,895 and $27,376, and gain on sale of business, net of tax, of $221,978 and $2,558 for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Recent Developments

Sale of Outdoors

In the first quarter of 2007, the Company completed the sale of its Outdoors group within the Enthusiast Media segment, which consisted primarily of its hunting, fishing and shooting titles, for $170,000 in cash. The sale presented the Company with an opportunity to realize significant value, while at the same time maintaining its position on the 18-55 male demographic. The Company has classified the results of operations of the Outdoors group as discontinued operations for all periods presented, and has classified its assets and liabilities as held for sale as of December 31, 2006.

Exploration of Sale of Enthusiast Media Segment in Lieu of Spin-Off of Consumer Guides Segment

In February 2007, the Company announced that its Board of Directors had authorized the Company to explore the sale of its Enthusiast Media segment, as the market and other conditions are extremely favorable in lieu of exploring the spin-off of the Consumer Guides segment. PRIMEDIA has retained Goldman Sachs and Lehman Brothers to manage this process. If the sale is completed, the Company will apply the proceeds from the sale to pay down debt.

Liquidity, Capital and Other Resources

During 2006, the Company reduced long-term debt by $139,811, made possible by the divestiture of selected media properties and other assets. At December 31, 2006, the Company had cash and unused credit facilities of $261,466 as further detailed below under Financing Arrangements, compared to $250,889 as of December 31, 2005. The use of this cash and unused credit facilities is subject to customary conditions in the Company's debt agreements. The Company's asset sales, debt redemption and investment in organic growth have facilitated its strategy to become a better strategically focused company while strengthening its balance sheet and improving liquidity.

During 2005, the Company purchased all of its Series D, F and H Exchangeable Preferred Stock, and the 7½% Senior Notes and issued a new $500,000 Term B Loan. The Company believes available cash and unused credit facilities at December 31, 2006 should mitigate any future possible cash flow shortfalls.

The Company believes its liquidity, capital resources and cash flow from operations are sufficient to fund planned capital expenditures, working capital requirements, interest and principal payments on its debt and other anticipated expenditures in 2007. The Company has no significant required debt repayments until 2010.

Working Capital

Consolidated working capital, which includes current maturities of long-term debt, was $27,837 at December 31, 2006 compared to a deficiency of $22,032 at December 31, 2005. The increase in working capital was primarily due to increased net assets held for sale at December 31, 2006. In addition, the Company had reduced accounts payable, accrued expenses and deferred revenues at December 31, 2006, primarily due to the timing of payments.

Cash Flow 2006 Compared to 2005

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities increased to $37,751 in 2006 from $(12,410) in 2005. This increase is primarily due to the absence of debt service on shares subject to mandatory redemption in 2006, as well as a reduction in debt service due to lower average debt levels. For purposes of calculating cash provided by (used in) operating activities, discontinued operations are included until sold or shut down, therefore, these units did not contribute to operating activities for the full year.

Net cash provided by investing activities decreased to $103,028 in 2006 from $687,642 in 2005. This decrease is largely due to the decrease in proceeds from sales of businesses of $671,251, as the Company completed the sales of its Workplace Learning division for approximately $21,300, About.com for approximately $410,600, its Business Information Segment for approximately $385,000 and Ward's for $5,750 during 2005. This was partially offset by the decrease in payments for businesses acquired, net of cash acquired, of $81,898, primarily due to the acquisitions of Automotive.com for $68,682 (cash portion), New Home Update for $15,800 and Equine for approximately $3,525 in 2005. The Company expects capital spending in 2007 to remain consistent with 2006.

Net cash used in financing activities was $142,206 in 2006 compared to $680,977 in 2005. This decrease in use of cash is predominantly due to payments for the redemption of shares subject to mandatory redemption of $479,278 in 2005, and decreased payments for repurchases of senior notes of $106,021. The Company purchased all of its outstanding shares subject to mandatory redemption during 2005.

Cash Flow 2005 Compared to 2004

Net cash (used in) provided by operating activities decreased to $(12,410) in 2005 from $44,673 in 2004. This decrease is due to lower segment EBITDA and increased working capital principally due to timing of payments, partially offset by lower debt service on shares subject to mandatory redemption in 2005. For purposes of calculating cash (used in) provided by operating activities, discontinued operations are included until sold or shut down, therefore, these units did not contribute to operating activities for the full year.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

Net cash provided by investing activities increased $636,855 to $687,642 in 2005 from $50,787 in 2004. This is largely due to the increase in proceeds from the sales of businesses of $753,248, as the Company completed the sales of its Workplace Learning division for approximately $21,300, About.com for approximately $410,600, its Business Information Segment for approximately $385,000 and Ward's for $5,750 during 2005. In addition, payments for businesses acquired increased $103,371 during 2005, primarily due to the acquisitions of Automotive.com for $68,682 (cash portion), New Home Update for $15,800 and Equine for approximately $3,525.

Net cash used in financing activities was $680,977 in 2005 compared to $91,145 in 2004. This increase in use of cash is predominantly due to payments for repurchases of senior notes of $228,989, the absence of proceeds from issuance of senior notes during 2004 of $175,000, and an increase in cash used for the redemption of Exchangeable Preferred Stock during 2005 of $479,278.

Free Cash Flow

The following table presents the Company's Free Cash Flow for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004:

	Years Ended December 31,
	2006	2005	2004
Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities	$ 37,751	$ (12,410)	$ 44,673
Additions to property, equipment and other, exclusive of acquisitions	(26,762)	(30,201)	(34,500)
Capital lease payments	(2,448)	(4,636)	(6,201)
Free Cash Flow	$ 8,541	$ (47,247)	$ 3,972
Supplemental information:
Cash interest paid, including interest on capital and restructured leases	$ 128,819	$ 134,259	$ 121,101
Cash interest paid on shares subject to mandatory redemption(A)	$	$ 33,305	$ 43,780
Cash income taxes paid, net of refunds received	$ 4,504	$ 4,767	$ 1,192
Cash paid for restructuring costs	$ 6,218	$ 9,514	$ 15,805

The Company's Free Cash Flow was negative in 2005 primarily due to lower segment EBITDA and increased working capital principally due to timing of payments, partially offset by lower debt service on shares subject to mandatory redemption in 2005. For purposes of calculating cash (used in) provided by operating activities, discontinued operations are included until sold or shut down, therefore, these units did not contribute to operating activities for the full year.

Financing Arrangements

Bank Credit Facilities

During 2006, the Company purchased $65,485 principal amount of its 8⁷/₈% Senior Notes due May 15, 2011 in several transactions, for $63,971 plus $616 of accrued interest. Also during 2006, the Company purchased $5,190 principal amount of its 8.00% Senior Notes due May 15, 2013 in two different transactions for $4,790 plus $164 of accrued interest, and purchased $52,500 principal amount of its Senior Floating Rate Notes Due 2010 in four different transactions for $55,119 plus $470 of accrued interest. As a result of these transactions, the Company recorded a loss of $2,599 net of the write-off of unamortized deferred financing costs and bond discount for the year ended December 31, 2006. This loss is included in the other income (expense), net line on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

On September 30, 2005, the Company entered into a new $500,000 term loan B credit facility with a maturity date of September 30, 2013. The new term loan B bears interest at the base rate plus 1.25% or LIBOR plus 2.25% per year. The Company applied the net proceeds from the sale of its Business Information segment, and a portion of the new term loan B to prepay $47,143 of outstanding term loan A commitments, $216,777 of term loan B commitments and $99,000 of term loan C commitments. In addition, the Company permanently reduced its total revolving loan commitments in an aggregate principal amount of $79,084. The Company recorded a loss of $3,541 in the other income (expense), net line on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 related to the write-off of unamortized deferred financing costs relating to the credit facilities.

The bank credit facilities consisted of the following at December 31, 2006:

	Revolver	Term B	Total
Bank Credit Facilities	$ 276,795	$ 495,000	$ 771,795
Borrowings Outstanding	(1,000)	(495,000)	(496,000)
Letters of Credit Outstanding	(20,157)		(20,157)
Unused Bank Commitments	$ 255,638	$	$ 255,638

With the exception of the term loan B and the Senior Floating Rate Notes, the amounts borrowed bear interest, at the Company's option, at either the base rate plus an applicable margin ranging from 0.125% to 1.5% or LIBOR plus an applicable margin ranging from 1.125% to 2.5%. The Senior Floating Rate Notes bear interest equal to three-month LIBOR plus 5.375% per year. The new term loan B bears interest at base rate plus 1.25% or LIBOR plus 2.25% per year.

Under the bank credit facilities, the Company has agreed to pay commitment fees at a per annum rate of either 0.375% or 0.5%, depending on its debt to EBITDA ratio, as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement, on the daily average aggregate unutilized commitment under the revolving loan commitment. During 2006, the Company's commitment fees were paid at a weighted average rate of 0.5%. The Company also has agreed to pay certain fees with respect to the issuance of letters of credit and an annual administration fee. From time to time the Company may pay amendment fees under its bank credit facilities.

The commitments under the revolving loan portion of the bank credit facilities are subject to mandatory reductions semi-annually on June 30 and December 31, with the final reduction on June 30, 2008. The aggregate remaining mandatory reductions of the revolving loan commitments under the bank credit facilities are $118,629 in 2007 and a final reduction of $158,166 in 2008. To the extent that the total revolving credit loans outstanding exceed the reduced commitment amount, these loans must be paid down to an amount equal to or less than the reduced commitment amount. However, if the total revolving credit loans outstanding do not exceed the reduced commitment amount, then there is no requirement to pay down any of the revolving credit loans.

Remaining aggregate term loan payments under the bank credit facilities are $5,000 in 2007 through 2012 and $465,000 in 2013.

The bank credit facilities agreement, among other things, limits the Company's ability to change the nature of its businesses, incur indebtedness, create liens, sell assets, engage in mergers, consolidations or transactions with affiliates, make investments in or loans to certain subsidiaries, issue guarantees and make certain restricted payments including dividend payments on or repurchases of the Company's common stock in excess of $75,000 in any given year.

The bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements of the Company contain certain customary events of default which generally give the banks or the noteholders, as applicable, the right to accelerate payments of outstanding debt. Under the bank credit facilities agreement, these events include:

- failure to maintain required covenant ratios, as described below;
- failure to make a payment of principal, interest or fees within five days of its due date;
- default, beyond any applicable grace period, on any aggregate indebtedness of PRIMEDIA exceeding $20,000;
- occurrence of certain insolvency proceedings with respect to PRIMEDIA or any of its material subsidiaries;
- entry of one judgment or decree involving a liability of $15,000 or more (or more than one involving an aggregate liability of $25,000 or more); and
- occurrence of certain events constituting a change of control of the Company.

The events of default contained in the Senior Notes are similar to, but generally less restrictive than, those contained in the Company's bank credit facilities.

8 7/8% Senior Notes. The 8 7/8% Senior Notes mature on May 15, 2011, with no sinking fund requirements, and have interest payable semi-annually in May and November at an annual rate of 8 7/8%. Beginning in 2006, the 8 7/8% Senior Notes became redeemable at 104.438% with annual reductions to 100% in 2009 plus accrued and unpaid interest. The unamortized discount for these notes totaled $3,282 and $4,487 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

8% Senior Notes. The 8% Senior Notes mature on May 15, 2013 with no sinking fund requirements and have interest payable semi-annually in May and November at an annual rate of 8.00%.

Senior Floating Rate Notes. The Floating Rate Senior Notes mature on May 15, 2010 with no sinking fund and have interest payable quarterly in February, May, August and November at the annual rate equal to the three month LIBOR plus 5.375%

Contractual Obligations

The Senior Notes and the bank credit facilities all rank senior in right of payment to all subordinated obligations which PRIMEDIA Inc. (a holding company) may incur. The Senior Notes are secured by a pledge of stock of Consumer Source Inc. (formerly known as PRIMEDIA Companies Inc.).

If the Company becomes subject to a change of control, as defined in the indentures governing the Senior Notes, each holder of the Senior Notes will have the right to require the Company to purchase any or all of its Senior Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the purchased Senior Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

There are no significant required debt repayments until 2010. The contractual obligations of the Company are as follows:

Contractual Obligations	Total	Payments Due by Period

- (1) Interest payments are based on the Company's projected interest rates and estimated principal amounts outstanding for the periods presented.
- (2) Present value of expected future payments related to the acquisition of Automotive.com.
- (3) Future rental commitments for the above operating leases have not been reduced by minimum noncancelable sublease income aggregating $66,992 as of December 31, 2006. Operating lease obligations include restructuring liabilities.
- (4) Present value of expected future payments related to Workplace Learning lease obligations. See Contingencies below for further detail.

