To the Holders of Class A Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.:

A Merger Proposal Your Vote Is Very Important

On September 27, 2013, the board of directors of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. unanimously approved a merger agreement between FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. and Bridge Bancorp, Inc., pursuant to which FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. will merge with and into Bridge Bancorp, Inc., and immediately thereafter First National Bank of New York, a wholly owned subsidiary of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc., will merge with and into the Bridgehampton National Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. Following the effective date of the merger, the separate existence of each of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. and First National Bank of New York will cease. FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. is sending you this document to ask you to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement with Bridge Bancorp, Inc.

Under the terms of the agreement, Bridge Bancorp, Inc. will issue an aggregate of 244,110 shares of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock, subject to certain adjustments, as merger consideration in exchange for all the issued and outstanding Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. The number of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. shares of common stock issued as merger consideration will increase based on the amount of recoveries, if any, that are received by FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. at least ten days prior to closing on certain loans that have an aggregate principal balance of $6.3 million. The number of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. shares of common stock issued as merger consideration will decrease based on the amount by which recoveries of insurance proceeds with respect to certain insurance claims received prior to closing are less than $350,000. If the merger is approved, FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. shareholders will have the right to receive a fraction of a share of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock in exchange for each share of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio). The Exchange Ratio will be equal to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock to be issued, after taking into account the foregoing adjustments, divided by the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. outstanding at the time of the closing. As of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, there are a total of 4,989,832 shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. outstanding. However, it is expected that FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. will be required to issue additional shares of Class A Common Stock under the terms of certain subscription agreements entered into with investors. The number of additional shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued will be based on FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.'s year end tangible book value per share, which is not determinable until an audit of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.'s balance sheet as of December 31, 2013 is completed. Assuming that FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.'s tangible book value at December 31, 2013 is the same as at September 30, 2013, FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. would be required to issue an additional 377,008 shares of Class A Common Stock under the subscription agreements. See The Merger and Merger Agreement Merger Consideration and Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of the Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements for a more complete description of the potential merger consideration to be paid to FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. shareholders, including possible post closing additional cash consideration.

Assuming (i) no adjustment to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock to be issued, and (ii) 377,008 additional shares of Class A Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. are issued under the subscription agreements, the Exchange Ratio would be Based on Bridge Bancorp, Inc. s closing stock price on _____, 2013 of $ _____, each share of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock would be exchanged for a fraction of a share of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock having a value of $ _____. You should obtain current stock price quotations for Bridge Bancorp, Inc. s common stock. Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol BDGE. FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. common stock is privately held by approximately 51 shareholders of record.

Your board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger and the merger agreement are fair and in the best interests of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that holders of its Class A Common Stock vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement. The merger cannot be completed unless the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. vote to adopt the merger agreement. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of the holders of Class A Common Stock, please take the time to vote by completing the

If you fail to vote, or you do not instruct your broker how to vote any shares held for you in street name, it will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger agreement.

This proxy statement-prospectus gives you detailed information about the special meeting of the holders of Class A Common Stock to be held on [FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. Meeting Date], the merger and other related matters. You should carefully read this entire document, including the appendices. In particular, you should carefully consider the discussion in the section entitled Risk Factors on page 17.

FNBNY BANCORP, INC. NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS

To the Shareholders of FNBNY Bancorp, Inc.:

FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. will hold a special meeting of holders (the Class A Shareholders) of our Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (Class A Common Stock), at [•], New York City time on [•], [•], 2014, at [•], unless postponed or adjourned to a later date. The special meeting will be held for the purpose of allowing the Class A Shareholders to consider and vote upon the following matters:

1. a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 27, 2013 (the Merger Agreement), by and between FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. and Bridge Bancorp, Inc., pursuant to which FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. will merge with and into Bridge Bancorp, Inc., with Bridge Bancorp, Inc. as the surviving entity (the FNBNY Merger Proposal), and
2. a proposal to adjourn the FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. special meeting, including to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement (the FNBNY Adjournment Proposal).

These items of business are more fully described in the accompanying proxy statement-prospectus. We have fixed the close of business on [•] as the record date for the special meeting. Only Class A Shareholders of record at that time are entitled to vote at the FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. special meeting, or any adjournments or postponements of the FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. special meeting. Under Section 903 of the New York Business Corporation Law, holders of our Class B Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, must be given notice of the special meeting of holders of our Class A Common Stock, but are not entitled to vote on the FNBNY Merger Proposal.

The board of directors of FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. has unanimously approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and determined that they are fair to, and in the best interests of, FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. and our shareholders. The board of directors of FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. unanimously recommends that Class A Shareholders vote FOR the FNBNY Merger Proposal and FOR the FNBNY Adjournment Proposal under certain circumstances. We cannot complete the merger unless the FNBNY Merger Proposal is approved by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our Class A Common Stock as of the record date.

In deciding to approve and declare advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the board of directors of FNBNY Bancorp, Inc. considered a number of factors, including those listed in the section entitled The Merger and the Merger Agreement Recommendation of the FNBNY Bancorp Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 29 of the accompanying proxy statement-prospectus.

Under New York law, Class A Shareholders who do not vote in favor of the FNBNY Merger Proposal will have the right to seek appraisal and receive the fair value of their shares in lieu of receiving the per share consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement if the merger closes but only if such shareholders perfect their appraisal rights by complying with the required procedures under New York law. These procedures are summarized in the accompanying proxy statement-prospectus in the section entitled The Merger and the Merger Agreement Rights of Dissenting Shareholders beginning on page 40, and the text of the applicable provisions of New York law as in effect on the date hereof is included as Appendix C to the accompanying proxy statement-prospectus.

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

The vote of each Class A Shareholder is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. special meeting in person, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible and return it in the enclosed envelope. Submitting a proxy will not prevent you from being able to vote at the FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. special meeting by attending in person or casting a vote. However, if you do not return your proxy, the effect will be the same as a vote against the FNB NY Merger Proposal.

If you have any questions concerning the merger or the proxy statement-prospectus, would like additional copies of the proxy statement-prospectus or need help voting your Class A Common Stock, please contact Maureen Kiedaisch, Corporate Secretary, 538 Broadhollow Road, Melville, New York 11747, (631) 348-6999.

Q: SHOULD I SEND IN MY STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A: Please DO NOT send your stock certificates with your proxy card. Instructions will be sent to you under separate cover following completion of the Merger.

Q: WHAT WILL SHAREHOLDERS OF FNB NY BANCORP, INC. RECEIVE IN THE MERGER?

A: Under the terms of the agreement, Bridge Bancorp, Inc. will issue an aggregate of 244,110 shares of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock, subject to certain adjustments, as merger consideration in exchange for all the issued and outstanding Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. The number of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. shares of common stock issued as merger consideration will increase based on the amount of recoveries, if any, that are received by FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. at least ten days prior to closing on certain loans that have an aggregate principal balance of $6.3 million. The number of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. shares of common stock issued as merger consideration will decrease based on the amount by which recoveries of insurance proceeds with respect to certain insurance claims received prior to closing are less than $350,000. As of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, there are a total of 4,989,832 shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. outstanding. However, it is expected that FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. will be required to issue additional shares of Class A Common Stock under the terms of certain subscription agreements entered into with investors. The number of additional shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued will be based on FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. s year end tangible book value per share, which is not determinable until an audit of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.'s balance sheet as of December 31, 2013 is completed. Assuming that FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.'s tangible book value at December 31, 2013 is the same as at September 30, 2013, FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. would be required to issue an additional 377,008 shares of Class A Common Stock under the subscription agreements. See "The Merger and the Merger Agreement Merger Consideration and Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements" for a more complete description of the potential merger consideration to be paid to FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. shareholders, including possible post closing additional cash consideration.

Assuming (i) no adjustment to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock to be issued and (ii) 377,008 additional shares of Class A Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. are issued under the subscription agreements, the Exchange Ratio would be 0.045485 of a share of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock for each share of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. Based on Bridge Bancorp, Inc.'s closing stock price on [redacted], 2013 of $ [redacted], each share of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock would be exchanged for a fraction of a share of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock having a value of $ [redacted]. You should obtain current stock price quotations for Bridge Bancorp, Inc.'s common stock. Bridge Bancorp, Inc. common stock trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "BDGE". National Bank had total assets, deposits, and net loans of approximately $260.1 million, $195.7 million, and $103.1 million, respectively. FNB NY Bancorp's principal executive office is located at 538 Broadhollow Road, Melville, New York 11747, (631) 348-6999.

What FNB NY Bancorp Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (page 23)

Under the terms of the agreement, Bridge Bancorp will issue an aggregate of 244,110 shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock, subject to certain adjustments, as merger consideration in exchange for all the issued and outstanding Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp. The number of Bridge Bancorp shares of common stock issued as merger consideration will increase based on the amount of recoveries, if any, that are received by FNB NY Bancorp at least ten days prior to closing on certain loans that have an aggregate principal balance of $6.3 million. The number of Bridge Bancorp shares of common stock issued as merger consideration will decrease based on the amount by which recoveries of insurance proceeds with respect to certain insurance claims received prior to closing are less than $350,000. If the merger is approved, FNB NY Bancorp shareholders will have the right to receive a fraction of a share of Bridge Bancorp common stock in exchange for each share of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (the Exchange Ratio). The Exchange Ratio will be equal to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock to be issued, after taking into account the foregoing adjustments, divided by the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp outstanding at the time of the closing. As of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, there are a total of 4,989,832 shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp outstanding. However, it is expected that FNB NY Bancorp will be required to issue additional shares of Class A Common Stock under the terms of certain subscription agreements entered into with investors. The number of additional shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued will be based on FNB NY Bancorp's year end tangible book value per share, which is not determinable until an audit of FNB NY Bancorp's balance sheet as of December 31, 2013 is completed. Assuming that FNB NY Bancorp's tangible book value at December 31, 2013 is the same as at September 30, 2013, FNB NY Bancorp would be required to issue an additional 377,008 shares of Class A Common Stock under the subscription agreements. See The Merger and the Merger Agreement Merger Consideration and Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements for a more complete description of the potential merger consideration to be paid to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders, including possible post closing additional cash consideration.

Assuming (i) no adjustment to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock to be issued, and (ii) 377,008 additional shares of Class A Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp are issued under the subscription agreements, the Exchange Ratio would be 0.045485 of a share of Bridge Bancorp common stock for each share of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. Based on Bridge Bancorp's closing stock price on _____, 2013 of $ _____, each share of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock would be exchanged for a fraction of a share of Bridge Bancorp common stock having a value of $ _____. You should obtain current stock price quotations for Bridge Bancorp's common stock. Bridge Bancorp common stock trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol BDGE. FNB NY Bancorp common stock is privately held by approximately 51 shareholders of record.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 51)

Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp intend to treat the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the merger qualifies as a reorganization, then, in general, for United States federal income tax purposes, no gain or loss will be recognized by Bridge Bancorp or FNB NY Bancorp as a result of the merger. The tax consequences of the merger to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders will depend on whether only Bridge Bancorp common stock, or a combination of cash and Bridge Bancorp common stock is received in exchange for shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock. If shares are exchanged solely for Bridge Bancorp common stock, no gain or loss should be recognized except with respect to the cash received instead of any fractional share of Bridge Bancorp common stock. If shares are exchanged for a combination of Bridge Bancorp common stock and contingent cash, gain should be recognized equal to the lesser of the cash received, (except to the extent treated as interest), and the gain realized in the merger (that is, the fair market value of the Bridge Bancorp common stock received, plus the cash received by an FNB NY Bancorp shareholder minus such FNB NY Bancorp shareholder's basis in the shareholder's FNB NY Bancorp common stock). No loss should be recognized.

Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to each FNB NY Bancorp shareholder may depend on such shareholder's particular facts and circumstances. FNB NY Bancorp shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors to understand fully the tax consequences to them of the merger. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 51 of this proxy statement-prospectus.

See The Merger and the Merger Agreement- Recommendation of the FNB NY Bancorp Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger.

The full text of KBW's written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached to this document as Appendix B. FNB NY Bancorp shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. KBW's written opinion is addressed to the board of directors of FNB NY Bancorp, is directed only to the merger consideration in the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of FNB NY Bancorp common stock should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of FNB NY Bancorp, as well as Modern Capital, owned 1,921,729 shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the special meeting of holders of Class A Common Stock. Holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock Have Dissenters' Rights (page 40 and Appendix C)

The holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock are entitled to dissent from approval of the Merger and to receive the fair value of the shares if the Merger is consummated provided they follow certain procedures. These procedures are described in the section The Merger and the Merger Agreement Rights of Dissenting Shareholders and set forth in Appendix C hereto. Holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class B Common Stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different From Yours (page 43)

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of FNB NY Bancorp to adopt the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain of FNB NY Bancorp's officers and directors have interests in the Merger that are in addition to, or different from, the interests of FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders generally. FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors was aware of these conflicts of interest and took them into account in approving the Merger. These interests include payments (up to an aggregate amount of approximately $1,150,000) that may be made pursuant to contractual arrangements in existence before the date of the Merger Agreement, and are described below:

- Change in control agreements with two officers of FNB NY Bancorp that provide for cash severance payments and continued health insurance in connection with a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, due to certain applicable regulatory restrictions, unless prior regulatory approval is obtained, Bridge Bancorp and/or FNB NY Bancorp will be prohibited from making any payments under these change in control agreements. FNB NY Bancorp has filed an application with the applicable regulators seeking approval to make payments under the change in control agreements. If regulatory approval is received, the cash severance payments can be made under the change in control agreements.
- Rights of FNB NY Bancorp officers and directors to continued indemnification coverage and continued coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 48)

The Merger cannot be completed without the prior approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC). Bridge Bancorp is in the process of seeking this approval. In addition, the Merger cannot be completed without the approval (or waiver thereof) of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board (the Federal Reserve). Bridge Bancorp is in the process of seeking these approvals or the waiver thereof. While FNBNY Bancorp does not know of any reason why Bridge Bancorp would not be able to obtain the necessary approvals in a timely manner, FNBNY Bancorp cannot assure you that these approvals will occur or what the timing may be or that this approval will not be subject to one or more conditions that affect the advisability of the Merger.

Conditions to the Merger (page 47)

Completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived, including the following:

- Holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock must have approved the Merger Agreement;

- the representations and warranties of the parties to the Merger Agreement that are qualified as to materiality must be, subject to certain limited exceptions, true and correct, and each representation and warranty not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects, as of the closing date;

- the receipt of all regulatory approvals and other necessary approvals of governmental entities, including the OCC and all statutory waiting periods must have expired, and none of the regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the Merger and the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement impose a condition that would prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by Bridge Bancorp or Bridgehampton Bank of the business or assets of FNB NY Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries, materially limit the business currently conducted by Bridge Bancorp or Bridgehampton Bank, compel any party to dispose of or separately hold all or a material portion of the business or assets of FNB NY Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries, or continue in effect First National Bank's regulatory agreement with the OCC (each a Burdensome Condition);

- there must be no statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree in existence which prohibits or enjoins the Merger;

- there must be no litigation, statute, law, regulation, order or decree by which the Merger is restrained or enjoined;

- Bridge Bancorp's registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission of which this document is a part shall have become effective and no stop order suspending its effectiveness shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission;

- the shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock to be issued to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders in the Merger must have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market and such shares must be delivered to the exchange agent before the closing date of the transaction;

- the audited consolidated statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2013 of FNB NY Bancorp has been completed to the extent required under FNB NY Bancorp's subscription agreements with certain of its shareholders;

- all necessary third party consents shall have been obtained; and
- holders of no more than 10% of FNB NY Bancorp s common stock exercise their right to dissent from approving the Merger and instead demand the fair value of their shares.

Although Bridge Bancorp anticipates the closing will occur during the first quarter of 2014, because the satisfaction of certain of these conditions is beyond our control, Bridge Bancorp cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or waived or whether the Merger will be completed.

No Solicitation (page 49)

Subject to certain exceptions, FNB NY Bancorp has agreed not to initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer from any third party relating to an acquisition of FNB NY Bancorp, or enter into an agreement relating to an acquisition proposal by a third party. Notwithstanding these restrictions, however, the Merger Agreement provides that, under specified circumstances, in response to an unsolicited acquisition proposal or inquiry from a third party which, in the good faith judgment of the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors, is or reasonable likely to result in a proposal which is superior to the Merger with Bridge Bancorp. FNB NY Bancorp may furnish information regarding FNB NY Bancorp and participate in discussions and negotiations with such third party.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 50)

Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp may mutually agree at any time to terminate the Merger Agreement without completing the merger, even if the FNB NY Bancorp shareholders have approved it. Also, either party may decide, without the consent of the other party, to terminate the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including if the Merger is not consummated by July 31, 2014, if the required regulatory approval is not received or if the shareholders of FNB NY Bancorp do not approve the Merger. In addition, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if there is a breach of the agreement by the other party that would cause the failure of conditions to the terminating party's obligation to close, unless the breach is capable of being cured and is cured within 30 days of the notice of breach (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of the Merger Agreement). In addition, FNB NY Bancorp may terminate the Merger Agreement if Bridge Bancorp's stock price falls below thresholds set forth in the Merger Agreement and Bridge Bancorp does not increase the merger consideration pursuant to a prescribed formula or, under certain limited circumstances, if FNB NY Bancorp has received a proposal which its board of directors determines is superior to the Merger with Bridge Bancorp.

Termination Fee (page 50)

If the Merger is terminated pursuant to specified situations in the Merger Agreement (and FNB NY Bancorp accepts a superior proposal, as defined in the Merger Agreement, or enters into an acquisition proposal under certain circumstances), FNB NY Bancorp may be required to pay a termination fee to Bridge Bancorp of $200,000, plus expenses. FNB NY Bancorp agreed to this termination fee arrangement in order to induce Bridge Bancorp to enter into the Merger Agreement. The termination fee requirement may discourage other companies from trying or proposing to combine with FNB NY Bancorp before the Merger is completed.

Comparison of Shareholders' Rights (page 55)

When the Merger is completed, FNB NY Bancorp shareholders will become Bridge Bancorp shareholders and their rights will be governed by New York law and Bridge Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. See Comparison of Shareholders' Rights for a summary of the material differences between the respective rights of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp shareholders.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement-prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption "Forward-Looking Statements," you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Risks Related to the Merger

FNBNY Bancorp Shareholders Cannot Be Certain of the Number of Shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock They Will Receive, the Market Value of the Per Share Merger Consideration They Will Receive or the Aggregate Value of the Merger Consideration, Because There Are Merger Consideration Adjustments and the Market Price of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock Will Fluctuate.

