Item 8.01. Other Events

On December 16, 2013, First Data Corporation (the Company) issued a press release to announce that it intends to offer $500 million aggregate principal amount of its 11.75% senior subordinated notes due 2021 (the notes). The notes are expected to be treated as a single series with, and will have the same terms as those of, $750 million aggregate principal amount of the existing 11.75% senior subordinated notes due 2021 previously issued by the Company on May 30, 2013 and $1 billion aggregate principal amount of the existing 11.75% senior subordinated notes due 2021 previously issued by the Company on November 19, 2013 (collectively, the existing 11.75% notes), except that the notes will be subject to a separate registration rights agreement and will be issued initially under CUSIP numbers different from the existing 11.75% notes that are exchanged in a registered exchange offer we intend to effect. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Subsequently, on December 16, 2013, the Company increased the offering size of the notes to an aggregate principal amount of $725 million. The notes will be issued at 103.5%.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the offering of the notes, together with cash on hand, to (i) redeem all of its outstanding 11.25% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2016 (the 11.25% Subordinated Notes) and (ii) pay related fees and expenses.

On December 16, 2013, the Company exercised its right under the indenture governing the 11.25% Subordinated Notes to optionally redeem all of its outstanding 11.25% Subordinated Notes. The 11.25% Subordinated Notes are currently redeemable at a price of 100.000% of the aggregate principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest. This Current Report does not constitute a notice of redemption of the 11.25% Subordinated Notes.
