Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On April 5, 2017, PacWest Bancorp, a Delaware corporation (PacWest), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), with CU Bancorp, a California corporation (CUB), pursuant to which CUB will merge (the Merger) with and into PacWest, with PacWest as the surviving corporation. The Merger Agreement also provides that immediately after the Merger, California United Bank, a California state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of CUB, will merge (the Bank Merger) with and into Pacific Western Bank, a California state-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of PacWest (PWB), with PWB as the surviving bank.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each outstanding CUB common share, no par value per share (CUB Common Share), excluding certain specified shares including dissenting shares, will be converted into the right to receive (i) $12.00 in cash (the Cash Consideration) and (ii) 0.5308 (the Exchange Ratio) of a share of PacWest common stock, par value $0.01 per share (PacWest Common Stock), subject to adjustment in certain circumstances as set forth below (the Stock Consideration , and together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration).

The Merger Agreement also provides for the repurchase prior to closing of the Merger (the Preferred Stock Purchase) from the United States Department of the Treasury (the Treasury Department) of all of the Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, no par value per share, of CUB (the Series A Preferred Stock). Following the Preferred Stock Purchase, all of the Series A Preferred Stock will be cancelled and will not receive any consideration in connection with the Merger.

In addition, as a result of the Merger, at the effective time of the Merger (i) each outstanding option to acquire CUB Common Shares, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled and will be cashed out based on the sum of the Cash Consideration and the value of the Stock Consideration over the exercise price per CUB Common Share subject to such option (less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment), (ii) each outstanding CUB restricted stock award will become fully vested and will be exchanged for the Merger Consideration (less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting), and (iii) each outstanding CUB restricted stock unit will become fully vested and will be exchanged for the Merger Consideration (less applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting).

PacWest and CUB have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement for a transaction of this nature. Subject to certain exceptions, each of CUB and PacWest have agreed, among other things, to covenants relating to (i) the conduct of PacWest and CUB's respective businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and (ii) the use of reasonable best efforts to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals. In addition,

CUB has agreed, among other things, to covenants relating to (x) obligations to facilitate CUB's shareholders' consideration of, and voting upon, the approval of the principal terms of the Merger Agreement and certain related matters as applicable, (y) the recommendations by the board of directors of CUB in favor of the approval by CUB's shareholders of the principal terms of the Merger Agreement and certain related matters as applicable and (z) non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative business combination transactions.

Completion of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including (i) approval by CUB's shareholders, (ii) the absence of any governmental order or law prohibiting the consummation of the Merger and (iii) effectiveness of the registration statement for the PacWest Common Stock to be issued as consideration in the Merger. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon (a) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (b) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, (c) receipt by each party of a tax opinion to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and (d) the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to the other party since the date of the Merger Agreement. The obligation of PacWest to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon (w) the adjusted shareholders' equity of CUB and CUB's allowance for loan losses being in excess of specified levels, (x) the receipt of required regulatory approvals and such approvals not containing materially burdensome regulatory conditions, (y) the holders of not more than ten percent of the outstanding CUB Common Shares having duly exercised their dissenters' rights under California law and (z) the consummation of the Preferred Stock Purchase. The obligation of CUB to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the receipt of certain required regulatory approvals.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both PacWest and CUB, including if (i) the Merger is not consummated by February 28, 2018 (as it may be extended to April 30, 2018 under certain circumstances, the End Date), (ii) the necessary regulatory approvals are not obtained, (iii) the approval of CUB's shareholders is not obtained, or (iv) there has been a breach by the other party that is not cured such that the applicable closing conditions are not satisfied. In addition, in certain circumstances, PacWest may terminate the Merger Agreement prior to CUB's shareholder approval of the Merger in the event that (A) CUB materially breaches its non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative business combination transactions, (B) CUB's board withdraws or adversely modifies its recommendation to shareholders or fails to affirm its recommendation within the required time period after an acquisition proposal is made or (C) CUB's board recommends a tender offer or fails to recommend against such tender offer within ten business days after commencement. The Merger Agreement also provides that CUB will be obligated to pay a termination fee of $26.5 million to PacWest if the Merger Agreement (i) is terminated by PacWest in the circumstances described in the preceding sentence or (ii) (A) if an acquisition proposal is made to CUB or to its shareholders publicly, (B) the Merger Agreement is terminated for failure to consummate the Merger by the End Date without the approval of CUB's shareholders being obtained or for failure to obtain the approval of CUB's shareholders and (C) CUB enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates certain acquisition proposals within 12 months of termination of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by CUB in the event that (i) the volume weighted average price of shares of PacWest Common Stock quoted on NASDAQ for the Determination Period (as defined below) (the PacWest Average Closing Price) is less than $44.84 per share and (ii) the PacWest Average Closing Price for the Determination Period underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by greater than 15%. If CUB exercises its termination right described in the preceding sentence, PacWest will have the option of reinstating the Merger and, in its sole discretion, either adjusting the Exchange Ratio or adding cash to the per share Cash Consideration, determined in accordance with the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement defines Determination Period as the period beginning on the day that is twenty (20) consecutive trading days prior to the fifth (5th) business day immediately prior to the closing date of the Merger (the Determination Date) and ending on the Determination Date

The Merger Agreement and the above description of the Merger Agreement have been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement and the above description are not intended to provide any other factual information about PacWest, CUB, or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made by each contracting party to the other for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between them rather than establishing these matters as facts and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of PacWest, CUB or any of their respective subsidiaries, affiliates or businesses. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by PacWest or CUB. Accordingly, investors should read the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement not in isolation but only in conjunction with the other information about PacWest or CUB and their respective subsidiaries that the respective companies include in reports, statements and other filings they make with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).

Voting Agreements

PacWest also entered into voting agreements with each of the directors of CUB, as shareholders of CUB. The voting agreements generally require such shareholders to vote all of their CUB Common Shares in favor of the approval of the principal terms of the Merger Agreement and certain related matters as applicable and against alternative transactions and generally prohibit them from transferring their shares, subject to certain exceptions. The voting agreements will terminate in certain circumstances, including upon the consummation of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

Non-Solicitation Agreements

PacWest also entered into non-solicitation agreements with each director of CUB in connection with the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which such directors are subject to certain customary non-solicitation restrictions.

Consulting Agreements

In connection with the Merger Agreement, PacWest entered into consulting agreements with, among others, David I. Rainer, the chairman and chief executive officer of CUB, and K. Brian Horton, director and president of CUB, whereby PacWest will retain Mr. Rainer and Mr. Horton as consultants to perform certain transitional services for PacWest beginning on the first business day following the closing of the Merger and ending on the earlier of (A)(1) the four year anniversary of the closing of the Merger, in the case of Mr. Rainer, or (2) the two year anniversary of the closing of the Merger, in the case of Mr. Horton, or (B) the termination of such consulting agreement pursuant to the terms therein. The effectiveness of the consulting agreements is conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement, the voting agreements and the non-solicitation agreements do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the respective agreements attached hereto as Exhibits 2.1, 99.1, and 99.2, respectively, which are incorporated by reference herein.