The Exchange Ratio for each outstanding share of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock is subject to adjustment for a number of factors that may not be determined until immediately prior to closing. The number of shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock to be issued, initially 244,110, may be increased or decreased depending on whether FNBNY Bancorp recovers certain amounts prior to closing. The number of shares will be increased based on the amount FNBNY Bancorp recovers, net of expenses, with respect to two loans totaling $6.3 million, and will be decreased based on the amount by which insurance proceeds received by FNBNY Bancorp prior to closing with respect to certain insurance claims falls below $350,000. The maximum number of additional shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock that would be issued if FNBNY Bancorp recovers the full $6.3 million, assuming no expenses, is 292,931. Assuming no insurance proceeds are recovered by FNBNY Bancorp prior to closing, Bridge Bancorp would decrease the number of shares to be issued to the holders of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock up to 16,274. As of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, FNBNY Bancorp has recovered $ with respect to these loans and has not received any insurance proceeds. Any increase in the number of shares to be issued would increase the Exchange Ratio and any decrease would decrease the Exchange Ratio.

In addition, the Exchange Ratio will be decreased if FNBNY Bancorp is obligated to issue additional shares of its Class A Common Stock pursuant to certain subscription agreements. Under the subscription agreements, FNBNY Bancorp will be required to issue additional shares if its tangible book value per share, as shown on its December 31, 2013 audited balance sheet, is less than $10.00. Based on unaudited financial data as of September 30, 2013, the tangible book value per share was $2.49 and FNBNY Bancorp would be required to issue an additional 377,008 shares of Class A Common Stock. See "The Merger and the Merger Agreement Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements." If FNBNY Bancorp issues additional shares pursuant to the terms of the subscription agreements, the Exchange Ratio for all holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be reduced. Any change in the Exchange Ratio will affect the number of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock to be received by holders of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in connection with the Merger. For a more complete description of the potential merger consideration to be received by FNBNY Bancorp shareholders, see "The Merger and the Merger Agreement Merger Consideration and Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements."

In addition, the market value of the Bridge Bancorp common stock to be issued in the merger may vary from the closing price of Bridge Bancorp common stock on the date it announced the Merger, on the date that this document was mailed to FNBNY Bancorp shareholders, on the date of the special meeting of the FNBNY Bancorp shareholders and on the date it completes the Merger and thereafter. Any change in the market price of Bridge Bancorp common stock prior to completion of the Merger will affect the market value of the merger consideration that FNBNY Bancorp shareholders will receive upon completion of the Merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in Bridge Bancorp's businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond Bridge Bancorp's control.

Accordingly, at the time of the special meeting, FNB NY Bancorp shareholders will not know or be able to calculate with certainty the market value of the merger consideration they would receive upon completion of the Merger. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock and for shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock before you vote.

Regulatory Approval May Not be Received, May Take Longer Than Expected or May Impose Conditions That are Not Presently Anticipated or Cannot be Met.

Before the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from the OCC and the Federal Reserve. The OCC or Federal Reserve may not grant approval or consent, or may impose conditions on the completion of the Merger or require changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement. There can be no assurance that such conditions or changes will not be imposed, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement or imposing additional costs on or limiting Bridge Bancorp's revenues, any of which might have a material adverse effect on Bridge Bancorp following the Merger. There can be no assurance as to whether the regulatory approvals will be received, the timing of those approvals, or whether any conditions will be imposed. In addition, Bridge Bancorp can terminate the Merger if any required regulatory approval contains a Burdensome Condition.

The Merger Agreement May Be Terminated in Accordance With Its Terms and The Merger May Not Be Completed.

The Merger Agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to close. Those conditions include: FNB NY Bancorp shareholder approval, regulatory approval, the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of certain covenants and agreements. In addition, certain circumstances exist where FNB NY Bancorp may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement, including the acceptance of a superior proposal as defined in the Merger Agreement or the decline in Bridge Bancorp's share price to more than 20% below $21.97 as of the first date when all regulatory approvals for the Merger have been received combined with such decline being at least 20% greater than a corresponding price decline of a group of 15 similar publicly-traded financial institutions, with no adjustment made to the exchange ratio by Bridge Bancorp. There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing the Merger will be fulfilled or that the Merger will be completed.

Bridge Bancorp May Fail to Realize the Anticipated Benefits of the Merger, and the Value of the Bridge Bancorp Stock Received by Holders of FNB NY Bancorp Shares as Consideration for the Merger may Decline.

The success of the Merger will depend on, among other things, Bridge Bancorp's ability to realize anticipated cost savings and to combine the businesses of Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp in a manner that permits growth opportunities and does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of FNB NY Bancorp nor result in decreased revenues resulting from any loss of customers. If Bridge Bancorp is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the Merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected, adversely affecting the value of Bridge Bancorp common stock, including those which FNB NY Bancorp shareholders have received as consideration for the Merger.

Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp have operated and, until the completion of the Merger, will continue to operate independently. Certain employees of FNB NY Bancorp will not be employed by Bridge Bancorp or Bridgehampton Bank after the Merger. In addition, employees of FNB NY Bancorp that Bridge Bancorp wishes to retain may elect to terminate their employment as a result of the Merger which could delay or disrupt the integration process. It is possible that the integration process could result in the disruption of FNB NY Bancorp's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the ability of Bridgehampton Bank to maintain relationships with customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

FNB NY Bancorp Directors and Officers Have Interests in the Merger Besides Those of a Shareholder.

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of FNB NY Bancorp to adopt the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain of FNB NY Bancorp's officers and directors have interests in the Merger that are in addition to, or different from, the interests of FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders generally. FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors was aware of these conflicts of interest and took them into account in approving the Merger. These interests include payments (up to an aggregate amount of approximately $1,150,000) that may be made pursuant to contractual arrangements in existence before the date of the Merger Agreement, and are described below:

- Change in control agreements with two officers of FNB NY Bancorp that provide for cash severance payments and continued health insurance in connection with a termination of employment without cause or for good reason following a change in control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, due to certain applicable regulatory restrictions, unless prior regulatory approval is obtained, Bridge Bancorp and/or FNB NY Bancorp will be prohibited from making any payments under these change in control agreements. FNB NY Bancorp has filed an application with the applicable regulators seeking approval to make payments under the change in control agreements. If regulatory approval is received, the cash severance payments can be made under the change in control agreements.
- Rights of FNB NY Bancorp officers and directors to continued indemnification coverage and continued coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies.

FNB NY Bancorp Shareholders Will Have a Reduced Ownership and Voting Interest After the Merger and Will Exercise Less Influence Over Management.

Holders of FNB NY Bancorp's Class A Common Stock currently have the right to vote in the election of the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors and on other matters affecting FNB NY Bancorp. When the Merger is completed, each FNB NY Bancorp shareholder that receives shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock will become a shareholder of Bridge Bancorp with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of FNB NY Bancorp. Because of this, FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Bridge Bancorp than they now have on the management and policies of FNB NY Bancorp.

Termination of the Merger Agreement Could Negatively Impact FNB NY Bancorp.

Bridge Bancorp may terminate the Merger Agreement for the reasons set forth in the Merger Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences including:

- FNB NY Bancorp's businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger; and
- the value of FNB NY Bancorp common stock might decline to the extent that the current value reflects a market assumption that the Merger will be completed.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated and FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, FNB NY Bancorp shareholders cannot be certain that FNB NY Bancorp will be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price Bridge Bancorp has agreed to pay in the Merger.

The Opinion of FNB NY Bancorp s Financial Advisor Will Not Reflect Changes in Circumstances Between Signing the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

FNB NY Bancorp s financial advisor, KBW, rendered an opinion as to the fairness of the Merger dated September 26, 2013, to the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors. KBW assumed no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date thereof.

Changes in the operations and prospects of Bridge Bancorp or FNB NY Bancorp, general market and economic conditions and other factors on which FNB NY Bancorp s financial advisor s opinion was based, may significantly alter the value of Bridge Bancorp or FNB NY Bancorp or the prices of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock or FNB NY Bancorp common stock by the time the Merger is completed. The opinion does not speak as of the time the Merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. The FNB NY Bancorp board of directors recommendation that holders of FNB NY Bancorp common stock vote FOR adoption of the Merger Agreement, however, is as of the date of this document. For a description of the opinion that FNB NY Bancorp received from its financial advisor, please refer to The Merger and the Merger Agreement Fairness Opinion of FNB NY Bancorp s Financial Advisor. For a description of the other factors considered by FNB NY Bancorp s board of directors in determining to approve the Merger, please refer to The Merger and the Merger Agreement Recommendation of the FNB NY Bancorp Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger.

The Merger Agreement Limits FNB NY Bancorp s Ability to Pursue Alternatives to the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains no shop provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, limit FNB NY Bancorp s ability to discuss, facilitate or commit to competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of FNB NY Bancorp. In addition, FNB NY Bancorp has agreed to pay Bridge Bancorp a termination fee in the amount of $200,000 plus expenses in the event that FNB NY Bancorp terminates the Merger Agreement for certain reasons. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of FNB NY Bancorp from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the Merger, or might result in a potential competing acquirer s proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire FNB NY Bancorp than it might otherwise have proposed to pay. FNB NY Bancorp can consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to an alternative proposal so long as the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with legal counsel) that failure to do so would be reasonably likely to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders under applicable law.

The Shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock to be Received by FNB NY Bancorp Shareholders as a Result of the Merger Will Have Different Rights From the Shares of FNB NY Bancorp Common Stock.

Upon completion of the Merger, FNB NY Bancorp shareholders will become Bridge Bancorp shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Bridge Bancorp. The rights associated with FNB NY Bancorp common stock are different from the rights associated with Bridge Bancorp common stock. Please see Comparison of Shareholders Rights for a discussion of the different rights associated with Bridge Bancorp common stock.

Proxy Card, Revocation of Proxy

You should vote by completing and returning the proxy card accompanying this document to ensure that your vote is counted at the special meeting of shareholders, regardless of whether you plan to attend. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting by:

- submitting written notice of revocation to Maureen Kiedaisch, Corporate Secretary of FNB NY Bancorp;
- submitting a properly executed proxy bearing a later date before the special meeting of shareholders; or

If your shares are held in street name, you should follow the instructions of your broker regarding revocation of proxies.

All shares represented by valid proxies and unrevoked proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy card. If you sign your proxy card, but make no specification on the card as to how you want your shares voted, your proxy card will be voted FOR approval of the foregoing proposals. meeting of shareholders. At that time, 3,784,497 shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock were outstanding, and were held by approximately 51 holders of record.

Voting Rights, Quorum Requirements and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting of shareholders. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present but will not be counted as votes cast either for or against the Merger Agreement.

Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock issued and outstanding on the record date. Accordingly, a failure to vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of FNB NY Bancorp owned 708,729 shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the special meeting of holders of Class A Common Stock, and Modern Capital owned 1,263,000 shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the special meeting of holders Class A Common Stock. The FNB NY Bancorp board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The board of directors of FNB NY Bancorp believes that the Merger Agreement is fair to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders and is in the best interest of FNB NY Bancorp and its shareholders and recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement. See The Merger and the Merger Agreement Recommendation of the FNB NY Bancorp Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger.

THE MERGER AND THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement contained in this proxy statement-prospectus describes the material terms of the Merger Agreement; however, it does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. Bridge Bancorp has attached a copy of the Merger Agreement as Appendix A.

General

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, FNB NY Bancorp will merge into Bridge Bancorp, with Bridge Bancorp as the surviving entity. Outstanding shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share of Bridge Bancorp common stock. See Merger Consideration below. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of FNB NY Bancorp will cease and Bridge Bancorp will succeed to all the rights and be responsible for all the obligations of FNB NY Bancorp.

FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

Founded as Madison National Bank and headquartered in Melville, New York, FNB NY Bancorp is the owner of the First National Bank, which operates three full-service banking centers in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, New York. As of September 30, 2013, FNB NY Bancorp had total assets, deposits, and net loans of approximately $260.1 million, $195.7 million, and $103.4 million, respectively. FNB NY Bancorp's principal executive office is located at 538 Broadhollow Road, Melville, New York 11747, (631) 348-6999.

Merger Consideration

Bridge Bancorp will issue an aggregate of 244,110 shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock as a result of the Merger, subject to the adjustments as described in the next sentence (the "Aggregate Bridge Bancorp Shares"). The Aggregate Bridge Bancorp Shares shall be (1) increased by that number as shall equal (i) the dollar amount FNB NY Bancorp recovers, net of expenses, with respect to two loans totaling $6.3 million (the "Identified Loans"), (ii) divided by $21.5067 (the "Pre-Closing Additional Consideration"), and (2) decreased by that number equal to (i) the amount by which insurance proceeds received by FNB NY Bancorp prior to the closing of the Merger with respect to certain insurance claims is less than $350,000, (ii) divided by $21.5067. The amount recovered by FNB NY Bancorp with respect to the Identified Loans will include (i) aggregate cash payments of principal and interest, and (ii) payments from non-recourse sales of the Identified Loans, less (iii) all out of pocket costs and expenses and any other disbursements directly and primarily relating to the administration of the Identified Loans (including without limitation, real estate taxes and other property maintenance expenses paid and professional fees). If the amount recovered or the amount of any expense is disputed in good faith by Bridge Bancorp and not resolved prior to the closing date of the Merger, the Aggregate Bridge Bancorp Shares will not be increased and the dispute shall be resolved by an accounting firm mutually agreed upon by the parties (the cost of which shall be equally shared). The amount determined by such accounting firm to have been recovered by FNBNY Bancorp, net of expenses, will be included in the Post-Closing Additional Consideration (as defined below).

On the closing date, Bridge Bancorp will establish an account at Bridgehampton National Bank (the Identified Loan Account) in which any principal and interest payments received (and not included in the determination of the Pre-Closing Additional Consideration) on the Identified Loans shall be deposited. Bridge Bancorp will also maintain records of all direct out of pocket expenses incurred and primarily relating to the administration of the Identified Loans. Not more than thirty (30) days following each of the first two anniversary dates of the closing date (the Distribution Dates), Bridge Bancorp shall distribute from the Identified Loan Account to each of the holders of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock of record at the Effective Time who are not Dissenting Shareholders (the Specified Shareholders) payment in cash equal to the product of (i) sixty percent of the amount recovered with respect to the Identified Loans, including from funds held in trust, escrow or a similar vehicle prior to the closing of the Merger, net of expenses, during the year preceding each Distribution Date, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock owned of record by such Specified Shareholder on the date of the closing of the Merger and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of shares of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock owned of record by all Specified Shareholders on the date of the closing of the Merger (the Post-Closing Additional Consideration). If there is no payment due Specified Shareholders as of the Distribution Dates, Bridge Bancorp will so inform the Specified Shareholders. Following the second Distribution Date, there shall be no further obligation with respect to the Identified Loans and no further distributions to Specified Shareholders. Bridge Bancorp will maintain records of recoveries (including costs and expenses) during this two year period, and provided that Bridge Bancorp provides Specified Shareholders with an explanation of the status of the Identified Loans and any recoveries, Bridge Bancorp will have no further liability or obligation with respect to the Specified Shareholders. Bridge Bancorp may sell the Identified Loans in good faith and at prices it deems reasonable and no claim shall be available to Specified Shareholders in connection therewith.

It is also possible that the merger consideration may be adjusted prior to the effective date of the Merger as a result of certain decreases in the price of Bridge Bancorp common stock. The Merger Agreement provides that (i) if the number obtained by dividing the average closing price of Bridge Bancorp common stock during the twenty consecutive full trading days immediately preceding the first date on which all bank regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) by $21.97 (the Bridge Ratio) is less than 0.80 and (ii) Bridge Bancorp s common stock has under-performed an index of Bridge Bancorp peer financial institutions by more than 20% during the twenty consecutive full trading day period immediately preceding the first date on which all bank regulatory approvals necessary for consummation of the Merger are received compared to such index on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the announcement of the Merger Agreement, then FNBNY Bancorp may elect to terminate the Merger Agreement unless Bridge Bancorp elects to increase the merger consideration. See The Merger and the Merger Agreement Termination; Amendment; Waiver. If FNBNY Bancorp elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must give prompt written notice thereof to Bridge Bancorp. During the five-day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Bridge Bancorp shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of FNB NY Bancorp common stock by adjusting the Exchange Ratio to equal the lesser of (i) the quotient of (A) the product of $21.97, 0.80 and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and (B) the average of the daily closing prices for shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock for the twenty consecutive full trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the first date on which all regulatory approvals have been received (the Determination Date), and (ii) the quotient of (A) the product of the Index Ratio (defined as the number obtained by dividing the average of the trading prices of the fifteen financial institutions comprising the index group for the twenty consecutive full trading days ending on the trading day prior to the Determination Date by the average closing price of the fifteen financial institutions comprising the index group on September 27, 2013 and subtracting 0.20 from the quotient) and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and (B) the Bridge Ratio. If Bridge Bancorp elects, it shall give, within such five-day period, written notice to FNB NY Bancorp of such election to revise the Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred and the Merger Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified). Because the formula is dependent on the future price of Bridge Bancorp's common stock and that of the index group, it is not possible presently to determine what the adjusted merger consideration would be at this time, but, in general, more shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock would be issued, to take into account the extent the average price of Bridge Bancorp's common stock exceeded the decline in the average price of the common stock of the index group.

No fractional shares of Bridge Bancorp will be issued in connection with the Merger. Instead, Bridge Bancorp will make a cash payment to each FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who would otherwise receive a fractional share. Each share of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock that is exchanged for Bridge Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share equal to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock issued pursuant to the Merger, as adjusted pursuant to the Merger Agreement, divided by the number of shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock outstanding at closing. Based upon the closing price of Bridge Bancorp on _____, and assuming that there is no adjustment to the aggregate number of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock issued pursuant to the Merger and 377,008 additional shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock are issued, each fractional share of Bridge Bancorp would have a value of $ _____.

Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements

FNB NY Bancorp entered into four subscription agreements in connection with the sale of 125,000 shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock at $10.00 per share in April and June 2013. The purpose of the sale of shares pursuant to the subscription agreements was to increase the amount of capital at First National Bank.

Pursuant to the subscription agreements, if FNB NY Bancorp sells any shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock by December 31, 2013 for less than $10.00 per share, FNB NY Bancorp must issue to each subscriber a number of additional shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock equal to the amount by which: (i) the dollar value of each subscriber's investment divided by the lowest price at which any Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock is sold by FNB NY Bancorp by December 31, 2013, exceeds (ii) the dollar value of each subscriber's investment divided by $10.00.