The Company had $1,000 borrowings outstanding at December 31, 2006 under the revolving loan portion of the bank credit facility. The revolving loan portion of the bank credit facility matures in 2008, and the term loan B matures in 2013. Assuming this balance remains constant until the end of the term, and application of the Company's projected interest rates, total interest payments related to the revolver under our bank credit facility are estimated to be $115 for the periods presented in the above table. These interest payments are not included in the above table.

The Company has other commitments in the form of letters of credit of $20,157 aggregate face value which expire on or before December 31, 2007.

A change in the rating of our debt instruments by the outside rating agencies does not negatively impact our ability to use our available lines of credit or the borrowing rate under our bank credit facilities. As of February 28, 2007, the Company's senior debt rating from Moody's was B2 and from Standard and Poor's was B.

Additional Payments

Under the provisions of the Automotive.com Stockholders Agreement, PRIMEDIA must make quarterly payments (the Additional Payments) to the minority shareholders of Automotive.com, as defined in the Automotive.com Stockholders Agreement. The additional payments are paid within 45 days of the end of each calendar quarter, with the last payment to be made within 45 days of the quarter ending December 31, 2008, or December 31, 2009, if the forward agreement (see discussion below) is extended by the minority shareholders. The additional payments are recognized when the related contingency is resolved and the consideration is paid or becomes payable. The pro rata share of the additional payments made or estimated to be made to Automotive.com's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) are recorded as compensation expense due to the nature of his ongoing relationship with Automotive.com. The remaining pro rata share of the Additional Payments to be made to the other minority shareholders are recorded as an adjustment to the purchase price of Automotive.com.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has no variable interest (otherwise known as special purpose) entities or off balance sheet debt, other than as related to operating leases in the ordinary course of business.

Covenant Compliance

Under the most restrictive covenants as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement, as amended on September 30, 2005, except for those businesses specifically designated by the Company as unrestricted, all businesses of the Company (the Restricted Group), must maintain a minimum interest coverage ratio, as defined, of 1.75 to 1 and a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, as defined, of 1.05 to 1. The maximum allowable debt leverage ratio, as defined in the bank credit facilities, is 6.25 to 1 and decreases to 6.00 to 1 on October 1, 2007.

The Company is herewith providing detailed information and disclosure as to the methodology used in determining compliance with the leverage ratio in the bank credit facility agreement. Under its bank credit facility and Senior Note agreements, the Company is allowed to designate certain businesses as unrestricted subsidiaries to the extent that the value of those businesses does not exceed the permitted amounts, as defined in these agreements. The Company has designated certain of its businesses as unrestricted (the Unrestricted Group), which represent primarily Internet businesses, trademark and content licensing and service companies, new launches (including traditional start-ups), other properties under evaluation for turnaround or shutdown and foreign subsidiaries. Indebtedness under the bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements is guaranteed by each of the Company's domestic subsidiaries in the Restricted Group (excluding Automotive.com) in accordance with the provisions and limitations of the Company's bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements. The guarantees are full, unconditional and joint and several. The Unrestricted Group does not guarantee the bank credit facilities or Senior Notes. For purposes of determining compliance with certain financial covenants under the Company's bank credit facility, the Unrestricted Group's results (positive or negative) are not reflected in the Consolidated EBITDA of the Restricted Group which, as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement, excludes losses of the Unrestricted Group, non-cash charges and restructuring charges and is adjusted primarily for the trailing four quarters results of acquisitions and divestitures and estimated savings for acquired businesses.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

The following represents a reconciliation of EBITDA of the Restricted Group for purposes of the leverage ratio as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement to net income for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005:

	$ 47,445	$ 48,703

The Company has established intercompany arrangements that reflect transactions, such as leasing, licensing, sales and related services and cross-promotion, between Company businesses in the Restricted Group and the Unrestricted Group, which management believes are, on an arms length basis and as permitted by the bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements. These intercompany arrangements afford strategic benefits across the Company's properties and, in particular, enable the Unrestricted Group to utilize established brands and content, promote brand awareness and increase traffic and revenue to the properties of the Unrestricted Group. For company-wide consolidated financial reporting, these intercompany transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

The calculation of the Company's leverage ratio, as required under the bank credit facilities agreement for covenant purposes, is defined as the Company's consolidated debt divided by the EBITDA of the Restricted Group. At December 31, 2006, this leverage ratio was approximately 5.9 to 1, the same as the ratio at December 31, 2005.

Contingencies and Other

The Company is involved in ordinary and routine litigation incidental to its business. In the opinion of management, there is no pending legal proceeding that would have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

As of and for the year ended December 31, 2006, no officers or directors of the Company have been granted loans by the Company, nor has the Company guaranteed any obligations of such persons.

In 2005, the Company sold substantially all of the assets of Workplace Learning for the assumption of ongoing liabilities while retaining a secondary liability as the assignor of the building and satellite time leases. The Company received a third party guaranty of up to $10,000 against those lease obligations to reimburse the Company for lease payments made (the Guaranty). In the first half of 2006, the Company made payments on behalf of Workplace Learning pursuant to its secondary liability. During the second quarter of 2006, the Company recorded a liability for the fair value of the lease payments, net of sublease income, related to its secondary liability on the lease payments. At this time, the Company also recorded a receivable of $10,000 for the amount due from the third party guarantor for the lease payments. As a result of recording the receivable and liability during the second quarter, the Company has recorded a charge of approximately $7,200 to discontinued operations. In the second half of 2006, the Company commenced a lawsuit to collect on the Guaranty. During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company determined that it was not probable that the third party would remit payment, as required under the Guaranty, and fully reserved for the $10,000 receivable with a charge to discontinued operations as of December 31, 2006. The Company continues to exercise all available legal remedies against the third party guarantor and to fulfill its secondary obligation regarding the Workplace Learning leases.

At December 31, 2006, the Company has recorded a total liability of $16,156 for the fair value of the future lease payments, net of estimated sublease income, in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Critical Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates. The discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations is based upon its consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. On an on-going basis, the Company evaluates its estimates, including those related to allowances for doubtful accounts, reserves for sales returns and allowances, provisions for restructuring costs, purchase price allocations, impairments of investments, divestiture reserves, the recoverability of long-lived assets including goodwill and the valuation of equity instruments and allowances for income taxes. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that it believes are reasonable under the circumstances. These estimates or assumptions form the basis of its judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates which would affect its reported results from operations. The Company believes the following is a description of the critical accounting policies and estimates used in the preparation of its consolidated financial statements.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets are accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. Under SFAS No. 142, goodwill and intangible assets deemed to have an indefinite life are not amortized and are subject to impairment tests, at least annually. The Company does not amortize goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets (primarily trademarks).

The Company tests goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets for impairment, and has established October 31 as the annual impairment test date, using a fair value approach at the reporting unit level. A reporting unit is an operating segment or one level below an operating segment for which discrete financial information is available and reviewed regularly by management. Assets and liabilities of the Company have been assigned to the reporting units to the extent that they are employed in or are considered a liability related to the operations of the reporting unit and are considered in determining the fair value of the reporting unit. See Note 8 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the Years Ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 for further discussion on SFAS No. 142.

Long-Lived Assets. Whenever significant events or changes occur, such as those affecting general market conditions or pertaining to a specific industry or an asset category, the Company reviews the long-lived assets for impairment. When such factors, events or circumstances indicate that long-lived assets should be evaluated for possible impairment, the Company uses an estimate of undiscounted cash flows over the remaining lives of the assets to measure recoverability. If the estimated cash flows are less than the carrying value of the asset, the loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying value of the asset exceeds fair value.

Income Taxes. Income taxes are accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 109 Accounting for Income Taxes, which requires that deferred tax assets and liabilities be recognized using enacted tax rates for the effect of temporary differences between the book and tax basis of recorded assets and liabilities.

Management has determined that the Company is not likely to realize the income tax benefit of its net deferred tax assets. Therefore, as a result of the adoption of SFAS No. 142 in 2002, the Company continues to record a valuation allowance in excess of its net deferred tax assets to the extent the difference between the book and tax basis of indefinite lived intangible assets is not expected to reverse during the net operating loss carryforward period.

Since amortization of tax-deductible goodwill and trademarks ceased on January 1, 2002, the Company will have deferred tax liabilities that will arise each quarter because the taxable temporary differences related to the amortization of these assets will not reverse prior to the expiration period of the Company's deductible temporary differences unless the related assets are sold or an impairment of the assets is recorded.

Stock-Based Compensation. The Company has a stock-based employee compensation plan. Prior to January 1, 2006, the Company accounted for stock-based compensation using the Financial Accounting Standards Board's SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation as amended by SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, under the prospective method. Upon adoption, the Company began expensing the fair value of stock based compensation for all grants, modifications or settlements made on or after January 1, 2003. Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted the provisions of, and accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with SFAS No. 123 revised 2004 (SFAS No. 123(R)), Share-Based Payment, which replaced SFAS No. 123 and superseded APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Under the fair value recognition provisions of this statement, stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period. The Company elected the modified prospective transition method, under which prior periods are not revised for comparative purposes. The modified prospective transition method requires recognition of compensation expense from the beginning of the fiscal period in which the recognition provisions are first applied as if the fair-value-based accounting method had been used to account for all employees awards granted, modified, or settled after the effective date and to any awards that were not fully vested as of the effective date. The adoption of SFAS No. 123(R) did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition. The Company recognizes revenue when delivery has occurred, persuasive evidence of an agreement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured.

Advertising revenues for all consumer magazines are recognized as income at the on-sale date, net of provisions for estimated rebates, adjustments and discounts. Other advertising revenues are generally recognized based on the publications' cover dates. Online advertising is generally recognized when advertisements are run. Newsstand sales are recognized as revenue at the on-sale date for all publications, net of provisions for estimated returns. Subscriptions are recorded as deferred revenue when received and recognized as revenue over the term of the subscription. Sales of books and other items are recognized as revenue upon shipment, net of an allowance for returns. In accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) No. 00-10, Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fees and Costs, distribution costs charged to customers are recognized as revenue when the related product is shipped. The Company also derives revenue from various licensing agreements, which grant the licensee rights to use the trademarks and brand names of the Company in connection with the manufacture and sale of certain designated products. Licensing revenue is generally recognized by the Company pro rata over the life of the license agreement or as licensed products are sold.

From time to time, the Company enters into multiple element arrangements whereby it may provide a combination of services including print advertising, content licensing, customer lists, on-line advertising and other services. In accordance with EITF No. 00-21, Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables, revenue from each element is recorded when the following conditions exist: (1) the product or service provided represents a separate earnings process; (2) the fair value of each element can be determined separately; and (3) the undelivered elements are not essential to the functionality of a delivered element. If the conditions for each element described above do not exist, revenue is recognized as earned using revenue recognition principles applicable to those elements as if it were one arrangement, generally on a straight-line basis.

Allowances for Doubtful Accounts Allowances for doubtful accounts are estimated losses resulting from the Company's customers' failure to make required payments. The Company continually monitors collections from customers and provides a provision for estimated credit losses. The Company aggressively pursues collection efforts on these overdue accounts and upon collection reverses the write-off in future periods. If future payments by its customers were to differ from its estimates, the Company may need to increase or decrease its allowances for doubtful accounts.

Reserves for Sales Returns and Allowances Reserves for sales returns and allowances are primarily related to the Company's newsstand sales. The Company estimates and maintains these reserves based primarily on its distributors' historical return practices and its actual return experience. If actual sales returns and allowances were to differ from its estimates, the Company may need to increase or decrease its reserve for sales returns and allowances.

Provision for Restructuring Costs Reserves for restructuring costs are estimated costs resulting from management's plans and actions to integrate the Company and consolidate certain back office functions. If the future payments of these costs were to differ from its estimates, the Company may need to increase or decrease its reserves.

Divestiture Reserves Reserves for estimated obligations relating to divestitures may arise as a result of the sale of certain titles or business units. These reserves are established for such items that the Company remains liable for after the sale is completed and are recorded at the time of the divestiture as part of the gain or loss on the sale of the divested asset or business. If the future payments for such items differ from its estimates, there could be a change in the determination of the gain or loss on sale.

Net Operating Loss Carryforwards

At December 31, 2006, the Company had aggregate Federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $1.3 billion which will be available to reduce future taxable income through 2024. In addition, the Company has significant state and local net operating loss carryforwards in various jurisdictions in which the Company and/or its subsidiaries file income tax returns. These state and local net operating loss carryforwards expire over various periods based on applicable state and local regulations. The Company currently has recorded a full valuation allowance against its federal, state and local net operating loss carryforwards. To the extent that the Company achieves positive net income in the future, the net operating loss carryforwards may be able to be utilized and the Company's valuation allowance will be adjusted accordingly. The utilization of such net operating losses is subject to certain limitations under tax laws.

