Dear [name],

As you're aware, GTECH has announced its intent to acquire IGT, details of which can be found in our July 16 news release. This historic announcement means that we will be joining two iconic gaming companies that are leaders in their categories and have driven the growth and innovation of the gaming segment since their beginnings.

As a larger organization with a broader portfolio of businesses and products, we will have a greater ability to serve you. Once completed, this transaction will benefit you in a number of ways:

- You will have access to best-in-class content. We will have a library of games that will far surpass any other company in the industry. That's critically important as we look to enhance the distribution of popular titles to new platforms and channels.
- You will be uniquely positioned to capitalize on the opportunities created by ongoing convergence across global gaming segments.
- We will have the kind of scale that can make a real difference in providing you with powerful and innovative revenue-generating gaming products driven by our industry-leading R&D efforts.
- We will have the ability to more efficiently manufacture gaming machines and other gaming equipment.

Edgar Filing: INTERNATIONAL GAME TECHNOLOGY - Form 425

- Both companies have long histories and extensive capabilities in systems; this transaction will enhance our systems offering.
- In the social gaming space, Double Down is leading the way in terms of being able to monetize play and expand the player base. It is also a very good way to test games for deployment in other channels and venues.

You may also be wondering how this will affect your business in the interim. We will continue to support our products and systems now and in the future. GTECH and IGT will continue to operate as separate companies until the deal closes, which we expect to happen during the first half of 2015. We are legally obliged to continue to operate as independent companies and to compete separately for business before the merger is formally completed. Until that time, it is business as usual.

Rest assured that GTECH continues to make customer service its top priority. Meeting your needs will always be GTECH's main objective, now and on an ongoing basis after the merger.

We will do our best to keep you informed throughout the process, but if you have any questions in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

We value our relationship with you, and look forward to continuing to serve you well into the future.

Sincerely,

[Regional commercial leader]