The subscription agreements further provide that if FNB NY Bancorp does not sell any shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock by December 31, 2013, FNB NY Bancorp must issue to each subscriber a number of additional shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock equal to the amount by which: (i) the dollar value of each subscriber's investment divided by the tangible book value per share of FNB NY Bancorp as of December 31, 2013, as shown in

FNBNY Bancorp's audited financials, exceeds (ii) the dollar value of each subscriber's investment divided by $10.00.

The Merger is not a sale of shares, and under the Merger Agreement, FNBNY Bancorp is prohibited from selling any shares of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock prior to closing. Accordingly, the number of additional shares to be issued under the subscription agreements will be determined based on the FNBNY Bancorp tangible book value per share as of December 31, 2013, as reflected in the audited financial statements. As of September 30, 2013, FNBNY Bancorp's tangible book value was $2.49.

For example, if the FNBNY Bancorp tangible book value per share on December 31, 2013 is $2.50, it would entitle a subscriber who invested $100,000 at $10.00 per share (10,000 shares = $100,000 investment divided by $10.00 per share cost), to an additional 30,000 shares in total ($100,000 divided by tangible book value of $2.50 equals 40,000 shares of FNBNY Bancorp Common Stock, less the 10,000 shares purchased at $10.00 each). Based upon FNBNY Bancorp's tangible book value of $2.49 as of September 30, 2013, FNBNY Bancorp will be required to issue 377,008 additional shares of Class A Common Stock under the subscription agreements.

Given that Bridge Bancorp is issuing a fixed number of Bridge Bancorp shares (244,110) of common stock as merger consideration, subject to adjustments based on pre-closing recoveries, the issuance of additional FNBNY Bancorp shares of common stock under the subscription agreements will have the effect of lowering the Exchange Ratio and the per share merger consideration to be received for each share of FNBNY Bancorp Common Stock. As of September 30, 2013, FNBNY Bancorp's tangible book value per share was $2.49. The following table shows the effect on the Exchange Ratio resulting from different FNBNY Bancorp tangible book values per share at December 31, 2013 and such resulting issuance of additional FNBNY Bancorp Common Stock to the four subscribers:

FNBNY Bancorp Tangible Book Value Per Share at December 31, 2013	Additional FNBNY Bancorp Shares Issued to Subscribers	Exchange Ratio For All FNBNY Bancorp Shareholders
$1.00	1,125,000	0.03992
$1.50	708,333	0.04284
$2.00	500,000	0.04447
$2.50	375,000	0.04550
$3.00	291,667	0.04622
$3.50	232,143	0.04675
$4.00	187,500	0.04715

The Exchange Ratio for each outstanding share of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock is subject to adjustment for a number of factors that may not be determined until immediately prior to closing. The number of shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock to be issued, initially 244,110, may be increased or decreased depending on whether FNBNY Bancorp recovers certain amounts prior to closing. The number of shares will be increased based on the amount FNBNY Bancorp recovers, net of expenses, with respect to two loans totaling $6.3 million and will be decreased based on the amount by which insurance proceeds received by FNBNY Bancorp prior to closing with respect to certain insurance claims falls below $350,000. The maximum number of additional shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock that would be issued if FNBNY Bancorp recovers the full $6.3 million, assuming no expenses, is 292,931, and the maximum number of shares by which it would be decreased is 16,274, assuming no insurance proceeds are received prior to closing. Any increase in the number of shares to be issued would increase the Exchange Ratio and any decrease would decrease the Exchange Ratio.

In addition, the Exchange Ratio will be decreased as a result of any issuance of additional shares of its Class A Common Stock pursuant to certain subscription agreements. Under the subscription agreements, FNB NY Bancorp is required to issue additional shares if its tangible book value as shown on its December 31, 2013 audited balance sheet, is less than $10.00 per share. Based on unaudited financial data as of September 30, 2013, the tangible book value per share was $2.49 and FNB NY Bancorp would be required to issue an aggregate of 377,008 additional shares of Class A Common Stock. See The Merger and the Merger Agreement Potential Effects on Exchange Ratio of the Issuance of Additional Shares Under the Subscription Agreements. As a result of the issuance of additional shares, the Exchange Ratio for all holders of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be reduced. Any change in the Exchange Ratio will affect the number of shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock to be received by holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in connection with the Merger.

The following table shows the combined effect on the Exchange Ratio of a range of possible circumstances, including (1) that FNB NY Bancorp recovers the full $6.3 million with respect to the Identified Loans, assuming no expenses, and receives at least $350,000 of insurance proceeds (the Maximum Upward Adjustment), (2) that FNB NY Bancorp recovers the full $6.3 million with respect to the Identified Loans, assuming no expenses, but receives none of the insurance proceeds (the Combined Adjustment), (3) that FNB NY Bancorp recovers no amount with respect to the Identified Loans and receives none of the insurance proceeds (the Maximum Downward Adjustment), together with the impact of FNB NY Bancorp issuing additional shares under the subscription agreements.

Surrender of Stock Certificates

Bridge Bancorp will deposit with the exchange agent the certificates representing Bridge Bancorp's common stock to be issued to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders in exchange for FNB NY Bancorp's Common Stock. Within five business days after the completion of the Merger, the exchange agent will mail to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders a letter of transmittal, together with instructions for the exchange of their FNB NY Bancorp stock certificates for the merger consideration. Upon surrendering his or her certificate(s) representing shares of FNB NY Bancorp's Common Stock, together with the signed letter of transmittal, the FNB NY Bancorp shareholder shall be entitled to receive, as applicable (i) certificate(s) representing a number of whole shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock (if any) determined in accordance with the exchange ratio and (ii) a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any. Until you surrender your FNB NY Bancorp stock certificates for exchange after completion of the Merger, you will not be paid dividends or other distributions declared after the Merger with respect to any Bridge Bancorp common stock into which your shares have been converted. No interest will be paid or accrued to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders on the cash in lieu of fractional shares or unpaid dividends and distributions, if any. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no further transfers of FNB NY Bancorp Common Stock. FNB NY Bancorp stock certificates presented for transfer will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

If your stock certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, you will have to prove your ownership of these certificates and that they were lost, stolen or destroyed before you submit an election form and before you receive any consideration for your shares.

If any certificate representing shares of Bridge Bancorp's common stock is to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate for shares surrendered in exchange is registered, or cash is to be paid to a person other than the registered holder, it will be a condition of issuance or payment that the certificate so surrendered be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting the exchange either:

- pay to the exchange agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of a certificate or payment to a person other than the registered holder of the certificate surrendered, or
- establish to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that the tax has been paid or is not payable.

Any portion of the purchase price made available to the exchange agent that remains unclaimed by FNB NY Bancorp shareholders for six months after the effective time of the Merger will be returned to Bridge Bancorp's transfer agent. Any FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who has not exchanged shares of FNB NY Bancorp's Common Stock for the purchase price in accordance with the Merger Agreement before that time may look only to Bridge Bancorp for payment of the purchase price for these shares and any unpaid dividends or distributions after that time. Nonetheless, Bridge Bancorp, FNB NY Bancorp, the exchange agent or any other person will not be liable to any FNB NY Bancorp shareholder for any amount properly delivered to a public official under applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Background of the Merger

Since FNB NY Bancorp began operations in 2012, its vision has been to create a community bank focused on customer and community service. As a result of regulatory changes, including increased compliance costs and higher capital ratio requirements, difficult economic conditions and fundraising environment and the need to grow for operational efficiencies, FNB NY Bancorp has not been able to deliver profitability and growth. During the second quarter of 2013, FNB NY Bancorp engaged KBW as investment banker to raise the necessary capital to execute the company's strategic plan. KBW reached out to 23 parties, and FNB NY Bancorp met with 10 investor prospects over the course of several months. Efforts with these prospective investors did not achieve the desired result. The FNB NY Bancorp board of directors then discussed the merits of entertaining offers for a sale while continuing with its capital raising efforts. During this time, Bridge Bancorp, and others, expressed an interest in the acquisition of FNB NY Bancorp.

On August 9, 2013, after reviewing the materials posted in the FNB NY Bancorp data room, Bridge Bancorp submitted a non-binding letter of interest to KBW regarding a possible acquisition of FNB NY Bancorp and First National Bank. Bridge Bancorp began an extensive due diligence of FNB NY Bancorp on August 15, 2013 which led to the beginning of price negotiations for a possible deal. After several exchanges through the representative investment bankers and at the direction of the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors, Chief Executive Officer John Stewart and director David Ledy met with Bridge Bancorp Chief Executive Officer Kevin O'Connor at Bridge Bancorp's headquarters on August 29, 2013 in order to advance the progress of negotiations. This subsequently led to direct discussions between the two Chief Executive Officers that resulted in a final and non-binding letter of interest from Bridge Bancorp on September 9, 2013. A conference call to update the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors was convened on September 10, 2013 and Messrs. Stewart and O'Connor were able to finalize key details of the potential transaction on September 11, 2013, at which time, the final nonbinding indication of interest was fully executed. The representative law firms then began to finalize the details of the merger agreement.

On September 27, 2013, the Board of Directors of FNB NY Bancorp unanimously approved a Merger Agreement between FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp, pursuant to which FNB NY Bancorp will be merged with and into Bridge Bancorp, subject to the approval of the FNB NY Bancorp shareholders and the satisfaction of certain other conditions including the receipt of required regulatory approvals. If the Merger Agreement is approved and the conditions are satisfied, on the effective date of the Merger each share of FNB NY Bancorp common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive a fraction of a share of Bridge Bancorp common stock or, if a shareholder has properly exercised dissenters' rights, the right to receive fair value for his, her or its shares.

Following the effective date of the Merger, the separate existence of FNB NY Bancorp will cease. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Bridge Bancorp, as in effect immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger, will be the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the surviving corporation in the Merger. The directors of Bridge Bancorp immediately prior to the effective date of the Merger will be the directors of the surviving corporation in the Merger, until their respective successors have been elected and qualified or otherwise in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Bridge Bancorp. The officers of Bridge Bancorp duly elected and holding office immediately prior to the effective date will be the officers of the surviving corporation in the Merger.

Recommendation of the FNB NY Bancorp Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and unanimously recommends that FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors has determined that the Merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, FNB NY Bancorp and its shareholders. In arriving at its determination, FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

- the board's familiarity with and review of information concerning the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Bridge Bancorp;
- the opportunity for FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders to have increased liquidity upon receipt of Bridge Bancorp shares in exchange for their FNB NY Bancorp shares, because Bridge Bancorp shares trade on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol BDGE ;
- the opportunity for FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders to receive dividend payments on the shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock that they receive following the Merger;
- the regulatory environment facing FNB NY Bancorp in particular and banks and financial institutions generally (including additional compliance costs and potentially higher capital ratio thresholds), the trend toward consolidation in the financial services industry and the likely effect of the foregoing factors on FNB NY Bancorp's potential growth, development, productivity and profitability;

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

- results that could be expected to be obtained by FNBNY Bancorp if FNBNY Bancorp continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to shareholders of such course, as compared with the value of the Bridge Bancorp common stock being offered by Bridge Bancorp;
- the ability of Bridge Bancorp to receive the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner;
- its assessment, based in part on discussions with its financial advisers, that it currently was unlikely that another acquirer had both the willingness and the financial capability to offer to acquire FNBNY Bancorp at a value that was materially higher than that being offered by Bridge Bancorp;
- the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the parties' respective representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements, the conditions to closing, the absence of a financing condition, a provision that permits FNBNY Bancorp's board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, under certain conditions, to furnish information to, or engage in negotiations with, a third party that has submitted a bona fide unsolicited written proposal to acquire FNB NY Bancorp, a provision providing for FNB NY Bancorp's payment of a termination fee to Bridge Bancorp if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, and the effect such termination fee could have on a third party's decision to propose a merger or similar transaction to FNB NY Bancorp at a greater value than that contemplated by the Merger;

- the effects of the Merger on FNB NY Bancorp's depositors and customers and the communities served by FNB NY Bancorp, which was deemed to be favorable given that they would be served by a local community banking organization that had greater resources than FNB NY Bancorp; and
- the effects of the Merger on FNB NY Bancorp's employees, including the prospects for employment with a strong, growing organization such as Bridge Bancorp and the severance and other benefits agreed to be provided by Bridge Bancorp to employees whose employment was terminated in connection with the Merger.

The discussion and factors considered by FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered. In approving the Merger Agreement, FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors did not assign any specific or relative weights to any of the foregoing factors and individual directors may have weighted factors differently.

Fairness Opinion of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.'s Financial Advisor

FNB NY Bancorp engaged Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW) to render an opinion to the board of directors of FNB NY Bancorp as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, collectively as a group, other than the directors and executive officers of FNB NY Bancorp, Modern Capital Holdings LLC and their respective affiliates (collectively, Excluded Holders), of the aggregate consideration in the proposed Merger with Bridge Bancorp. FNB NY Bancorp selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the Merger and is familiar with FNB NY Bancorp and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors held on September 26, 2013, at which the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors evaluated the proposed Merger with Bridge Bancorp. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed Merger and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW set forth in the opinion, the aggregate consideration in the proposed Merger with Bridge Bancorp was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (other than Excluded Holders). For purposes of KBW's opinion, the aggregate consideration refers to (a) 244,110 shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock to be issued in the Merger, subject to downward adjustment of up to 16,274 shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock (the Downward Adjustment), (b) an additional 177,753 shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock assumed to be issuable based on aggregate pre-closing recoveries on certain loans and insurance proceeds as estimated by management of FNB NY Bancorp, and (c) $774,333 in cash assumed to be payable based on post-closing recoveries on certain loans as estimated by management of FNB NY Bancorp (together, the pre-closing recoveries as stated in (b) and the post-closing recoveries, as stated in (c), the Recoveries). The FNB NY Bancorp board of directors approved the Merger Agreement at this meeting.

The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Appendix B to this document and is incorporated herein by reference, and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing the opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the aggregate consideration to the holders of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (other than Excluded Holders). It did not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger or constitute a recommendation to the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors in connection with the Merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock as to how the shareholder should vote at the FNBNY Bancorp special meeting on the Merger or any related matter.

KBW's opinion was reviewed and approved by KBW's Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with its policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

In rendering its opinion, KBW reviewed, among other things:

- a draft, dated September 24, 2013, of the Merger Agreement (the most recent draft made available to KBW);
- the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012 of FNBNY Bancorp;
- the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Bridge Bancorp;
- unaudited interim financial statements of FNBNY Bancorp for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013;
- certain interim reports to stockholders and quarterly reports of Bridge Bancorp, including the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Bridge Bancorp for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013;
- certain other communications from FNBNY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp to their respective stockholders; and

- other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of FNB NY Bancorp furnished to KBW by FNB NY Bancorp for purposes of KBW's analysis.

KBW's consideration of financial information and other factors that it deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to its analyses included, among others, the following:

- the historical and current financial position and results of operations of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp;
- the assets and liabilities of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp;
- the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry;
- a comparison of certain financial information for FNB NY Bancorp and financial and stock market information for Bridge Bancorp with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded;
- financial and operating forecasts and projections of FNB NY Bancorp (reflecting, among other things, certain assumptions of management of FNB NY Bancorp with respect to a potential equity financing expected to be undertaken by FNB NY Bancorp (the Assumed Equity Financing) in the absence of a sale of FNB NY Bancorp) as well as estimates regarding the Recoveries on which the estimated 177,753 additional Bridge Bancorp share consideration and the estimated $774,333 post-closing cash consideration are based, which forecasts, projections and estimates were prepared by and provided to KBW by management of FNB NY Bancorp and approved for KBW s use by FNB NY Bancorp and on which the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors directed KBW to rely; and

- publicly available consensus street estimates of Bridge Bancorp discussed with KBW by management of Bridge Bancorp and estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Bridge Bancorp prepared by and provided to KBW by management of Bridge Bancorp.

KBW also performed such other studies and analyses as it considered appropriate and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as KBW s experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. KBW also held discussions with senior management of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp and such other matters as KBW deemed relevant to its inquiry.

In conducting KBW s review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to KBW or publicly available and KBW did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. KBW relied upon management of FNB NY Bancorp as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections of FNB NY Bancorp and estimates regarding the Recoveries prepared by and provided to KBW by management of FNB NY Bancorp and that KBW was directed to rely upon by the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and KBW assumed, at the direction of FNB NY Bancorp, that such forecasts, projections and estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such forecasts, projections and estimates would be realized in the amounts and in the time periods then currently estimated by such management. KBW also relied on, at the direction of the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors, the assessments of management of FNB NY Bancorp as to the ability of FNB NY Bancorp to successfully effect the Assumed Equity Financing in the absence of a sale of FNB NY Bancorp. KBW further relied upon management of Bridge Bancorp as to the reasonableness and achievability of the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Bridge Bancorp prepared by and provided to KBW by management of Bridge Bancorp (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and KBW assumed that such estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such estimates will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management. It is understood that such forecasts, projections and estimates prepared by and provided to KBW by the respective managements of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp, as the case may be, were not prepared by such managements with the expectation of public disclosure, that all such information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and that, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such forecasts, projections and estimates. KBW assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp, that such forecasts, projections and estimates as well as publicly available consensus street estimates of Bridge Bancorp referred to above provide a reasonable basis upon which KBW could form its opinion and expressed no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. KBW relied on such information without independent verification or analysis and did not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. KBW further assumed, at the direction of the Board, that the actual consideration received by holders of FNB NY Bancorp common shares in the aggregate will not differ from the aggregate consideration in any respect that would be material to KBW's opinion and that Bridge Bancorp will have the ability to, and will, pay the portions of such actual consideration that become payable after the closing of the Merger.

KBW assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either FNB NY Bancorp or Bridge Bancorp since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to KBW. KBW also assumed that the audited financial statements for FNB NY Bancorp contemplated to be delivered to Bridge Bancorp following the date of the opinion would not reflect any such material changes. KBW is not an expert in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and KBW assumed, without independent verification and with FNB NY Bancorp's consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering its opinion, KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of FNB NY Bancorp or Bridge Bancorp, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor did KBW examine any individual loan or credit files, nor did KBW evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of FNB NY Bancorp or Bridge Bancorp under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, KBW assumes no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

- that the Merger and related transactions would be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement (the final terms of which would not differ in any respect material to KBW's analyses from the draft reviewed);
- the representations and warranties of each party in the Merger Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Merger Agreement were true and correct;
- each party to the Merger Agreement and all related documents would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;
- that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions any necessary regulatory or governmental approval and that all conditions to the completion of the Merger and related transactions would be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Merger Agreement; and
- that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Merger and related transactions, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of FNB NY Bancorp, the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Merger.