Senior Executives Severance and Provision for Restructuring Costs

Senior Executives Severance

In 2005 and 2004 the Company recorded $1,775 and $658 of severance related to the separation of the former President and Chief Executive Officer and the former Interim Chief Executive Officer, respectively.

Provision for Restructuring Costs

In 2006, the Company began new cost reduction initiatives to streamline operations, reduce layers of management and consolidate real estate.

Details of the new initiatives implemented and the payments made related to both the new and previously implemented plans during the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 are presented in the following tables:

	Liability as of January 1, 2006	Net Provision for the Year Ended December 31, 2006	Payments During the Year Ended December 31, 2006	Liability as of December 31, 2006
Severance and closures:
Employee-related termination costs	$ 245	$ 1,020	$ (1,015)	$ 250
Termination of leases related to office closures	29,228	1,230	(4,228)	26,230
Total severance and closures	$ 29,473	$ 2,250 (1)	$ (5,243)	$ 26,480 (2)

	Liability as of January 1, 2005	Net Provision for the Year Ended December 31, 2005	Payments During the Year Ended December 31, 2005	Liability as of December 31, 2005
Severance and closures:
Employee-related termination costs	$ 1,499	$ 1,532	$ (2,786)	$ 245
Termination of leases related to office closures	34,450	283	(5,505)	29,228
Total severance and closures	$ 35,949	$ 1,815 (3)	$ (8,291)	$ 29,473

(1) Includes $944 related to the Enthusiast Media segment, $506 related to the Consumer Guides segment and $800 related to Corporate.

(2) Includes $1,788 related to the Enthusiast Media segment, $290 related to the Consumer Guides segment and $24,402 related to Corporate.

(3) Includes $2,259 related to the Enthusiast Media segment and $121 related to the Consumer Guides segment net of a reduction of $565 related to Corporate due to a true-up of leases related liabilities.

The remaining liability related to real estate lease commitments for space that the Company no longer occupies, is expected to be paid through 2015. The employee-related termination costs are expected to be paid through 2007. To reduce the lease related costs, the Company has aggressively pursued subleases of its available office space. These leases have been recorded at their net present value amounts and are net of sublease income amounts. The Company evaluates the appropriateness of its reserves on a quarterly basis.

As a result of the implementation of this new plan, the Company has closed 4 office locations and has terminated a total of 73 individuals.

Liabilities of $4,495 and $3,972 representing the current portion of the provision for restructuring costs are included in accrued expenses and other on the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. Liabilities of $21,985 and $25,501 representing the non-current portion of the provision for restructuring costs are included in other non-current liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

For purposes of the Company's bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements, the provision for restructuring costs is excluded from the Company's calculation of consolidated EBITDA.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This Statement applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements. This Statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company does not anticipate any material impact on its consolidated financial statements upon the adoption of this standard.

SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, which permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. SFAS No 159 also includes an amendment to SFAS No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities which applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. This Statement is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007. The Company does not anticipate any material impact on its consolidated financial statements upon the adoption of this standard.

FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

In July of 2006, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. This Interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with FASB Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. This Interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 requires that, in order to be recognized, tax benefits must be more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The amount recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Differences between the amounts recognized in the statements of financial position prior to the adoption of FIN 48 and the amounts reported after adoption should be accounted for as a cumulative-effect adjustment recorded to the beginning balance of retained earnings. FIN 48 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. The Company is in the process of assessing the impact of this Interpretation on its consolidated financial statements.

Impact of Inflation and Other Costs

The impact of inflation was immaterial during 2006, 2005 and 2004. Postage, however, for product distribution and direct mail solicitations is a significant expense of the Company. The Company uses the U.S. Postal Service for distribution of many of its products and marketing materials. Postal rates increased 5.4% in 2006. In the past, the effects of inflation on operating expenses including postage increases have substantially been offset by the Company's ability to increase selling prices. No assurances can be given that the Company can pass such cost increases through to its customers in the future. In addition to pricing actions, the Company is continuing to examine all aspects of the manufacturing and purchasing processes to identify ways to offset price increases. The cost of paper was stable during 2006. The Company's paper expense decreased approximately 1.5% during the year ended December 31, 2006 compared to 2005. Paper cost represented approximately 9.8% and 10.2% of the Company's total operating expenses for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

Seasonality

The Company's operations are seasonal in nature. Operating results have historically been stronger in the second half of the year with generally strongest results generated in the fourth quarter of the year. The seasonality of the Company's business reflects (i) the relationship between advertising purchases and the retail cycle and (ii) subscription promotions and the holiday season. This seasonality causes, and will likely continue to cause, a variation in the Company's quarterly operating results. Such variations have an effect on the timing of the Company's cash flows and the reported quarterly results.

Item 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

The Company is exposed to the impact of changes in interest rates. At December 31, 2006, 53% of the Company's borrowings are fixed rate and the Company was not a party to any interest rate swap contracts.

The following table provides information about our financial instruments that are sensitive to changes in interest rates, including debt obligations at December 31, 2006 and 2005. For debt obligations, the table presents mandatory principal reductions, repayment schedules of outstanding debt and projected weighted average interest rates by expected maturity dates. For variable rate instruments, we have indicated the applicable floating rate index. The fair value of financial instruments are estimates based upon market conditions and perceived risks at December 31, 2006 and 2005 and may not be indicative of their actual fair values.

The Company periodically evaluates its exposure to interest rates and maintains a balance between fixed rate and variable rate obligations. As summarized in the table below, as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company carried a fixed rate debt for $704,825 and $775,500, respectively, excluding capital leases of the Company.

The Company has entered into variable-rate debt that, at December 31, 2006, had an outstanding balance of $618,500 and a fair value of $622,826. Based on the Company's variable-rate obligations outstanding at December 31, 2006, each 25 basis point increase or decrease in the level of interest rates would, respectively, increase or decrease the Company's annual interest expense and related cash payments by $1,546. Such potential increases or decreases are based on certain simplifying assumptions, including a constant level of variable-rate debt for all maturities and an immediate, across-the-board increase or decrease in the level of interest rates with no other subsequent changes for the remainder of the period.

The Company has entered into fixed-rate debt that at December 31, 2006, had an outstanding balance of $704,825 at face value, and a fair value of $705,914. Based on the Company's fixed-rate debt obligations outstanding at December 31, 2006, a 25 basis point increase or decrease in the level of interest rates would, respectively, decrease or increase the fair value of the fixed-rate debt by $5,581. Such potential increases or decreases are based on certain simplifying assumptions, including a constant level and rate of fixed-rate debt and an immediate, across-the-board increase or decrease in the level of interest rates with no other subsequent changes for the remainder of the period.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of PRIMEDIA Inc.
New York, New York

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of PRIMEDIA Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of consolidated operations, shareholders' equity, and consolidated cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2006. Our audits also included the financial statement schedules listed in the Index at Item 15(a)2. These financial statements and financial statement schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements and financial statement schedules based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PRIMEDIA Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2006, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Also, in our opinion, such financial statement schedules, when considered in relation to the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole, present fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Notes 2 and 19 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, effective January 1, 2006, and the provisions of United States Securities and Exchange Commission Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108, Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements, effective for the year ended December 31, 2006, respectively.

We have also audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, based on the criteria established in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and our report dated March 13, 2007 expressed an unqualified opinion on management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and an adverse opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting because of a material weakness.

PRIMEDIA INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(in thousands, except share and per share amounts)

1. Description of Business

PRIMEDIA Inc. (which together with its subsidiaries is herein referred to as either PRIMEDIA or the Company unless the context implies otherwise) is a targeted media company in the United States. PRIMEDIA's properties deliver content via print (magazines, books and directories), live events (trade and consumer shows), video, as well as the Internet and other marketing solutions in niche markets.

The Company's two business segments are Enthusiast Media and Consumer Guides. The Company's Enthusiast Media segment delivers content, both print and online, to consumers in various niche markets. The Enthusiast Media segment includes enthusiast magazines, their related Web sites, events and licensing and merchandising. The Company's Consumer Guides segment publishes and distributes rental apartment, new home and auto guides primarily in the United States in print and online formats.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates. The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant accounting estimates include the establishment of the allowances for doubtful accounts, reserves for sales returns and allowances, provisions for restructuring costs, purchase price allocations, impairments of investments, divestiture reserves, valuation of equity instruments and allowances for income taxes and the recoverability and lives of long-lived assets, including goodwill.

Basis of Presentation. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of PRIMEDIA and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Certain prior year amounts in the consolidated financial statements and related notes have been reclassified due to discontinued operations to conform to the current year's presentation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents. Management considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with an original maturity of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents. Book overdrafts representing outstanding checks of $20,793 and $25,279 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively, have been reclassified to accounts payable on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Concentrations of Credit Risk. Substantially all of the Company's trade receivables are from subscription and advertising customers located throughout the United States. The Company establishes its credit policies based on an ongoing evaluation of its customers' credit worthiness and competitive market conditions and establishes its allowance for doubtful accounts based on an assessment of exposures to credit losses at each balance sheet date. The Company believes its allowance for doubtful accounts is sufficient based on the credit exposure outstanding at December 31, 2006.

Inventories. Inventories, including paper, purchased articles, photographs and art, are valued at the lower of cost or market, on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and Equipment. Property and equipment, net are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation of property and equipment, including the amortization of leasehold improvements, is provided at rates based on the estimated useful lives or lease terms, if shorter, using the straight-line method. Improvements are capitalized while maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred.

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets are accounted for in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets . Under SFAS No. 142, goodwill and intangible assets deemed to have an indefinite life are not amortized and are subject to impairment tests, at least annually. The Company does not amortize goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets (primarily trademarks).

The Company tests goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets for impairment, and has established October 31 as the annual impairment test date, using a fair value approach at the reporting unit level. A reporting unit is an operating segment or one level below an operating segment for which discrete financial information is available and reviewed regularly by management. Assets and liabilities of the Company have been assigned to the reporting units to the extent that they are employed in or are considered a liability related to the operations of the reporting unit and are considered in determining the fair value of the reporting unit. See Note 8 for further discussion on SFAS No. 142.

Long-Lived Assets. Whenever significant events or changes occur, such as those affecting general market conditions or pertaining to a specific industry or an asset category, the Company reviews the long-lived assets for impairment. When such factors, events or circumstances indicate that long-lived assets should be evaluated for possible impairment, the Company uses an estimate of undiscounted cash flows over the remaining lives of the assets to measure recoverability. If the estimated cash flows are less than the carrying value of the asset, the loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying value of the asset exceeds fair value.

Income Taxes. Income taxes are accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes , which requires that deferred tax assets and liabilities be recognized using enacted tax rates for the effect of temporary differences between the book and tax basis of recorded assets and liabilities.

Management has determined that the Company is not likely to realize the income tax benefit of its net deferred tax assets. As a result of the adoption of SFAS No. 142, amortization of tax-deductible goodwill and trademarks ceased on January 1, 2002. Therefore, the Company will have deferred tax liabilities that will arise each quarter because the taxable temporary differences related to the amortization of these assets will not reverse prior to the expiration period of the Company s deductible temporary differences unless the related assets are sold or an impairment of the assets is recorded. The Company continues to record a valuation allowance in excess of its net deferred tax assets to the extent these difference between the book and tax basis of indefinite lived intangible assets is not expected to reverse during the net operating loss carryforward period.

Deferred Financing Costs. Deferred financing costs are being amortized under the straight-line method over the terms of the related indebtedness, which approximates the effective interest method.

Stock-Based Compensation. The Company has a stock-based employee compensation plan which is described in Note 15. Prior to January 1, 2006, the Company accounted for stock-based compensation using the Financial Accounting Standards Board s SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation as amended by SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure , under the prospective method. Upon adoption, the Company began expensing the fair value of stock based compensation for all grants, modifications or settlements made on or after January 1, 2003. Effective January 1, 2006, the Company adopted the provisions of, and accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with SFAS No. 123 revised 2004 (SFAS No. 123(R)), Share-Based Payment , which replaced SFAS No. 123 and superseded APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Under the fair value recognition provisions of this statement, stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period. The Company elected the modified prospective transition method, under which prior periods are not revised for comparative purposes. The modified prospective transition method requires recognition of compensation expense from the beginning of the fiscal period in which the recognition provisions are first applied as if the fair-value-based accounting method had been used to account for all employees awards granted, modified, or settled after the effective date and to any awards that were not fully vested as of the effective date.

