Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

As previously disclosed on February 1, 2010, Seagate Technology ( Seagate or the Company ) decided to move its place of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to Ireland pursuant to a scheme of arrangement (the Scheme of Arrangement ) under Cayman Islands law, which, upon effectiveness, will result in a newly formed Irish public limited company ( Seagate-Ireland ) serving as the publicly traded parent of the Seagate group of companies.

On April 14, 2010, Seagate held a special court-ordered meeting of its common shareholders (the Special Scheme Meeting ) and an extraordinary general meeting of its common shareholders (the Extraordinary General Meeting ) as described in the proxy statement filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 5, 2010 (the Proxy Statement ). A quorum was present at both the Special Scheme Meeting and the Extraordinary General Meeting as required by the Company s memorandum and articles of association and Cayman Islands law. The following is a brief description of each matter voted upon at each of the Special Scheme Meeting and the Extraordinary General Meeting and a statement of the number of votes cast for or against and the number of abstentions with respect to each matter.