KBW further assumed that the Merger and related transactions would be consummated in a manner that complied with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. KBW further assumed that FNB NY Bancorp relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than KBW) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to FNB NY Bancorp, Bridge Bancorp, the Merger, the related transactions and the Merger Agreement. KBW did not provide advice with respect to any such matters.

KBW's opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of September 26, 2013, to the holders of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (other than Excluded Holders), collectively as a group, of the aggregate consideration in the Merger, without taking into account different classes or attributes of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock and without regard to individual circumstances of specific holders with respect to control, voting or other rights or aspects which may distinguish such holders. KBW expressed no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Merger or any related transaction, including without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, the nature or amount of the Downward Adjustment, the amount of the per share value of $21.5067 of Bridge Bancorp common stock agreed upon by FNBNY Bancorp (the Agreed Upon Value), (or the bases therefor), any consequences of the Merger to FNBNY Bancorp, its shareholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects or implications of any voting, support, shareholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise. KBW's opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and could be evaluated on the date of the opinion and the information made available to KBW through such date. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in KBW's opinion and that KBW does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. KBW's opinion did not address, and KBW expressed no view or opinion with respect to:

- the underlying business decision of FNBNY Bancorp to engage in the Merger or enter into the Merger Agreement;

- the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by FNBNY Bancorp or the board of directors of FNBNY Bancorp;

- the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of FNBNY Bancorp's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public shareholders of FNBNY Bancorp;

- the relative fairness of the aggregate consideration between the classes of FNBNY Bancorp common shares or the consideration to be received by any specific shareholder compared to the consideration to be received by any other specific shareholder;

- the treatment of, the effect of the Merger on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of FNBNY Bancorp other than FNBNY Bancorp common shares, or any class of securities of any other party to any transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

- whether Bridge Bancorp would have sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the estimated $774,333 post-closing cash consideration;

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, FNBNY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors with respect to the fairness of the consideration. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger were determined through negotiation between FNBNY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp, and the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors or directors.

The following is a summary of the material analyses presented by KBW to the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors on September 26, 2013, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the FNBNY Bancorp board of directors, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. For purposes of the financial analyses described below, KBW utilized an implied value of the aggregate consideration of $9.5 million, taking into account the Downward Adjustment, based on the Agreed Upon Value and FNBNY Bancorp management estimates for the Recoveries.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that FNB NY Bancorp could provide to FNB NY Bancorp's legacy shareholders (defined as shareholders of FNB NY Bancorp prior to the Assumed Equity Financing per FNB NY Bancorp management) through 2018 on a stand-alone basis, giving effect to the Assumed Equity Financing which would result in 37.4% ownership for new investors and 62.6% ownership for legacy shareholders.

In performing this analysis, KBW used financial forecasts and projections relating to the earnings and assets of FNB NY Bancorp prepared by and provided to KBW by FNB NY Bancorp management, and assumed discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 16.0%. The range of values was determined by adding (1) the present value of projected cash flows to FNB NY Bancorp shareholders from projected close through 2018 and (2) the present value of the terminal value of FNB NY Bancorp's common stock. In determining cash flows available to shareholders, FNB NY Bancorp was assumed to maintain a tangible common equity/tangible asset ratio of 7.50% by retaining sufficient earnings and/or obtaining sufficient capital infusions. Any earnings in excess of what would need to be retained represented distributable cash flows for FNB NY Bancorp.

In calculating the terminal value of FNB NY Bancorp, KBW applied multiples ranging from 0.70 times to 1.10 times December 31, 2018 projected tangible book value. This resulted in a range of values of FNB NY Bancorp attributable to legacy shareholders from approximately $4.78 million to $8.76 million. The discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology that relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of FNB NY Bancorp.

Financial Impact Analysis

KBW performed pro forma merger analyses that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp. Assumptions regarding the acquisition adjustments were used to calculate the financial impact that the Merger would have on certain projected financial results of Bridge Bancorp. In the course of this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Bridge Bancorp for 2014 and 2015 per First Call consensus and used earnings estimates for FNB NY Bancorp for 2014 and 2015 from Bridge Bancorp management. Additionally, KBW assumed a $20 million common equity raise after transaction announcement as per Bridge Bancorp management. This analysis indicated that the Merger, both before and after giving effect to the common equity raise, could be accretive to Bridge Bancorp's estimated earnings per share in 2014 and 2015. The analysis also indicated that the Merger, before giving effect to the common equity raise, could be dilutive to tangible book value per share but that the Merger, both before and after giving effect to the common equity raise, could be otherwise accretive to book value per share and tangible book value per share for Bridge Bancorp and that Bridge Bancorp could maintain well capitalized capital ratios. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Bridge Bancorp following the Merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Miscellaneous

The FNB NY Bancorp board of directors retained KBW as financial adviser to FNB NY Bancorp regarding the Merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for other Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp. As a market maker in securities, KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Bridge Bancorp for KBW's own account and for the accounts of its customers. To the extent KBW held any such positions as of the date of KBW's opinion, it was disclosed to the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors.

Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, FNB NY Bancorp agreed to pay KBW a fee of $600,000, $100,000 of which is contingent upon successful completion of the Merger. In addition, FNB NY Bancorp agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. During the two years preceding the date of its opinion to FNB NY Bancorp, KBW provided investment banking and financial advisory services to FNB NY Bancorp but has not received and does not expect to receive compensation for such services, and KBW has not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to Bridge Bancorp. KBW may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to FNB NY Bancorp or Bridge Bancorp and receive compensation for such services.

Employee Matters

Each person who is an employee of FNB NY Bancorp as of the closing of the merger (whose employment is not specifically terminated upon the closing) will become an employee of Bridgehampton National Bank and will be eligible to participate in group health, medical, dental, life, disability and other welfare plans available to similarly situated employees of Bridge Bancorp on the same basis that it provides such coverage to Bridge Bancorp employees. With respect to any welfare plan or program of FNB NY Bancorp that in the determination of Bridge Bancorp provides benefits of the same type as a plan maintained by Bridge Bancorp, Bridge Bancorp may continue the FNB NY Bancorp plan until such employees become eligible for the Bridge Bancorp plan so that there is no gap in coverage. Bridge Bancorp will give credit to continuing FNB NY Bancorp employees for purposes of determining eligibility and vesting purposes but not for benefit accrual purposes.

Current employees of FNB NY Bancorp who remain employed until the closing date will be eligible to participate in the Bridge Bancorp 401(k) plan on the day after the closing date. The FNB NY Bancorp 401(k) Plan will be terminated or merged into the Bridge Bancorp 401(k) Plan.

Bridge Bancorp will pay each employee of FNB NY Bancorp who is not otherwise covered by a specific employment, change in control or severance agreement whose employment is terminated (other than for cause) on or within six months following the closing date of the merger severance benefits equal to two weeks of base pay for each full year of service with FNB NY Bancorp, subject to a maximum of 26 weeks and a minimum of four weeks, provided that each individual executes an appropriate release in a form approved by Bridge Bancorp. In addition, any such severance payments are subject to any required regulatory approvals or satisfaction of conditions in any such regulatory approvals.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement have dissenter's rights to dissent from the Merger and obtain the fair value of their FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock in cash in accordance with the procedures established by New York law.

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

Sections 623 and 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law provide that if the Merger is consummated, holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement who object to the Merger in writing prior to the FNB NY Bancorp special meeting and who follow the procedures specified in Section 623 (summarized below) will have the right to receive cash payment of the fair value of their FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock. A copy of Section 623 and Section 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law is attached as Appendix C. The express procedures of Section 623 must be followed precisely; if they are not, holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class

A Common Stock will lose their right to dissent. As described more fully below, such fair value would potentially be determined in judicial proceedings, the result of which cannot be predicted. We cannot assure you that holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock exercising dissenters' rights will receive consideration equal to or greater than the value of the Bridge Bancorp common stock to be owned by them and/or cash paid to them following completion of the Merger.

The statutory procedures outlined below are complex. What follows is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 623 and Section 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law. Holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock wishing to exercise their dissenters' rights should consult their own legal advisors to ensure that they fully and properly comply with the requirements of New York law.

Any holder of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock who is entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement will have the right to receive cash payment of the fair value of his or her FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock and the other rights and benefits provided in Section 623 if such shareholder:

- files with FNB NY Bancorp a written objection to the Merger prior to the vote by the holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock on the adoption of the Merger Agreement. The written objection must include:
 - notice of the holder of Class A Common Stock's election to dissent;
 - the holder of Class A Common Stock's name and residence address;
 - the number of shares of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock as to which the holder of Class A Common Stock dissents; and
 - a demand for payment of the fair value of such FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock if the Merger is consummated; and
 - does not vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

A vote against adoption of the Merger Agreement will not satisfy the requirement of filing a written objection. Failure to vote against adoption of the Merger Agreement will not waive a FNB NY Bancorp shareholder's right to receive payment if the shareholder has filed a written objection in accordance with Section 623 and has not voted in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement. If a shareholder abstains from voting on adoption of the Merger Agreement, this will not waive his or her dissenter's rights so long as the appropriate written objection to the Merger is properly and timely filed. Since a signed proxy left blank will be voted for adoption of the Merger Agreement, any FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who wishes to exercise his or her dissenter's rights must either vote against adoption of the Merger Agreement or abstain. Written objection at this time may not be required from any shareholder to whom FNBNY Bancorp did not give proper notice of the special meeting of FNBNY Bancorp shareholders contemplated by this proxy statement-prospectus.

A holder of FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock may not dissent as to less than all FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock, held of record by him or her, that he or she owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner of Class A Common Stock as to less than all FNBNY Bancorp Class A Common Stock of such owner held of record by the nominee or fiduciary.

All written objections to the Merger and notices of election to dissent should be addressed to:

If the Merger Agreement is adopted by holders of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock, within 10 days after such approval, FNB NY Bancorp will give written notice of the approval by registered mail to each holder of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock who filed a timely written objection, except for any shareholder who voted in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement. Any holder of FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock from whom objection was not required and who elects to dissent must file with FNB NY Bancorp, within 20 days after the giving of notice to him or her, a written notice of election to dissent, stating his or her name and residence address, the amount of Class A Common Stock as to which he or she dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value for his or her FNB NY Bancorp Class A Common Stock.

Either at the time of filing of the notice of election to dissent or within one month after the filing of the notice of election to dissent, a dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholder must submit the certificates representing his or her dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shares to FNB NY Bancorp, or to its transfer agent, which shall note conspicuously on the certificates that a notice of election has been filed, and will then return the certificate to the shareholder. Any FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who fails to submit his or her certificates for notation within the required time shall, at the option of FNB NY Bancorp upon written notice to such FNB NY Bancorp shareholder within 45 days from the date of filing such notice of election to dissent, lose his or her dissenter's rights unless a court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

Within 15 days after the expiration of the period within which FNB NY Bancorp shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within 15 days after the completion of the Merger, whichever is later (but in no case later than 90 days after FNB NY Bancorp shareholders adopt the Merger Agreement), FNB NY Bancorp will make a written offer by registered mail to each FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who has filed a notice of election to pay for his or her dissenting shares at a specified price which FNB NY Bancorp considers to be their fair value. If the Merger has occurred, FNB NY Bancorp must accompany the offer by an advance payment to each shareholder who has submitted his or her stock certificates of an amount equal to 80% of the amount of the offer. Acceptance of such payment does not constitute a waiver of any dissenter's rights. The offer must be made at the same price per share to all the dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholders. If, within 30 days after the making of an offer, FNB NY Bancorp and any dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholders agree on the price to be paid for dissenting shares, the balance of payment for the shares must be made within 60 days after the making of the offer or the completion of the Merger, whichever is later, and upon surrender of the certificates representing such FNB NY Bancorp shares.

If FNB NY Bancorp fails to make an offer to dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholders within the 15-day period described above, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholder fails to agree with FNB NY Bancorp within 30 days thereafter upon the price to be paid for his or her shares, FNB NY Bancorp is required, within 20 days after the expiration of whichever is the applicable of the two periods, to institute a special proceeding in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the judicial district required by New York corporate law to determine the rights of dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If FNB NY Bancorp fails to institute a proceeding within the 20-day period, any dissenting shareholder may institute a proceeding for the same purpose not later than 30 days after the expiration of the 20-day period. If a dissenting shareholder does not institute a proceeding within the 30-day period, all dissenter's rights are lost unless the court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

During each proceeding, the court will determine whether each dissenting shareholder is entitled to receive payment for his or her shares and, if so, will fix the value of such shares as of the close of business on the day prior to the date FNB NY Bancorp shareholders voted to adopt the Merger Agreement, taking into consideration the nature of the transactions giving rise to the shareholder's right to receive payment for his or her dissenting shares and its effect on FNB NY Bancorp and its shareholders, the concepts and methods then customary in relevant securities and financial markets for determining the fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances and all other relevant factors. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares without a jury and without referral to an appraiser or referee. The court will also award interest on such amount to be paid from the completion of the Merger to the date of payment unless the court finds that a FNB NY Bancorp shareholder's refusal to accept FNB NY Bancorp's offer of payment was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. Each party to such proceeding will bear its own costs and expenses unless the court finds the refusal of payment by the FNB NY Bancorp shareholders arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, in which case FNB NY Bancorp's costs will be assessed against any or all dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholders who are party to such proceeding. The court, in its discretion, may also apportion or assess any part of the dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholder's costs against FNB NY Bancorp if it finds that the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which FNB NY Bancorp offered to pay, or that no offer or advance payment was made by FNB NY Bancorp, or that FNB NY Bancorp failed to institute such special proceeding within the specified period, or that the actions of FNB NY Bancorp in complying with its obligations under Section 623 were arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. Within 60 days following the final determination of the applicable proceeding, FNB NY Bancorp shall pay to each dissenting FNB NY Bancorp shareholder the amount found to be due him or her upon the shareholder's surrender of all certificates representing dissenting shares.

The enforcement by a FNB NY Bancorp shareholder of his or her right to receive payment for shares in accordance with Section 623 excludes the enforcement by such shareholder of any other right to which he or she might otherwise be entitled by virtue of his or her ownership of shares (unless the shareholder withdraws his or her notice of election or the Merger is abandoned), except that the shareholder will retain the right to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the grounds that the Merger will be or is unlawful or fraudulent as to him or her. A FNB NY Bancorp shareholder's notice of election may be withdrawn at any time prior to his or her acceptance in writing of an offer to purchase his or her dissenting shares by FNB NY Bancorp, but no withdrawal may be made later than 60 days from the completion of the Merger (unless FNB NY Bancorp failed to make a timely offer) without the consent of FNB NY Bancorp.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different From Yours

Share Ownership. On the record date for the FNB NY Bancorp special meeting, FNB NY Bancorp's directors and officers owned, in the aggregate, 708,729 shares of FNB NY Bancorp's common stock, representing approximately 18.7% of the outstanding shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock.

As described below, certain of FNB NY Bancorp's officers and directors have interests in the merger that are in addition to, or different from, the interests of FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders generally. FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors was aware of these conflicts of interest and took them into account in approving the merger. These interests include payments that may be made (up to an aggregate amount of approximately $1,150,000) pursuant to contractual arrangements in existence before the date of the merger agreement, and are described below:

Change in Control Agreements with FNB NY Bancorp. FNB NY Bancorp is a party to change in control agreements with William P. Mackey and Stella M. Mendes, which provide that upon an involuntary termination of employment or a voluntary termination of employment for good reason (as defined in the agreements) following a change in control, the officer will be paid a lump sum cash payment equal to two times (i) his or her base salary, (ii) the highest bonus paid to the officer in the prior three years, and (iii) the benefits the officer received under any retirement program during the twelve months prior to the termination date. In addition, the officer would be entitled to continued group life, medical and dental coverage for two years following termination of employment, with the officer paying his or her share of the employee premiums.

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

Notwithstanding the foregoing, due to certain regulatory restrictions applicable to First National Bank and FNBNY Bancorp, any payments or provision of benefits to Mr. Mackey and Ms. Mendes under the change in control agreements are prohibited without prior approval from the OCC and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

FNBNY Bancorp has filed an application with the OCC and the FDIC requesting approval to make the cash severance payments and provide the continued insurance coverage as provided under the terms of the change in control agreements. If regulatory approval is received, the cash severance payable under the two change in control agreements is estimated to total approximately $1,150,000.

The following table sets forth the estimated severance benefits to Mr. Mackey and Ms. Mendes under the change in control agreements upon termination of employment, which can only be paid if regulatory approval is received.

Executive	Cash($)	Equity($)	Pension/ NQDC($)	Perquisites/ Benefits($)	Tax Reimbursements($)	Other ($)	Total ($)
William P. Mackey	$ 574,000	$	$	$ 31,200	$	$	$ 605,600
Stella M. Mendes	$ 574,000	$	$	$ 31,200	$	$	$ 605,600

Bridge Bancorp and FNBNY Bancorp have entered into acknowledgement and release agreements with Mr. Mackey and Ms. Mendes, which provide that in exchange for the agreement of Bridge Bancorp and FNBNY Bancorp to make a reasonable good faith effort to obtain regulatory approval for payments to be made under the change in control agreements, each officer releases Bridge Bancorp and FNBNY Bancorp from all claims arising from or relating to the regulatory restrictions applicable to the change in control agreements.

Indemnification. Pursuant to the merger agreement, for a period of six years after the effective time (as defined in the Merger Agreement), Bridge Bancorp shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the effective time, an officer, director or employee of FNBNY Bancorp or an FNBNY Bancorp subsidiary (the Indemnified Parties) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorney s fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of Bridge Bancorp, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative (each a Claim), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of FNBNY Bancorp or an FNBNY Bancorp subsidiary if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the effective time (including, without limitation, the merger), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time, to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by FNBNY Bancorp and under FNBNY Bancorp s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Directors and Officers Insurance. Bridge Bancorp shall maintain, or shall cause Bridgehampton National Bank to maintain, in effect for six years following the Effective Time, the current directors and officers liability insurance policies covering the officers and directors of FNBNY Bancorp (provided, that Bridge Bancorp may substitute therefore policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the effective time. Bridge Bancorp is not required to spend more than 175% of the annual cost currently incurred by FNBNY Bancorp for its insurance coverage.