Revenue Recognition. The Company recognizes revenue when delivery has occurred, persuasive evidence of an agreement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured.

Advertising revenues for all consumer magazines are recognized as income at the on-sale date, net of provisions for estimated rebates, adjustments and discounts. Other advertising revenues are generally recognized based on the publications' cover dates. Online advertising is generally recognized as advertisements are run. Newsstand sales are recognized as revenue at the on-sale date for all publications, net of provisions for estimated returns. Subscriptions are recorded as deferred revenue when received and recognized as revenue over the term of the subscription. Sales of books and other items are recognized as revenue upon shipment, net of an allowance for returns. In accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) No. 00-10, Accounting for Shipping and Handling Fees and Costs, distribution costs charged to customers are recognized as revenue when the related product is shipped. The Company also derives revenue from various licensing agreements, which grant the licensee rights to use the trademarks and brand names of the Company in connection with the manufacture and sale of certain designated products. Licensing revenue is generally recognized by the Company pro-rata over the life of the license agreement or as licensed products are sold.

From time to time, the Company enters into multiple element arrangements whereby it may provide a combination of services including print advertising, content licensing, customer lists, on-line advertising and other services. In accordance with EITF No. 00-21, Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables, revenue from each element is recorded when the following conditions exist: (1) the product or service provided represents a separate earnings process; (2) the fair value of each element can be determined separately and; (3) the undelivered elements are not essential to the functionality of a delivered element. If the conditions for each element described above do not exist, revenue is recognized as earned using revenue recognition principles applicable to those elements as if it were one arrangement, generally on a straight-line basis.

Barter Transactions. The Company trades advertisements in its traditional and online properties in exchange for trade show space and booths, advertising in properties of other companies and distribution related expenses. Revenue and related expenses from barter transactions are recorded at fair value in accordance with Accounting Principles Bulletin (APB) No. 29, Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions, EITF No. 93-11, Accounting for Barter Transactions Involving Barter Credits, EITF No. 99-17, Accounting for Advertising Barter Transactions, and EITF 01-2, Interpretations of APB No. 29. Revenue from barter transactions is recognized in accordance with the Company's revenue recognition policies. Expense from barter transactions is generally recognized as incurred. Revenue from barter transactions was approximately $5,900, $4,300 and $5,000 for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively, with approximately equal related expense amounts in each year.

Editorial and Product Development Costs. Editorial cost and product development cost are expensed as incurred. Product development costs include the cost of artwork, graphics, prepress, plates and photography for new products.

Advertising and Subscription Acquisition Costs. Advertising and subscription acquisition costs are expensed the first time the advertising takes place, except for certain direct-response advertising, the primary purpose of which is to elicit sales from customers who can be shown to have responded specifically to the advertising and that results in probable future economic benefits. Direct-response advertising consists of product promotional mailings, catalogues, telemarketing and subscription promotions. These direct-response advertising costs are capitalized as assets and amortized over the estimated period of future benefit. The amortization periods range from one to two years subsequent to the promotional event. Amortization of direct-response advertising costs is included in marketing and selling expenses on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations. Advertising expense was approximately $41,500, $45,100 and $43,400 during the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Internal-Use Software. In compliance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Statement of Position (SOP) 98-1, Accounting for the Costs of Computer Software Developed or Obtained for Internal Use, the Company expenses costs incurred in the preliminary project stage and, thereafter, capitalizes costs incurred in the developing or obtaining of internal use software and includes them in property and equipment, net. Certain costs, such as maintenance and training, are expensed as incurred. Capitalized costs are amortized over a period of not more than three years using the straight-line method. In addition, in compliance with SOP 98-1 and EITF No. 00-2, Accounting for Web Site Development Costs, direct internal and external costs associated with the development of the features and functionality of the Company s web sites incurred during the application and infrastructure development phase have been capitalized, and are included in property and equipment, net on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Typical capitalized costs include, but are not limited to, acquisition and development of software tools required for the development and operation of the website, acquisition and registration costs for domain names and costs incurred to develop graphics for the website. These capitalized costs are amortized over the estimated useful life of up to three years using the straight-line method. Capitalized software costs are subject to impairment evaluation in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets .

Derivative Financial Instruments. Derivative Financial Instruments are accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities . SFAS No. 133 requires that all derivatives, whether designated in hedging relationships or not, be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value regardless of the purpose or intent for holding them. If a derivative is designated as a fair-value hedge, changes in the fair value of the derivative and the related change in the hedged item are recognized in operations. If a derivative is designated as a cash-flow hedge, changes in the fair value of the derivative are recorded in other comprehensive income and are recognized in the statement of consolidated operations when the hedged item affects operations. For a derivative that does not qualify as a hedge, changes in fair value are recognized in operations. The Company has not been a party to and has not entered into any derivative contracts in any of the periods presented herein, other than the forward agreement discussed in Note 4.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This Statement applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements. This Statement is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company does not anticipate any material impact on its consolidated financial statements upon the adoption of this standard.

SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities Including an Amendment of FASB Statement No 115

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, which permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. SFAS No 159 also includes an amendment to SFAS No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities, which applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. This Statement is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007. The Company does not anticipate any material impact on its consolidated financial statements upon the adoption of this standard.

FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. This Interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with SFAS No. 109. This Interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 requires that, in order to be recognized, tax benefits must be more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The amount recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Differences between the amounts recognized in the statements of financial position prior to the adoption of FIN 48 and the amounts reported after adoption should be accounted for as a cumulative-effect adjustment recorded to the beginning balance of retained earnings. FIN 48 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. The Company is in the process of assessing the impact of this Interpretation on its consolidated financial statements.

3. Divestitures

The Company has classified the results of certain divested entities and entities planned for disposition as of December 31, 2006 as discontinued operations in accordance with SFAS No. 144.

2004

In January 2004, the Company completed the sale of New York magazine, part of the Enthusiast Media segment, the results of which have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented. Proceeds from the sale of $55,000, subject to standard post-closing adjustments, were used to pay down the Company's revolving credit borrowings under its bank credit facilities with JPMorgan Chase Bank, Bank of America, N.A., The Bank of New York and The Bank of Nova Scotia, as agents. The Company recorded a gain on the sale of New York magazine of approximately $38,000 in discontinued operations for the year ended December 31, 2004. Additionally, the Company finalized a working capital settlement with the purchaser of Seventeen, resulting in a payment to the purchaser of $3,379 in January 2004.

In February 2004, the Company completed the sale of Kagan World Media, part of the Business Information segment, the results of which have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented. Proceeds from the sale were approximately $2,200.

In April of 2004, the Company sold About Web Services, the Web hosting business of About, part of the Enthusiast Media segment, the results of which have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented. Proceeds from the sale were approximately $12,200.

In August 2004, Folio and Circulation Management were contributed to a venture with a third party, under which the Company will not have a significant continuing involvement in the operations and the Company's share of associated cash flows is not significant. Additionally, American Demographics was sold in November 2004. The operating results of these properties have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

In September 2004, the Company announced that it was exploring the sale of its Workplace Learning division, excluding PRIMEDIA Healthcare. Accordingly, the operating results of Workplace Learning, excluding PRIMEDIA Healthcare, have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented. Workplace Learning was part of the Education segment (formerly known as the Education and Training segment) which was renamed to reflect the classification of Workplace Learning as a discontinued operation.

On March 18, 2005, the Company completed the sale of About.com, part of the Enthusiast Media segment, the results of which have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented. Gross proceeds from the sale of approximately $410,600 were used to reduce the Company's borrowings under its revolving bank credit facilities and for general corporate purposes. The Company recorded a net gain on the sale of About.com of $378,930 included in discontinued operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

On March 31, 2005, the Company completed the sale of Bankers Training & Consulting Company, the financial services division of Workplace Learning, and on April 1, 2005, the Company sold the remaining net assets of Workplace Learning for the assumption of liabilities. The Company recorded a net gain of $2,806 included in discontinued operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

On September 30, 2005, the Company sold its Business Information Segment for approximately $385,000, resulting in a net gain of $221,978. During the fourth quarter of 2005, the Company sold Ward's Automotive Group, resulting in a net gain of approximately $501. The operating results of the Business Information segment, including Ward's Automotive Group, have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

Additionally, during the third quarter of 2005, the Company discontinued the operations of two magazines in the Enthusiast Media segment. Their operating results have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

During the fourth quarter of 2005, the Company decided to pursue the sales of its Crafts and History groups, part of the Enthusiast Media segment, and discontinue the operations of its Software on Demand division, part of the Education segment. In February of 2006, the Company completed the sale of the History group for $17,000, resulting in a net gain of approximately $13,500. In the third quarter of 2006, the Company completed the sale of the Crafts group for $132,000, resulting in a net gain of approximately $45,400 after certain divestiture related expenses and working capital expenses. The net proceeds from these sales are subject to routine post-closing adjustments. The operating results of these operations have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

In September of 2006, the Company has classified as discontinued operations and completed the sale of the Gems group, part of the Enthusiast Media segment. The net proceeds from this sale are subject to routine post-closing adjustments.

In the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it had agreed to sell its Outdoors group, which consists primarily of its hunting, fishing, and shooting titles, for $170,000 in cash. The transaction was completed in January 2007. The net proceeds from this sale are subject to routine post-closing adjustments. The assets and liabilities of the Outdoors group are included in assets and liabilities of businesses held for sale on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2006.

In the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company announced that it would classify the results of operations of its Education segment as discontinued operations, due to the Company actively pursuing the sale of this segment. The Company's Education segment is comprised of Channel One, a proprietary network for secondary schools; Films Media Group, a leading source of educational video; and PRIMEDIA Healthcare, a medical education business. The remaining assets and liabilities of the Education segment are classified as businesses held for sale on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2006 (see further discussion below).

The operating results of these operations have been classified as discontinued operations for all periods presented.

Included in Discontinued Operations

Total revenues, net, and income (loss) before provision for income taxes included in discontinued operations for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations are as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2006	2005	2004

Liabilities of businesses held for sale	$ 50,300	$ 33,203

Businesses with assets and liabilities classified as held for sale at December 31, 2005 were sold during 2006. In January, 2007, the Company completed the sale of its Outdoors group (see Note 27).

Impairment

In accordance with SFAS No. 142, the Company performs annual impairment testing on its goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets. In connection with the results of its SFAS No. 142 impairment testing, the Company recorded impairment charges related to indefinite lived intangible assets of the Education segment, included in amortization of intangible assets and other in discontinued operations, of $2,200, $2,100 and $6,700 as of October 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Also, in connection with the results of the SFAS No. 142 impairment testing, factors indicated that the carrying value of certain finite lived assets might not be recoverable. As a result, the Company performed an impairment test in accordance with SFAS No. 144 and recorded a loss in the carrying value of certain assets of its Education segment of $2,937 and $11,228, included in discontinued operations, as of October 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. In addition, during the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company recorded impairment charges totaling $5,945 related to the write-down of certain assets and a provision for expected loss on sale of business, also included in discontinued operations. See Note 8 for further information on impairment testing.

4. Acquisitions

Acquisition of Automotive.com

Allocation of Purchase Price

On November 15, 2005, PRIMEDIA purchased 80% of the stock of Automotive.com, Inc. (Automotive.com), an automotive lead generation business serving new car buyers, which has proven expertise in car sales lead generation, search engine marketing, search engine optimization and a technology platform that can drive increased traffic and ultimately monetize that traffic into high quality lead generation. To obtain full advantage from this acquisition, PRIMEDIA contributed the assets associated with its 55 automotive Internet sites to Automotive.com, creating new revenue opportunities for its portfolio of established automotive brands. As automakers divert marketing dollars to the Internet and as auto dealers seek increased car sale leads, the combination of Automotive.com with the auto Internet sites contributed by PRIMEDIA provides a platform for maximizing advertising and lead generation revenues across all those sites.

The total estimated purchase price of Automotive.com was $92,099, comprised of $68,400 in cash, net of cash acquired, $23,417 representing the present value of expected future payments to be made to acquire the remaining shares of Automotive.com and $282 of estimated acquisition costs.

PRIMEDIA financed the acquisition of Automotive.com utilizing $55,985 in cash and the remaining $12,415 as an advance on its revolver.