Management and Operations of Bridgehampton Bank After the Merger

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

Upon consummation of the Merger between FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp, FNB NY Bancorp will be merged into Bridge Bancorp and its separate existence will cease. The directors and officers of Bridge Bancorp immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be its directors and officers following completion of the Merger.

Effective Date of the Merger

The parties expect that the Merger will be effective during the first quarter of 2014 or as soon as possible after the receipt of all regulatory and shareholder approvals and after the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods. The Merger will be completed legally by the filing of the certificate of Merger with the New York Department of State. If the Merger is not consummated by July 31, 2014, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by either FNB NY Bancorp or Bridge Bancorp, unless the failure to consummate the Merger by this date is due to the breach by the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement of any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement. See Conditions to the Merger below.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

The Merger Agreement contains various restrictions on the operations of FNB NY Bancorp before the effective time of the Merger. In general, the Merger Agreement obligates FNB NY Bancorp to conduct its business in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and use reasonable efforts to preserve its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises. In addition, FNB NY Bancorp has agreed that, except as expressly contemplated by the Merger Agreement or specified in a schedule to the Merger Agreement, without the prior written consent of Bridge Bancorp, it will not, among other things:

- change or waive any provision of its Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, or appoint a new director to the board of directors;

- change the number of authorized or issued shares of its capital stock, issue any shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock, except pursuant to subscription agreements between FNB NY Bancorp and certain of its shareholders, or split, combine or reclassify any shares of capital stock, or declare, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution in respect of capital stock, or redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock;

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

- purchase any equity securities, or purchase any securities other than: (i) Federal Farm Credit obligations or other securities having the full faith and debt of the United States, and (ii) having a face amount of not more than $1.0 million, with a maturity date of three years or less at the date of purchase;
- except for commitments issued prior to the date of this Agreement which have not yet expired and with respect to certain loans held by First National Bank of New York and identified by the parties, and the renewal of existing lines of credit, make any new loan or other credit facility commitment (including without limitation, lines of credit and letters of credit), or modify any existing loan, in an amount in excess of $325,000 for a commercial real estate loan or $200,000 for a commercial business loan, or in excess of $325,000 for a residential loan that meets the requirements for sale to Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac. In addition, the prior approval of Bridge Bancorp is required with respect to the foregoing: (i) any new loan or credit facility commitment in an amount of $325,000 or greater to any borrower or group of affiliated borrowers whose credit exposure with First National Bank, FNB NY Bancorp or any FNB NY Bancorp Subsidiary, in the aggregate, exceeds $625,000 prior thereto or as a result thereof; (ii) any new loan or credit facility commitment in excess of $325,000 to any person residing, or any property located, outside of the State of New York; (iii) any new loan or loan commitment to any director or executive officer; (iv) any additional loan amount or commitment for additional loan amount, or any term modification, with respect to the Identified Loans; and (v) any modification or addition to the terms or any new loan, loan commitment or credit facility commitment with respect to the loans held by First National Bank of New York and identified by the parties;
- make any capital expenditures in excess of $15,000 individually or $35,000 in the aggregate, other than pursuant to binding commitments existing on the date of the Merger Agreement and expenditures necessary to maintain existing assets in good repair;
- purchase or otherwise acquire, or sell or otherwise dispose of, any assets or incur any liabilities other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices and policies; or

In addition to these covenants, the Merger Agreement contains various other customary covenants, including, among other things, access to information, each party's efforts to cause its representations and warranties to be true and correct on the closing date; and each party's agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a tax-free reorganization.

Representations and Warranties

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

They include, among other things:

Conditions to the Merger

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

The respective obligations of Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp to complete the Merger are subject to various conditions prior to the Merger. The conditions include the following:

- the receipt of all regulatory approvals and other necessary approvals of governmental entities (other than those the failure of which to obtain would not cause a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement)), including the OCC's and Federal Reserve's approval of the Merger (or waiver of such requirement) and the expiration of all applicable statutory waiting periods and such approvals do not contain a Burdensome Condition;
- approval of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock of FNB NY Bancorp;
- there must be no statute, rule, regulation, order or decree by which the Merger is restrained or enjoined;
- there must be no litigation, statute, law, regulation, order or decree by which the Merger is restrained or enjoined;

Table of Contents

- each of the representations and warranties of Bridge Bancorp and Bridgehampton Bank set forth the Merger Agreement that are qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct, and each of the representations and warranties of Bridge Bancorp and Bridgehampton National Bank that are not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date of this Agreement and upon the Effective Time with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made on the Effective Time (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date); and Bridge Bancorp shall have delivered to FNB NY Bancorp a certificate to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and Bridge Bancorp as of the Effective Time;

The parties may waive conditions to their obligations unless they are legally prohibited from doing so. Shareholder approval and regulatory approvals may not be legally waived.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

General. FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp have agreed to use all reasonable efforts to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the Merger. That includes the approval of the OCC. Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp have filed an application with the OCC. The Merger cannot be completed without such approval. Bridge Bancorp cannot assure that it will obtain the required regulatory approval, when it will be received, or whether there will be conditions in the approvals or any litigation challenging the approvals. Bridge Bancorp also cannot assure that the United States Department of Justice or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the Merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made.

Bridge Bancorp is not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the Merger other than those described below. Bridge Bancorp presently contemplates that it will seek any additional governmental approvals or actions that may be required in addition to those requests for approval currently pending; however, Bridge Bancorp cannot assure that it will obtain any such additional approvals or actions.

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. The Merger is subject to approval by the OCC. On October 21, 2013, Bridgehampton Bank filed the required application with the OCC.

The OCC may not approve any business combination that would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any conspiracy attempt to monopolize the business of banking in the United States. It will also not approve any transaction whose effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or in any other manner restrain trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the probable effects of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the community. In addition, the OCC considers such factors as the financial and managerial resources of the banks involved, their future prospects and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. Under the Community Reinvestment Act, the OCC must take into account the record of performance of each company in meeting the credit needs of its entire communities, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, served by each company. Bridgehampton Bank has a satisfactory CRA rating; FNBNY Bancorp has a satisfactory CRA rating. Finally, the OCC considers the effectiveness of the parties in combating money laundering activities and any risk to stability of the U.S. banking or financial systems.

Federal law requires publication of notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the applications submitted by Bridgehampton Bank for approval of the Merger. The comment period expired on . The OCC is authorized to hold a public hearing in connection with the application if it determines that such a hearing would be appropriate. Any such hearing or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review. In addition, under federal law, a period of 30 days must expire following approval by the OCC within which period the Department of Justice may file objections to the Merger under the federal antitrust laws. This waiting period may be reduced to 15 days if the Department of Justice has not provided any adverse comments relating to the competitive factors of the transaction. If the Department of Justice were to commence an antitrust action, that action would stay the effectiveness of OCC approval of the Merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the Merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the Merger's effect on competition differently than the OCC, and it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the OCC regarding the Merger's competitive effects.

The Merger also requires the approval of the Federal Reserve pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act unless the Federal Reserve is willing to grant a waiver pursuant to its regulations allowing for such waivers. Bridge Bancorp intends to request such a waiver. If a waiver is not received, the Federal Reserve will also consider factors such as financial and managerial resources, future prospects, the convenience and needs of the community and competitive factors.

No Solicitation

Until the Merger is completed or the Merger Agreement is terminated, FNBNY Bancorp has agreed that it, and its officers, employees, directors and representatives will not:

- initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage any inquiries, offers or proposals to acquire FNBNY Bancorp;
- participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any proposal to acquire FNBNY Bancorp, or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any person any information or data with respect to FNBNY Bancorp or otherwise relating to an acquisition proposal;
- release any person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which FNBNY Bancorp is a party; or

- enter into any agreement, agreement in principle, or letter of intent with respect to any proposal to acquire FNBNY Bancorp, or approve or resolve to approve an acquisition proposal.

At any time prior to the FNBNY Bancorp's special meeting of shareholders, FNBNY Bancorp may, however, furnish information regarding FNBNY Bancorp to, or enter into and engage in discussion with, any person or entity in response to a bona fide unsolicited written proposal by the person or entity relating to an acquisition proposal if:

Table of Contents

- FNB NY Bancorp's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such proposal is or is reasonably likely to be superior to the Merger from a financial point-of-view for FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders;
- FNB NY Bancorp notifies Bridge Bancorp within at least one (1) business day prior to such determination; and
- FNB NY Bancorp receives a confidentiality agreement from a third party with terms no less favorable to FNB NY Bancorp than the existing confidentiality agreement between FNB NY Bancorp and Bridge Bancorp.

Termination; Amendment; Waiver

The Merger Agreement may be terminated prior to the closing, before or after approval by FNB NY Bancorp's shareholders, as follows:

- by mutual written agreement of Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp;
- by either Bridge Bancorp or FNB NY Bancorp if the Merger has not occurred on or before July 31, 2014, and such failure to close is not due to the terminating party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement;
- by Bridge Bancorp or FNB NY Bancorp if FNB NY Bancorp shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and Merger;
- by the board of directors of a non-breaching party if the other party (1) breaches any covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement or (2) breaches any representations or warranties contained in the Merger Agreement, in each case if such breach by its nature cannot be cured by July 31, 2014 or has not been cured within thirty days after notice from the terminating party and which breach would cause the failure of conditions to the terminating party's obligation to close (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of the Merger Agreement);
- by either party if any required regulatory approvals for consummation of the Merger are not obtained;
- by Bridge Bancorp if any required regulatory approval imposes a Burdensome Condition;

- by Bridge Bancorp if FNB NY Bancorp receives a superior proposal and the FNB NY Bancorp board of directors enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal and terminates the Merger Agreement or fails to recommend that the shareholders of FNB NY Bancorp approve the Merger Agreement or has withdrawn, modified or changed such recommendation in a manner which is adverse to Bridge Bancorp; or
- by FNB NY Bancorp in order to accept a superior proposal, which has been received and considered by FNB NY Bancorp in compliance with the applicable terms of the Merger Agreement.

Under the latter two scenarios described above, if the Merger Agreement is terminated, FNB NY Bancorp shall pay to Bridge Bancorp a fee of $200,000, plus expenses. This fee would also be payable to Bridge Bancorp if FNB NY Bancorp enters into a Merger Agreement with a third party within twelve months of the termination of the Merger Agreement by Bridge Bancorp, if the termination was due to a willful breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement by FNB NY Bancorp or the failure of the shareholders of FNB NY Bancorp to approve the Merger Agreement after the public disclosure or public awareness that FNB NY Bancorp received a third party acquisition proposal.

Table of Contents

Additionally, FNB NY Bancorp may terminate the Merger Agreement if, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the first date on which all bank regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) (the Determination Date), such termination to be effective if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- the number obtained by dividing the average of the daily closing price of Bridge Bancorp common stock for the twenty consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date by $21.97 (the Bridge Ratio) is less than 0.80; and
- the Bridge Ratio is less than the quotient obtained by dividing the sum of the average of the daily closing prices for the twenty consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date of a group of 15 financial institution holding companies (the Final Index Price) by the average closing price of the above-referenced group of financial institution holding companies on the last trading date immediately preceding the public announcement of the entry into the Merger Agreement (the Index Price), minus 0.20 (the Index Ratio).

If FNB NY Bancorp elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must give prompt written notice thereof to Bridge Bancorp. During the five-day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Bridge Bancorp shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of FNB NY Bancorp common stock by adjusting the Exchange Ratio to the equal the lesser of (i) a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of $21.97, 0.80 and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and the denominator of which is equal to the average of the daily closing prices for shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock for the twenty consecutive full trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the Determination Date and (ii) the number obtained by dividing the product of the Index Ratio and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) by the Bridge Ratio. If Bridge Bancorp elects, it shall give, within such five-day period, written notice to FNB NY Bancorp of such election to revise the Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred and the Merger Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified). Because the formula is dependent on the future price of Bridge Bancorp s common stock and that of the index group, it is not possible presently to determine what the adjusted merger consideration would be at this time, but, in general, more shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock would be issued to take into account the extent to which the average price of Bridge Bancorp s common stock exceeded the decline in the average price of the common stock of the index group.

The Merger Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by the FNB NY Bancorp shareholders. However, after such approval, no amendment may be made without their approval if it reduces the amount, value or changes the form of consideration to be delivered to FNB NY Bancorp s shareholders.

The parties may waive any of their conditions to closing, unless they may not be waived under law.

Fees and Expenses

Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp will each pay its own costs and expenses in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby except as described above.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger that apply generally to a holder of shares of FBNBY Bancorp who surrenders all of the shareholder's common stock for shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock and/or cash in the Merger. This discussion is based on the Code, judicial decisions and administrative regulations and interpretations in effect as of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Accordingly, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to the holders of FNB NY Bancorp shares could differ from those described below.

The discussion assumes that you hold your shares as a capital asset. This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to holders of our shares in light of their particular circumstances, nor does it address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of our stock that are subject to special rules under U.S. federal income tax law, including:

- dealers in securities or foreign currencies;
- tax-exempt organizations;
- foreign persons;
- financial institutions or insurance companies;
- holders who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;
- holders who own their shares indirectly through partnerships, trusts or other entities that may be subject to special treatment;
- holders who acquired their shares in connection with employee stock purchase plans or other compensatory transactions;
- holders who hold their shares as a hedge or as part of a straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction; and
- traders in securities that elect to use the mark-to-market method of accounting.

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

In addition, this discussion does not address any tax consequences of the Merger under foreign, state or local law or U.S. federal estate and gift tax laws. Neither Bridge Bancorp nor FNB NY Bancorp has obtained or sought to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) regarding any matter relating to the Merger and no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any aspect of this discussion. We urge holders to consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, as well as the effects of state, local and foreign tax laws in light of their own situations.

If any of the assumptions upon which this discussion is based is inconsistent with the actual facts, the tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected. Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY Bancorp intend to treat, and the following discussion assumes that, the Merger will constitute a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. No assurances can be given that the Merger will in fact constitute a reorganization, and the failure of the Merger to constitute a reorganization may have adverse consequences on the FNB NY Bancorp shareholders or Bridge Bancorp.

Exchange of FNB NY Bancorp shares for Bridge Bancorp common stock. Each holder who receives Bridge Bancorp common stock in the merger generally will not recognize gain or loss except to the extent of cash received in lieu of fractional shares and contingent cash consideration, as discussed below.

If no contingent cash consideration is received, a FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who receives solely shares of Bridge Bancorp stock (except for cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below) in exchange for all of his or her shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock will not recognize gain or loss. The aggregate tax basis of the shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock received by a FNB NY Bancorp shareholder in such exchange will be equal (except for cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below) to the aggregate basis of the FNB NY Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the Bridge Bancorp common stock.

Table of Contents

Holding Period. An FNB NY Bancorp shareholder's holding period for the shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock that are received in the merger, including any fractional share deemed received and sold as described below, generally will include such holder's holding period for FNB NY Bancorp shares surrendered in the merger. The amount of Bridge Bancorp common stock received in the merger includes any fractional share of Bridge Bancorp common stock deemed to be received prior to the exchange of such fractional share for cash. See Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share below.

Because these rules are complex, we recommend that each shareholder who may be subject to these rules consult his, her or its own tax advisor.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share. FNB NY Bancorp shareholders who receive cash instead of fractional shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock will be treated as having received the fractional shares in the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional shares for cash. These holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis allocable to the fractional shares. The gain or loss will be capital gain or loss, and, generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held the shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock exchanged for more than one year at the effective time of the merger. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Contingent Cash Consideration Received. Each FNB NY Bancorp shareholder who receives contingent cash consideration generally will treat a portion of such contingent cash consideration as interest and will recognize gain to the extent of the lesser of (i) the remaining amount of contingent cash consideration received by such shareholder and (ii) the total gain realized by such shareholder in the merger (i.e., the excess of the total of the fair market value of Bridge Bancorp stock received by such shareholder in the merger plus any cash payable to such shareholder (other than cash treated as interest) as either contingent cash consideration or in lieu of fractional shares over such shareholder's adjusted tax basis in FNB NY Bancorp stock immediately prior to the merger). No loss will be recognized in the Merger. Any shareholder realizing a loss is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor respecting the tax consequences of the merger. Any gain with respect to contingent cash consideration will be treated either as (i) a dividend to the extent of FNB NY Bancorp earnings and profits or (ii) capital gain and long-term capital gain if the holder has held the shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock exchanged for more than one year at the effective time of the merger. The determination of whether gain attributable to contingent cash consideration is dividend income or capital gains will depend upon a comparison of the amount of the contingent cash consideration received to the total consideration received by a shareholder in the merger to determine if the contingent cash consideration is essentially equivalent to a dividend because it does not represent a significant reduction in the holder's equity in Bridge Bancorp. Since the determination of whether a cash payment will be treated as having the effect of a dividend depends primarily upon the facts and circumstances of each FNB NY Bancorp shareholder, shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of any cash received in the merger.

Continuity of Proprietary Interest Requirement. One of the requirements that must be satisfied in order for the merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code is the continuity of proprietary interest requirement. The merger will satisfy this requirement if FNB NY Bancorp shareholders exchange a substantial portion of the value of their proprietary interest in FNB NY Bancorp for proprietary interests in Bridge Bancorp. The merger should satisfy the continuity of interest requirement if the value of the Bridge Bancorp common stock that FNB NY Bancorp shareholders receive upon the merger is equal to at least 40% of the fair market value of the total consideration received in the merger by FNB NY Bancorp shareholders for their shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock upon the merger. It is not entirely clear how such determination is made when a portion of the cash consideration is contingent. If the holders of FNB NY Bancorp common stock receive the maximum amount of the contingent cash consideration that they are entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement, the Bridge Bancorp common stock to be issued in the merger will constitute approximately % of the total consideration actually received by them in the merger in exchange for their shares of FNB NY Bancorp common stock, although the IRS may use a different method to value the components of the consideration in the Merger

If the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, then each U.S. holder would recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the sum of the fair market value of the Bridge Bancorp common stock and the total remaining amount of cash received in the merger (including any remaining contingent cash consideration and any cash received in lieu of a fractional share) and such holder's tax basis in their shares of FNBNY Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the common stock consideration and contingent cash consideration.

Backup Withholding. Absent any legislative change, non-corporate holders of our shares may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a rate of 28% on any cash payments received in 2014. Generally, backup withholding will not apply, however, if a holder of our shares:

- furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number to the exchange agent and certifies that such holder is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the letter of transmittal received; or
- is otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against a holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the holder furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements. A significant holder of our shares for U.S. federal income tax purposes who receives shares of Bridge Bancorp common stock upon completion of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and to file with such holder's U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger. For this purpose, a shareholder is a significant holder only if the person owns at least 1% of our outstanding shares or has a basis of $1,000,000 or more in our shares. Such statement must include the holder's tax basis in and fair market value of our shares surrendered in the merger.

Tax Treatment of Entities. So long as the Merger constitutes a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, no gain or loss will be recognized by Bridge Bancorp or FNBNY Bancorp as a result of the Merger.

THE FOREGOING SUMMARY IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF BRIDGE BANCORP, INC. S

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

The following discussion is a general summary of the material provisions of Bridge Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and certain other regulatory provisions that may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect. The following description of certain of these provisions is necessarily general and, with respect to provisions contained in Bridge Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, reference should be made in each case to the document in question. See "Where You Can Find More Information" as to how to review a copy of these documents.

Provisions in Bridge Bancorp's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and Federal Law Affecting Bridge Bancorp's Shareholders

Bridge Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws contain a number of provisions relating to corporate governance and rights of shareholders that might discourage future takeover attempts. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such transactions may not have an opportunity to do so. In addition, these provisions will also render the removal of the Bridge Bancorp board of directors or management more difficult. Such provisions include, among others, the requirement of a supermajority vote of shareholders to approve certain business combinations and other corporate actions, special procedural rules for certain business combinations, a classified board of directors, restrictions on the calling of special meetings of shareholders that do not provide for the calling of special meetings by the shareholders, and a provision in its certificate of incorporation allowing the board of directors to oppose a tender or other offer for the Bridge Bancorp securities, including through the issuance of authorized but unissued securities or treasury stock or granting stock options, based on a wide range of considerations. The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to Bridge Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, both of which are on file with the SEC.

The Bank Holding Company Act generally would prohibit any company that is not engaged in financial activities and activities that are permissible for a bank holding company or a financial holding company from acquiring control of Bridge Bancorp. Control is generally defined as ownership of 25% or more of the voting stock or other exercise of a controlling influence. In addition, any existing bank holding company would need the prior approval of the Federal Reserve before acquiring 5% or more of Bridge Bancorp's voting stock. The Change in Bank Control Act of 1978, as amended, prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve has been notified and has not objected to the transaction. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve, the acquisition of 10% or more of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as Bridge Bancorp, could constitute acquisition of control of the bank holding company.

Directors. The board of directors is divided into three classes. The members of each class will be elected for a term of three years and only one class of directors will be elected annually. Thus, it would take at least two annual elections to replace a majority of Bridge Bancorp's board of directors. Further, the bylaws impose notice and information requirements in connection with the nomination by shareholders of candidates for election to the board of directors or the proposal by shareholders of business to be acted upon at an annual meeting of shareholders.

Restrictions on Call of Special Meetings. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that special meetings of shareholders can be called only by the board of directors. Shareholders are not authorized to call a special meeting of shareholders.

Edgar Filing: BRIDGE BANCORP INC - Form S-4

Authorized but Unissued Shares. Bridge Bancorp has authorized but unissued shares of common and preferred stock. See Description of Capital Stock of Bridge Bancorp, Inc. The certificate of incorporation authorizes 2,000,000 shares of serial preferred stock. Bridge Bancorp is authorized to issue preferred stock from time to time in one or more series subject to applicable provisions of law, and the board of directors is authorized to fix the designations, and relative preferences, limitations, voting rights, if any, including without limitation, offering rights of such shares (which could be multiple or as a separate class). In the event of a proposed merger, tender offer or other attempt to gain control of Bridge Bancorp that the board of directors does not approve, it might be possible for the board of directors to authorize the issuance of a series of preferred stock with rights and preferences that would impede the completion of the transaction. An effect of the possible issuance of preferred stock, therefore may be to deter a future attempt to gain control of Bridge Bancorp. The board of directors has no present plan or understanding to issue any preferred stock.

Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Amendments to the certificate of incorporation must be approved by at least 75% of the outstanding voting stock is generally required to amend the following provisions:

- (i) The granting of preemptive rights to the holders of any class of capital stock;
- (ii) The ability of the board of directors to oppose a tender or other offer for the securities of Bridge Bancorp under certain circumstances;
- (iii) The ability of the board of directors to evaluate require a super-majority vote to limit purchase or otherwise acquire Bridge Bancorp; and
- (iv) The limitation on the liability of directors.

The bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors of Bridge Bancorp.

Change of Control Regulations

Under the Change in Bank Control Act, no person may acquire control of a national bank unless the OCC has been given 60 days prior written notice and has not issued a notice disapproving the proposed acquisition. Similarly, no person may acquire control of the parent bank holding company of a national bank unless the Federal Reserve has been given 60 days prior written notice and has not issued a notice disapproving of the proposal acquisition.

Control, as defined under federal law, means ownership, control of or holding with power to vote 25% or more of any class of voting stock. Acquisition of more than 10% of any class, subject to rebuttal, of a bank's or bank holding company's voting securities is presumed to constitute control if the securities are registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or no other person will hold a greater percentage of that class of voting securities after the acquisition.

An acquisition of control may be disapproved if the regulators find, among other things, that:

1. the acquisition would result in a monopoly or substantially lessen competition;
2. the financial condition of the acquiring person or the financial prospects of the institution is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the institution or prejudice the interests of depositors;
3. the competence, experience or integrity of the acquiring person indicates that it would not be in the interest of the depositors or the public to permit the acquisition of control by such person, or
4. the proposed acquisition would result in an adverse effect on the Deposit Insurance Fund. If a company or existing bank holding seeks to acquire control of a national bank or bank holding company, filings must be made under the Bank Holding Company Act and the Federal Reserve Board must issue its approval of the transaction prior to its consummation. The standards reviewed by the Federal Reserve Board in such a case are similar to those referenced above.

It is intended that the Merger shall constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization as that term is used in Sections 354 and 361 of the Code. From and after the date of this Agreement and until the Closing, each party hereto shall use its best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify, and will not knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken which action or failure to act could prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. Following the Closing, neither Bridge Bancorp, nor any of their affiliates shall knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken, which action or failure to act could cause the Merger to fail to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

2.7. Possible Alternative Structures.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, prior to the Effective Time, Bridge Bancorp shall be entitled to revise the structure of the Merger and the Bank Merger, by merging FNB NY with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bridge Bancorp, immediately followed by the merger of FNB NY into Bridge Bancorp, provided that (i) any such subsidiary shall become a party to, and shall agree to be bound by, the terms of this Agreement (ii) there are no adverse Federal or state income tax or other adverse tax consequences to FNB NY shareholders as a result of the modification; (iii) the consideration to be paid to the holders of FNB NY Common Stock under this Agreement is not thereby changed in kind or value or reduced in amount; (iv) such modification will not delay or jeopardize the receipt of Regulatory Approvals or other consents and approvals relating to the consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger, otherwise delay or jeopardize the satisfaction of any condition to Closing set forth in Article IX or otherwise adversely affect FNB NY or the holders of FNB NY Common Stock; and (v) such modification will not require any restructuring of FNB NY or its Affiliates. The parties hereto agree to appropriately amend this Agreement and any related documents in order to reflect any such revised structure.

2.8. Bank Merger.

Bridge Bancorp and FNB NY shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Bank Merger to occur immediately after the Effective Time. In addition, following the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Bridge Bancorp will cause Bridgehampton National Bank, and FNB NY will cause First National Bank, to execute and deliver the Plan of Bank Merger substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C.

2.9. Additional Actions.

If, at any time after the Effective Time, Bridge Bancorp shall consider or be advised that any further deeds, assignments or assurances in law or any other acts are necessary or desirable to (i) vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in Bridge Bancorp its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of FNB NY or First National Bank, or (ii) otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement, FNB NY and its officers and directors shall be deemed to have granted to Bridge Bancorp an irrevocable power of attorney to execute and deliver, in such official corporate capacities, all such deeds, assignments or assurances in law or any other acts as are necessary or desirable to (a) vest, perfect or confirm, of record or otherwise, in Bridge Bancorp its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of FNB NY or (b) otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement, and the officers and directors of the Bridge Bancorp are authorized in the name of FNB NY or otherwise to take any and all such action.

ARTICLE III CONVERSION OF SHARES

3.1. Conversion of FNB NY Common Stock; Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Bridge Bancorp, FNB NY or the holders of any of the shares of FNB NY Common Stock, the Merger shall be effected in accordance with the following terms:

3.1.1. Each share of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding following the Effective Time and shall be unchanged by the Merger.

3.1.2. All shares of FNB NY Common Stock held in the treasury of FNB NY and each share of FNB NY Common Stock owned by Bridge Bancorp prior to the Effective Time (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with debts previously contracted) (Treasury Stock) shall, at the Effective Time, cease to exist, and such shares, including any Certificates therefor, shall be canceled as promptly as practicable thereafter, and no payment or distribution shall be made in consideration therefor.

3.1.3.(a) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.1, each outstanding share of FNBNY Common Stock that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Dissenting Shares) shall become and be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, as set forth in this Section 3.1.3.

(b) The Merger Consideration shall be a fraction (the Exchange Ratio) of a share of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock, determined by dividing the Aggregate Bridge Bancorp Shares (as defined below) by the number of shares of FNBNY Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the Closing Date (the Closing Date FNBNY Shares), plus any Post-Closing Additional Consideration as set forth in (d) below. The Closing Date FNBNY Shares shall equal 4,989,831 shares of FNBNY Common Stock plus that number of additional shares of FNBNY Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Subscription Agreements.

(c) Bridge Bancorp shall issue an aggregate of 244,110 shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock as a result of the Merger, subject to any adjustment as described in the next sentence (the Aggregate Bridge Bancorp Shares). The Aggregate Bridge Bancorp Shares shall be (1) increased by that number as shall equal (i) the dollar amount of any Recoveries relating to the loans identified on FNBNY Disclosure Schedule 3.1.3(b) (the Identified Loans), (ii) divided by $21.5067 (which is referred to as the Pre-Closing Additional Consideration), and (2) decreased by that number as shall be equal, on a dollar for dollar basis, (i) the amount that the recovery of insurance proceeds by the Closing on the matter referred to in FNBNY Disclosure Schedule 3.1.3(c) is less than $350,000, (ii) divided by $21.5067. For purposes of this Section 3.1.3(c), Recoveries shall mean (i) aggregate cash payments of principal and interest, including payments (A) resulting from non-recourse sales of the Identified Loans the proceeds of which are received ten business days prior to the Closing Date, and (B) from funds held in trust, escrow or a similar vehicle prior to the Closing Date, the final and undisputed realization of which require only ministerial actions by Bridge Bancorp after the Closing Date (provided that any funds qualifying under this subsection (B) shall be paid pro rata in cash, rather than in Bridge Bancorp Common Stock, to the Specified Shareholders following the Closing upon the completion of the ministerial acts and the realization of payments), less (ii) all out of pocket costs and expenses and any other disbursements directly and primarily relating to the administration of the Identified Loans (including without limitation, real estate taxes and other property maintenance expenses paid and professional fees) from the date of this Agreement to the date that is ten (10) business days preceding the Closing Date. FNBNY shall provide a detailed schedule of Recoveries (including costs and expenses stipulated in (ii) above) within 5 business days of every month end prior to the Closing Date. If any amount set forth in this schedule is disputed in good faith by Bridge Bancorp and not resolved prior to the Effective Time, such amount(s) shall not constitute Pre-Closing Additional Consideration and the dispute shall be resolved by an accounting firm mutually agreed upon by the parties (the cost of which shall be equally shared). Any amount that is determined by such accounting firm to have been Additional Consideration shall be included as Post-Closing Additional Consideration (as defined below).

(d) On the Closing Date, Bridge Bancorp shall establish an account at Bridgehampton National Bank (the Identified Loan Account) in which any principal and interest payments received (and not accounted for in Section 3.1.3(c)) on the Identified Loans shall be deposited. Bridge Bancorp shall also maintain records of all direct out of pocket expenses incurred and primarily relating to the administration of the Identified Loans. Not more than thirty (30) days following each of the first two anniversary dates of the Closing Date (the Distribution Dates), Bridge Bancorp shall distribute from the Identified Loan Account to those holders of FNBNY Common Stock of record at the Effective Time who are not Dissenting Shareholders (the Specified Shareholders), a pro rata cash payment equal to sixty percent

(60%) of any Recoveries during the year preceding the anniversary date (the Post-Closing Additional Consideration). If there is no payment due Specified Shareholders as of the Distribution Dates, Bridge Bancorp shall so inform the Specified Shareholders. Following the second Distribution Date, there shall be no further obligation with respect to the Identified Loans and no further distributions to Specified Shareholders. Bridge Bancorp shall maintain records of Recoveries (including costs and expenses) during this two year period, and provided that Bridge Bancorp provides Specified Shareholders with an explanation of the status of the Identified Loans and any Recoveries, Bridge Bancorp shall have no further liability or obligation with respect to the Specified Shareholders (this sentence is not intended to eliminate Bridge Bancorp's implied covenant of good faith in connection the foregoing). Nothing herein shall restrict the ability of Bridge Bancorp to sell the Identified Loans in good faith and at prices it deems reasonable and no claim shall be available to Specified Shareholders in connection therewith.

3.1.4. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, shares of FNB NY Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by a shareholder who has not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who has complied with Section 910 of the NYBCL (Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless such shareholder fails to perfect or withdraws or otherwise loses his, her or its right to appraisal. From and after the Effective Time, a shareholder who has properly exercised such appraisal rights shall not have any rights of a shareholder of FNB NY or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such share of FNB NY Common Stock, except those provided under Section 910 of the NYBCL (any shareholder duly making such demand being hereinafter called a Dissenting Shareholder). A Dissenting Shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such share of FNB NY Common Stock held by him in accordance with Section 910 of the NYBCL, unless, after the Effective Time, such shareholder fails to perfect or withdraws or loses his right to appraisal, in which case such shares of FNB NY Common Stock shall be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest thereon, upon surrender of the Certificates, pursuant to Section 3.2. Bridge Bancorp shall have the right to participate in all discussions, negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands for appraisal. FNB NY shall not, except with the prior written consent of Bridge Bancorp, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demand for appraisal, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or the taking of any other action by such Dissenting Shareholder as may be necessary to perfect appraisal rights under the NYBCL. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by Bridge Bancorp as the Surviving Corporation.

3.1.5. Upon the Effective Time, outstanding shares of FNB NY Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and except as to Dissenting Shares, shall thereafter by operation of this Section 3.1 represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

3.1.6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to Bridge Bancorp Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share interests, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Bridge Bancorp. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Bridge Bancorp shall pay to each former holder of FNBNY Common Stock who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock, an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent and without interest, equal to the product of (i) the fraction of a share to which such holder would otherwise have been entitled and (ii) the Bridge Bancorp Closing Price as of the Closing Date. For purposes of determining any fractional share interest, all shares of FNBNY Common Stock owned by a FNBNY shareholder shall be combined so as to calculate the maximum number of whole shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock issuable to such FNBNY shareholder.

3.1.7. In the event Bridge Bancorp changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of, or provides for the exchange of, shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, reclassification, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Bridge Bancorp Common Stock and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Merger Consideration shall be proportionately and appropriately adjusted; provided, that no such adjustment shall be made with regard to Bridge Bancorp Common Stock if Bridge Bancorp issues additional shares of Common Stock and receives fair value consideration for such shares.

3.2. Procedures for Exchange of FNBNY Common Stock.

3.2.1. Bridge Bancorp to Make Merger Consideration Available. No later than the Closing Date, Bridge Bancorp shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of FNBNY Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.2, certificates representing the shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock, or at its option, evidence of shares in book entry form, and cash in lieu of fractional shares (such certificates for or evidence of shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock, together with any cash respect to fractional shares, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund).

3.2.2. Exchange of Certificates. Bridge Bancorp shall take all steps necessary to cause the Exchange Agent, within five (5) business days after the Effective Time, to mail to each holder of a Certificate or Certificates, a form letter of transmittal for return to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates for the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, into which the FNBNY Common Stock represented by such Certificates shall have been converted as a result of the Merger. The letter of transmittal shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent or as prescribed by Section 3.2.7. Upon proper surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, as applicable, (i) a certificate representing that number of shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock (if any) to which such former holder of FNBNY Common Stock shall have become entitled pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.1 hereof and (ii) a check representing the amount of cash (if any) payable in lieu of fractional shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock, which such former holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.2, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable in lieu of fractional shares.

3.2.3. Rights of Certificate Holders after the Effective Time. The holder of a Certificate that prior to the Merger represented issued and outstanding FNBNY Common Stock shall have no rights, after the Effective Time, with respect to such FNBNY Common Stock except to surrender the Certificate in exchange for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Agreement and as to Dissenting Shares such rights as provided under the NYBCL. No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to Bridge Bancorp Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.2, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

3.2.4. Surrender by Persons Other than Record Holders. If the Person surrendering a Certificate and signing the accompanying letter of transmittal is not the record holder thereof, then it shall be a condition of the payment of the Merger Consideration that: (i) such Certificate is properly endorsed to such Person or is accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name of the record holder appears on such Certificate, and is otherwise in proper form for transfer, or is accompanied by appropriate evidence of the authority of the Person surrendering such Certificate and signing the letter of transmittal to do so on behalf of the record holder; and (ii) the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

3.2.5. Closing of Transfer Books. From and after the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of FNBNY of the FNBNY Common Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be exchanged for the Merger Consideration and canceled as provided in this Section 3.2.

3.2.6. Return of Exchange Fund. At any time following the six (6) month period after the Effective Time, Bridge Bancorp shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any portions of the Exchange Fund which had been made available to the Exchange Agent and not disbursed to holders of Certificates (including, without limitation, all interest and other income received by the Exchange Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look to Bridge Bancorp (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar laws) with respect to any Merger Consideration that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates held by them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Bridge Bancorp nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Certificate for any Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such Certificate to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar law.

3.2.7. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Bridge Bancorp, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Bridge Bancorp may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof.

3.2.8. Withholding. Bridge Bancorp or the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby to any holder of FNB NY Common Stock such amounts as Bridge Bancorp (or any Affiliate thereof) or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any applicable provision of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law. To the extent that such amounts are properly withheld by Bridge Bancorp or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the FNB NY Common Stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made by Bridge Bancorp or the Exchange Agent.

3.2.9. Reservation of Shares. Bridge Bancorp shall reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of the Bridge Bancorp Common Stock for the purpose of issuing shares of Bridge Bancorp Common Stock to the FNB NY shareholders in accordance with this Article III.