The following is a summary of the estimated purchase price, as well as the allocation of the purchase price to the fair value of the net assets acquired at November 15, 2005:

Cash paid (net of cash acquired)	$ 68,400
Present value of expected future payments	23,417
Direct acquisition costs	282
Total purchase price	92,099
Less: Fair value of net tangible assets acquired	7,158
Plus: Liabilities assumed	8,094
Total estimated purchase price	93,035
Allocated to identifiable intangible assets	30,689
Goodwill	$ 62,346

Tangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed consisted of the following:

Accounts receivable, net	$ 4,170
Other current assets	2,266
Property and equipment	722
Total tangible assets acquired	$ 7,158
Accounts payable	$ 1,202
Accrued expenses	6,892
Total liabilities assumed	$ 8,094

Intangible assets acquired consisted of the following:

	Fair Value at purchase date	Weighted- Average Amortization Period
Customer relationships	$ 21,300	11 years
Advertiser lists	110	4 years
Domain names	1,700	15 years
License	6,800	2 years
Software development	779	3 years
Total	$ 30,689	9 years

Goodwill resulting from the purchase of Automotive.com is included in the goodwill of the Enthusiast Media segment. None of the goodwill resulting from the purchase of Automotive.com is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

Additional Payments

Under the provisions of the Automotive.com Stockholders Agreement, the Company must make quarterly payments (the Additional Payments) to the minority shareholders of Automotive.com, as defined in the Automotive.com Stockholders Agreement. The additional payments are paid within 45 days of the end of each calendar quarter commencing with the quarter ended December 31, 2005 and ending within 45 days of the quarter ending December 31, 2008, or December 31, 2009, if the forward agreement (see discussion below) is extended by the minority shareholders. The additional payments are recognized when the related contingency is resolved and the consideration is paid or becomes payable. The pro rata share of the additional payments made to Automotive.com's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) will be recorded as compensation expense to the Company due to the nature of his ongoing relationship with Automotive.com. The remaining pro rata share of the Additional Payments to be made to the other minority shareholders will be recorded as an adjustment to the purchase price of Automotive.com.

For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company recorded $1,198 of compensation expense, and $3,465 as an increase to goodwill, for the Additional Payments relating to the minority shareholders.

Forward Agreement

In addition, PRIMEDIA and the minority shareholders entered into a forward agreement through which PRIMEDIA will purchase the remaining 20% of Automotive.com's stock within a short period of time after the 2008 audit date, or if the forward agreement is extended, the 2009 audit date (early 2010). The settlement price of the forward agreement is based on a measure of Automotive.com's earnings in the fiscal year prior to settlement.

For accounting purposes, the forward agreement has been bifurcated into the components relating to the CEO of Automotive.com and the other minority shareholders. The initial recognition of the liability, as of January 1, 2006, totaling $330, was recorded as a portion of the cumulative effect of change in accounting principle (due to the adoption of SFAS No. 123(R)). The liability measured on December 31, 2006 was $2,663, resulting in a charge to compensation expense of $2,333 for the year ended December 31, 2006.

The component of the forward agreement relating to the other minority shareholders was recorded as a liability at fair value as of the transaction date and an adjustment to the purchase price. On December 31, 2006, the fair value of this liability was $21,228, resulting in a net reduction to interest expense of $2,452 for the year ended December 31, 2006. At December 31, 2005, the fair value of this liability was $23,681. The change in the fair value of the liability from the date of acquisition resulted in a charge to interest expense of $264 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Pro Forma Information

The following unaudited pro forma information is presented assuming the acquisition of Automotive.com had been completed as of the beginning of the periods presented. In management's opinion, all pro forma adjustments necessary to reflect the material effects of this transaction have been made. The pro forma information does not purport to present what the actual results of operations would have been had the acquisition of Automotive.com occurred on such dates, nor to project the results of operations for any future period.

	2005	2004
Total revenue	$ 846,307	$ 829,605
Loss from continuing operations	$ (75,894)	$ (69,116)
Net income	$ 555,494	$ 31,238
Earnings per basic and diluted share	$ 2.11	$ 0.07

Acquisition of New Home Update

In April 2005, the Consumer Guides segment acquired the assets of New Home Update, a collection of new home guides for $15,800 in cash and $461 in assumed liabilities. The purchase price and its allocation are subject to routine post-closing adjustments. The Company allocated the purchase price of the acquisition to the following asset classes:

Asset Class	Amount Allocated	Amortization Period
Goodwill	$ 9,278
Non-Compete Agreements	382	5 years
Advertiser Lists	5,791	10 years
Other	810
Total	$ 16,261

The results of operations of this acquisition did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005, nor were the operations of this acquisition material during 2005 prior to the acquisition.

Acquisition of RentClicks

In January 2006, the Consumer Guides segment acquired the assets of RentClicks for $12,683 in cash (including acquisition related expenses) and potential earnout consideration. The amount of the earnout consideration of approximately $2,000, was charged to goodwill during 2006 when it was earned and was based on a measure of RentClicks earnings. The Company allocated the total purchase price of the acquisition to the following asset classes:

	Amortization Period	Amount Allocated
Goodwill		$ 7,204
Advertiser Lists	22 years	5,900
Non-Compete Agreements	5 years	860
Other		847
		14,811
Less: assumed liabilities		(49)
Total		$ 14,762

The results of operations of this acquisition did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2006, nor were the operations of this acquisition material during 2006 prior to the acquisition.

Other Acquisitions

In addition to the acquisitions listed above, the Company acquired the net assets of certain other smaller businesses for cash of $11,175 and $21,274 in 2006 and 2005, respectively. The results of operations of all of these acquisitions did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2006 or 2005.

5. Accounts Receivable, Net

Accounts receivable, net, consisted of the following:

Included in property and equipment are assets which were acquired under capital leases in the amount of $14,535 and $15,090 with accumulated amortization of $11,919 and $10,561 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively (see Note 22).

8. Goodwill, Other Intangible Assets and Other

SFAS No. 142 requires companies to assess goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets for impairment at least annually. The Company established October 31 as the annual impairment test date and accordingly evaluated its goodwill and trademarks. Any impairment identified is recorded in operating income. The Company's impairment testing under SFAS No. 142 did not result in any impairments for the Enthusiast Media or Consumer Guides segments in any of the periods presented.

In addition to the annual impairment test, an assessment is also required whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable (see Note 3).

The Company's SFAS No. 142 valuations utilized both an income and market valuation approach and contain reasonable and supportable assumptions and projections and reflect management's best estimate of projected future cash flows. The Company's discounted cash flow valuation used a range of discount rates that represented the Company's weighted-average cost of capital and included an evaluation of other companies in each reporting unit's industry. The assumptions utilized by the Company in these evaluations are consistent with those utilized in the Company's annual planning process. If the assumptions and estimates underlying these goodwill and trademark impairment evaluations are not achieved, the amount of the impairment could be adversely affected. Future impairment tests will be performed at least annually (as of October 31) in conjunction with the Company's annual budgeting and forecasting process, with any impairment classified as an operating expense.

Changes in the carrying amount of goodwill by operating segment are as follows:

	Enthusiast Media	Consumer Guides	Business Information	Total
Balance as of January 1, 2005	$ 688,911	$ 96,001	$ 117,667	$ 902,579

(1) Excluding intangible assets classified as assets held for sale (see Note 3).

Intangible assets not subject to amortization had a carrying value of $138,363 and $174,435 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively, (excluding intangible assets classified as assets held for sale) and consisted of trademarks. Amortization expense for intangible assets still subject to amortization was $10,757, $5,822, and $6,045 for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively. At December 31, 2006, estimated future amortization expense of intangible assets still subject to amortization, excluding deferred wiring costs, is approximately as follows: $10,000, $6,000, $5,000, $5,000 and $4,000 for 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 respectively.

9. Other Non-Current Assets

Other non-current assets consisted of the following:

	December 31, 2006	2005
Deferred financing costs, net	$ 10,126	$ 14,424
Direct-response advertising costs, net	5,522	10,871

Video mastering and programming costs, net		3,644
Other	3,748	2,256
	$ 22,810	$ 35,928

In 2006, the Company wrote off $1,732 of deferred financing costs resulting from certain 2006 debt purchases (see Note 11).

The deferred financing costs are net of accumulated amortization of $19,563 and $24,468 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. The deferred wiring and installation costs are net of accumulated amortization of $68,308 at December 31, 2005. Direct response advertising costs are net of accumulated amortization of $5,051 and $11,827 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively. Video mastering and programming costs are net of accumulated amortization of $2,612 at December 31, 2005.

10. Accrued Expenses and Other

Accrued expenses and other current liabilities consisted of the following:

	December 31, 2006	December 31, 2005
Payroll, commissions and related employee benefits	$ 25,340	$ 30,333

11. Long-Term Debt

Long-term debt consisted of the following:

	December 31,
	2006	2005
Borrowings under bank credit facilities	$ 496,000	$ 513,000
87/8% Senior Notes Due 2011	406,733	471,013
8% Senior Notes Due 2013	294,810	300,000
Senior Floating Rate Notes Due 2010	122,500	175,000
	1,320,043	1,459,013
Obligation under capital leases (see Note 22)	2,986	5,434
	1,323,029	1,464,447
Less: Current maturities of long-term debt	6,070	7,677
	$ 1,316,959	$ 1,456,770

During 2006, the Company purchased a total of $65,485 principal amount of its 87/8% Senior Notes due May 15, 2011 in several transactions, for $63,971 plus $616 of accrued interest. Also during 2006, the Company purchased a total of $5,190 principal amount of its 8.00% Senior Notes due May 15, 2013 in two different transactions for $4,790 plus $164 of accrued interest, and purchased a total of $52,500 principal amount of its Senior Floating Rate Notes Due 2010 in four different transactions for $55,119 plus $470 of accrued interest. As a result of these transactions, the Company recorded a loss of $2,599 net of the write-off of unamortized deferred financing costs and bond discount for the year ended December 31, 2006. This loss is included in the other income (expense), net line on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations.

On September 30, 2005, the Company entered into a new $500,000 term loan B credit facility with a maturity date of September 30, 2013. The term loan B bears interest at the base rate plus 1.25% or LIBOR plus 2.25% per year. The Company applied the net proceeds from the sale of its Business Information segment, and a portion of the term loan B to prepay $47,143 of outstanding term loan A commitments, $216,777 of term loan B commitments and $99,000 of term loan C commitments. In addition, the Company permanently reduced its total revolving loan commitments in an aggregate principal amount of $79,084. The Company recorded a loss of $3,541 in the other income (expense), net line on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 related to the write-off of unamortized deferred financing costs relating to the credit facilities.

The bank credit facilities consisted of the following at December 31, 2006:

	Revolver	Term B	Total
Bank Credit Facilities	$ 276,795	$ 495,000	$ 771,795
Borrowings Outstanding	(1,000)	(495,000)	(496,000)
Letters of Credit Outstanding	(20,157)		(20,157)
Unused Bank Commitments	$ 255,638	$	$ 255,638

With the exception of the term loan B and the Senior Floating Rate Notes, the amounts borrowed bear interest, at the Company's option, at either the base rate plus an applicable margin ranging from 0.125% to 1.5% or LIBOR plus an applicable margin ranging from 1.125% to 2.5%. The Senior Floating Rate Notes bear interest equal to three-month LIBOR plus 5.375% per year. The new term loan B bears interest at base rate plus 1.25% or LIBOR plus 2.25% per year.

Under the bank credit facilities, the Company has agreed to pay commitment fees at a per annum rate of either 0.375% or 0.5%, depending on its debt to EBITDA ratio, as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement, on the daily average aggregate unutilized commitment under the revolving loan commitment. During 2006, the Company's commitment fees were paid at a weighted average rate of 0.5%. The Company also has agreed to pay certain fees with respect to the issuance of letters of credit and an annual administration fee. From time to time the Company may pay amendment fees under its bank credit facilities.

The commitments under the revolving loan portion of the bank credit facilities are subject to mandatory reductions semi-annually on June 30 and December 31, with the final reduction on June 30, 2008. The aggregate remaining mandatory reductions of the revolving loan commitments under the bank credit facilities are $118,629 in 2007 and a final reduction of $158,166 in 2008. To the extent that the total revolving credit loans outstanding exceed the reduced commitment amount, these loans must be paid down to an amount equal to or less than the reduced commitment amount. However, if the total revolving credit loans outstanding do not exceed the reduced commitment amount, then there is no requirement to pay down any of the revolving credit loans.

Remaining aggregate term loan payments under the bank credit facilities are $5,000 in 2007 through 2012 and $465,000 in 2013.

The bank credit facilities agreement, among other things, limits the Company's ability to change the nature of its businesses, incur indebtedness, create liens, sell assets, engage in mergers, consolidations or transactions with affiliates, make investments in or loans to certain subsidiaries, issue guarantees and make certain restricted payments including dividend payments on or repurchases of the Company's common stock in excess of $75,000 in any given year.

The bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements of the Company contain certain customary events of default which generally give the banks or the noteholders, as applicable, the right to accelerate payments of outstanding debt. Under the bank credit facilities agreement, these events include:

- failure to maintain required covenant ratios, as described below;
- failure to make a payment of principal, interest or fees within five days of its due date;
- default, beyond any applicable grace period, on any aggregate indebtedness of PRIMEDIA exceeding $20,000;
- occurrence of certain insolvency proceedings with respect to PRIMEDIA or any of its material subsidiaries;
- entry of one judgment or decree involving a liability of $15,000 or more (or more than one involving an aggregate liability of $25,000 or more); and
- occurrence of certain events constituting a change of control of the Company.

The events of default contained in the Senior Notes are similar to, but generally less restrictive than, those contained in the Company's bank credit facilities.

87/8% Senior Notes. The 87/8% Senior Notes mature on May 15, 2011, with no sinking fund requirements, and have interest payable semi-annually in May and November at an annual rate of 87/8%. Beginning in 2006, the 87/8% Senior Notes became redeemable at 104.438% with annual reductions to 100% in 2009 plus accrued and unpaid interest. The unamortized discount for these notes totaled $3,282 and $4,487 at December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

8% Senior Notes. The 8% Senior Notes mature on May 15, 2013 with no sinking fund requirements and have interest payable semi-annually in May and November at an annual rate of 8.00%.

Senior Floating Rate Notes. The Floating Rate Senior Notes mature on May 15, 2010 with no sinking fund and have interest payable quarterly in February, May, August and November at the annual rate equal to the three month LIBOR plus 5.375%.

The Senior Notes and the bank credit facilities all rank senior in right of payment to all subordinated obligations which PRIMEDIA Inc. (a holding company) may incur. The Senior Notes are secured by a pledge of stock of Consumer Source Inc. (formerly known as PRIMEDIA Companies Inc.). Consumer Source Inc. includes all of the business and related operations of PRIMEDIA Inc. The operating results of Consumer Source Inc. are the same as consolidated PRIMEDIA Inc., and their balance sheets are substantially the same, except that PRIMEDIA Inc. holds all of the Company's bank credit facilities, Senior Notes indebtedness, capital stock accounts and other miscellaneous balance sheet accounts.

If the Company becomes subject to a change of control, as defined in the indentures governing the Senior Notes, each holder of the Senior Notes will have the right to require the Company to purchase any or all of its Senior Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the purchased Senior Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase.

Covenant Compliance

Under the most restrictive covenants as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement, as amended on September 30, 2005, the Restricted Group (as defined in Note 26) must maintain a minimum interest coverage ratio, as defined, of 1.75 to 1 and a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, as defined, of 1.05 to 1. The maximum allowable debt leverage ratio, as defined in the bank credit facilities, is 6.25 to 1 and decreases to 6.00 to 1 on October 1, 2007 (see Note 26).

The scheduled repayments of all debt outstanding, net of unamortized discount, including capital leases as of December 31, 2006, are as follows:

Years Ending December 31,	Debt	Capital Lease Obligations and Other	Total
2007	$ 5,000	$ 1,070	$ 6,070
2008	6,000	739	6,739

Total	$ 1,320,043	$ 2,986	$ 1,323,029

12. Income Taxes

At December 31, 2006, the Company had aggregate Federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $1.3 billion which will be available to reduce future taxable income through 2024. In addition, the Company has significant state and local net operating loss carryforwards in various jurisdictions in which the Company and/or its subsidiaries file income tax returns. These state and local net operating loss carryforwards expire over various periods based on applicable state and local regulations. The Company currently has recorded a full valuation allowance against its federal, state and local net operating loss carryforwards. To the extent that the Company achieves positive net income in the future, the net operating loss carryforwards may be able to be utilized and the Company's valuation allowance will be adjusted accordingly. The utilization of such net operating losses is subject to certain limitations under tax laws.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of (a) temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes, and (b) operating and capital loss carryforwards. The tax effects of significant items comprising the Company's deferred income taxes are as follows:

Management has determined that the Company is not likely to realize the income tax benefit of its net deferred tax assets. Therefore, as a result of the adoption of SFAS No. 142 in 2002, the Company continues to record a valuation allowance in excess of its net deferred tax assets to the extent the difference between the book and tax basis of indefinite-lived intangible assets is not expected to reverse during the net operating loss carryforward period. With the adoption of SFAS No. 142, the Company no longer amortizes the book basis of the indefinite-lived intangible assets but will continue to amortize these intangible assets for tax purposes. During 2006, 2005 and 2004, the Company recorded a provision (benefit) for deferred income taxes of $(6,526), $12,483 and $13,808, respectively, related to the increase in the Company's net deferred tax liability for the tax effect of the net increase in the difference between the book and tax basis in the indefinite lived intangible assets.

A portion of the valuation allowance in the amount of approximately $111,000 at December 31, 2006 relates to net deferred tax assets which were recorded in accounting for the acquisitions of various entities. The recognition of such amount in future years will be allocated to reduce the excess of the purchase price over the net assets acquired and other non-current intangible assets.

PRIMEDIA's tax returns are subject to examination by the applicable taxing authorities. The Company believes adequate provision for all outstanding issues has been made for all open years and that, as of December 31, 2006, the accrual for income taxes payable is sufficient to cover any expected liabilities arising from any such examination.

13. Shares Subject to Mandatory Redemption (the Company's Series D Exchangeable Preferred Stock, Series F Exchangeable Preferred Stock and Series H Exchangeable Preferred Stock)

On May 11, 2005, the Company purchased all of its outstanding shares of $10.00 Series D Exchangeable Preferred Stock (with an aggregate liquidation preference of $167,487) and all of its outstanding shares of $9.20 Series F Exchangeable Preferred Stock (with an aggregate liquidation preference of $95,333). The Series D Exchangeable Preferred Stock was called at 101% of the liquidation preference thereof plus accrued but unpaid dividends and the Series F Exchangeable Preferred Stock was called at par plus accrued but unpaid dividends. The Company recorded a loss of $4,349 in the other income (expense), net line on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 in connection with these preferred stock purchases. This charge represents the write-offs of unamortized deferred financing costs and the premiums paid on the purchase of the Series D preferred shares.

On October 1, 2005, the Company purchased all of its outstanding shares of $8.625 Series H Exchangeable Preferred Stock (with an aggregate liquidation preference of $211,739). The Preferred Stock was called at 101.4% of the liquidation preference thereof plus accrued but unpaid dividends. The Company recorded a loss of $5,539 in the other income (expense), net line on the accompanying statements of consolidated operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 in connection with these preferred stock purchases. This charge represents the write-offs of unamortized deferred financing costs and the premiums paid on the redemption of the Series H preferred shares.

As a result of these purchases, the Company had no outstanding shares subject to mandatory redemption as of December 31, 2006 and 2005.

14. Series J Convertible Preferred Stock

On July 7, 2004, the Company purchased all of its outstanding Series J Convertible Preferred Stock, representing an aggregate of 1,424,306 shares for approximately $178,000, using cash on hand of approximately $33,000 and $145,000 of advances under its revolving credit facility.

15. Share-Based Compensation Plans

Accounting Prior to Adoption of SFAS No. 123(R)

Prior to January 1, 2006, the Company accounted for stock-based compensation using SFAS No. 123 under the prospective method. Upon adoption on January 1, 2003, the Company began expensing the fair value of stock-based compensation for all grants, modifications or settlements made on or after January 1, 2003. The company adopted SFAS No. 123(R) on January 1, 2006.

The PRIMEDIA Inc. 1992 Stock Purchase and Option Plan, as amended (the Stock Option Plan), authorizes sales of shares of common stock and grants of incentive awards in the form of, among other things, stock options to key employees and other persons with a unique relationship with the Company. The Stock Option Plan has authorized grants of up to 45,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock or options to management personnel.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

Stock options are granted with exercise prices at or above quoted market value at time of issuance. Most of the options are exercisable at the rate of 20%-33% per year commencing on the effective date of the grant. Most options granted pursuant to the Stock Option Plan will expire no later than ten years from the date the option was granted. The grant date fair value is calculated using the Black-Scholes pricing model.

Summary of Impact of SFAS No. 123(R)

Under the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123(R), stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period. The Company elected to adopt SFAS No. 123(R) using the modified prospective method, under which prior periods are not revised for comparative purposes. The modified prospective transition method requires recognition of compensation expense from the beginning of the fiscal period in which the recognition provisions are first applied as if the fair-value-based accounting method had been used to account for all employees awards granted, modified, or settled after the effective date and to any awards that were not fully vested as of the effective date.

Upon adoption of SFAS No. 123(R), the Company recorded an increase in net income of $352 as a portion of the cumulative effect of change in accounting principle due to SFAS No. 123(R)'s requirement to apply an estimated forfeiture rate to unvested awards (previously the Company recognized forfeitures when they occurred) and a reduction to net income of $330 as a portion of the cumulative effect of change in accounting principle as described in Note 4. The adoption of SFAS No. 123(R) did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

Pro Forma Disclosure for the Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

Pro forma information regarding net income and earnings per share is required by SFAS No. 123(R), and has been determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options granted on or before December 31, 2002 under the fair value method. The fair value of these options was estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes pricing model with assumptions noted in the Stock Options section below.

Fair Value Calculations by Award

Stock Options

The fair value of each option award was estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes pricing model under the assumptions noted in the following table. Where certain inputs to the Black-Scholes model varied throughout the period, the ranges utilized for those assumptions are disclosed. Expected volatilities are based on historical volatilities of the Company's stock. The Company uses historical data to estimate option exercises and employee terminations within the valuation model. The expected term of options granted is derived from the historical exercise behavior of employees and represents the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding. The risk-free rate for the expected term of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

	2006		2005		2004
Expected volatility	61.71% - 63.63	%	65.95% - 75.30	%	80.14% - 89.0	%
Weighted-average volatility	61.78	%	71.89	%	83.83	%
Expected dividends
Expected term (in years)	3		3		3
Risk-free rate	4.95% - 5.03	%	3.25% - 4.23	%	1.99% - 3.25	%

The Black-Scholes pricing model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. The Company's employee stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate of its employee stock options.

In 2006, the Company granted two board members an aggregated total of 100,000 options to purchase shares of the company's Common stock. The exercise price of these stock options is $1.60. These options vest annually over a three-year period following the date of grant.

A summary of the Company's stock options award activity as of December 31, 2006 and changes during the year ended December 31, 2006 is presented below:

	Options	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term	Aggregate Intrinsic Value
Outstanding at January 1, 2006	20,712,058	$ 7.65
Granted	110,000	$ 1.62
Exercised	(19,833)	$ 1.82		$2
Expired	(767,614)	$ 8.07

Outstanding at December 31, 2006	19,815,029	$ 7.65	3	$ 9
Vested or expected to vest at December 31, 2006	19,642,038	$ 7.68	3	$ 8
Exercisable at December 31, 2006	18,469,806	$ 7.85	3	$ 8

The weighted-average fair value per option for options granted during the year ended December 31, 2006 was $0.73. Cash received from the exercise of stock options during the year ended December 31, 2006 was $36. No options were settled in cash during the year ended December 31, 2006.

The Company's policy for attributing the value of graded vested share-based compensation awards is on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period for the entire award. As of December 31, 2006, there was $364 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested stock options. The cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 1 year.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

Nonvested shares

The weighted average fair value of nonvested shares granted in the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 were $3.48 and $2.74, respectively.

A summary of the Company's nonvested shares award activity as of December 31, 2006 and changes during the year ended December 31, 2006 is presented below:

	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Grant-Date Fair Value
Nonvested Shares at January 1, 2006	804,500	$ 2.95
Vested	(424,546)	$ 2.91
Forfeited	(5,500)	$ 2.90
Nonvested Shares at December 31, 2006	374,454	$ 3.01

As of December 31, 2006, there was $661 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested shares. The cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 1 year.

The total fair value of shares vested during the year ended December 31, 2006 was $1,234.

The Company has 9,685,921 shares of the Company's common stock reserved for future grants in connection with the Stock Option Plan at December 31, 2006.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP)

Effective January 1, 2006, the ESPP was amended to provide that the purchase price of shares through the ESPP is 95% of the closing stock price on the last day of the offering period. Due to the amendment, the ESPP became non-compensatory and thus no charges were recorded for the year ended December 31, 2006. ESPP non-cash compensation for the year ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 did not have a material impact on the Company's statements of consolidated operations. In January and July 2006, the Company issued 170,054 and 112,877 shares purchased under the ESPP during the offering periods of the six months ended December 31, 2005 and June 30, 2006, respectively.

The Company has 2,451,000 shares of the Company's common stock reserved for future grants in connection with the ESPP at December 31, 2006.