Any violation of the foregoing restrictions by FNB NY or any Representative, whether or not such Representative is so authorized and whether or not such Representative is purporting to act on behalf of FNB NY or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by FNB NY. FNB NY and its Subsidiaries shall, and shall cause each of FNB NY Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all existing discussions, negotiations, and communications with any Persons with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal.

For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal shall mean any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Bridge Bancorp), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. convertible into, such securities) representing twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of FNB NY or any of its Subsidiaries; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning twenty-five percent (25%) or more of any class of equity securities of FNB NY or any of its Subsidiaries; or (E) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.10(a), FNB NY may take any of the actions described in clause (ii) of Section 6.10(a) if, but only if, (i) FNB NY has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal, prior to the FNB NY Shareholders Meeting, that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10; (ii) the FNB NY Board determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal; (iii) FNB NY has provided Bridge Bancorp with at least one (1) Business Day's prior notice of such determination; and (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to FNB NY or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, FNB NY receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to FNB NY than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement. FNB NY shall promptly provide to Bridge Bancorp any non-public information regarding FNB NY or its Subsidiaries provided to any other Person that was not previously provided to Bridge Bancorp, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other party.

For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an Acquisition Transaction on terms that the FNB NY Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor (i) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of FNB NY Common Stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of FNB NY and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (ii) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of FNB NY Common Stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to FNB NY's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond or in addition to those specifically contemplated hereby, and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to FNB NY's shareholders than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (iii) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal.

(c) FNB NY shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) notify Bridge Bancorp in writing if any proposals or offers (or modified offers or proposals) are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, FNB NY or any FNB NY Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the Person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such proposal, offer or information request and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (and, in the case of written materials relating to such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussion, providing copies of such materials (including e-mails or other electronic communications)).

(d) Subject to Section 6.10(e), neither the FNB NY Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Bridge Bancorp in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), the FNB NY Recommendation (as defined in Section 8.1), or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with FNB NY Shareholders Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the FNB NY Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the FNB NY Recommendation); (ii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; or (iii) enter into (or cause FNB NY or any of its Subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement (A) related to any Acquisition Transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.10(b)) or (B) requiring FNB NY to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 6.10(d), prior to the date of FNB NY Shareholders Meeting, the FNB NY Board may approve or recommend to the shareholders of FNB NY a Superior Proposal and withdraw, qualify or modify the FNB NY Recommendation in connection therewith (a FNB NY Subsequent Determination) after the third (3rd) Business Day following Bridge Bancorp's receipt of a notice (the Notice of Superior Proposal) from FNB NY advising Bridge Bancorp that the FNB NY Board has decided that a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that it received (that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10) constitutes a Superior Proposal (it being understood that FNB NY shall be required to deliver a new Notice of Superior Proposal in respect of any revised Superior Proposal from such third party or its affiliates that FNB NY proposes to accept and the subsequent notice period shall be two (2) business days) if, but only if, (i) the FNB NY Board has reasonably determined in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to FNB NY's shareholders under applicable law, and (ii) at the end of such three (3) Business Day period or the two (2) Business Day Period (as the case may be), after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms as may have been committed to in writing by Bridge Bancorp since its receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal (provided, however, that Bridge Bancorp shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement), FNB NY Board has again in good faith made the determination (A) in clause (i) of this Section 6.10(e) and (B) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the changing, qualifying or modifying of the FNB NY Recommendation or the making of a FNB NY Subsequent Determination by the FNB NY Board shall not change the approval of the FNB NY Board for purposes of causing any Takeover Laws to be inapplicable to this Agreement and the Voting Agreements and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including the Merger.

ARTICLE VII
COVENANTS OF BRIDGE BANCORP

7.1. Conduct of Business.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the written consent of FNB NY, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, Bridge Bancorp will, and it will cause each Bridge Bancorp Subsidiary to use reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises; and voluntarily take no action that would, or would be reasonably likely to: (i) adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain the Regulatory Approvals or other approvals of Governmental Entities required for the transaction contemplated hereby, or materially increase the period of time necessary to obtain such approvals; (ii) adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; or (iii) result in the representations and warranties contained in Article V of this Agreement not being true and correct on the date of this Agreement or at any future date on or prior to the Closing Date or in any of the conditions set forth in Article IX hereof not being satisfied.

7.2. Regulatory Filings Relating to Merger.

Bridge Bancorp will comply with Section 8.3 and also furnish to FNB NY copies of all documents, statements and reports as it or Bridge Bancorp files with any other Bank Regulator or the SEC with respect to the Merger.

7.3. Maintenance of Insurance

Bridge Bancorp shall maintain, and cause each Bridge Bancorp Subsidiary to maintain, insurance in such amounts as are reasonable to cover such risks as are customary in relation to the character and location of their properties and the nature of their business.

7.4. Disclosure Supplements.

From time to time prior to the Effective Time, Bridge Bancorp will promptly supplement or amend the Bridge Bancorp Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any material matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such Bridge Bancorp Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such Bridge Bancorp Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such Bridge Bancorp Disclosure Schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

7.5. Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

Bridge Bancorp shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals, necessary or desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated, and in the manner contemplated, by this Agreement.

7.6. All Reasonable Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, Bridge Bancorp agrees to use all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.7. Failure to Fulfill Conditions.

In the event that Bridge Bancorp determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will promptly notify FNB NY.

7.8. Employee Benefits.

7.8.1. Bridge Bancorp will review all FNB NY Compensation and Benefit Plans to determine, in its sole and absolute discretion, whether to maintain, terminate or continue such plans. In the event employee compensation and/or benefits as currently provided by FNB NY or FNB NY Subsidiary are changed or terminated by Bridge Bancorp, in whole or in part, Bridge Bancorp shall provide Continuing Employees (as defined below) with compensation and benefits that are, in the aggregate, substantially similar to the compensation and benefits provided to similarly situated employees of Bridge Bancorp or applicable Bridge Bancorp Subsidiary (as of the date any such compensation or benefit is provided). Employees of FNB NY and First National Bank who become participants in a Bridge Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plan shall, for purposes of determining eligibility for and for any applicable vesting periods of such employee benefits (and not for benefit accrual purposes) be given credit for meeting eligibility and vesting requirements in such plans for service as an employee of FNB NY or First National Bank prior to the Effective Time. This Agreement shall not be construed to limit the ability of Bridge Bancorp or the Bridgehampton National Bank to terminate the employment of any employee or to review employee benefits programs from time to time and to make such changes (including terminating any program) as they deem appropriate.

7.8.2. Subject to any required regulatory approval or satisfaction of a condition in any regulatory approval, Bridge Bancorp agrees to comply with the contractual terms of any employment, change in control, consulting or severance contract or material arrangement that FNB NY has with its current and former employees and which have been identified in FNB NY Disclosure Schedule 4.8.1, except to the extent any such agreements shall be superseded or terminated at the Effective Time or following the Effective Time in accordance with their terms or applicable law. In accordance with the terms of the Madison National Bancorp, Inc. Two-Year Change in Control Agreements set forth on FNB NY Disclosure Schedule 4.8.1 and notwithstanding anything contained in any other agreement set forth on FNB NY Disclosure Schedule 4.8.1 or in this Agreement to the contrary, no payment or benefit shall be made or afforded under any employment, deferred compensation, change of control, severance contract, stock option plan or plan that would constitute an excess parachute payment (as such term is defined in Section 280G of the Code), and to the extent any such payment would constitute an excess parachute payment, the payment or benefit will be reduced to an amount the value of which is $1.00 less than an amount equal to three (3) times such individual's base amount, as determined in accordance with Section 280G of the Code. Each officer subject to an employment, change in control, severance or similar agreement has acknowledged in a writing attached to FNBNY Disclosure Schedule 7.8.2, that no payment may be made thereunder without regulatory approval to the extent required by applicable law or a Governmental Entity and that there shall be no claims against FNBNY or First National Bank, or Bridge Bancorp or Bridgehampton National Bank, if regulatory approval is not obtained, provided that each of FNBNY, First National Bank, Bridge Bancorp and Bridgehampton National Bank shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain any required regulatory approval.

7.8.3. Except to the extent of commitments herein or other contractual commitments, if any, specifically made or assumed by Bridge Bancorp hereunder or by operation of law, Bridge Bancorp shall have no obligation arising from and after the Effective Time to continue in its employ or in any specific job or to provide to any specified level of compensation or any incentive payments, benefits or perquisites to any individual who is an employee of FNBNY or First National Bank as of the Effective Time. Subject to any required regulatory approval or satisfaction of a condition in any regulatory approval, Bridge Bancorp agrees that each FNBNY or First National Bank employee who (i) is not offered employment with Bridge Bancorp or the Bridgehampton National Bank as of the Effective Time or (ii) is involuntarily terminated by Bridge Bancorp or the Bridgehampton National Bank (other than for cause) within six (6) months of the Effective Time and who is not covered by a separate employment agreement, change in control agreement, severance, consulting, or similar agreement shall receive a severance payment equal to two weeks of base pay (at the rate in effect on the termination date) for each full year of service at FNBNY or First National Bank, with a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks and a minimum of four weeks of base pay; provided that such individual executes a release agreement in a form approved by Bridge Bancorp. For purposes of calculating the number of years of service, fractional years of service shall be rounded up or down to the nearest full year.

7.8.4. In the event of any termination or consolidation of any FNBNY or First National Bank health plan with any Bridgehampton National Bank health plan, Bridgehampton National Bank shall make available to employees of FNBNY or First National Bank who continue employment with Bridge Bancorp or the Bridgehampton National Bank (Continuing Employees) and their dependents employer-provided health coverage on the same basis as it provides such coverage to similarly situated Bridgehampton National Bank employees. Unless a Continuing Employee affirmatively terminates coverage under a FNBNY or First National Bank health plan prior to the time that such Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate in the Bridgehampton National Bank health plan, no coverage of any of the Continuing Employees or their dependents shall terminate under any of the FNBNY or First National Bank health plans prior to the time such Continuing Employees and their dependents become eligible to participate in the health plans, programs and benefits common to all similarly situated employees of the Bridgehampton National Bank and their dependents. In the event of a termination or consolidation of any FNBNY or First National Bank health plan, terminated FNBNY or First National Bank employees and qualified beneficiaries will have the right to continued coverage under group health plans of the Bridgehampton National Bank in accordance with COBRA, consistent with the provisions below. All FNBNY or First National Bank employees who cease participating in a FNBNY or First National Bank health plan and become participants in a comparable Bridgehampton National Bank health plan shall receive credit for any co-payment and deductibles paid under FNB NY or First National Bank health plan for purposes of satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under the Bridgehampton National Bank health plan, upon substantiation, in a form satisfactory to the Bridgehampton National Bank that such co-payment and/or deductible has been satisfied.

7.8.5. If requested by Bridge Bancorp in writing prior to the Effective Time, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time, FNB NY or First National Bank shall cause to be adopted prior to the Effective Time resolutions of the Board of Directors of FNB NY or First National Bank and any necessary amendments to terminate any and all 401(k) Plans immediately prior to the Effective Time or cease all contributions to any and all 401(k) Plan maintained or sponsored by FNB NY or First National Bank or any of its Subsidiaries (collectively, the 401(k) Plan), and to prohibit the entry of new participants to the 401(k) Plan as of the day preceding the Effective Time. In the sole discretion of Bridge Bancorp, the 401(k) Plan may be merged into the Bridge Bancorp 401(k) Plan or terminated immediately prior to the Effective Time. The form and substance of such resolutions and any necessary amendments shall be subject to the review and approval of Bridge Bancorp, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. FNB NY or First National Bank shall deliver to Bridge Bancorp an executed copy of such resolutions and any necessary amendments as soon as practicable following their adoption by the Board of Directors of FNB NY or First National Bank and shall fully comply with such resolutions and any necessary amendments. If, in accordance with this Section 7.8.5, Bridge Bancorp requests in writing that FNB NY or First National Bank freeze entry of new participants into the 401(k) Plan, FNB NY or First National Bank shall take such actions as Bridge Bancorp may reasonably require in furtherance of the assumption of the 401(k) Plan by Bridge Bancorp, including, but not limited to, adopting such amendments to the 401(k) Plan as may be necessary to effect such assumption. In the event the 401(k) Plan is terminated, Bridge Bancorp shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, use reasonable best efforts to cause the Bridge Bancorp 401(k) Plan to accept a direct rollover of such Continuing Employee s account balances (and to use reasonable best efforts to include the rollover of promissory notes evidencing all outstanding loans) under the 401(k) Plan, provided that such rollover is elected in accordance with applicable law and is permitted by the terms and conditions of the Bridge Bancorp 401(k) Plan.

7.8.6. If requested by Bridge Bancorp, FNB NY or First National Bank shall take all such actions as Bridge Bancorp may request in order to fully and timely comply with any and all requirements of both the federal Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1988 (WARN Act) and any state specific WARN Act statutes, including providing notices to FNB NY or First National Bank s employees.

7.9. Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

7.9.1. For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Bridge Bancorp shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the Effective Time, an officer, director or employee of FNB NY or an FNB NY Subsidiary (the Indemnified Parties) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorney s fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of Bridge Bancorp, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative (each a Claim), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of FNB NY or an FNB NY Subsidiary if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time, to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by FNB NY under the NYBCL and under FNB NY s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Bridge Bancorp shall pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding to each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by FNB NY under the NYBCL and under FNB NY s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if he shall be adjudicated or determined to be not entitled to indemnification in the manner set forth below. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 7.9.1 upon learning of any Claim, shall notify Bridge Bancorp (but the failure so to notify Bridge Bancorp shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have under this Section 7.9.1, except to the extent such failure materially prejudices Bridge Bancorp) and shall deliver to Bridge Bancorp the undertaking referred to in the previous sentence.

7.9.2. In the event that either Bridge Bancorp or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving bank or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Bridge Bancorp shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.9.

7.9.3. Bridge Bancorp shall maintain, or shall cause Bridgehampton National Bank to maintain, in effect for six years following the Effective Time, the current directors and officers liability insurance policies covering the officers and directors of FNB NY (provided, that Bridge Bancorp may substitute therefore policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall Bridge Bancorp be required to expend pursuant to this Section 7.9.3 more than 175% of the annual cost currently expended by FNB NY with respect to such insurance (the Maximum Amount); provided, further, that if the amount of the annual premium necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Bridge Bancorp shall maintain the most advantageous policies of directors and officers insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. In connection with the foregoing, FNB NY agrees in order for Bridge Bancorp to fulfill its agreement to provide directors and officers liability insurance policies for six years to provide such insurer or substitute insurer with such reasonable and customary representations as such insurer may request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims.

7.9.4. The obligations of Bridge Bancorp provided under this Section 7.9 are intended to be enforceable against Bridge Bancorp directly by the Indemnified Parties and shall be binding on all respective successors and permitted assigns of Bridge Bancorp.

11.1.3. By the Board of Directors of either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a material failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which failure by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Termination Date or shall not have been cured within 30 days after written notice of such failure by the terminating party to the other party provided, however, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1.3 unless the breach of covenant or agreement, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by FNBNY) or Section 9.3.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by Bridge Bancorp);

11.1.4. At the election of the Board of Directors of either party if the Closing shall not have occurred by the Termination Date, or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by Bridge Bancorp and FNBNY; provided, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1.4 if the failure of the Closing to have occurred on or before said date was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement;

11.1.5. By the Board of Directors of either party if the shareholders of FNB NY shall have voted at the FNB NY Shareholders Meeting on the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such vote shall not have been sufficient to approve such transactions;

11.1.6. By the Board of Directors of either party if (i) final action has been taken by a Bank Regulator whose approval is required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, which final action (x) has become unappealable and (y) does not approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (ii) any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority shall have issued an order, decree, ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

11.1.7. Reserved.

11.1.8. By the Board of Directors of Bridge Bancorp if FNB NY has received a Superior Proposal, and in accordance with Section 6.10 of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of FNB NY has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal, terminated this Agreement, or withdraws its recommendation of this Agreement, fails to make such recommendation or modifies or qualifies its recommendation in a manner adverse to Bridge Bancorp;

11.1.9. By the Board of Directors of FNB NY if FNB NY has received a Superior Proposal, and in accordance with Section 6.10 of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of FNB NY has made a determination to accept such Superior Proposal;

11.1.10. By FNB NY, if the FNB NY's Board of Directors determines by a vote of the majority of the members of the entire FNB NY's Board, at any time during the five-day period commencing with the Determination Date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) The number obtained by dividing the Average Closing Price by the Starting Price (as defined below) (the Bridge Bancorp Ratio) shall be less than 0.80; and

(ii) the Bridge Bancorp Ratio shall be less than (y) the number obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Index Price on the Starting Date (each as defined below) and subtracting 0.20 from the quotient in this clause (ii) (y) (such number in this clause (ii) (y) being referred to herein as the Index Ratio);subject, however, to the following three sentences. If the FNB NY elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 11.1.10, it shall give written notice to Bridge Bancorp (provided that such notice of election to terminate may be withdrawn at any time within the aforementioned five-day period). During a five-day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Bridge Bancorp shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of FNB NY Common Stock hereunder, by adjusting the Exchange Ratio (calculated to the nearest one one-thousandth) to equal the lesser of (x) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) the product of the Starting Price, 0.80 and the Exchange Ratio by (B) the Average Closing Price and (y) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) the product of the Index Ratio and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) by (B) the Bridge Bancorp Ratio. If Bridge Bancorp so elects within such five-day period, it shall give prompt written notice to FNB NY of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 11.1.10 and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified.)

(D) The right to receive payment of the Bridge Bancorp Fee under Section 11.2.2(C) will constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of Bridge Bancorp against FNBNY and its Subsidiaries and their respective officers and directors with respect to a termination under (i) or (ii) above.