Non-Cash Compensation

	Year Ended December 31,
	2006	2005	2004
Nonvested shares	$ 1,407	$ 2,455	$ 3,319
Share Based Compensation (SFAS No. 123(R) and SFAS No. 123)	2,401	3,780	2,603
Amortization of the intrinsic value of unvested in-the-money options issued in connection with the About Merger.			175
Total	$ 3,808	$ 6,235	$ 6,097

Non-cash compensation is omitted from the Company's calculation of consolidated EBITDA, as defined in the Company's bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements (see Note 11).

16. Basic and Diluted Income (Loss) Per Common Share

Income (loss) per common share for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005, and 2004 has been determined based on income (loss) applicable to common shareholders, divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for all years presented.

The securities that could potentially dilute basic earnings per share in the future consist of approximately 9,870,000 warrants at December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, and 19,815,029, 20,712,058 and 25,502,277 stock options at December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Potentially dilutive securities were not included in the computation of diluted income (loss) per common share because the effect of their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

17. Senior Executives Severance and Provision for Restructuring Costs

Senior Executives Severance

In 2005 and 2004 the Company recorded $1,775 and $658 of severance related to the separation of the former President and Chief Executive Officer and the former Interim Chief Executive Officer, respectively.

Provision for Restructuring Costs

In 2006, the Company began new cost reduction initiatives to streamline operations, reduce layers of management and consolidate real estate.

Details of the new initiatives implemented and the payments made related to both the new and previously implemented plans during the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 are presented in the following tables:

	Liability as of January 1, 2006	Net Provision for the Year Ended December 31, 2006	Payments During the Year Ended December 31, 2006	Liability as of December 31, 2006
Severance and closures:
Employee-related termination costs	$ 245	$ 1,020	$ (1,015)	$ 250
Termination of leases related to office closures	29,228	1,230	(4,228)	26,230
Total severance and closures	$ 29,473	$ 2,250 (1)	$ (5,243)	$ 26,480 (2)

	Liability as of January 1, 2005	Net Provision for the Year Ended December 31, 2005	Payments During the Year Ended December 31, 2005	Liability as of December 31, 2005
Severance and closures:
Employee-related termination costs	$ 1,499	$ 1,532	$ (2,786)	$ 245
Termination of leases related to office closures	34,450	283	(5,505)	29,228
Total severance and closures	$ 35,949	$ 1,815 (3)	$ (8,291)	$ 29,473

(1) Includes $944 related to the Enthusiast Media segment, $506 related to the Consumer Guides segment and $800 related to Corporate.

(2) Includes $1,788 related to the Enthusiast Media segment, $290 related to the Consumer Guides segment and $24,402 related to Corporate.

(3) Includes $2,259 related to the Enthusiast Media segment and $121 related to the Consumer Guides segment net of a reduction of $565 related to Corporate due to a true-up of leases related liabilities.

The remaining liability related to real estate lease commitments for space that the Company no longer occupies, is expected to be paid through 2015. The employee-related termination costs are expected to be paid through 2007. To reduce the lease related costs, the Company has pursued subleases of its available office space. These leases have been recorded at their net present value amounts and are net of sublease income amounts. The Company evaluates the appropriateness of its reserves on a quarterly basis.

As a result of the implementation of this new plan, the Company has closed 4 office locations and has terminated a total of 73 individuals.

Liabilities of $4,495 and $3,972 representing the current portion of the provision for restructuring costs are included in accrued expenses and other on the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. Liabilities of $21,985 and $25,501 representing the non-current portion of the provision for restructuring costs are included in other non-current liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

For purposes of the Company's bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements, the provision for restructuring costs is excluded from the Company's calculation of consolidated EBITDA.

18. Provision for Unclaimed Property

Based on an initial assessment at the end of 2003, the Company believed that certain business units may have had unclaimed property that should have been remitted to one or more states under their respective escheatment requirements. The property in question related primarily to unused advertising credits and outstanding accounts payable checks. It was premature to estimate the extent of the financial risk at the end of 2003, but the Company believed that the risk would not have a material impact on its results of operations or financial position. Upon completion of the initial phase of this assessment, the Company recorded in the year ended December 31, 2004 an estimated provision for unclaimed property of $2,811, relating to continuing operations, plus $2,689 relating to operations subsequently classified as discontinued operations. The calculation of this provision represents the recording of a correction of an error for unclaimed property transactions which occurred during the years 1991 to 2003; however, the amount of the provision, applicable to any year within this period, is not material to the results of operations for each of the respective years, nor is the total provision in relation to the results of operations for 2004 considered material.

The Company continues to negotiate settlements under voluntary disclosure agreements with the relevant states, the most significant of which was settled in October 2005, with no additional provision required.

19. Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108

In September 2006, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 108, Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements. This bulletin summarizes the SEC staff's view regarding the process of quantifying financial statement misstatements. SAB No. 108 permits the Company to adjust for the cumulative effect of immaterial errors relating to prior years in the carrying amount of assets and liabilities as of the beginning of the current fiscal year, with an offsetting adjustment to the opening balance of accumulated deficit in the year of adoption. SAB No. 108 is effective for reporting periods ending after November 15, 2006. The Company adopted SAB No. 108 during the fourth quarter of 2006.

During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company identified trademarks related to inactive publications which were not written-off in the years that they became inactive (2002-2005). Management believes that this error totaling approximately $5,300, net of deferred tax liabilities, is not material to prior years' financial statements. However, management does believe that this error is material to its current year financial statements and upon adoption of SAB No. 108 recorded a cumulative effect adjustment as of January 1, 2006 to accumulated deficit of approximately $5,300, and as a result, reduced intangible assets by approximately $6,900 and deferred tax liabilities by approximately $1,600.

During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company concluded that, based on applicable tax regulations, a worthless stock deduction associated with the divestiture of PRIMEDIA Business Magazines and Media, should have been considered in the 2005 provision for income taxes calculation. This benefit would have reduced the Company's total provision for income taxes by approximately $4,200. Management believes that this error is not material to the prior year's financial statements. However, management does believe that this error is material to its current year financial statements and upon adoption of SAB No. 108 recorded a cumulative effect adjustment as of January 1, 2006 to accumulated deficit of approximately $4,200.

During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company concluded that deferred income tax benefits of approximately $7,500 should have been recorded during the year ended December 31, 2005 when it became apparent that certain taxable temporary differences would reverse as a result of classification of businesses as discontinued operations. Management believes that this error totaling approximately $7,500 is not material to the prior year's financial statements. However, management does believe that this error is material to its current year financial statements and upon adoption of SAB No. 108 recorded a cumulative effect adjustment as of January 1, 2006 to accumulated deficit of approximately $7,500.

20. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following disclosure of the estimated fair value of financial instruments is made in accordance with the requirements of SFAS No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments and SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Company, using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. However, considerable judgment is required in interpreting market data to develop the estimates of fair value. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Company could realize in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts.

	December 31, 2006		2005
	Carrying Value	Fair Value	Carrying Value	Fair Value
87/8% Senior Notes	$ 406,733	$ 412,578	$ 471,013	$ 441,917
8% Senior Notes	294,810	293,336	300,000	254,813
Senior Floating Rate Notes	122,500	128,074	175,000	170,625
Deferred Purchase Price Liabilities	36,016	39,185	33,897	37,129

The estimated fair value of the senior notes was determined based on quoted market prices.

For instruments including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses, the carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments. The estimated fair value of floating rate long-term debt approximates carrying value because these instruments re-price frequently at current market prices.

21. Benefit Plans

Retirement Plans. Substantially all of the Company's employees are eligible to participate in defined contribution plans. The expense recognized for all of these plans was approximately $2,145 in 2006, $1,904 in 2005 and $1,614 in 2004.

22. Commitments and Contingencies

Commitments. Total rent expense under operating leases was $25,075, $22,219 and $24,137 for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively. Certain leases are subject to escalation clauses and certain leases contain renewal options. The Company expenses all operating leases for rent on a straight-line basis. The leases primarily relate to real estate and equipment. The following annual rental commitments include an aggregate of $26,230 which has been reserved for as part of the provision for restructuring costs (see Note 17). Minimum rental commitments under noncancelable operating leases are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,
2007	$ 41,145
2008	36,120
2009	31,369
2010	24,416
2011	22,849
Thereafter	93,277
	$ 249,176

Future rental commitments for the above leases have not been reduced by minimum noncancelable sublease income aggregating $66,992 as of December 31, 2006.

Future minimum lease payments under capital leases (see Notes 7 and 11) are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,
2007	$ 1,262
2008	857
2009	591
2010	455
2011	227
Thereafter	3,392
Less: Amount representing interest (at rates ranging from 7% to 8%)	406
Present value of net minimum lease payments and other	2,986
Less: Current portion	1,070
Long-term obligations (included in long-term debt)	$ 1,916

Contingencies. The Company is involved in ordinary and routine litigation incidental to its business. In the opinion of management, there is no pending legal proceeding that would have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

In 2005, the Company sold substantially all of the assets of Workplace Learning for the assumption of ongoing liabilities while retaining a secondary liability as the assignor of the building and satellite time leases. The Company received a third party guaranty of up to $10,000 against those lease obligations to reimburse the Company for lease payments made (the Guaranty). In the first half of 2006, the Company made payments on behalf of Workplace Learning pursuant to its secondary liability. During the second quarter of 2006, the Company recorded a liability for the fair value of the lease payments, net of sublease income, related to its secondary liability on the lease payments. At that time, the Company also recorded a receivable of $10,000 for the amount due from the third party guarantor for the lease payments. As a result of recording the receivable and liability during the second quarter, the Company has recorded a charge of approximately $7,200 to discontinued operations. In the second half of 2006, the Company commenced a lawsuit to collect on the Guaranty. During the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company determined that it was not probable that the third party would remit payment, as required under the Guaranty, and fully reserved for the $10,000 receivable with a charge to discontinued operations as of December 31, 2006. The Company continues to exercise all available legal remedies against the third party guarantor and to fulfill its secondary obligation regarding the Workplace Learning leases.

At December 31, 2006, the Company has recorded a total liability of $16,156 for the fair value of the future lease payments, net of estimated sublease income, in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

23. Related Party Transactions

For the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, the Company incurred and expensed administrative and other fees relating to KKR, an affiliated party, of $1,000 per year. For the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, the Company incurred and expensed directors' fees for certain partners of KKR aggregating $131, $165 and $188, respectively. In June 2004, $386 of directors' fees were paid to George Roberts, another former director, in the form of 90,082 shares of the Company's common stock as he was permitted to defer the payment of his fees and receive them in the form of common stock pursuant to the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan.

In 2005 and 2004, the Company paid Capstone $119 and $162, respectively, in cash for consulting services received. Dean Nelson, the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of PRIMEDIA is also the Chief Executive Officer of Capstone. The Company did not make any payments to Capstone during 2006.

The Company leases transponders for its Education segment from PanAmSat Corporation (PanAmSat). Beginning in August of 2004, an investment partnership associated with KKR owned more than 20% of PanAmSat. This relationship ceased during July of 2006. The Company paid transponder lease fees of $825 through the time that PanAmSat was a related party, as defined, during 2006, and $374 for the year ended December 31, 2005, and received credits of $370 during 2005. From the period PanAmSat became a related party, as defined, the Company paid transponder lease fees of $815 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

On July 1, 2006, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with Beverly Chell, a current director of PRIMEDIA and former Vice Chairman and General Counsel of PRIMEDIA, pursuant to which Ms. Chell is to provide certain management and legal services and strategic and financial advice as requested by the Company. As compensation for her services, Ms. Chell is paid a daily rate of approximately $3. During 2006, the Company paid Ms. Chell approximately $75 in cash for consulting services received. The original term of the agreement expired on December 31, 2006 but the arrangement was extended to December 31, 2007 on the same terms.

24. Unaudited Quarterly Financial Information

In the opinion of the Company's management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included on a quarterly basis.

(2) Previously reported amounts for the first quarter and the third quarter of 2006 have been recast for adjustments made in connection with SAB No. 108. See Note 19.

25. Business Segment Information

The Company's products compete, primarily in the United States, in two principal segments: Enthusiast Media and Consumer Guides.

The Enthusiast Media segment produces and distributes content through magazines and via the Internet to consumers in various niche and enthusiast markets. It connects buyers and sellers through the Company's consumer magazine brands, Internet, events, video programs, licensing and merchandising.

The Consumer Guides segment is the publisher and distributor of free publications, including Apartment Guide, New Home Guide and Auto Guide and operates related Internet sites.