This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

KEEFE, BRUYETTE & WOODS

A Stifel Company

The Board of Directors
FNB NY Bancorp, Inc.
1450 Broadway
37th Floor
New York, NY 10018

September 26, 2013

Members of the Board:

You have requested the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW or we) as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders, collectively as a group, of FNB NY Bancorp, Inc. (FNB NY), other than the directors and executive officers of FNB NY, Modern Capital Holdings LLC and their respective affiliates (collectively, Excluded Holders), of the Aggregate Consideration (as defined below) in the proposed Merger (as defined below). The terms of the Merger and related transactions are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), dated as of September 24, 2013, to be entered into by and between FNB NY and Bridge Bancorp, Inc. (Bridge). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, FNB NY will merge with and into Bridge (the Merger) and immediately thereafter First National Bank of New York, a wholly owned subsidiary of FNB NY, will merge with and into The Bridgehampton National Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bridge. The Agreement further provides that, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement), all shares of voting Class A and non-voting Class B common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of FNB NY (collectively, FNB NY Common Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in the Agreement)) will become and be converted into the right to receive the following aggregate consideration: (a) 244,110 shares (the Base Share Consideration) of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Bridge (Bridge Shares), subject to downward adjustment of up to 16,274 Bridge Shares as set forth in the Agreement (the Adjustment), (b) an additional number of Bridge Shares based on (i) the net recoveries as more fully set forth in the Agreement relating to certain outstanding loans owned by FNB NY (the Recoveries) received at least 10 days prior to the closing of the Merger and (ii) a per share value of Bridge Shares agreed upon by FNB NY and Bridge of $21.5067 (the Agreed Upon Value), which additional number of Bridge Shares has been estimated by management of FNB NY, and, at the direction of the board of directors of FNB NY (the Board), is assumed by KBW, to be 177,753 (the Estimated Additional Share Consideration), and (c) cash amounts payable as more fully set forth in the Agreement following the closing of the Merger equal to 60% (or 100% under limited circumstances) of the Recoveries received during the two years prior to the second anniversary of the closing of the Merger, which cash amounts have been estimated by management of FNB NY, and, at the direction of the Board, are assumed by KBW, to be $774,333 (the Estimated Post-Closing Cash Consideration). For purposes of our opinion, the term Aggregate Consideration means the Base Share Consideration (as may be reduced by the Adjustment), the Estimated Additional Share Consideration and the Estimated Post-Closing Cash Consideration.

KBW has acted as financial advisor to FNB NY and not as an advisor to, or agent of, any other person. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to FNB NY and Bridge, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Bridge for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to the Board. We have acted exclusively for the Board in rendering this opinion and will receive a fee from FNB NY for our services, a part of which is contingent upon the signing of the Agreement, a part of which is payable no later than December 31, 2013 if the signing of the Agreement occurs prior to such date, and a part of which is contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger.

During the past two years, we have provided investment banking and financial advisory services to FNB NY but have not received compensation for such services. During the past two years, we have not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to Bridge. We may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to FNB NY or Bridge and receive compensation for such services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed, and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of FNB NY, Bridge and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) a draft dated September 24, 2013 of the Agreement (the most recent draft made available to us); (ii) the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012 of FNB NY; (iii) the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Bridge; (iv) unaudited interim financial statements of FNB NY for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013; (v) certain interim reports to stockholders and quarterly reports of Bridge, including the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013; (vi) certain other communications from FNB NY and Bridge to their respective stockholders; and (vii) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of FNB NY furnished to us by FNB NY for purposes of our analysis. Our consideration of financial information and other factors that we deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to our analyses included, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of FNB NY and Bridge; (ii) the assets and liabilities of FNB NY and Bridge; (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry; (iv) a comparison of certain financial information for FNB NY and financial and stock market information for Bridge with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (v) financial and operating forecasts and projections of FNB NY (reflecting, among other things, certain assumptions of management of FNB NY with respect to a potential equity financing expected to be undertaken by FNB NY (the Assumed Equity Financing) in the absence of a sale of FNB NY) as well as estimates regarding the Recoveries on which the Estimated Additional Share Consideration and the Estimated Post-Closing Cash Consideration are based, which forecasts, projections and estimates were prepared by and provided to us by management of FNBNY and approved for our use by FNBNY and on which the Board directed us to rely, and (vi) publicly available consensus street estimates of Bridge discussed with us by management of Bridge and estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Bridge prepared by and provided to us by management of Bridge. We have also performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate and have taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. We have also held discussions with senior management of FNBNY and Bridge regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of FNBNY and Bridge and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. We have relied upon management of FNBNY as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections of FNBNY and estimates regarding the Recoveries prepared by and provided to us by management of FNBNY and that we were directed to rely upon by the Board (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and we have assumed, at the direction of FNBNY, that such forecasts, projections and estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such forecasts, projections and estimates will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management. We also have relied on, at the direction of the Board, the assessments of management of FNBNY as to the ability of FNBNY to successfully effect the Assumed Equity Financing in the absence of a sale of FNBNY. We further have relied upon management of Bridge as to the reasonableness and achievability of the estimates regarding certain pro forma financial effects of the Merger on Bridge prepared by and provided to us by management of Bridge (and the assumptions and bases therefor), and we have assumed that such estimates were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such estimates will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management. It is understood that such forecasts, projections and estimates prepared by and provided to us by the respective managements of FNBNY and Bridge, as the case may be, were not prepared by such managements with the expectation of public disclosure, that all such information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and that, accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such forecasts, projections and estimates. We have assumed, based on discussions with the respective managements of FNBNY and Bridge, that such forecasts, projections and estimates as well as publicly available consensus street estimates of Bridge referred to above provide a reasonable basis upon which we could form our opinion and express no view as to any such information or the assumptions or bases therefor. We have relied on such information without independent verification or analysis and do not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We further have assumed, at the direction of the Board, that the actual consideration received by holders of FNB NY Common Shares in the aggregate will not differ from the Aggregate Consideration in any respect that would be material to our opinion and that Bridge will have the ability to, and will, pay the portions of such actual consideration that become payable after the closing of the Merger.

We have assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either FNB NY or Bridge since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to us. We also have assumed that the audited financial statements for FNB NY contemplated to be delivered to Bridge following the date hereof will not reflect any such material changes. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, without independent verification and with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for FNB NY and Bridge are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of FNB NY or Bridge, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor have we examined any individual loan or credit files, nor did we evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of FNB NY or Bridge under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty; we assume no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

We have assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) that the Merger and related transactions will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement (the final terms of which will not differ in any respect material to our analyses from the draft reviewed); (ii) that the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iii) that each party to the Agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions any necessary regulatory or governmental approval and that all conditions to the completion of the Merger and related transactions will be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Agreement; and (v) that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Merger and related transactions, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of FNB NY, the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have assumed that the Merger and related transactions will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. We have further assumed that FNB NY has relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than KBW) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to FNB NY, Bridge, the Merger, the related transactions and the Agreement. KBW has not provided advice with respect to any such matters.

APPENDIX C

SECTION 623 AND SECTION 910 OF THE NEW YORK BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW

Section 623 Procedure to enforce shareholder s right to receive payment for shares.

(a) A shareholder intending to enforce his right under a section of this chapter to receive payment for his shares if the proposed corporate action referred to therein is taken shall file with the corporation, before the meeting of shareholders at which the action is submitted to a vote, or at such meeting but before the vote, written objection to the action. The objection shall include a notice of his election to dissent, his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares if the action is taken. Such objection is not required from any shareholder to whom the corporation did not give notice of such meeting in accordance with this chapter or where the proposed action is authorized by written consent of shareholders without a meeting.

(b) Within ten days after the shareholders authorization date, which term as used in this section means the date on which the shareholders vote authorizing such action was taken, or the date on which such consent without a meeting was obtained from the requisite shareholders, the corporation shall give written notice of such authorization or consent by registered mail to each shareholder who filed written objection or from whom written objection was not required, excepting any shareholder who voted for or consented in writing to the proposed action and who thereby is deemed to have elected not to enforce his right to receive payment for his shares.

(c) Within twenty days after the giving of notice to him, any shareholder from whom written objection was not required and who elects to dissent shall file with the corporation a written notice of such election, stating his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares. Any shareholder who elects to dissent from a merger under section 905 (Merger of subsidiary corporation) or paragraph (c) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations) or from a share exchange under paragraph (g) of section 913 (Share exchanges) shall file a written notice of such election to dissent within twenty days after the giving to him of a copy of the plan of merger or exchange or an outline of the material features thereof under section 905 or 913.

(d) A shareholder may not dissent as to less than all of the shares, as to which he has a right to dissent, held by him of record, that he owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner as to less than all of the shares of such owner, as to which such nominee or fiduciary has a right to dissent, held of record by such nominee or fiduciary.

(e) Upon consummation of the corporate action, the shareholder shall cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder except the right to be paid the fair value of his shares and any other rights under this section. A notice of election may be withdrawn by the shareholder at any time prior to his acceptance in writing of an offer made by the corporation, as provided in paragraph (g), but in no case later than sixty days from the date of consummation of the corporate action except that if the corporation fails to make a timely offer, as provided in paragraph (g), the time for withdrawing a notice of election shall be extended until sixty days from the date an offer is made. Upon expiration of such time, withdrawal of a notice of election shall require the written consent of the corporation. In order to be effective, withdrawal of a notice of election must be accompanied by the return to the corporation of any advance payment made to the shareholder as provided in paragraph (g). If a notice of election is withdrawn, or the corporate action is rescinded, or a court shall determine that the shareholder is not entitled to receive payment for his shares, or the shareholder shall otherwise lose his dissenters' rights, he shall not have the right to receive payment for his shares and he shall be reinstated to all his rights as a shareholder as of the consummation of the corporate action, including any intervening preemptive rights and the right to payment of any intervening dividend or other distribution or, if any such rights have expired or any such dividend or distribution other than in cash has been completed, in lieu thereof, at the election of the corporation, the fair value thereof in cash as determined by the board as of the time of such expiration or completion, but without prejudice otherwise to any corporate proceedings that may have been taken in the interim.

(f) At the time of filing the notice of election to dissent or within one month thereafter the shareholder of shares represented by certificates shall submit the certificates representing his shares to the corporation, or to its transfer agent, which shall forthwith note conspicuously thereon that a notice of election has been filed and shall return the certificates to the shareholder or other person who submitted them on his behalf. Any shareholder of shares represented by certificates who fails to submit his certificates for such notation as herein specified shall, at the option of the corporation exercised by written notice to him within forty-five days from the date of filing of such notice of election to dissent, lose his dissenter's rights unless a court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct. Upon transfer of a certificate bearing such notation, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear a similar notation together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares and a transferee shall acquire no rights in the corporation except those which the original dissenting shareholder had at the time of transfer.

(g) Within fifteen days after the expiration of the period within which shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within fifteen days after the proposed corporate action is consummated, whichever is later (but in no case later than ninety days from the shareholders' authorization date), the corporation or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, shall make a written offer by registered mail to each shareholder who has filed such notice of election to pay for his shares at a specified price which the corporation considers to be their fair value. Such offer shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares with respect to which notices of election to dissent have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. If the corporate action has been consummated, such offer shall also be accompanied by (1) advance payment to each such shareholder who has submitted the certificates representing his shares to the corporation, as provided in paragraph (f), of an amount equal to eighty percent of the amount of such offer, or (2) as to each shareholder who has not yet submitted his certificates a statement that advance payment to him of an amount equal to eighty percent of the amount of such offer will be made by the corporation promptly upon submission of his certificates. If the corporate action has not been consummated at the time of the making of the offer, such advance payment or statement as to advance payment shall be sent to each shareholder entitled thereto forthwith upon consummation of the corporate action. Every advance payment or statement as to advance payment shall include advice to the shareholder to the effect that acceptance of such payment does not constitute a waiver of any dissenters' rights. If the corporate action has not been consummated upon the expiration of the ninety day period after the shareholders authorization date, the offer may be conditioned upon the consummation of such action. Such offer shall be made at the same price per share to all dissenting shareholders of the same class, or if divided into series, of the same series and shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation whose shares the dissenting shareholder holds as of the latest available date, which shall not be earlier than twelve months before the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement or statements for not less than a twelve month period ended on the date of such balance sheet or, if the corporation was not in existence throughout such twelve month period, for the portion thereof during which it was in existence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall not be required to furnish a balance sheet or profit and loss statement or statements to any shareholder to whom such balance sheet or profit and loss statement or statements were previously furnished, nor if in connection with obtaining the shareholders' authorization for or consent to the proposed corporate action the shareholders were furnished with a proxy or information statement, which included financial statements, pursuant to Regulation 14A or Regulation 14C of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. If within thirty days after the making of such offer, the corporation making the offer and any shareholder agree upon the price to be paid for his shares, payment therefor shall be made within sixty days after the making of such offer or the consummation of the proposed corporate action, whichever is later, upon the surrender of the certificates for any such shares represented by certificates.

(h) The following procedure shall apply if the corporation fails to make such offer within such period of fifteen days, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting shareholder or shareholders fail to agree with it within the period of thirty days thereafter upon the price to be paid for their shares:

(1) The corporation shall, within twenty days after the expiration of whichever is applicable of the two periods last mentioned, institute a special proceeding in the supreme court in the judicial district in which the office of the corporation is located to determine the rights of dissenting shareholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If, in the case of merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without an office in this state, such proceeding shall be brought in the county where the office of the domestic corporation, whose shares are to be valued, was located.

(2) If the corporation fails to institute such proceeding within such period of twenty days, any dissenting shareholder may institute such proceeding for the same purpose not later than thirty days after the expiration of such twenty day period. If such proceeding is not instituted within such thirty day period, all dissenters' rights shall be lost unless the supreme court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct.

(3) All dissenting shareholders, excepting those who, as provided in paragraph (g), have agreed with the corporation upon the price to be paid for their shares, shall be made parties to such proceeding, which shall have the effect of an action quasi in rem against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the petition in such proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons, and upon each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by registered mail and publication, or in such other manner as is permitted by law. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive.

(4) The court shall determine whether each dissenting shareholder, as to whom the corporation requests the court to make such determination, is entitled to receive payment for his shares. If the corporation does not request any such determination or if the court finds that any dissenting shareholder is so entitled, it shall proceed to fix the value of the shares, which, for the purposes of this section, shall be the fair value as of the close of business on the day prior to the shareholder's authorization date. In fixing the fair value of the shares, the court shall consider the nature of the transaction giving rise to the shareholder's right to receive payment for shares and its effects on the corporation and its shareholders, the concepts and methods then customary in the relevant securities and financial markets for determining fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances and all other relevant factors. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares without a jury and without referral to an appraiser or referee. Upon application by the corporation or by any shareholder who is a party to the proceeding, the court may, in its discretion, permit pretrial disclosure, including, but not limited to, disclosure of any expert's reports relating to the fair value of the shares whether or not intended for use at the trial in the proceeding and notwithstanding subdivision (d) of section 3101 of the civil practice law and rules.

(5) The final order in the proceeding shall be entered against the corporation in favor of each dissenting shareholder who is a party to the proceeding and is entitled thereto for the value of his shares so determined.

(6) The final order shall include an allowance for interest at such rate as the court finds to be equitable, from the date the corporate action was consummated to the date of payment. In determining the rate of interest, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. If the court finds that the refusal of any shareholder to accept the corporate offer of payment for his shares was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, no interest shall be allowed to him.

(7) Each party to such proceeding shall bear its own costs and expenses, including the fees and expenses of its counsel and of any experts employed by it. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or any part of the costs, expenses and fees incurred by the corporation against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding, including any who have withdrawn their notices of election as provided in paragraph (e), if the court finds that their refusal to accept the corporate offer was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. The court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or any part of the costs, expenses and fees incurred by any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding against the corporation if the court finds any of the following: (A) that the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay; (B) that no offer or required advance payment was made by the corporation; (C) that the corporation failed to institute the special proceeding within the period specified therefor; or (D) that the action of the corporation in complying with its obligations as provided in this section was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. In making any determination as provided in clause (A), the court may consider the dollar amount or the percentage, or both, by which the fair value of the shares as determined exceeds the corporate offer.

(8) Within sixty days after final determination of the proceeding, the corporation shall pay to each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due him, upon surrender of the certificates for any such shares represented by certificates.

(i) Shares acquired by the corporation upon the payment of the agreed value therefor or of the amount due under the final order, as provided in this section, shall become treasury shares or be cancelled as provided in section 515 (Reacquired shares), except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

(j) No payment shall be made to a dissenting shareholder under this section at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such payment would make it insolvent. In such event, the dissenting shareholder shall, at his option:

(1) Withdraw his notice of election, which shall in such event be deemed withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation; or

(2) Retain his status as a claimant against the corporation and, if it is liquidated, be subordinated to the rights of creditors of the corporation, but have rights superior to the non-dissenting shareholders, and if it is not liquidated, retain his right to be paid for his shares, which right the corporation shall be obliged to satisfy when the restrictions of this paragraph do not apply.

(3) The dissenting shareholder shall exercise such option under subparagraph (1) or (2) by written notice filed with the corporation within thirty days after the corporation has given him written notice that payment for his shares cannot be made because of the restrictions of this paragraph. If the dissenting shareholder fails to exercise such option as provided, the corporation shall exercise the option by written notice given to him within twenty days after the expiration of such period of thirty days.

(k) The enforcement by a shareholder of his right to receive payment for his shares in the manner provided herein shall exclude the enforcement by such shareholder of any other right to which he might otherwise be entitled by virtue of share ownership, except as provided in paragraph (e), and except that this section shall not exclude the right of such shareholder to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that such corporate action will be or is unlawful or fraudulent as to him.

(l) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, any notice to be given by a corporation to a shareholder under this section shall be given in the manner provided in section 605 (Notice of meetings of shareholders).

(m) This section shall not apply to foreign corporations except as provided in subparagraph (e)(2) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations).

(ii) To a shareholder of the surviving corporation in a merger authorized by this article, other than a merger specified in subclause (i), unless such merger effects one or more of the changes specified in subparagraph (b)(6) of section 806 (Provisions as to certain proceedings) in the rights of the shares held by such shareholder; or

(iii) Notwithstanding subclause (ii) of this clause, to a shareholder for the shares of any class or series of stock, which shares or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of shareholders to vote upon the plan of merger or consolidation, were listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

(B) Any sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation which requires shareholder approval under section 909 (Sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets) other than a transaction wholly for cash where the shareholders' approval thereof is conditioned upon the dissolution of the corporation and the distribution of substantially all of its net assets to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of such transaction.

(C) Any share exchange authorized by section 913 in which the corporation is participating as a subject corporation; except that the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares shall not be available to a shareholder whose shares have not been acquired in the exchange or to

This right of indemnification shall include the right of a director or officer to receive payment from the Corporation for expenses incurred in defending or appealing any such action or proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided that the payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of an action or proceeding shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately that the director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified. The preceding right of indemnification shall be a contract right enforceable by the director or officer with respect to any claim, cause of action, action or proceeding accruing or arising while this Bylaw shall be in effect.

(b) If a quorum under clause (a) is not obtainable, (i) by the Board upon the opinion in writing of independent legal counsel that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because there has been no such judgement or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer, or (ii) by the shareholders upon a finding that there has been no such judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer.

Section 503 - Right of Claimant to Bring Suit

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement; (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be a bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the small business issuer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of, and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