The following information includes certain intersegment transactions and is, therefore, not necessarily indicative of the results had the operations existed as stand-alone businesses. Intersegment transactions represent intercompany advertising and other services, which are billed at what management believes are prevailing market rates. These intersegment transactions, which represent transactions between operating units in different business segments, are eliminated in consolidation.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form 10-K

Information as to the operations of the Company in different business segments is set forth below based primarily on the nature of the targeted audience. Corporate represents items not allocated to other business segments. PRIMEDIA evaluates performance based on several factors, of which the primary financial measure is segment earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and other (income) charges (Segment EBITDA). Other (income) charges include severance related to separated senior executives, non-cash compensation, provision for restructuring costs, provision for unclaimed property and gain on sale of businesses and other, net.

(1) Segment EBITDA represents the segments' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and other charges (income). Segment EBITDA is not intended to be and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or loss (as determined in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America), or as an indicator of the Company's operating performance. Segment EBITDA is presented herein because the Company's chief operating decision maker evaluates and measures each business unit's performance based on its Segment EBITDA results. PRIMEDIA believes that Segment EBITDA is an accurate indicator of its segments' results, because it focuses on revenue and operating cost items driven by each operating managers' performance, and excludes items largely outside of the operating managers' control. Segment EBITDA as presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies since not all companies necessarily calculate Segment EBITDA in an identical manner, and therefore, is not necessarily an accurate measure of comparison between companies.

(2) The Enthusiast Media segment includes assets relating to its Outdoors group, which was classified as held for sale at December 31, 2006.

(3) The Business Information segment was sold during 2005, and the Education segment was classified as a discontinued operation during 2006 (see Note 3).

26. Financial Information for Guarantors of the Company's Debt

The information that follows presents consolidating financial information as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and for years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 for a) PRIMEDIA Inc. (as the Issuer), b) the guarantor subsidiaries, which are, with limited exceptions, the restricted subsidiaries, represent the core PRIMEDIA businesses and exclude investment and other development properties included in the unrestricted category, c) the non-guarantor subsidiaries (primarily representing Internet assets and businesses, new launches and other properties under evaluation for turnaround or shutdown and foreign subsidiaries), which are with limited exceptions the unrestricted subsidiaries, d) elimination entries and e) the Company on a consolidated basis. Corporate operating expenses have been included in the operations of the guarantor subsidiaries. During the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004, certain businesses have been reclassified between restricted and unrestricted subsidiaries. These reclassifications are in compliance with our debt agreements and have not had a material effect on the Company's debt covenant ratios as defined in the bank credit facilities. Certain 2005 and 2004 amounts have been recast to conform to the 2006 presentation. The Company believes that this presentation more accurately reflects the financial information of the categories presented below.

The consolidating financial information includes certain allocations of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities based on management's best estimates which are not necessarily indicative of financial position, results of operations and cash flows that these entities would have achieved on a stand-alone basis and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The intercompany balances in the accompanying consolidating financial statements include cash management activities, management fees, cross promotional activities and other intercompany charges between PRIMEDIA Inc. and the business units and among the business units. The non-guarantor subsidiary results of operations include: internet operations, foreign operations, certain distribution operations, certain start-up magazine businesses, revenues and related expenses derived from the licensing of certain products of guarantor subsidiaries and expenses associated with the cross promotion by the guarantor subsidiaries of the activities of the non-guarantor subsidiaries. The transactions described above are billed, by the Company, at what the Company believes are market rates. All intercompany related activities are eliminated in consolidation. Consumer Source Inc. (formerly known as PRIMEDIA Companies Inc.) includes all of the businesses and related operations of PRIMEDIA Inc. The operating results of Consumer Source Inc. are the same as consolidated PRIMEDIA Inc., and their balance sheets are substantially the same, except that PRIMEDIA Inc. holds all of the Company's bank credit facilities, Senior Notes indebtedness, capital stock accounts and other miscellaneous balance sheet accounts.

The Company is herewith providing detailed information and disclosure as to the methodology used in determining compliance with the leverage ratio in the credit facilities agreement. Under its bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements, the Company is allowed to designate certain businesses as unrestricted subsidiaries to the extent that the value of those businesses does not exceed the permitted amounts, as defined in these agreements. The Company has designated certain of its businesses as unrestricted (the Unrestricted Group), which primarily represent Internet businesses, trademark and content licensing and service companies, new launches (including traditional start-ups), other properties under evaluation for turnaround or shutdown and foreign subsidiaries. Except for those specifically designated by the Company as unrestricted, all businesses of the Company are restricted (the Restricted Group). Indebtedness under the bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements is guaranteed by each of the Company's 100%-owned domestic subsidiaries in the Restricted Group in accordance with the provisions and limitations of the Company's bank credit facilities and Senior Note agreements. The guarantees are full, unconditional and joint and several. The Unrestricted Group does not guarantee the bank credit facilities or Senior Notes. Although Automotive.com is included in the Restricted Group under the bank credit facilities agreement it does not guarantee the debt. For purposes of determining compliance with certain financial covenants under the Company's bank credit facilities, the Unrestricted Group's results (positive or negative) are not reflected in the Consolidated EBITDA of the Restricted Group which, as defined in the bank credit facilities agreement, excludes losses of the Unrestricted Group, non-cash charges and restructuring charges and is adjusted primarily for the trailing four quarters results of acquisitions and divestitures and estimated savings for acquired business.

27. Subsequent Events

Sale of Outdoors

In the first quarter of 2007, the Company completed the sale of its Outdoors group within the Enthusiast Media segment, which consisted primarily of its hunting, fishing and shooting titles, for $170,000 in cash. The sale presented the Company with an opportunity to realize significant value, while at the same time maintaining its position on the 18-55 male demographic.

Exploration of Sale of Enthusiast Media Segment

In February 2007, the Company announced that its Board of Directors had authorized the Company to explore the sale of its Enthusiast Media segment, as the market conditions are favorable in lieu of the spin-off of the Consumer Guides segment. PRIMEDIA has retained Goldman Sachs and Lehman Brothers to manage this process. If the sale is completed, the Company will apply the proceeds from the sale to pay down debt.

The assets and liabilities of the Enthusiast Media segment at December 31, 2006 were as follows:

Assets:
Accounts receivable, net	$ 85,755
Inventory	12,116
Prepaid expenses	12,764

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

None.

ITEM 9A. EVALUATION OF DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company's management, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on such evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer have concluded that, due to a material weakness in the accounting for income taxes related to discontinued operations discussed in Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of December 31, 2006.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

During the three month period ended December 31, 2006, other than the material weakness noted above, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management of PRIMEDIA Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Management, as required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting based on the framework in Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO).

Based on its evaluation, management identified a material weakness in the operation of the Company's internal controls limited to the accounting for income taxes related to discontinued operations as of December 31, 2006. A material weakness is a control deficiency (within the meaning of Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Auditing Standard No. 2), or combination of control deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis by employees in the normal course of their work.

Over the past few years the Company has outsourced preparation of the calculation of its quarterly tax provisions, including tax calculations related to discontinued operations, and its tax compliance to an external expert. In order to remediate previously identified significant deficiencies related to accounting for income taxes, the Company requested that its external expert add more technical resources to its team. Additionally, during 2006 the Company hired an internal resource, experienced in accounting for income taxes, and assigned another internal financial manager to oversee the work being done by the Company's external expert.

Separately, in 2006, another tax firm was engaged to review all prior years federal income tax returns for the purpose of determining tax bases in assets and appropriate federal tax net operating losses.

There were three primary tax issues related to discontinued operations that led management to conclude that a material weakness existed.

The first arose because the Company failed to record deferred income tax benefits after it became apparent that certain taxable temporary differences would reverse as a result of the classification of businesses as discontinued operations. As a result, the Company adjusted its financial statements (i) to record a reduction of its deferred tax liability of approximately $16.7 million as of December 31, 2006 and (ii) to record a reduction to accumulated deficit of approximately $7.5 million as of January 1, 2006. The net impact of these adjustments was to record a non-cash increase to income from discontinued operations of approximately $9.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. In the past, the Company's practice was to record these adjustments at the time of sale of businesses as opposed to when such businesses were classified as discontinued operations.

The second item related to the Company's treatment of a worthless stock deduction related to a previously divested group. The Company's external expert and internal team failed to consider this item in its original 2005 income tax calculations. The net impact of this oversight resulted in the recording of a cumulative effect adjustment of approximately $4.2 million to reduce the accumulated deficit as of January 1, 2006. This error was identified as a result of a 2006 project to compute the amount of net tax operating losses which would be available after the dispositions of certain businesses in 2005.

The final item related to the incorrect allocation to various state jurisdictions, of the gain arising out of the sale of the Company's Crafts Group during 2006. The allocation error resulted in a reduction of income from discontinued operations of approximately $4.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Management has concluded that the principal factors contributing to the material weakness in accounting for income taxes in our discontinued operations were; (a) inadequate consideration of the provisions of SFAS No. 109 by tax personnel of our external expert resulting in errors in the accounting for income taxes and (b) insufficient or ineffective review practices by our internal personnel. This material weakness resulted in accounting errors which were corrected prior to the issuance of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006. Management has not identified any other material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting.

Because of the material weakness described above, management concluded that, as of December 31, 2006, the Company did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting based on the criteria established in Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by COSO. Deloitte & Touche LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm that audited the Company's consolidated financial statements has also audited management's assessment of the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006. The attestation report of Deloitte & Touche LLP follows this report.

Remediation Plan for Material Weakness in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

The Company has developed the following plan to remediate the material weakness identified above.

- Hire additional personnel trained and experienced in income tax accounting, particularly in the area of discontinued operations. Management recognizes that a tax department, staffed with the appropriate tax accounting expertise is important for the Company to maintain effective internal controls on an ongoing basis;
- Evaluate and, if necessary, supplement the resources provided by our external expert;
- Engage an additional outside tax advisor who will either; (a) replace the external expert, should our evaluation of resources provided by our external expert conclude that appropriate resources are not available or; (b) be an additional resource in the preparation and review of the work prepared by our current service provider. These multiple levels of review will ensure that complex tax issues are identified and the related analyses, judgments and estimates are appropriately documented, reviewed and applied on a timely basis;
- Improve documentation and institute more formalized review of tax positions taken, with senior management and external experts, to ensure proper evaluation and accounting treatment of complex tax issues, particularly in the area of discontinued operations;
- Accelerate the timing of certain tax review activities during the financial statement closing process.

We anticipate the actions described above and resulting improvements in controls will strengthen our internal control over financial reporting relating to accounting for income taxes of discontinued operations, and will, over time, address the related material weakness that we identified as of December 31, 2006. However, because the remedial actions relate to the hiring of additional personnel and many of the controls in our system of internal controls rely extensively on manual review and approval, the successful operation of these controls for, at least, several quarters may be required prior to management being able to conclude that the material weakness has been remediated.

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of PRIMEDIA Inc.
New York, New York

We have audited management's assessment, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting, that PRIMEDIA Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, because of the effect of the material weakness identified in management's assessment based on criteria established in Internal Control Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assessment and an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, evaluating management's assessment, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinions.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed by, or under the supervision of, the company's principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, and effected by the company's board of directors, management, and other personnel to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of the inherent limitations of internal control over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may not be prevented or detected on a timely basis. Also, projections of any evaluation of the effectiveness of the internal control over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected. The following material weakness has been identified and included in management's assessment:

The Company did not maintain effective controls over accounting for income taxes. The Company's processes, procedures and controls related to the preparation and review of the annual tax provision were not effective to ensure that amounts related to the tax provision and related current or deferred tax asset and liability accounts were accurate, recorded in the proper period and determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Specifically, the Company failed to (i) record deferred income tax benefits when it became apparent that certain taxable temporary differences would reverse as a result of classification of businesses as discontinued operations; and (ii) identify certain tax issues arising from the sale of businesses which impacted its tax accounts. The Company does not currently have sufficient expertise to perform and oversee tax calculations related to the disposal of businesses.

This material weakness was considered in determining the nature, timing, and extent of audit tests applied in our audit of the consolidated financial statements and financial statement schedules as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006, of the Company and this report does not affect our report on such financial statements and financial statement schedules.

In our opinion, management's assessment that the Company did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the criteria established in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Also in our opinion, because of the effect of the material weakness described above on the achievement of the objectives of the control criteria, the Company has not maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, based on the criteria established in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission.

We have also audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated financial statements and financial statement schedules as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006, of the Company and our report dated March 13, 2007 expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements and financial statement schedules and included an explanatory paragraph regarding the Company's adoption of the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, effective January 1, 2006, and the provisions of United States Securities and Exchange Commission Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108, Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements, effective for the year ended December 31, 2006.
